MY YEAR AHEAD

At the turn of the 21st century, there were 6 billion people on Earth. No two of them were born on the exact date, time and place - everyone has a unique horoscope. This horoscope reflects personal characteristics that the individual has chosen to work with in this life. He or she meets parents, brothers and sisters, friends, teachers and finally partners, who evoke an evolutionary development for the soul.

Each individual has then a unique life that can be mapped astrologically according to the planetary movements after birth. The My Year Ahead Report synthesizes three astrological methods to map the life journey of the individual:

- Progressions, which reflect a personal evolutionary, or karmic pattern present at birth
- Transits, which reflect collective trends that evoke specific behavior in the individual
- Solar Returns, which are horoscopes calculated for each birthday, showing what happens to the individual on the year in question. (For unknown birth times and yearly horoscopes starting on days other than your birthday, another astrological technique - horary - is used.)

This synthesis is complex. With 12 signs, 12 houses and 10 planets (with Sun and Moon) there are 1440 simple combinations. When the connection between planets are taken into consideration (aspects) and then transits and progressions, there are several hundred thousand combinations. The My Year Ahead Report works on several thousand of these, the rest needs to be filled in with your memory and creative visualization. For those interested in the astrological detail, each influence is annotated in the report, and you can see these influences at the end of the report. You can also read more about the basics of astrology at the end of the report. Please bear in mind, that with such complexity, contradictions can arise, and these will generally show either different parts of your character, or contradictory events which happen at the same time.

This reading describes your own evolutionary journey. To understand it fully you need to understand the talents and challenges that the planetary positions at birth represent. The first part of every section of the My Year Ahead Report explains therefore what you can expect in life based on who you are as a person. It is crucial to realize that what happens during the course of the life is constrained by these personal factors. If your love life promises great happiness, then later trends will trigger this potential... and vice versa.

If you wish to know more in detail about your personal character and how to get the most out of your life, then our My Life Path Report & Birth Chart will go into this deeply. The My Year Ahead Report is designed to map out the timing of events and the fulfillment of your destiny.

You may notice contradictions in your report; these reflect your complex personality. For instance, you may be a wallflower in certain situations, but other circumstances might bring out your chatty side. While your chart may provide helpful insights, it cannot predict the future. You are ultimately the master of your own fate.

INTRODUCTION

During the course of your 25th year there are a number of developments that take you by surprise, and you learn that you can take nothing for granted. Life is an unpredictable affair. When change comes out of the blue, it also brings opportunity, so now is the time to find out just how prepared you are to take a few risks. If you are in a rut, you make a move to get out of it. Long-distance travel is favored, as well as meetings with exotic cultures, untraditional people and unconventional subjects. This is a time to creatively manifest your unique qualities. For you and your generation there is a willingness to experiment with traditional structures in society, and you are inclined to stand for the rights of individuals to carve out their own path. Your particular way of expressing your uniqueness in this respect is through shunning the attractions of material desires and embracing alternative values. This can result in a precarious economy, but for you it is worth it for the freedom this brings.

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life you continue working on a new framework for your personal development by defining the path ahead. There are a lot of challenges, delays and obstacles to be overcome, but now you know what you want, and you are prepared to work long and hard to set in motion your new plans. In the past, initiatives tended to dissolve before being put into practice, because you were trying to achieve outdated goals. Now initiatives really kick in and gain traction. These new influences started growing around January - 2016 and will ebb out around January - 2019. You are setting the scene for a whole new epoch of personal development. The time has come; other people need to accept that your greatest responsibility is now to yourself, because unless your life is on a strong footing, and unless you are following your own mission, you cannot be strong for others.

From August - 2016 to September - 2017 you capitalize on the knowledge and experience you have garnered earlier to make a concrete success of your life. Good fortune smiles on professional endeavors in this period, and you can expand your sphere of influence. Influential people will support you, and if you strive for recognition, you will achieve it. If you go for your hopes and dreams now, then your expectations have a good chance of being fulfilled.

With professional achievements and an increase in status behind you and many career goals achieved, you are ready to capitalize on recent success by consolidating your assets and expanding your influence socially in the period from September - 2017 to January - 2018. Generous friends and mentors smooth your path and give you access to the highest places, and you harvest wisdom and influence at social gatherings.

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 25. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- A time that brings some confusion and dissatisfaction in regard to the meaning and direction of your life and relationships. Only by finding a higher ideal – creative, social or spiritual – can you access the inspiration and belief that gives you a sense of direction again.
- A time that awakens the power of fantasy and the imagination leading you to be seduced by beliefs that may not be able to deliver in reality. Ultimately this is a period of spiritual growth because you learn that beliefs are subjective and truth relative.
- A period which demands all your strength and survival abilities. Confrontation with autocratic individuals or institutions exhausts your resources, leading to radical change at work. Intense sexual experiences transform your intimate life. Old traumas resurface and a psychological renewal takes place.

These along with other influences will be examined later in the report.

LIFE PATH

SEARCHING FOR MEANING IN LIFE

There are many spheres of human activity which are active at any one time, but each year there will be a focus on a particular area of your life that will absorb you more than anything else, and be at the center of the events of that year.

The theme at the age of 25 is the framing of your goals and ambitions, and working hard according to a strict timetable to reach them. Authorities play a major role in the year ahead, but it is your ability to shoulder responsibility and to rise to challenges that are the crucial ingredients on the path to success. Things may weigh heavy on your shoulders, but if you think in terms of opportunity rather than limitation, then great progress will be made.

This theme puts you in touch with a sense of your life mission and purpose both in regard to yourself and your relationships. People can bow out of your life and new people make an entrance as you find a new and inspiring sense of direction.

You are willing to take a lot onto your shoulders in the year ahead, and you work hard to overcome lack of confidence in your personal life and relationships.

Above all you will want to expand your boundaries in this period, which you can do by traveling in foreign lands and meeting new cultures, or by reading and studying to broaden your mind. You develop and express strong opinions about what is right and wrong, and seek to put your views across persuasively.

You will find that the focus of this influence is very much in your inner life, and many of your achievements take place in the private sphere, in isolation from all the other practical aspects of your existence. A time spent in a meditative environment helps many spiritual issues fall into place, especially as this is a time when it is difficult to make a big impact in the outer world.

Certain challenges arise.

You may have to confront a pain threshold in the pursuit of your agenda, or there may be an uncomfortable sense that you are beyond the pale. There are distractions and you may have to attend to the wounded.

This vulnerability is connected with loaded issues regarding learning and communication where there is a good deal of pain.

There are relationship distractions as you pursue your course, perhaps because of romantic episodes, or simply because of a demand for attention. The urge is to spend money on spoiling yourself and those you love, but this can deplete your resources.

Relationships are brought about through your network during the course of the year – you meet loved ones in places of education, or in your neighborhood environment.

Some factors help.

An original approach and ability to think outside the box enables you to make lightning fast progress. International contacts and travel galvanize your efforts and make this an exciting time, and a time of great new insights too.

This is connected with a new-found interest in learning about alternative subjects, especially through networking and travel.

There is tremendous optimism and belief in yourself, and you find favor with influential people who help boost your influence. This cannot fail to bring success and expansion, and a general sense of happiness and fun.

This will be expressed in your career, where influential mentors can help you along if you are willing to be educated.

There are unique opportunities and challenges affecting you personally right now, which can result in significant lifestyle and relationship changes or modifications. If you would like to see your life going in a different direction, now is the time to take the reins and choose a path which is uniquely suited to you, as described by the influences below.

Reorientation of direction

This is a period – if your birth time is reasonably accurate – when you ask questions regarding where your life is going and where relationships are going. There has been a growing sense of dissatisfaction in these areas and a need to pursue a course that gives life more meaning in the long term. If things have settled into a routine and you find yourself waking up with a feeling of being unfulfilled or unmotivated, the time has come to find a higher purpose. This can be done by getting involved with creative or social projects that inspire you, or through growing spiritual interests that make life more meaningful. If relationships are based on romantic illusions, then everyday reality will open your eyes. If business partnerships have been based on unfulfilled promises, then they will not deliver. This confusion about direction stems from a trend that lasts from February 2016 to February 2019 but it will ultimately bring clarity. By associating with people whose lives are subsumed by a higher ideal, you can find a life vision that transcends the everyday.

This initial section of the report is connected with your lifestyle and direction, and the factors described above modify this direction as you respond to outside influences and your own inner evolutionary process. Of these factors the most significant during the age of 25 are:

- a time of confusion in regard to your direction in life and your relationships, which is resolved when you find a higher ideal to be inspired by.
- a time when you work hard to achieve your goals. By defining your ambitions and accepting greater responsibility you take a great step forward in the attainment of your ambitions.

SHOULDERING PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY

Every year there is a particular focus on your goals and ambitions, and a need to reformulate your mission in life and what you want to achieve. It is equally important to have a good foundation to build your successes on in terms of home and family.

A major theme as regards career during the age of 25 is channeling your good judgment and ability to get on with others with a spirit of compromise. By creating harmony and arbitrating between opposing sides, you are able to facilitate dynamic new growth. This is an excellent period for dealing with matters that require aesthetics and taste.

This theme is very much connected to your inner need to compete and win. As a result you tend to imagine challenges when they or not there, which can create considerable tension with people who are in a position to decide matters.

You manifest your skills at dealing with people and creating harmony and this you will do in a specific fashion and in a specific area.

You will find yourself in quite tense situations that require decisiveness and immediate action. Generally it is a good thing for you to take independent initiatives, and if conflict arises, to fight to win.

The main area to concentrate on is the field of communication. By networking and travel you can build up important connections. New skills should be acquired through courses and education projects.

You are empowered by the following.

Conditions for success depend very much on how you handle the conflicts that arise. There is no doubt that you need to battle forcefully to achieve your goals, perhaps in the company of someone who enjoys a competitive environment. It is all about troubleshooting and defending or conquering territory.

This will involve actively making contact with others, as well as travel and education.

Conditions for success are contingent on special circumstances connected with fixing what is broken, or healing what is wounded. This can mean concentrating your efforts in an out of the way place or with people who are banished to the fringe of society. A good time for developing healing talents.

Certain challenges arise.

One factor that can undermine success right now is the experience that powerful obstacles are in your path – and they may be – which in turn undermines your confidence. Authorities tend to be against you, or your goals at least, and you may be stopped in your tracks. Patience and perseverance are the only way forward.

As indefinable feelings weigh heavily on your spirit now, time is well spent on structuring your inner life through renunciation and solitude.

Challenges and opportunities arise at this time which can bring major changes or adjustments in both your career and your domestic life. The influences described below can bring concrete change, enabling you to live and work on a new level.

Responsibilities at home and work

This is a time when it is important to make structural changes in both your domestic and your professional life, as times are changing and new challenges arise. At home there may be circumstances that restrict your growth and limit your space, and family developments and relationships may require you to use more effort untangling the knots. This is the time to build efficient structures for the space you have available. Professionally it is likely that progress is slower than usual, and authority figures may place obstacles in your path. If the going gets tough, it pays to put more time in and take more responsibility. In the period from November 2016 to December 2017 – if your birth time is reasonably accurate – you will be challenged to find a balance between how much work you put into your work compared to how much work you put into your home. Don't expect speedy results – people are not satisfied easily at this time – but with perseverance and commitment, you will be able to establish lasting structures for future growth.

Sometimes a time comes when you can actually make a decisive move that defines your unique career potential and the hopes you have for your family. The influences described below show challenges and opportunities that arise now which can bring concrete changes in the framework of your professional life and domestic environment.

Last year the following influence peaked, but it still has a very important effect at the age of 25. You are still digesting the changes in this area, and beginning to integrate them in your life.

Career and family conflict

Assuming your birth time is precise, the period around October 2016 will bring a number of conflicts in relation to authority and the important structures in your life like the family and the career. You are easily provoked now, even looking for trouble, which can make you accident prone or stressed out. Basically you want to be the one who decides the important issues in your life, and anyone trying to push you around is in for an unpleasant surprise. You are inclined to go it alone in your career, and feel most comfortable with enterprises entailing danger and risk. This is a military influence, bringing out the warrior within... hardware oriented. Your desire to pursue your own agenda whatever the costs can bring family strife, and you are the one who is likely to be tough, ruling out compromise and harmony. Conflict with sons can be a feature of this period. If you channel your fighting spirit into exciting and challenging enterprises that require a winner, then you can have success, just as long as you identify the enemy and avoid spending time fighting friends.

As one of your greatest assets is the will to put in tremendous effort to attain your desires, this influence will invoke the urge to protect what you have and fight to gain more.

The career section of this report explains influences in the current year that can cause you to adapt or change professional goals, and make use of opportunities that come your way. Overall, in the area of family and career the major developments you can expect are:

- a hard-working time when you are torn between domestic and professional responsibilities, as challenges pile up on both fronts.
- a time of career and domestic upsets and changes as you assert your individuality and will without making a lot of effort to compromise.
- a time when the spirit of compromise is called for, combined with your ability to get people to work together in harmony.

PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

WISDOM AND EXPANSION

During the course of the year you will have a number of character-building experiences, which help you grow and develop as an individual. It is rare for any difficulty to last longer than a period of about eight months, and if you regard challenges that arise as a test that helps you become stronger, then it will be relatively easy for you to overcome them. Similarly, when events boost your confidence, it is pays to take advantage of the limited time available to capitalize on your good fortune.

With your sun in your birth chart in Aquarius and in the 2nd House this relates to your need to express a vision for humanity and be part of a network, in connection with your personal values, self-worth and material life.

An important feature around the age of 25 is an urge to consolidate developments in your life and build a strong foundation for further growth. This is a time when you want your outer life to accurately reflect your inner worth, so material symbols can be important, not least your salary, which reflects the value that is placed on your work. Your appearance is also a focus of attention, and this is an excellent period to do physical workouts as well as to adorn yourself with style. You can play a central role taking the lead in the administration of finances and the economy.

Certain challenges arise.

It is during this period that you feel the pull between extremely strong needs that run counter to each other. This can lead to dynamic developments in your life – even a flowering in your relationships – but you still have to find a way of balancing the need to be independent in your own right with the need to belong and merge. Family demands can conflict with your need to assert your individual rights, and in the months ahead you will have to deal with the emotions this dilemma evokes.

This awakens feelings centered on home and family and methods to build security and establish roots.

Certain key influences will present challenges and opportunities to you now as regards your development as an individual. Below you will find effects described, which you will feel more or less powerfully, evoking actions that enable you to stamp your signature on events.

Insight brings influence and success

It is at this time that your insight and understanding peak to bring a sense of meaningfulness and personal satisfaction in life. Travel and intellectual development stimulate your confidence in your self and your abilities, and this has a snowball effect in creating success. You have the good fortune to meet wise people, or mentors, who can guide you into new areas of knowledge and understanding. This is the time to capitalize on your assets – a calculated expansion now will surely bring good results, especially in the period from October 2016 to September 2017. Your optimism is infectious in this period, and people seek you out to enjoy both your humor and your insights. Spiritual interests are also favored as a deeper understanding of the meaning and direction of your life dawns.

Overreaching yourself

The period from November 2017 to October 2018 is a time when you encounter intellectual authorities who are in a position to make judgments on your character, and if you over-estimate your strength or capability, this judgment can go against you. On the one hand you expand your influence, either through intellectual achievement or travel, but on the other, there is a tendency to go over the top. The essential thing is to guard against hubris. There is no harm in thinking positive and being intellectually competitive, but without groundwork you will be unable to hold on to the success you are hoping for. You are attracted to mentors, but you may later feel that you misjudged people. Watch out for inflated egos.

The personal development section of this report shows influences directly affecting your character, bringing both challenges and personal growth. Of these influences the most crucial are:

- a time when insight into your identity brings influence and success. Mentors help you expand your understanding and travel widens your horizons.
- a tendency to overrate yourself and fly, Icarus-like, too close to the sun.

FEELINGS AND SECURITY

EMOTIONAL RESTRAINT

You are in an ongoing process of emotional development, and the focus is constantly changing. As your unconscious mind absorbs impressions during the different phases of your life, you integrate greater depth and understanding of yourself and your relationships. There are specific areas of your life where this influence has a particular significance.

With your moon in your birth chart in Aquarius and in the 3rd House this relates to your need to live an unconventional life emotionally and explore unusual environments, and the network of contacts in your daily life will reflect how important it is for you to reach out to others.

Emotionally the age of 25 can be said to reflect a time when you want to consolidate and create conditions of comfort and security. To feel safe and secure, it is also important that you are economically comfortable, and you can expect optimal conditions to cover your material needs. A spirit of calm dwells over your emotional life now, and you create a firm anchor for growth and nurturing.

One of the main areas where this influence will be felt is in your domestic life. Home and family are your highest priority now, and the emotional ups and downs experienced by those you love affect you profoundly.

One thing that affords considerable satisfaction for you now is the feeling that your activities and family environment harmonize with your personal values, enabling you to express your love without reservation. Those you feel the strongest bond to, particularly in the family, evoke your natural ability to express happiness and satisfaction.

Some factors help.

A powerful urge to investigate the roots of your emotional conditioning at this time brings an urge to transform dependency and put family relationships on a more healthy footing. Everything is felt that much more intensely and you are unwilling to compromise in your quest for reform.

This specifically activates a need to transform something in your personal lifestyle, shedding inauthenticity and embracing personal power.

There is an enhanced sensitivity right now, which could mean you give higher priority to creative and spiritual interests than to more traditional duties. A longing for something meaningful and deep evokes a discontent with the status quo and brings a search for another kind of satisfaction.

This activates a need to find meaning in your material life and to capitalize on intangible and creative resources.

During the year ahead you continue a trend of involvement with friends and groups who share your interests and views, and pursue an exciting course of personal development through exposure to new environments. You are open and ready to experiment with your life, and reject restrictions imposed by systems in society that try to stereotype you. Your unique intellectual and social qualities come to the fore and make you stand out from the crowd, whilst you seek out people who espouse freedom and untraditional views. Alternative movements draw you into their sway and you feel gripped by the winds of change in your community.

A great deal of your emotional energy – in practical terms at least – is focused on that area of your life that is to do with building up a secure framework conducive to a happy family. Money and possessions are the central ingredients in creating this security and when they are in abundance they afford you great satisfaction and strengthen your self-worth, not least because you can really become a provider for those who are dependant on you. Whilst material concerns can bring considerable satisfaction, there is also a strong focus on the body, on food, on sex and others areas that bring an appreciation of Planet Earth.

As you grow and mature emotionally, the focus shifts from one area of life to another, and you instinctively absorb the lessons connected with the many different emotional facets of your life.

- Around September 2017 an old wound reopens and you become aware of something which has been a source of pain for you for a long time. It seems there is very little you can do about this; a philosophical attitude is best when there are circumstances that are very difficult to change. It is a good time to visit a healer or learn the healing arts yourself.

This opens an old wound in connection with sharing and with your intimate life, for example psychologically or erotically.

- Around November 2017 a busy and mentally stimulating period begins when you really get out and about and meet people, travel a lot, and create a lot of friendships. It is the kind of time when you can learn or utilize an extra language or a new skill, as you are incredibly sensitive to new input, absorbing information and committing it to memory like a child. There are so many things going on now that you have to be like an octopus, juggling a variety of objects and having to be any number of places at any one time. This is an excellent time for business.

Your ideas and thoughts are centered on ways to enhance self-worth and economic security. The mental evolution process you are now going through will bring new ways to earn money and reflect your values.

- Around November 2017 the karmic clock strikes twelve and a framework is established that establishes the structure of your emotional and family life for years to come. There is a profound awareness of the passage of time and personal goals. In many ways this is a challenging and frustrating period, and you are aware that choices made now may be carved in stone, so you proceed cautiously before making decisions that commit you to a course of action. This is a time for shouldering family responsibility and consolidating your position.

The challenges and responsibilities in this respect key in to an inborn uncertainty about self-worth, which is reflected by your attitude to material possessions and earning capacity. This strengthens your determination to consolidate and improve your economy.

The influences described below will have an even more profound effect on your emotional life, awakening a powerful and often unconscious response. Ultimately this brings insight into your early conditioning and enables you to modify the way you instinctively react.

Overcoming immaturity

The period from December 2016 to October 2018 is not a time when you feel particularly comfortable or secure, but you are willing to lift responsibility for the sake of others and to be there when you are needed. This is a test of your maturity and ability to be self-sufficient rather than dependant. The family will lean on you now, and you will be a rock. In dealing with your own personal emotions, this is a time to be strong and self-contained rather than expressing your feelings for all to see. Emotions come and go, as do trials in life, and the strong individual weathers ups and downs with equanimity. You can build up strong foundations in your home now; all this requires is hard work and determination. This is a period when you grow up and conquer immaturity.

Emotional liberation

Radical changes in your habits and daily life are on the cards as you are gripped by a need to shake off old routines and experiment with new. This is a time of emotional awakening when you become deeply aware of how you have allowed your life to be limited by dependency. Now is the time to abandon childhood patterns and try living without a safety net. Involvement with untraditional people and groups will be a source of inspiration as you meet with openness and a completely alternative way of living your daily life. Changes in the family can involve unexpected developments with children, moving or relocation, new arrivals in the home or travel to exotic locations. This influence lasts from May 2016 to April 2019 and brings awareness of previously unconscious reaction patterns in a process of personal liberation.

Expansion of comfort zone

A period of expansion in your personal life takes place from December 2016 to November 2017 which brings a general sense of well-being, partly based on a deeper understanding of the unconscious factors that motivate your actions. Your comfort zone expands – you are more comfortable with yourself, and more comfortable with your role in a family that is likely to be extended considerably. If you wish enlarge your home, move, or invest in property, good fortune tends to come your way without too much effort. Parents in particular can be very supportive, as will your environment in general. You have the confidence and faith to give empathy and support to those in need, and can show those people who are attached to you just how to enjoy life and have a good time.

This section maps out the timing and intensity of influences in your life that absorb your interest on a daily level, profoundly affecting everything, from your work to your family life. These influences constitute your emotional growth during the course of the year, and the main themes are:

- a time when you cultivate self-reliance and work hard to build a mature emotional life, which enables you to provide a shoulder for others to lean on.
- a time of liberation from ingrained emotional habits, involving changes in your domestic life and a willingness to give up dependency.
- a time when you experience a boost in confidence and happy developments at home and in your family life.
- a time of personal development as you embrace ideas and alternative communities who evoke what is progressive and unique within you.
- a time when you are appreciative of the riches of the earth and strive to consolidate your own economy and family security.

MENTAL DEVELOPMENT

BOOST OF SKILLS AND EXPANSION OF MENTAL INFLUENCE

Gaining skills through education and other forms of training is a major ingredient for success, both professionally and in relationships. Through developing your communication talents you can make contacts and build networks which facilitate progress.

With Mercury in your birth chart in Aquarius and in the 2nd House this relates to your inventive genius and willingness to experiment mentally, which is a major resource bringing considerable economic benefit to you.

During the age of 25 your mental focus is on professional advancement, and you will be willing to work long and hard to overcome the mental challenges that stand in your path. Your managerial capacities come to the fore, and you will shoulder more administrative responsibility.

Your mental abilities are an important component of your whole personal style during the course of the year. Learning and communication have the highest priorities and will come to define you and your lifestyle. Networking, teaching and education, or business and travel will feature strongly in the year ahead.

You have an urge to express yourself forcefully during the course of the year, and your competitive nature is aroused. You may get a bit snappy and aggressive, but if you can channel your energy into a mental challenge, you will achieve a lot.

You are empowered by the following.

You find this to be a year of extraordinary mental intensity; to such an extent that you may fret and obsess about recurrent mental themes that you have little power to change. By channeling this intensity into inner investigation and therapeutic growth, you can learn many hidden secrets about yourself and others. You dig deep and find the dirt.

Certain challenges arise.

There are many disagreements in principle, and you tend to run into discussions with people who profess to know better. Whilst this means that you learn a lot and gain a better overview, you are very keen to prove your intellectual capabilities. Don't waste too much energy trying to prove that you are right.

There are a number of disruptions in communication, education and travel during the course of the year, partly because you are restless and want excitement and change. You are fascinated by new and unconventional ways of thinking, but you can alienate more conventional souls if you reject their ideas outright.

Some factors help.

You overcome a handicap and discover unusual teaching or healing abilities in the process. Sometimes a disability of some sort can bring a specific advantage in connection with learning skills.

The influences described below will bring additional opportunities and challenges in the field of communication. By rising to educational challenges and improving communication skills, you can add to your skills and capabilities.

Details and overview

It is an extremely active period for you mentally in the period from October 2017 to September 2018. This is a time when you can travel or embark on an educational project, and perhaps have several schemes going at the same time. You may get involved with something for which you do not have all the necessary skills. There is plenty of confidence, but your judgment may be off, or you may not receive very good advice. You can get into conflict with people who have quite different opinions than you – they may be right, or they may be wrong, but perhaps it is best not to dissipate your energy on trivial discussion. Likewise it will only distract you to get involved with gossip and pointless speculation about what may or may not have been unjust or unfair in the past.

The influences described in this section challenge you to develop intellectually, socially and in relation to others. Of all these influences, in terms of the enhancement and development of your mental skills the most significant will be:

- a tendency to take too much on or to waste time on trivial discussions or journeys. Avoid juggling too many balls in the air.
- development of your ability to administer and plan, coupled with hard work and extra responsibility.

VALUES, LOVE AND RELATIONSHIPS

LONGING FOR IDEAL LOVE AND SPIRITUAL VALUES

Your need for relationship is very much dependant on your tastes, and early family experiences of bonding. These factors determine whether you feel attraction or not, or whether you are simply indifferent. People of similar tastes are instinctively attracted to you, as you are to them, and this is the basis of personal harmony in your relationships.

With Venus in your birth chart in Capricorn and in the 1st House this relates to your need to find an ambitious partner you can respect and commit to, which you will express up front and directly in your personal life style.

In relationship matters you are willing to act spontaneously and impulsively during the age of 25. When you get potential partners in your sights you are willing to fight for them – indeed a bit of competition actually stimulates your appetite. Such single-mindedness can lead you into dangerous territory, but during the course of the year winning is everything, so you are not receptive to those advising caution. Fools rush in where wise men fear to tread.

You build up a relationship network during the course of the year, either in your local environment, during education or as a part of communication projects. A partner can be found in these areas. You are interested in developing your aesthetic skills and cultural interests, and partnerships function best with someone with who you are on the same mental wavelength.

Your love life and relationships awaken deep instincts and drives in you now, and you are drawn to the forbidden like a moth to the flame. Love becomes a transformative process through the intensity of the desires and needs that are awoken. Issues connected with jealousy and control can leave you emotionally exhausted, perhaps because of old traumas that are brought back to life. Let go.

You are empowered by the following.

This can hardly fail to be a romantic and passionate year. You are drawn deeper and deeper into intimate relations and fiery erotic attraction, and there is nothing for it but to let go and discover the rejuvenation quality of animal passions. If single you will be swept off your feet, if attached, then – if your head is not turned – you will go through heaven and hell because of your attraction.

You may retreat from love into the ivory tower of your intellect during the course of the year, but the pain of rejection lingers. It is not what hurts that is important, but the means to heal what hurts. You meet people now who teach you this art, which you can both practice on yourself and on others.

Certain challenges arise.

Love brings frustrations, and it seems that you neither get the affection you desire, nor the approval you need. Keep expectations low – this is a time when you are being tested. Believe in yourself – this is just a stage you are going through to develop strength of character and self-sufficiency.

There are other major changes affecting relationships and values at this time, and the influences described below will bring opportunities to modify your need for others, and ultimately develop better ways of relating authentically.

Loving, dreaming and the imagination

If you are the romantic type, then this is a time when your dreams of the perfect love are nurtured. This may just be in your imagination, but there is a longing for something that fulfils you on a spiritual level. If current relationships seem dull, it can be because your longings cannot be fulfilled by an ordinary bond. There is an opening of the heart at this time, and this can bring creative results. It is as if you are in touch with something universal, and this is best channeled into spiritual, artistic or musical interests. Spend time tuning in to the inner needs of your soul, rather than on practical issues, and don't expect a single individual to satisfy all your desires. This period, which stems from a trend that lasts from March 2016 to December 2019, is a unique time for discovering inner beauty and refining the soul,

Good fortune in love

There is a period of success for you both as regards your economy and your relationships from October 2017 to October 2018, and this brings a blossoming of confidence about your attractiveness and value as a person. If you are looking for romance, you will surely find it – especially if you travel to a romantic place. This is a good time for relationships with people from cultures you admire. You are particularly attracted to wise and cultured people who can teach you something. Generally you can afford to expand, spend more and really appreciate what life has to offer. Now is the time to both harvest and enjoy the fruits of efforts that you have made in the past, and to generously share your good fortune with those you love.

Quite apart from the specific changes that come at the age of 25, you now reach a stage in the process of your evolution in terms of relationship that enables you to integrate new values in your life through encounters with individuals or groups where you form a bond of one sort or another.

During the course of the year after this one there is an important influence which you are very likely to feel already during the course of this year. Perhaps nothing happens right now, but you will sense the following theme developing, even if it is early days:

Blaze of glory

It is at this time of your life – around April 2018 – that your natural talent and charm comes out into the open and you are able to make a powerful impression on the world. Your aesthetic skills and tastes are somehow central to your whole being, and this creates a charismatic aura that brings success, prosperity and recognition. This is a peak period for your love life, because your powers of attraction have never been more radiant. You can fall head over heels for an influential person in a prominent position. This is a time when love absorb you totally – even blind you. Yet it is also a time when your own loving nature is expressed fully and completely authentically. You can push for prominence, promotion, more money, and generally get what you put your mind to. But don't let it go to your head.

Establishing a firmly rooted sense of personal worth through your appearance and material life are central for you, and this influence brings developments in this area.

The influences described in this section will all have a significant effect on the way you relate to the world. In terms of your material values and matters of love, the most important of all these influences will be:

- a time when your heart and soul are moved by a vision of transcendental beauty, which can either lead you into the labyrinth of romantic love, or the mandala of bliss.

- a time when you can enjoy the good life. Experiences with friends and lovers, especially when traveling or experiencing culture, boost your confidence and self-worth
- a time when your personal charisma is overwhelming, leading to success in all relationships.
- competitiveness in love and the tendency to follow your romantic impulses.

SEX, WORK, WILLPOWER AND ASSERTION

TRANSFORMING WEAKNESS INTO POWER

Nothing is achieved in life without the force and determination to go for what you want. There are battles to be won and obstacles to be overcome, and this means being able to assert yourself, and to mobilize your courage to face challenges and overcome resistance.

With Mars in your birth chart in Capricorn and in the 2nd House this relates to your determination to advance your position, overcoming every challenge, and you channel much effort into asserting your worth and improving your material situation.

As regards personal drive the age of 25 is a year when you are in a fighting mood, ready to take risks to get ahead. Advances are made rapidly and you move from one competitive situation to the next. On the one hand you are courageous, but on the other rather impetuous.

Your energy and will is channeled into developing your mind and personal network. This brings increased activity reading, writing, traveling and communicating. You tend to be a bit pushy getting your message across, and this can lead to sharp exchanges with people in your local environment, siblings or neighbors.

This is a year when normal group relations tend to be shaken up, perhaps because you are restless and uncertain about what direction you want to go in. You may have to deal with a troublemaker, but perhaps such a person might inspire you to action.

There are other powerful influences at this time, which bring both challenges to your autonomy and independence, and opportunities for leadership and self assertion. The influences described below bring out your survival abilities and evoke a fighting spirit that can ultimately empower you.

Transformation of energy and will

This is a time when you connect with the raw power within you which releases energy connected with your drives, your desires and your sexuality. Pressures in the outside world and the world within increase exponentially, fuelling a transformation of energy driven by psychological change. At work it is very likely that you get involved in implacable battles of will with a person or faceless institution that has no intention whatsoever of making any compromises. You have to mobilize all your strength, but if this does not work it is wiser to drop fruitless struggle and move on. Know your enemies and take evasive action. You may in fact decide to completely transform your working life, and your newly-found power and psychological insight may be a factor in this. Sexually you are likely to become involved in an all-consuming erotic relationship which tends to be obsessive and jealous, though on the positive side sexual blockages are swept away. This transformation process at work and in your intimate life spans the period from February 2016 to November 2020 and ends up empowering you considerably. It is an excellent period for extreme sports, martial arts, tantric sex and job transformation. It is at this time that poisonous traumas from the past are purged.

Bulldozing the opposition

Nothing can stop you getting what you want in the period from October 2016 to October 2017, as you have the confidence to go for it, and you are willing to take risks. This gung-ho attitude can attract considerable disapproval from people who know better, and you can waste energy discussing with or fighting people who have different views than your own. If you can channel your energy constructively, you can expand your sphere of influence and intellectual capacity, but your appetites are so strong that you are inclined to make misjudgments. You may want to develop your body through fitness and sport – it is at least a great channel for your growing energy. Your sexual appetite is also strong at this time, and you can bend the rules to satisfy your desires. There is an attraction to foreigners, adventurers and intellectuals.

Believing you can do it

The period from November 2017 to November 2018 is a time when you are full of courage and enthusiasm, and even if there are delays and setbacks, you plunge on undeterred. There is the spirit of the pioneer infusing your being; you see the distant horizon and spur on your horse to reach it as soon as possible. With such an undaunted spirit, success comes easily for you, and nobody has any desire to stand in your way. You are convinced about what is right – for you and probably for others too. Neither are you afraid to use your persuasive powers to get what you want. This leads to an expansion of your influence and greater leadership prowess. The competitive spirit is aroused; physically this can bring an interest in travel and sports, intellectually you want to learn more, debate, and excel at what you do.

Quite apart from the specific changes that come at the age of 25, you now reach a stage in the process of your evolution in terms of your work and drives that enables you to discover new forms of empowerment and to harness your energy in new ways.

During the course of the year after this one there is an important influence which you are very likely to feel already during the course of this year. Perhaps nothing happens right now, but you will sense the following theme developing, even if it is early days:

Fighting for your ideas

A period during which you express yourself more aggressively and forcefully culminates around April 2018. This is a time of tremendous activity in fields of communication. There is more commuting and travel, more interest in education and networking, and both a desire and ability to argue for your viewpoint. If this is not controlled, there can be relentless argument, perhaps because you feel you cannot give way or show weakness. [male] You feel it is important to assert your masculinity, and it is a blow to your ego if you appear to give way [end]. . You have so much nervous energy at this time it is important to channel it into work, business or education, where you can notch up many achievements. Business success comes through channeling this energy constructively. Your dealings with a brother may play an important role in your life right now, though there can be troubles or rivalry.

During the course of the year after this one there is an important influence which you are very likely to feel already during the course of this year. Perhaps nothing happens right now, but you will sense the following theme developing, even if it is early days:

The struggle to achieve

The period around May 2018 is a time when your efforts to overcome seemingly insuperable obstacles peak. Major challenges force you to develop muscle. Through better planning and organization, and limitless patience, you achieve lasting goals. [male] Your confidence in your masculine nature – your competitive abilities and sexual prowess – reaches an all-time low. Trying hard is not enough when it comes to seduction [end]. . Your chief enemy at this time is your own lack of confidence. The authority figures you encounter are there for a purpose, to train you and force you to overcome weaknesses through discipline and perseverance. Complaining about life gets you nowhere – when the going gets tough, the tough get going. In business you can expect to deal with implacable types who insist in the rules. Obey if you have to. In your sexual life get out the manual on love and start studying. Body awareness is crucial. Remember it is better to share insecurities than to cover up through dominant behavior. This can be part of some years of development also connected with events around December 2022 .

The influences described in this section will bring changes in the way you strive for achievement. Of the many influences affecting your energy, sexuality and assertiveness this year the main areas to be aware of are:

- a time of extreme psychological pressure that puts you in survival mode – old traumas are purged releasing transformative energy.
- a time when you are unstoppable, but at the same time you tend to be impervious to how other people feel when you go for what you want.
- a time of excitement and adventure when you vigorously expand your horizons and have undaunted confidence in succeeding at what you do.
- a time of argument and controversy couple with tremendous activity either through travel or education.
- the culmination of a very challenging and frustrating period at work and sexually that requires long-term patience and determination.

COLLECTIVE TRENDS

ELIMINATION OF ILLUSIONS

The influences mentioned so far in this analysis have an effect on your psychological evolution and fate which is strictly personal. There are other influences on your life based on your relationship to the collective, which can be just as exciting and stimulating for you, even though they may not evoke dramatic personal change.

Purging of illusions

This is a period when many of the dreams and fantasies that you have entertained over the years are stripped to their bare bones and found to be unrealistic and even a drain on your psychic resources. Whether it be illusions about love, capabilities, beliefs or ideas, those things you have allowed yourself to be seduced by without due examination will now be eliminated. This in turn gives a new spirit of realism that enables you to transform your vision of what is realistic and possible. You may find yourself getting sucked in by power-hungry individuals or groups who have a tempting vision, but bitter experience teaches you that no dream or vision is worth striving for if people are trampled under ideals. This healthy transformation of your spiritual body spans the period January 2016 to December 2018 and frees you of old ghosts that have previously obscured clarity and drained your will.

Unfettered imagination

If you have a tendency to exaggerate things and go overboard, this is a period when you cast off the ropes and the balloon goes aloft. You tend to drift between overly optimistic and overly pessimistic – but mostly the former. Whilst this is an empowering time for fantasy, it is also a time when fantasy can lead you astray if you do not remain grounded. It is an excellent time for spiritual interests, although you can also encounter fantasists who promise the impossible. Beliefs, which you once held dear, dissolve. This awakening of dreams and the imagination stems from a trend that lasts March 2016 to February 2019 and it can help you to formulate an inspiring vision for the future. The crucial thing is not to get carried away by the promise of a future that is unreachable, nor to be too influenced by people who are all show and no content. The ultimately lesson of this period is that truth is elusive, convictions can change and reality is subjective.

Big dreams, big illusions

The period October 2016 to September 2017 is a time of big dreams, but the likelihood is that the bubble will burst if you let yourself get carried away by unrealistic fantasies. It is a great time for tuning into the collective mood and getting involved with a wave of ideals that sways a lot of people. This can be connected with musical events, film or political ideas that promise Utopia. You may also be inspired by a spiritual path, but it can be difficult to distinguish the difference between reality and illusion. Issues connected with right and wrong can become very confusing; you may discover that there is a worldly justice on the one hand and a higher justice on the other... which could explain why there is so much apparent injustice in your experience of the world.

During the age of 25 you are in a phase of your personal evolution when all that has been built up in previous decades is called into question, because there is a sense that it can no longer fulfill your destiny. You may go through the motions, but the results will reflect the waning energy that you invest. You may cast about for something new to bring vitality and inspiration, but there will be many false starts. Still, the seed of a new future is discovered at this time, though it is early days. The sense of dissolution that characterizes this period moves you to turn within and consider the constant change and transience of human life, and this in turn brings spiritual growth and insights.

Seen from another viewpoint, there is a purposeful evolution in your life, and each of the events that arise can be seen as milestones on the journey of your soul. There are some fields of your experience which you are all too familiar with, and perhaps you need to relinquish your attachment to them. Other areas of experience present new and interesting challenges for you soul, and require total immersion.

The primary evolutionary focus in the year is centered on your understanding of the meaning of life and your place in the big picture. This is a time to travel far and wide both physically and intellectually in the search for answers. Energy is not to be dissipated on idle chat and repetitive commuting. Development comes through seeking out wise people who can expand your spiritual and cultural horizons.

The collective influences described above are very much related to the generation of which you are a part, and opportunities now arise to capitalize on trends that your generation will resonate to. The most important of these are:

- a time when illusions are purged and unrealistic dreams abandoned, freeing you to form a new vision of the future that is realistic and achievable.
- a time when you are gripped by great visions and dreams that ultimately disappoint you. The lesson is that truth is relative and changes with time.
- the tendency to be caught up in the swell of collective euphoria, or to allow your imagination to sweep away your sense of realism.

The influences described in this report are based on planetary cycles, transits of the outer planets and progressions of the inner planets in an integrated description which also takes into account the major factors in your birth horoscope. Thousands of factors are taken into consideration, making this report completely unique to you for the next twelve months. Rather than make specific predictions, we have tried to describe how you can make the most out of the many changes that are taking place. By defining what you really want, and going for it, you can weather the storms and currents described in this report and come safely to the destination that you are aiming for. It is in this context that the major events of this year should be seen.

Some of the themes from this year will continue into the next year, and some completely new themes will arise. Looking at the three most important events at the age of 26 you can expect change in the following areas:

A period which demands all your strength and survival abilities. Confrontation with autocratic individuals or institutions exhausts your resources, leading to radical change at work. Intense sexual experiences transform your intimate life. Old traumas resurface and a psychological renewal takes place.

A new 12-year cycle of growth starts for you, bringing an expansion of your intellectual and spiritual horizons with the likelihood of success in many areas of your life including important relationships. You have the self-confidence to broadcast your truth.

A time of prominence and success, even fame, is on its way. You express the very best of yourself, and your newfound charismatic aura brings love, partners and money.

These events - both good and bad - can be seen as a treasure chest for the personal journey of your soul. Every event that arises has meaning for you and is a result and consequence of previous actions. If you are able to see the challenges that arise as opportunities for constructive change, then your growth will be rapid, and you will be able to truly appreciate and enjoy the many positive events that also arise during the course of your year.

This aspect occurs when planets are a third of the circle away and normally in the same element. This shows the harmonic confluence of needs, bringing happiness and harmony.

The Sextile

Key word: Creativity

If the circle is divided by a six-pointed star, the sextile would take place on two of the points next to each other. There is both dynamism and pleasure connected with this aspect.
