Report for July 02, 2017 to July 02, 2018

Dear Tracey,

Thank you for ordering your Year Ahead report, which I hope will help you to understand the harmony between yourself and the universe and enable you to initiate the changes you want in life.

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

During the course of your 58th year there is the sense that life has come full circle. Ambition has served its purpose, and you can look back on a series of achievements that have crowned your professional life. Now, with the wisdom of years, you realize that there is little sense in driving upwards and onwards to satisfy ambitions... what would be the point? The question is: what can you take from your current professional status to work on and continue to develop? Or has the time come to bow out from the rat race, wind down, and maximize your life quality in the last phase of your life? You cannot build your future on the framework of the past – you can either build a new framework, if you have the willpower and energy, or allow the old one to dissolve. You still have the chance to define what is uniquely you. Challenges now have a lot to do with your motivation to attain a position of authority in society. Many setbacks pave the path to success, and as the years go by more responsibility is placed on your shoulders. From being sensitive or even resentful of authorities, you learn what it means to protect the institutions that make civil society a blessing. These challenges have a lot to do with a latent insecurity that you feel in relationships, that inclines you to cement bonds to people who you ultimately feel dominate and restrict you. With time you learn to assume more responsibility yourself and stop projecting authoritarianism on others. Commitment to mature partners turns out to be a valid route for personal growth. There is nothing to prove, but if you allow yourself to be guided by your ultimate life purpose, there can still be mountains to conquer in the years ahead.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period the major challenges lie in your working life, which probably needs to be made more efficient through streamlining working methods and improving interaction with colleagues. Health-wise too, this is an excellent time for working on self-improvement. This influence started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. You will probably encounter considerable frustration in your dealings with people in the working environment, and this process is designed to enhance your ability to compromise and to fit in for the good of the whole. To be happy at work now you need to work hard and have a plan. You do not have to have a subordinate role, if you are willing to shoulder responsibility. But you do not have to stick at a job which is beneath you either. Establish your credentials, work hard and advance.

In this period of your life there is a transition in your dealings with people, as you move from interacting with people on a practical level in connection with your work and daily life, to actually learning how to deal with partners on a one to one basis. This new influence starts growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. It is the beginning of an outgoing epoch in your life; the big test comes in how you live up to partnership responsibilities. There are major challenges, demands are made on you, and you have to on the one hand resist giving others the blame for your issues, whilst on the other you need to establish limits to what you are prepared to accept in a relationship. You have to work at partnership now and make a commitment, though it is no use expending any more time on hopeless relationships. What you start now can last a long time.

Opportunities for Success

Having developed your education and communication skills, and widened your network of contacts through travel, there is an urge to expand your influence and potential on the home front between September - 2016 and October - 2017. This brings insight and good fortune connected with property and family. At this time you broaden your emotional foundations, partly because you gain understanding of the influence of your upbringing, and partly because you are curious to learn more about how to create a nurturing and stimulating environment for yourself and those near to you.

After having built up comfortable circumstances in your domestic life, what is important for you between October - 2017 and November - 2018 is to appreciate the fruits of having a satisfying base, so that you can express yourself through creative activity and enjoy the art of living. Expansion and satisfaction come from living life to the full - through sport, festivity, love, children and romance. This is the time to fully be yourself without reservations or doubt. Larger than life characters will show you how through encouraging you to celebrate existence.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 58. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- There are many changes in your social life and relationships, as you seek more excitement, space and freedom. Involvement in fringe groups brings consciousness growth. Encounters with people from radically different cultures bring new methods of relating.
- A new twelve year cycle starts in which you reaffirm or readjust the meaning and direction of your life. This is the time to tune in to your full potential as an individual and to define a moral and spiritual mission that will inspire you in the years ahead.
- You are challenged to become more self reliant, both in your love life and in regard to your economy. Romantic illusions founder on the rocks of reality, but this can be a healthy process which ultimately can provide the conditions for stability in relationships.
