THE ESSENTIAL YEAR REPORT...

At the turn of the 21st century, there were 6 billion people on Earth. No two of them were born on the exact date, time and place - everyone has a unique horoscope. This horoscope reflects personal characteristics that the individual has chosen to work with in this life. He or she meets parents, brothers and sisters, friends, teachers and finally partners, who evoke an evolutionary development for the soul.

Each individual has then a unique life that can be mapped astrologically according to the planetary movements after birth. World of Wisdom's Essential Year Report synthesizes three astrological methods to map the life journey of the individual:

- Progressions, which reflect a personal evolutionary, or karmic pattern present at birth
- Transits, which reflect collective trends that evoke specific behavior in the individual
- Solar Returns, which are horoscopes calculated for each birthday, showing what happens to the individual on the year in question. (For unknown birth times and yearly horoscopes starting on days other than your birthday, another astrological technique - horary - is used.)

This synthesis is complex. With 12 signs, 12 houses and 10 planets (with Sun and Moon) there are 1440 simple combinations. When the connection between planets are taken into consideration (aspects) and then transits and progressions, there are several hundred thousand combinations. Essential Year Report works on several thousand of these, the rest needs to be filled in with your memory and creative visualization.

This reading describes your own evolutionary journey. To understand it fully you need to understand the talents and challenges that the planetary positions at birth represent. The first part of every section of Essential Year Report explains therefore what you can expect in life based on who you are as a person. It is crucial to realize that what happens during the course of the life is constrained by these personal factors. If your love-life promises great happiness, then later trends will trigger this potential... and vice versa.

If you wish to know more in detail about your personal character and how to get the most out of your life, then our Birth Horoscope Interpreter will go into this deeply. The Essential Year Report is designed to map out the timing of events and the fulfillment of your destiny.

INTRODUCTION

During the course of your 28th year, there is the sense that you have achieved a lot, been through a lot, yet the answers are not to be found in these achievements and experiences. It is difficult to hold on to the structures you have created, and you are not even sure you want to. You may ask yourself just how much you have been conditioned to go along the path you have taken, and you may feel that some of the steam has gone out of the machine. A positive transformation is called for at this time, and it is wise to take a hard look at what it is in your life you are tired of, and eliminate it. This can be quite an exhausting psychological process, and there is a tendency to go to emotional extremes. Some anxieties are connected with a generational influence that relates to a range of taboo subjects, not least sexuality. At this time you may wish to examine emotional or sexual habits that may be too extreme or manipulative. More specifically you become aware of factors in your life that have uprooted you or undermined domestic security. By investigating your heritage you may discover buried influences that prevent you putting down roots.

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life you are focused on developing your creative skills and displaying the fruit of hard-working efforts to express yourself. This influence started growing around December - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2018. Overcoming reticence and concern about whether what you produce is good enough is a major issue. There is considerable sensitivity about everything which is a reflection of who you are – your children, your love life and your ability to shine in social gatherings. In brief your ability to enjoy the art of living. If you cannot achieve spontaneity and be carefree, do not worry. What is needed is committed application to activities that interest you. Repeated failure always paves the way to success if you cultivate the virtue of perseverance.

Once you have learned how to capitalize on your unique resources and gain confidence and self-assurance, you need to reach out to others between September - 2016 to October - 2017. This leads to travel and an expansion of your skills educationally. This is a great year to widen your network of contacts. Through increased communication on all levels, you learn how to make sure-footed progress.

Having developed your education and communication skills, and widened your network of contacts through travel, there is an urge to expand your influence and potential on the home front between October - 2017 and December - 2018. This brings insight and good fortune connected with property and family. At this time you broaden your emotional foundations, partly because you gain understanding of the influence of your upbringing, and partly because you are curious to learn more about how to create a nurturing and stimulating environment for yourself and those near to you.

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 28. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- A fortunate period begins in your domestic life, signaled by happy events in the family or a move to more spacious accommodation. You now have the surplus emotional energy to provide shelter for those dear to you.
- Challenges arise which at first powerfully affect your self confidence, as successes are few and far between and recognition and respect lacking. By working on building your character and patiently shouldering responsibility, you establish a position of confidence.
- You enter a mentally competitive period that brings increased educational activity and travel. You are eager to learn new things and willing to take risks in the process. You move faster and more decisively, and are not afraid to say exactly what you think.

These along with other influences will be examined later in the report.

Life Path

INSIGHTS AND EXPANSION IN YOUR LIFE

There are many spheres of human activity which are active at any one time, but each year there will be a focus on a particular area of your life that will absorb you more than anything else, and be at the center of the events of that year.

The theme at the age of 28 is to create a strong sense of identity through self-expression and the projection of your identity onto the world stage. You are willing to take a greater risk to gain recognition and acceptance, and invest more energy and charm in developing and expressing personal charisma. This in turn paves the way for creative breakthroughs or important romantic experiences which bring a celebratory quality to the months ahead.

This theme awakens your romantic and loving sides, and also your need to attract love and affection from others. There is a special focus on your aesthetic tastes, and your need to both earn and spend money to indulge them.

Expressing the essence of yourself and projecting your personality with warmth and charisma is high on the agenda in the year ahead.

You make choices at this time based on instincts and emotions. Guided by gut feeling you embark on projects that nurture those close to your heart, building up supportive structures for intimacy and growth. Home and family figure strongly in your calculations, and developments in this area bring stronger bonding and emotional growth.

You will find that the focus of this influence is greatly apparent in your relationships to groups, friends and associations. Many events will take place in this area, and you will be called upon to play a central role in them. Friends you make in the year ahead and groups that you get involved with will form the backdrop of your activities during the year.

You are empowered by the following.

You are able to apply everything you have learned and all your ingenuity to this. Your chief assets are your ability to sell your ideas, to network, and to communicate... and a willing bunch of helpers. You are constantly on the move, and your mind works at a high gear.

Your thoughts are absorbed by developments in your social life and interaction with friends during the course of the year.

You work furiously and competitively to get ahead with your agenda, but tend to run into opposition through being too forceful or impatient. You may employ someone who fights some of the battles for you, and as a team you conquer the territory ahead of you.

This affects your social standing and relations with friends, which is a rather troubled area this year.

Certain challenges arise.

You may have to confront a pain threshold in the pursuit of your agenda, or there may be an uncomfortable sense that you are beyond the pale. There are distractions and you may have to attend to the wounded.

This is connected with something that has always been painful in your life, for example psychologically and erotically.

There are unique opportunities and challenges affecting you personally right now, which can result in significant lifestyle and relationship changes or modifications. If you would like to see your life going in a different direction, now is the time to take the reins and choose a path which is uniquely suited to you, as described by the influences below.

Opportunities with a price

Matters come up in your personal life right now, which challenge you to take a stance connected with what you consider to be right and acceptable, and what you consider to be wrong and unacceptable. This is particularly strong in the period from October 2017 to September 2018. This can be an exciting and exhilarating time, and you will certainly learn a lot and gain wisdom, but there are moral issues that affect you and your relationships, and your judgment may not always be right. Your appetite for life is strong, and you convince yourself that life must be lived to the full. You are likely to travel more or meet cosmopolitan people who have considerable influence on your thinking.

There are times in your life when it is not enough to simply register and adjust to influences that come from the outer world. Sometimes the time comes to change the actual framework of your life. Perhaps this means adopting a new lifestyle or appearance. Perhaps the time has come to redefine who you are through who you choose to live with. The following influence shows a unique opportunity to move your life into another gear.

Last year the following influence peaked, but it still has a very important effect at the age of 28. You are still digesting the changes in this area, and beginning to integrate them in your life.

Recognition and success

If your birth time is precise then a wonderful window of opportunity arises in the months around January 2017 which will enable your character to shine through and impress influential people. This is a time of guaranteed success as regards relationships and self-realization, which can manifest through educational recognition, love, children and exhilarating family events, widening of horizons and professional success. Your most noble qualities are awakened and you automatically rise in the esteem of others. As you generally feel good about yourself now, and have evidence to prove that you are appreciated, you have no difficulty attracting others towards your center of gravity. You can form a relationship with someone who you admire and respect now, and who brings out the best in you. This is an excellent time for self-promotion and creative projects where you project yourself onto center stage.

A need to be a central figure in groups and play a leadership role in society is a major factor in your life, and this influence will affect the role groups and friendships play in your life.

Last year the following influence peaked, but it still has a very important effect at the age of 28. You are still digesting the changes in this area, and beginning to integrate them in your life.

Cradled by life

If your birth time is precise then fruitful opportunities arise in the months around May 2017 bringing happy emotional events connected with children, home and family, as well as in all spheres of your life connected with comfort and security. Moves and relocations at this time will be very fortunate and enhance family cohesion. Bonds are forged with loving and caring people who are motivated to nurture you. Children are lovingly raised, mothers come into their own, and your capacity for helping people grow is powerfully evoked. You get the home you want and are able to put down roots. Kitchen and garden satisfy body and soul. On a deeper level you tune in to your soul and understand what an important role family conditioning has played in your life. It is at this time that you discover a capacity for understanding what moves in the collective soul, and you can have success providing for the needs of the public in some way.

As you are always hungry for knowledge and for exploring your local environment and relationships, this influence makes you more aware of your emotional need for mental connection and fulfillment.

This initial section of the report is connected with your lifestyle and direction, and the factors described above modify this direction as you respond to outside influences and your own inner evolutionary process. Of these factors the most significant during the age of 28 are:

- This is an exhilarating time when opportunities for personal growth and meetings with influential people bring a tendency to be over-optimistic or to overreach yourself.
- a time when self-confidence peaks and you are able to attract success into your life, both in terms of relationships and personal creativity.
- a time of greatly enhanced comfort and security when you forge deep emotional bonds to home and family, and nurture others unconditionally.
- a time of creative expression and extrovert behavior, when you project your identity onto the stage and make an impression.

Career

SHOULDERING PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY

Every year there is a particular focus on your goals and ambitions, and a need to reformulate your mission in life and what you want to achieve. It is equally important to have a good foundation to build your successes on in terms of home and family.

A major theme as regards career during the age of 28 is concerned with the consolidation of your professional position. You need to nurture your resources, pursuing a grounded policy of careful conservation of what you have. It is an excellent time for money making, especially though finance, food and property.

This theme activates a deep-seated anxiety about power and powerlessness in connection with both professional and family authorities. You tend to act irrationally because of this, but if you can gain greater psychological insight, you may be able to assert more personal power.

You are motivated to create career stability and consolidate your financial situation, and this you will do in a specific fashion and in a specific area.

You proceed in a relaxed manner, and slowly but surely seek to build on existing foundations to create stable circumstances for the future. You want to seek your efforts rewarded financially in the long term.

The main focus is on dealings with fellow professionals and taking on leadership responsibilities. This is a time when success is in your grasp; all you have to do is accept the mantle of power and wield your authority.

Some factors help.

One very positive factor that helps you achieve your professional agenda is the intensity and commitment that you invest into your goals. If one strategy does not work, you throw it out, and you are prepared to cut to the bone and create radical transformation. Your therapeutic abilities help you deal with hidden issues in people.

This specifically activates a need to transform your working life, clearing up issues with colleagues that may have been psychologically oppressive.

One very positive factor that helps you achieve your professional agenda is that you are able to create an intimate and caring atmosphere which provides the best conditions for both security and growth. It is as if it is in the family... the traditions are observed.

This awakens feelings centered on your inner life and the need you have to resolve issues alone in seclusion.

Challenges and opportunities arise at this time which can bring major changes or adjustments in both your career and your domestic life. The influences described below can bring concrete change, enabling you to live and work on a new level.

Professional expansion and consolidation

In the period from March 2017 to December 2018 there are excellent conditions for growth if you are prepared to work hard and shoulder more responsibility. On the home front this is a time to establish foundations and build a strong framework for the family, even if challenges loom large for a while. In your career people in authority are willing to give you their support in return for your commitment. This is also a good time for you to consolidate your own status and gain recognition for the effort you have put in. By keeping up the good work a convergence of quite good fortune strengthens your position and it is now you can reap the benefits of earlier commitment.

The career section of this report explains influences in the current year that can cause you to adapt or change professional goals, and make use of opportunities that come your way. Overall, in the area of family and career the major developments you can expect are:

- a time when things fall into place both at home and in your career. There is still hard work to do, but the benefits of past efforts now become apparent.
- a time when you can slowly but steadily increase your resources through consolidation and investment.

Personal development

MATURING THROUGH RESPONSIBILITY

During the course of the year you will have a number of character-building experiences, which help you grow and develop as an individual. It is rare for any difficulty to last longer than a period of about eight months, and if you regard challenges that arise as a test that helps you become stronger, then it will be relatively easy for you to overcome them. Similarly, when events boost your confidence, it is pays to take advantage of the limited time available to capitalize on your good fortune.

With your sun in your birth chart in Cancer and in the 11th House this relates to your need to feel a sense of belonging and make emotional bonds, in connection with your social alliances and status, and your friends.

An important feature around the age of 28 is an expansion of your influence socially. You attract loyal followers into your orbit, and they are willing to promote you as someone who represents them. This is an excellent time for working with groups and taking a leadership role, and you learn a lot about who you are through the people you associate with now. You feel the need to put your personal stamp on the circles you frequent and become a team leader. You are not afraid to propose radical and original ideas to create change.

You are empowered by the following.

This is a time when mental focus is important. This means developing your network of contacts, training your skills, educating yourself and generally being on the move. There may be a symbiosis with someone with whom you closely share your ideas and thoughts. Yet clarity is difficult to establish; stress levels are high and you tend to burn your fingers because there are too many irons in the fire. You seem unable to maintain objectivity, and plunge in blindly.

This is a time when you are consumed by energy and enthusiasm and ready to rush in with guns blazing to achieve your aims. You may work closely with an executive troubleshooter and strive to achieve goals in tandem. You have the power to mow down the opposition, but you are burning the candle at both ends, and this can easily lead to meltdown. You are prepared to take great risks and fight great battles. You have the courage to win, but can invite more trouble than you can handle.

Certain key influences will present challenges and opportunities to you now as regards your development as an individual. Below you will find effects described, which you will feel more or less powerfully, evoking actions that enable you to stamp your signature on events.

Test of confidence

The focus is on you, your character and your capabilities now... and challenges abound. You cannot rest on your laurels or expect achievements of the past to be a yardstick for the future. This is a time when you have to earn your status through hard work and commitment, because only through delivering what you are capable of over a period of time, and against considerable odds, can you prove your mettle and win approval – both from yourself and others. You may well find that authority figures and institutions do not make things easier for you, but it is no use blindly banging your head against a brick wall, you just need to skillfully apply yourself until a breakthrough takes place. This period of testing and confidence building will last from March 2017 to December 2018 and, although your faith in yourself will be initially undermined, when you overcome the challenges, you will appreciate the strength and resilience that has been evoked in you.

Insight brings influence and success

It is at this time that your insight and understanding peak to bring a sense of meaningfulness and personal satisfaction in life. Travel and intellectual development stimulate your confidence in your self and your abilities, and this has a snowball effect in creating success. You have the good fortune to meet wise people, or mentors, who can guide you into new areas of knowledge and understanding. This is the time to capitalize on your assets – a calculated expansion now will surely bring good results, especially in the period from September 2017 to July 2018. Your optimism is infectious in this period, and people seek you out to enjoy both your humor and your insights. Spiritual interests are also favored as a deeper understanding of the meaning and direction of your life dawns.

The personal development section of this report shows influences directly affecting your character, bringing both challenges and personal growth. Of these influences the most crucial are:

- a time when challenges initially undermine your confidence, but as you apply yourself over time you win through and establish self-respect.
- a time when insight into your identity brings influence and success. Mentors help you expand your understanding and travel widens your horizons.

Feelings and security

EXPANSION OF EMOTIONAL INSIGHT

You are in an ongoing process of emotional development, and the focus is constantly changing. As your unconscious mind absorbs impressions during the different phases of your life, you integrate greater depth and understanding of yourself and your relationships. There are specific areas of your life where this influence has a particular significance.

With your moon in your birth chart in Scorpio and in the 3rd House this relates to your need to live an emotionally intense life, and the network of contacts in your daily life will reflect how important it is for you to reach out to others.

Emotionally the age of 28 can be said to reflect a time when you identify strongly with your home and family. You actively focus on fulfilling the needs of those who are dependant on you, nurturing and protecting them. Anything that threatens family comfort and security can make you tetchy and vulnerable, and you are more sensitive than usual.

One of the main areas where this influence will be felt is in your private, inner life. In a sense you cultivate a sense of aloneness, perhaps because you need to resolve spiritual questions that other people would not understand. There is something universal about the suffering you encounter this year, and this evokes compassion.

One thing that affords considerable satisfaction for you now is the sense that you are able to draw on people and environments that have been an important part of your past, and with their support reach out to create new alliances which will prove even more conducive to your emotional development.

You are empowered by the following.

There is great dynamism and activity, but you are emotionally on edge and your temper short. There is a fierce protectiveness in connection with the family, and you are willing to take risks to establish a better domestic situation... which can result in fraught nerves. Family rivalry can make you feel vulnerable.

Certain challenges arise.

Emotionally this is a time of crisis and pressure as long-buried issues come to the surface and undermine your security. Some kind of therapy or catharsis is necessary to free you of unhealthy bonds to the past. The time has come to eliminate attachment to people and things that are no longer of help.

In the current period you are challenged to have faith in your vision of the future, even if the family is attached to the security of past habits. Questions of principle are discussed and ingrained habits from the past examined in the light of the intellect.

This will be expressed in areas connected with education, communication and travel where there will be good fortune and an expansion of activity.

Some factors help.

There is an enhanced sensitivity right now, which could mean you give higher priority to creative and spiritual interests than to more traditional duties. A longing for something meaningful and deep evokes a discontent with the status quo and brings a search for another kind of satisfaction.

This activates a need to negotiate complex emotions connected with sharing, and find a deeper spiritual meaning in your sexual life.

Whilst you are still in a very domesticated period, with your emotional energy focused on your family, child-rearing or home building, there is a change of emphasis around June 2018. At this time there is an urge to let the family look after its own problems and to make more of a celebratory splash. In other words you want to express yourself more creatively, and evoke creative behavior in others dear to you, like children. This is a time when you are inclined to romance, with everything romance brings... more sex, partying, music, dance and play. You need to learn to live life to the full as a well-rounded human being, and build up greater confidence in your performance.

The influences described below will have an even more profound effect on your emotional life, awakening a powerful and often unconscious response. Ultimately this brings insight into your early conditioning and enables you to modify the way you instinctively react.

Expansion in the home

A twelve year cycle starts around the period from September 2017 to August 2018 – assuming your birth time is reasonably correct – when good fortune on the home front brings a happy time in the family and a sense that you can enjoy and appreciate the ground on which you stand. On the one hand this can be connected with happy developments in the extended family, whilst on the other it springs from an inner emotional satisfaction based on a deeper understanding of your heritage. This is an excellent time for moving to larger property which gives more space and freedom, or for expanding already existing premises. This is also a fine time for travel and residence abroad.

Pregnant with potential

Once every twelve years you experience a stroke of good fortune in connection with your home and family life and the period from September 2017 to August 2018 is such a time. Fortunate trends converge that lead to an expansion in your home life; you could move to a larger home, get children or simply experience joy and happiness connected with your environment. Emotions swell and fill your heart; you have so much to give. You may also travel at this time – the world is your oyster and you find a welcome in every location. Perhaps you have to avoid overdoing things... emotionally at least there can be a lack of perspective and a tendency to be gushing and sentimental. Nevertheless, not much can go wrong now, at least in your family life, and the world feels pregnant with possibility.

Overcoming immaturity

The period from March 2017 to December 2018 is not a time when you feel particularly comfortable or secure, but you are willing to lift responsibility for the sake of others and to be there when you are needed. This is a test of your maturity and ability to be self-sufficient rather than dependant. The family will lean on you now, and you will be a rock. In dealing with your own personal emotions, this is a time to be strong and self-contained rather than expressing your feelings for all to see. Emotions come and go, as do trials in life, and the strong individual weathers ups and downs with equanimity. You can build up strong foundations in your home now; all this requires is hard work and determination. This is a period when you grow up and conquer immaturity.

This section maps out the timing and intensity of influences in your life that absorb your interest on a daily level, profoundly affecting everything, from your work to your family life. These influences constitute your emotional growth during the course of the year, and the main themes are:

- a time of good luck and happiness in your family life, when you gain a deep appreciation of your heritage and roots.
- a time when good fortune comes your way in connection with home and family, bring space and expansion into your life.
- a time when you cultivate self-reliance and work hard to build a mature emotional life, which enables you to provide a shoulder for others to lean on.
- a time when family priorities start to recede as you emerge from the nest to make a greater impact with your personality.

Mental Development

BOOST OF SKILLS AND EXPANSION OF MENTAL INFLUENCE

Gaining skills through education and other forms of training is a major ingredient for success, both professionally and in relationships. Through developing your communication talents you can make contacts and build networks which facilitate progress.

With Mercury in your birth chart in Gemini and in the 11th House this relates to your effervescent and insatiably curious thought processes, which involve you in a very active social life, with many friends and shared interests.

During the age of 28 your mental focus is on intuitive processes and actively using your imaginative power. thoughts dwell on close emotional bonds and family matters, and you develop listening skills and a warm empathy for others.

Your mental abilities are channeled into your social life, and during the course of the year you will engage with a wide range of people and groups. It is all about learning and relating in a group environment and making the most of professional resources. Dealings with young people are on the agenda.

Thoughts tend to get muddled by those old dreams and expectations from your past. To avoid confrontation you hide behind a smokescreen and conceal what you are really thinking about. You avoid the truth, and in turn you can be lied to.

You are empowered by the following.

This is a year when you fight for your opinions and are extremely competitive mentally. This combative attitude can lead to discussion and disagreement, particularly with family members, but it may be necessary for you to learn how to argue for what is important. When traveling there are more hassles than usual. You are in a hurry.

Certain challenges arise.

There are many disagreements in principle, and you tend to run into discussions with people who profess to know better. Whilst this means that you learn a lot and gain a better overview, you are very keen to prove your intellectual capabilities. Don't waste too much energy trying to prove that you are right.

The influences described below will bring additional opportunities and challenges in the field of communication. By rising to educational challenges and improving communication skills, you can add to your skills and capabilities.

Expansion of contacts and mental skills

The period from October 2016 to October 2017 is a time of success for you in all your mental endeavors, and this is a major contributing factor to personal happiness and satisfaction. Travel is favored, and brings extraordinary pleasures. Great teachers appear and expand the boundaries of your understanding. You make progress in leaps and bounds. Anything to do with foreign cultures and languages is crowned with success. Your knowledge base and intellectual understanding peak, and people are eager to hear what you have learned. Relationships with people of like mind, and true partnerships, are favored at this time, with agreement easily being reached on a shared agenda.

Your mental evolution is a product of the people you encounter during your life, who evoke certain qualities in you, as well as your contact with institutions of learning and educational media. The lessons you learn give depth and breadth to your personal message to the world. This year new opportunities arise.

Discovering the power of the mind

A period of great mental activity ensues around August 2017. This is a time of both physical and mental exertion, when you learn to make rapid decisions. You learn many new things, and you learn them fast. Your ability to express yourself clearly is enhanced, and you cut to the quick in getting your message across. You say what has to be said frankly and bravely. Coordination improves and you are ready to take risks to get ahead. Transport matters become important. You need to get from place to place, and you are in a hurry. Basically you can expect a reasonable degree of good fortune in all your travel arrangements. Better modes of transport are discovered, and there is more efficiency and speed in getting around. This can be a sexually active period – you are more interested in being effective than moralistic, and you know just what to say to get what you want. This new-found energy translates itself into action across the whole spectrum, and many journeys will be made, and intellectual challenges welcomed. The desire to be clever and the desire to win are paramount.

As dealing with strong emotions connected with power, anger and sexuality is a feature of your life, this influence is likely to take place on an emotional battleground and bring new psychological insights.

The influences described in this section challenge you to develop intellectually, socially and in relation to others. Of all these influences, in terms of the enhancement and development of your mental skills the most significant will be:

- a time when you have the great good fortune to expand your sphere of interest through travel, a mentor, or study.
- a mental energy boost that invigorates you through activity and travel, bringing success through increased competitiveness.
- development of your ability to attune your thoughts to the emotions of others and show empathy.

Values, Love and Relationships

LONGING FOR IDEAL LOVE AND SPIRITUAL VALUES

Your need for relationship is very much dependant on your tastes, and early family experiences of bonding. These factors determine whether you feel attraction or not, or whether you are simply indifferent. People of similar tastes are instinctively attracted to you, as you are to them, and this is the basis of personal harmony in your relationships.

With Venus in your birth chart in Gemini and in the 11th House this relates to your need to have a mentally stimulating love-life , which you will express particularly in group environments and in your friendships.

In relationship matters you are interested in creating security and stability both on the economic and emotional front during the age of 28. You are not interested in romantic distractions; what moves you now is the need to value what you have got and to express your appreciation through dedication to a partner. Nothing gives you more satisfaction than creating comfortable surroundings and enjoying quality time together with another.

Business relations can be more important than romantic relationships during the course of the year, though if you are looking for love it could be found in a professional environment. You are likely to meet benefactors who can give you the resources you need to increase your career status. Parental expectations can play a primary role in relationship choices.

Love takes you on a journey during the course of the year, expanding your horizons both intellectually and through travel. This is an excellent time for cultural studies and for meeting mentors who may also be lovers. Exhilarating romantic experiences enable you to reach your full potential, evoking a generosity of spirit in you that in turn attracts riches – both materially and in terms of relationships.

Some factors help.

You seek depth and intense erotic contact in relationships now and are not prepared to accept superficiality. As you strive to familiarize yourself with the psychological factors behind attraction, you can create a transformation in both your life and the life of loved ones. Relationships that you value will be revitalized, relationships that you don't will be discarded.

There are other major changes affecting relationships and values at this time, and the influences described below will bring opportunities to modify your need for others, and ultimately develop better ways of relating authentically.

Awakening longing

This is a period when many of your relationships undergo subtle change as you strive to realize an inner longing for love and meaningfulness. If you are dissatisfied with current relationships, or simply single, then romantic meetings at this time seem to fulfill your dreams and ideals, but should expectations be unrealistic you will be disappointed. Love at this time opens your heart and dissolves blockages in what is a healing process whatever the outcome of the actual relationship. In reality no one person can satisfy the deep need to merge with something greater that you can feel in this period, but spiritual and artistic pursuits can. This period of romantic confusion stems from a trend that lasts from March 2017 to December 2020 and it ultimately enriches your soul. It can also be that there is some form of sadness in partnership matters, and that this awakens a deep compassion within you. Sometimes there are trends in relationships that you have no control of, but simply have to be accepted. Economically too, there can be circumstances that cannot be controlled.

Good fortune in love

There is a period of success for you both as regards your economy and your relationships from October 2016 to September 2017, and this brings a blossoming of confidence about your attractiveness and value as a person. If you are looking for romance, you will surely find it – especially if you travel to a romantic place. This is a good time for relationships with people from cultures you admire. You are particularly attracted to wise and cultured people who can teach you something. Generally you can afford to expand, spend more and really appreciate what life has to offer. Now is the time to both harvest and enjoy the fruits of efforts that you have made in the past, and to generously share your good fortune with those you love.

Quite apart from the specific changes that come at the age of 28, you now reach a stage in the process of your evolution in terms of relationship that enables you to integrate new values in your life through encounters with individuals or groups where you form a bond of one sort or another.

The heart is conquered

There are times when the power of attraction is irresistible; when the moth is drawn to the flame against the best of advice. The period around October 2017 is a classic period for attraction between the sexes, though there is very little guarantee of good behavior. Inappropriate signals are sent to inappropriate people, the loins are stirred, the passions are aroused. Perhaps being good is not all it is made out to be, perhaps people need to deliver themselves up to their instincts, and let the energy of desire flow through them. You will find that there is tension in existing relationships because of a diversion of interests and needs, yet sexual attraction can energize the relationship. Or you may find that the promise of love comes from a stranger who can entrance body and soul. But ultimately you must know that desire must be harnessed in the service of the soul to continually refine your being. There is a price for following your desires, but who says it is not worth paying? Business partnerships can go through stressful times now, not least because you are willing to make some rash financial moves.

The influences described in this section will all have a significant effect on the way you relate to the world. In terms of your material values and matters of love, the most important of all these influences will be:

- a time when you are moved by a deep longing within your heart. Disappointment or difficult circumstances in your love life awaken new dimensions of compassion.
- a time when you can enjoy the good life. Experiences with friends and lovers, especially when traveling or experiencing culture, boost your confidence and self-worth
- man and woman have disparate needs, but the laws of sexual attraction can bring them together.
- the desire to consolidate and enjoy the benefits of a stable relationship.

Sex, work, willpower and assertion

GOING FOR VICTORY

Nothing is achieved in life without the force and determination to go for what you want. There are battles to be won and obstacles to be overcome, and this means being able to assert yourself, and to mobilize your courage to face challenges and overcome resistance.

With Mars in your birth chart in Pisces and in the 8th House this relates to your need to work with the intangible, and turn your back on the world's competitiveness, and this manifests with a certain amount of fear of losing control and as erotic intensity in intimate relationships

As regards personal drive the age of 28 is a year when you are stirred by powerful emotions within connected with home and family. You are fiercely protective, but emotions tend to boil over and create domestic upsets. You fight for what is dear on a very instinctual level.

Your energy and will is channeled into friendships and groups, but it is precisely in this area that there is trouble, perhaps because you are willing to fight for your ideals. There can be upsetting arguments or disagreements that affect your social life, but it's worth sticking up for your principles.

This is a year when it can be difficult to work out what to do, and what is right to do. You are seduced by questionable desires, perhaps because of an inner dissatisfaction or lack of direction. Spiritual and creative interests can put you on track again.

Certain challenges arise.

You have to deal with power battles and psychological warfare, which can deplete your strength and challenge your will. You can show weakness when dealing with issues at a therapist, but don't in relation to the outer world. There are factors in relationships you cannot control – avoid obsessing.

You are not inclined to let others have their way with you, and you pursue your own agenda, beliefs and convictions. Whilst this can be a year of intellectual growth, insights are only won after a battle. Avoid foisting your beliefs on others or arguing about matters of personal principle.

Some factors help.

You are attracted by the allure of magic and escapism. You roam the imagination and are carried away on the ocean, perhaps literally through sea voyages, perhaps metaphorically on an inner spiritual journey aided, or not, by consciousness enhancing substances.

There are other powerful influences at this time, which bring both challenges to your autonomy and independence, and opportunities for leadership and self assertion. The influences described below bring out your survival abilities and evoke a fighting spirit that can ultimately empower you.

Believing you can do it

The period from November 2017 to November 2018 is a time when you are full of courage and enthusiasm, and even if there are delays and setbacks, you plunge on undeterred. There is the spirit of the pioneer infusing your being; you see the distant horizon and spur on your horse to reach it as soon as possible. With such an undaunted spirit, success comes easily for you, and nobody has any desire to stand in your way. You are convinced about what is right – for you and probably for others too. Neither are you afraid to use your persuasive powers to get what you want. This leads to an expansion of your influence and greater leadership prowess. The competitive spirit is aroused; physically this can bring an interest in travel and sports, intellectually you want to learn more, debate, and excel at what you do.

Transformation of will

This is a time when primeval forces are awakening within, leading to a transformation in the way you express your drives and desires. On a sexual level you get into touch with a potent erotic force, which may demand to be lived out in an intense and even obsessive relationship. Or you may wish to transform the way you express your sexuality, perhaps through an interest in tantra, sport or the martial arts. In your working life you tire of repetitive work that is connected with past goals and only serves to exhaust you, and you long to express your energy in a new and more intense way. You are discovering a new potential for power. This awakening of power spans the period from March 2016 to December 2020 and, although it may lead to conflict, you are able to access inexhaustible resources from within to accomplish the goal of change. If you start this period under the sway of someone else's will, you will end it by being fully in control of the situation personally.

The influences described in this section will bring changes in the way you strive for achievement. Of the many influences affecting your energy, sexuality and assertiveness this year the main areas to be aware of are:

- a time of excitement and adventure when you vigorously expand your horizons and have undaunted confidence in succeeding at what you do.
- a time when you access inexhaustible supplies of power from within and use it to empower your sexual life and transform your work situation.
- a time of fierce protectiveness towards the family and considerable oversensitivity.

Collective trends

BRINGING DREAMS DOWN TO EARTH

The influences mentioned so far in this analysis have an effect on your psychological evolution and fate which is strictly personal. There are other influences on your life based on your relationship to the collective, which can be just as exciting and stimulating for you, even though they may not evoke dramatic personal change.

Dreams and limitations

During a period that will last January 2018 to November 2019 you will grow to realize that limitations that are placed on unrealistic dreams can actually be useful, in that they save you from folly. There may be circumstances in your life that are not perfect, and you may long for something more ideal, but it can be constructive for you to count your blessings. What works well at this time is to structure your inner life through spiritual practice, and to help those less fortunate than yourself through social service. It is better to confront reality rather than to flee from it. Those things that cannot be changed can be transformed if you nurture an accepting attitude and the wisdom of realizing that in comparison to many beings, your situation is in fact relatively fortunate. If you do have a creative vision for the future, this might be the time to work on establishing the right foundations.

Changing tracks

You are entering a rite of passage at this time of your life when you tune in to unique qualities in your life, and perhaps also unique aspects of the generation you are a part of, and consider what adjustments and changes you can make to be true to your calling. This is not a time to be hesitant about making change; it is a period when taking calculated risks and experimenting a bit actually makes life more exciting and appealing. When you lift your eyes above your narrow social circle or local environment, and allow stimulus from exotic individuals and places, new ideas arise to stimulate you. Then you can make adjustments and changes that give you a more vibrant sense of the future. This trend, which lasts June 2016 to March 2020, can be likened to a train changing tracks, opening up new possibilities.

Intense belief

You gain deep insight into psychological issues in the period October 2017 to September 2018. The most primitive urges and unconscious drives surface, and in this way you learn a lot about the collective forces that are a part of you and your generation. At the same time you can get carried away by an idea, and you must take care that this does not become an obsession. Fanatical beliefs and convictions will not stand the test of time. Avoid getting taken over by any one belief, and don't be afraid of dropping opinions that are no longer relevant for you. Although there is promise of greatness at this time, pitfalls loom large if you become over-intense and lose perspective.

During the age of 28 you are in a phase of your personal evolution which is to do with establishing foundations, for example through home and family. Relations with parental figures or your own role as a parent are crucial to this process. It is a dynamic and testing period for your character, yet it also brings the first tangible results in an evolutionary process that began for you about seven or eight years ago. You need to be very adaptable now, because your instinctual drives have a different agenda to what you otherwise might want to do with your life. This tension creates considerable drive, and achievements can come on several fronts if you are willing to fight. The effort you put in now brings satisfying creative results which you can enjoy later.

Seen from another viewpoint, there is a purposeful evolution in your life, and each of the events that arise can be seen as milestones on the journey of your soul. There are some fields of your experience which you are all too familiar with, and perhaps you need to relinquish your attachment to them. Other areas of experience present new and interesting challenges for you soul, and require total immersion.

The primary evolutionary focus in the year is on the balance between your own needs and agenda, and those of others... partners in particular. Intense events will time and again confront you with how important being true to yourself is in the long term, and that healthy relationships depend on this. This is a time to make a significant readjustment so that compromising for love does not mean compromising the direction you want your life to go in.

The collective influences described above are very much related to the generation of which you are a part, and opportunities now arise to capitalize on trends that your generation will resonate to. The most important of these are:

- a time when there are disappointments that teach you to accept realities, avoid escapism and work on a socially responsible projects.
- an important transition period when you can tune in to what is unique about you and your generation, and adapt accordingly.
- a time when you gain a deep insight into the hidden psychological factors that unconsciously motivate you. Beware of obsessions.

The influences described in this report are based on planetary cycles, transits of the outer planets and progressions of the inner planets in an integrated description which also takes into account the major factors in your birth horoscope. Thousands of factors are taken into consideration, making this report completely unique to you for the next twelve months. Rather than make specific predictions, we have tried to describe how you can make the most out of the many changes that are taking place. By defining what you really want, and going for it, you can weather the storms and currents described in this report and come safely to the destination that you are aiming for. It is in this context that the major events of this year should be seen.

Some of the themes from this year will continue into the next year, and some completely new themes will arise. Looking at the three most important events at the age of 29 you can expect change in the following areas:

You will grow restless at work and initiate changes that give you more freedom and independence. Any unpredictable change should be welcomed as an opportunity to strike out on your own and capitalize on your personal, unique talents.

Challenges arise which at first powerfully affect your self confidence, as successes are few and far between and recognition and respect lacking. By working on building your character and patiently shouldering responsibility, you establish a position of confidence.

Times and conditions converge to enable you to consolidate your position at home and your status at work, just as long as you continue to work hard and shoulder responsibility. This is an excellent time for planning and building.

These events - both good and bad - can be seen as a treasure chest for the personal journey of your soul. Every event that arises has meaning for you and is a result and consequence of previous actions. If you are able to see the challenges that arise as opportunities for constructive change, then your growth will be rapid, and you will be able to truly appreciate and enjoy the many positive events that also arise during the course of your year.
