THE ESSENTIAL YEAR REPORT...

At the turn of the 21st century, there were 6 billion people on Earth. No two of them were born on the exact date, time and place - everyone has a unique horoscope. This horoscope reflects personal characteristics that the individual has chosen to work with in this life. He or she meets parents, brothers and sisters, friends, teachers and finally partners, who evoke an evolutionary development for the soul.

Each individual has then a unique life that can be mapped astrologically according to the planetary movements after birth. World of Wisdom's Essential Year Report synthesizes three astrological methods to map the life journey of the individual:

- Progressions, which reflect a personal evolutionary, or karmic pattern present at birth
- Transits, which reflect collective trends that evoke specific behavior in the individual
- Solar Returns, which are horoscopes calculated for each birthday, showing what happens to the individual on the year in question. (For unknown birth times and yearly horoscopes starting on days other than your birthday, another astrological technique - horary - is used.)

This synthesis is complex. With 12 signs, 12 houses and 10 planets (with Sun and Moon) there are 1440 simple combinations. When the connection between planets are taken into consideration (aspects) and then transits and progressions, there are several hundred thousand combinations. Essential Year Report works on several thousand of these, the rest needs to be filled in with your memory and creative visualization.

This reading describes your own evolutionary journey. To understand it fully you need to understand the talents and challenges that the planetary positions at birth represent. The first part of every section of Essential Year Report explains therefore what you can expect in life based on who you are as a person. It is crucial to realize that what happens during the course of the life is constrained by these personal factors. If your love-life promises great happiness, then later trends will trigger this potential... and vice versa.

If you wish to know more in detail about your personal character and how to get the most out of your life, then our Birth Horoscope Interpreter will go into this deeply. The Essential Year Report is designed to map out the timing of events and the fulfillment of your destiny.

INTRODUCTION

As you enter your 42nd year, things are beginning to fall into place after a fairly radical transformation, which has seen you take risks and make what is for you some revolutionary changes. You have confronted many inner demons in this process, and gained psychological insight. You have weighed up the pros and cons of freedom versus commitment. There have been times of confusion and helplessness, but somehow life is richer and more meaningful, and intimacy is more rewarding. You have gained a higher degree of independence, and as you have done so, the focus now moves onto the important relationships in your life. This is the time to set limits, and to maintain your individuality, whilst considering just how much responsibility you are ready to take on.

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life the focus changes from establishing security and economic stability to a more outgoing attitude that brings you into contact with people through travel and educational initiatives. These new influences start growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around February - 2021. You become aware of areas in your intellectual development that need improvement, and the antidote to this is study. This is a long-term process of acquiring new mental skills that will serve you well, especially professionally, in the future. Initially you may be uncertain or shy, but the time demands overcoming inhibitions and reaching out to network with other people via all methods of communication. It is now that you develop the antennae that enable you to receive and broadcast knowledge.

After a period of expansion and satisfaction in your social life, your search for meaning and understanding goes within, and in the period from October - 2016 to October - 2017 you discover the spiritual riches that can be attained through seclusion and introspection. This is a time when learn how man and cosmos are interconnected, when you feel empathy and solidarity for fellow human beings.

An awareness of the spiritual forces behind your individual evolution has enriched your understanding of your self and the universe, and this now ushers in a period from October - 2017 to October - 2018 when you are ready to emerge from seclusion and apply this inner wisdom more directly in your dealings with others. A new confidence is reflected by a more forceful personal presence in which your ideas and opinions pave the way for personal expansion.

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 42. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- You will experience and welcome change in the important relationships in your life. Ultimately this gives you the space and freedom to develop higher consciousness and get involved with groups of people, or individuals, who initiate you into radically new way of relating.
- You will be subject to considerable emotional pressure in the period ahead as the habits and rhythms that you have created as a comfort zone around you are undermined by challenging developments that have an air of inevitability about them. The time has come to establish new roots.
- Unpredictable events raise your adrenal levels and bring out the fighting spirit in the coming months, making you more inclined to take considerable risks. Whilst the samurai spirit is awakened, you may provoke others unnecessarily.

These along with other influences will be examined later in the report.

Life Path

INSIGHTS AND EXPANSION IN YOUR LIFE

There are many spheres of human activity which are active at any one time, but each year there will be a focus on a particular area of your life that will absorb you more than anything else, and be at the center of the events of that year.

The theme at the age of 42 is self-assertion and independence. You approach life with a naive and enthusiastic innocence, but you are also prepared to fight for what you want – and win. You are building up your integrity and autonomy, so there is not much space for compromise. Battles encountered in the year ahead are meant to make you fit for fight. This is the time to be decisive and make dynamic progress.

This theme channels that part of your nature that seeks something more from life... something ineffable and meaningful in the greater scheme of things. Creative, romantic, musical or artistic experiences awaken your inner longings.

You will want to channel your energy and drive in a specific fashion in the year ahead, and nothing will daunt your fighting spirit.

You make choices at this time based on instincts and emotions. Guided by gut feeling you embark on projects that nurture those close to your heart, building up supportive structures for intimacy and growth. Home and family figure strongly in your calculations, and developments in this area bring stronger bonding and emotional growth.

This is an influence which makes itself felt in your local environment and in your mental development. The focus is on contact with others – particularly neighbors and siblings – and on travel and education. Communication is the key, and you will strive to get your message across and to overcome any situation which prevents your voice from being heard.

Certain challenges arise.

You meet resistance to your agenda at all stages, either from authorities without, or lack of confidence within. Even in the face of failure you need to make a supreme effort. This is a test of your nerve and determination, and it builds up your strength.

Limitations and challenges connected with higher education, the law or journeys at this time demand that you improve your mind through study.

You may have to confront a pain threshold in the pursuit of your agenda, or there may be an uncomfortable sense that you are beyond the pale. There are distractions and you may have to attend to the wounded.

This is connected with an inner realization of the universality of pain, and how it evokes spiritual growth.

Some factors help.

Your caring and nurturing qualities are evoked. There is appreciation for your empathy and support, and you gain popularity. You create a secure environment for those who depend on you, and they in turn give you unqualified support.

This awakens feelings centered on the important relationships in your life – your dependency on, and emotional interaction with, partners.

Love and support comes from attractive and elegant people, who encourage you materially, emotionally, and perhaps romantically. You feel good about what you are doing, and you have the resources to get it done.

Relationships are of central importance during the course of the year and contribute to a considerable boost to your self-image. You take the initiative.

There are unique opportunities and challenges affecting you personally right now, which can result in significant lifestyle and relationship changes or modifications. If you would like to see your life going in a different direction, now is the time to take the reins and choose a path which is uniquely suited to you, as described by the influences below.

New expansive life cycle

A twelve year cycle starts around the period from December 2016 to November 2017 – assuming your birth time is reasonably correct – when a new sense of optimism gives you a sense that the world is your oyster. Opportunities arise to expand your horizons, both intellectually through study and meeting influential people, and literally through getting out and seeing the world. An inner conviction grows that you are on the right track after a rather directionless period, and you feel the need to come out with your ideas and make an impact on the way people think. Belief in your self – and in life generally – set the scene for a promising future, limited only by the borders of your imagination. Positive thinking rules, and if you can integrate spirituality and tolerance, you will be well on your way.

Establishing the course

In the period from January 2017 to November 2018 there is an urge to stabilize both the direction your life is going and the important relationships in your life. You can't always get what you want, but you get what you need. In accepting this, you recognize the limitations that are an integral part of life, and willingly accept them. Only by having efficient structures on which you build can stable growth take place, and this means making a long term commitment both to a life path and perhaps also a relationship. What works at this time is cultivating an element of conservatism and restraint, concentrating on one thing at a time, and limiting ambitions both in your career and your love life to what is do-able.

This initial section of the report is connected with your lifestyle and direction, and the factors described above modify this direction as you respond to outside influences and your own inner evolutionary process. Of these factors the most significant during the age of 42 are:

- a time when you experience a surge of optimism and a renewed belief in yourself and the direction your life is going.
- the need to establish a framework for your life and relationships, which you can do by perseverance and commitment.
- a time of renewed enthusiasm and energy, when you are willing to take pioneering new initiatives and fight for short term goals.

Career

EXPANSION OF INFLUENCE AT WORK AND AT HOME

Every year there is a particular focus on your goals and ambitions, and a need to reformulate your mission in life and what you want to achieve. It is equally important to have a good foundation to build your successes on in terms of home and family.

A major theme as regards career during the age of 42 is ambition. The trick is to work hard to overcome challenges and resistance from those in authority, so that you can build up a solid professional foundation. Your determination is being tested, and through good planning and dedicated work, you can pass this test.

This theme awakens your latent urge to accept responsibility and mobilize your ambition. There is an element of insecurity connected with this – can you handle the challenge? – but through hard work and perseverance you create strong foundations for growth.

You realize that you cannot get something for nothing on a professional level, and are therefore prepared to keep expectations low and put in a committed effort to achieve your goals, which you will do in a specific fashion and in a specific area.

To attain success you develop your depth and understanding, which means that training and learning on a high intellectual level are crucial. You can broaden your mind by expanding your horizons, which may bring long-distance travel.

The chief focus in your career is on study, travel and widening your cultural interests. This could mean spending some time abroad or at an institution for higher learning. In this way you gain insight and wisdom.

Certain challenges arise.

One factor that can undermine success right now is a tendency to get drawn into conflict with your peers. If you are looking for trouble, or if someone else is, then energy that could have been used to further your goals will be spread to the winds. Whilst it is important to fight for what you want right now, you will get better results through diplomacy.

This will involve actively making contact with others, as well as travel and education.

Some factors help.

One very positive factor that helps you achieve your professional agenda is your willingness to experiment and take risks. It is your innovation ideas that work now, as well as anything connected with personal development or international groups. Make the most of your cyberspace network!

This is connected with an urge for more space and freedom, when you tend to pursue your own agenda and distance yourself from people who smother you.

One very positive factor that helps you achieve your professional agenda is that partners, or other people you have an affectionate relationship with, will give you optimal support at this time. It pays to integrate an aesthetic element into what you do, and to use your people skills.

One very positive factor that helps you achieve your professional agenda is your ability to draw on your local environment and the important alliances you have made with people, who help you on your path to realize your life mission.

In this process you need to pool your forces with others, giving and receiving help, rather than taking an isolated position.

Challenges and opportunities arise at this time which can bring major changes or adjustments in both your career and your domestic life. The influences described below can bring concrete change, enabling you to live and work on a new level.

Questionable growth opportunities

There are opportunities for expansion of your professional influence and career opportunities in the period from September 2017 to August 2018 but they may involve compromising your principles in some way. As your judgment can be faulted at this time you will need to tread carefully – advisors in particular can lead you astray through weak ethics or the wrong motivation. On the domestic front there are also opportunities of expansion, moving or home improvements, but there may also be differences of opinion with family members. In all these matters it is better to err on the side of restraint – you could be wrong.

Sometimes a time comes when you can actually make a decisive move that defines your unique career potential and the hopes you have for your family. The influences described below show challenges and opportunities that arise now which can bring concrete changes in the framework of your professional life and domestic environment.

During the course of the year after this one there is an important influence which you are very likely to feel already during the course of this year. Perhaps nothing happens right now, but you will sense the following theme developing, even if it is early days:

Adjusting professional and family attachments

Assuming your birth time is precise, the period around September 2018 can upset your emotional equilibrium because of developments that affect both your career and family life. Security is paramount for you, but the time has come for structural changes which require that you adapt and grow. Professionally you are challenged to tune in to collective needs, or to deal with people's feelings and insecurities. In family life – and this is a time when children feature strongly – you mobilize your nurturing qualities whilst at the same time being reminded of your own past and the feelings connected with it. Moving home may be a feature of this period, which will also involve giving up old attachments and developing new. Professional relocation is another possibility. The end result of the changes which you undergo now is a new emotional strength and maturity.

As you always feel a strong attachment to the people and objects you surround yourself with, and this, along with a good economy, is central to your sense of security, this influence will bring greater awareness areas where there is strong bonding in your life.

The career section of this report explains influences in the current year that can cause you to adapt or change professional goals, and make use of opportunities that come your way. Overall, in the area of family and career the major developments you can expect are:

- a time when you have the chance of expansion both professionally and domestically, although it is also possible that you may compromise your better judgment.
- a time of emotional adjustment as changes in your professional and domestic life mean letting go of attachments to the past.
- a time when you mobilize your determination to overcome obstacles to success through hard work and long-term planning.

Personal development

THE FREEDOM OF SURRENDER

During the course of the year you will have a number of character-building experiences, which help you grow and develop as an individual. It is rare for any difficulty to last longer than a period of about eight months, and if you regard challenges that arise as a test that helps you become stronger, then it will be relatively easy for you to overcome them. Similarly, when events boost your confidence, it is pays to take advantage of the limited time available to capitalize on your good fortune.

With your sun in your birth chart in Gemini and in the 8th House this relates to your need to communicate, learn and contact others, in connection with transformation, both psychologically and in the world of power.

An important feature around the age of 42 is an urge to consolidate developments in your life and build a strong foundation for further growth. This is a time when you want your outer life to accurately reflect your inner worth, so material symbols can be important, not least your salary, which reflects the value that is placed on your work. Your appearance is also a focus of attention, and this is an excellent period to do physical workouts as well as to adorn yourself with style. You can play a central role taking the lead in the administration of finances and the economy.

Certain challenges arise.

It is during this period that you are dealing with inner existential issues that can evoke a sense that life is somewhat meaningless. Money, work and relationships cannot provide all the answers – you need to see your life as a whole and bring spiritual evolution into the equation. Meeting a spiritual mentor or absorbing yourself in a new creative activity can bring back color and depth into your life.

This activates a need to find a deeper meaning in your spiritual life by understanding the collective forces of the cosmos.

Some factors help.

It is during this period that you are able to see things in a positive light and access your reserves of personal confidence and faith in the future. It is an excellent period for joining forces with mentors and intellectual heavyweights, and also for expanding your horizons through travel, cultural expression and intellectual attainment. Efforts are greeted with success now, and if you want something hard enough, you will get it.

This will be expressed in your relationships where influential people expand your views through travel and debate.

Certain key influences will present challenges and opportunities to you now as regards your development as an individual. Below you will find effects described, which you will feel more or less powerfully, evoking actions that enable you to stamp your signature on events.

Spiritual confusion

This is period when existential questions gnaw at your psyche. Whilst everything may be going just fine on the surface, there is a longing to have a deeper content in your life and to see your existence in the context of something greater. Material success and a steady relationship cannot in themselves provide the answer to a search for meaning which is in essence spiritual. When surface attachments are shed, you need to feel that there is something in your core which is ever-present and eternal. This sense of dissolution of the identity stems from a trend that lasts from April 2016 to February 2020 and ultimately it leads to an enriching process of self-discovery. By spending as little time as possible on occupations that do not inspire you and instead developing creative interests, a social or ecological conscience or a spiritual path, you create an essential connection to something deep in your soul. This is an excellent time to find a spiritual mentor, though false heroes and father figures will surely end up disappointing you.

Insight brings influence and success

It is at this time that your insight and understanding peak to bring a sense of meaningfulness and personal satisfaction in life. Travel and intellectual development stimulate your confidence in your self and your abilities, and this has a snowball effect in creating success. You have the good fortune to meet wise people, or mentors, who can guide you into new areas of knowledge and understanding. This is the time to capitalize on your assets – a calculated expansion now will surely bring good results, especially in the period from October 2016 to September 2017. Your optimism is infectious in this period, and people seek you out to enjoy both your humor and your insights. Spiritual interests are also favored as a deeper understanding of the meaning and direction of your life dawns.

The personal development section of this report shows influences directly affecting your character, bringing both challenges and personal growth. Of these influences the most crucial are:

- a time when an inner discontent leads you to ask questions about who you are. You search for a deeper spiritual meaning in your life, and find it.
- a time when insight into your identity brings influence and success. Mentors help you expand your understanding and travel widens your horizons.

Feelings and security

EMOTIONAL RESTRAINT

You are in an ongoing process of emotional development, and the focus is constantly changing. As your unconscious mind absorbs impressions during the different phases of your life, you integrate greater depth and understanding of yourself and your relationships. There are specific areas of your life where this influence has a particular significance.

With your moon in your birth chart in Sagittarius and in the 2nd House this relates to your need to expand your world through experiencing new environments, and you will establish security by creating strong material anchors in your life.

Emotionally the age of 42 can be said to reflect a time when you want to bond with another person and share your emotional life. However because of swings in your feelings, relationships can be affected by moodiness and indecisiveness. You learn to attune yourself to other people, but you also need to maintain your individual autonomy and not compromise too much for the sake of peace.

One of the main areas where this influence will be felt is in relationships. Building harmony between yourself and a partner has highest priority now, although there are many ups and downs on the roller coaster of love. Realizing and accepting your dependence on another is a part of the emotional learning process now.

You are rather highly strung emotionally now, partly because there is a lot of excitement and change in your environment. There are times when you feel that something radical has to happen... you want to embrace the future, and be together with people who awaken a new consciousness in you. Even though you instinctively want security, this is a year when you are willing to embrace change.

Certain challenges arise.

There is an unsettling emotional atmosphere during the year. It is difficult or undesirable to put down roots, and to make lasting emotional bonds. This can lead to some highly-strung episodes when you lose emotional perspective... but there is plenty of excitement.

During this period there is a dissonance between family needs and romantic needs. Your loyal commitment to those with who you feel a mutual dependence runs counter to an equal need to be loved and appreciated, which can bring some polarization in relationships.

Emotionally this is a time of crisis and pressure as long-buried issues come to the surface and undermine your security. Some kind of therapy or catharsis is necessary to free you of unhealthy bonds to the past. The time has come to eliminate attachment to people and things that are no longer of help.

This specifically activates a need to transform your career situation and eliminate dependence on oppressive authorities, bringing a new authenticity to your ambitions.

Some factors help.

You are able to galvanize your energy at this time, and motivate people you feel a strong bond to, which means that the people around you are willing to take a risk to boost security and growth. A tremendous enthusiasm sets the world in motion and brings results.

A great deal of your emotional energy – in practical terms at least – is focused on gaining an overview of where you want to go, especially professionally, in your life. This is a time when you widen your perspectives and get insight into the meaning of your life. There are new horizons that open through study or through travel, and you absorb cultural and intellectual input to enrich your understanding. You are discovering new territory all the time and this informs your ideas and opinions and widens your tolerance. Matters of principle become important, and you are far more sensitive to what is right or wrong, especially morally or ethically.

As you grow and mature emotionally, the focus shifts from one area of life to another, and you instinctively absorb the lessons connected with the many different emotional facets of your life.

- Around August 2017 there are uplifting events that make you feel it is good to be alive, as many areas in your life are subject to good fortune and expansion. Travels, especially with the family, can expand your horizons; influential people show appreciation for your personal qualities, also financially, and generally there is a boost in confidence which in turn enhances family harmony and happiness. It is a period when confidence in the future brings positive results.

This activates your natural urge to project a larger than life personality, which generally spreads at atmosphere of fun and joy, or gets expressed in creative projects or with children.

- Around February 2018 an old wound reopens and you become aware of something which has been a source of pain for you for a long time. It seems there is very little you can do about this; a philosophical attitude is best when there are circumstances that are very difficult to change. It is a good time to visit a healer or learn the healing arts yourself.

This opens an old wound in connection with collegial relationships and your working environment, or with specific medical issues.

- Around March 2018 sudden events turn your emotional life upside down and you may go in a completely different direction than originally planned. You have a need to walk on the wild side, to enter uncharted emotional waters, and whatever anyone says, you are prepared to take the risk. You assert your independence and reject the secure option because it feels authentic to be true to your individual impulsive drives. There are dangerous rapids ahead.

The changes and insights you experience in this connection relate to the sense of spiritual alienation that stems from a need for an alternative explanation of the cosmos.

The influences described below will have an even more profound effect on your emotional life, awakening a powerful and often unconscious response. Ultimately this brings insight into your early conditioning and enables you to modify the way you instinctively react.

Removal of the comfort zone

During a period that is likely to cover from February 2016 to December 2017 you will experience mounting emotional pressure that undermines your comfort zone. The fact is that so much of your life unrolls without you being aware of it, constrained by habits and expectations that solidified years ago. If there is to be development and growth then the structure of your everyday life, which you unconsciously have accepted over time, must change. That is the meaning of the challenges that now arise; the discomfort you feel when your security is undermined is a signal that you need to evolve beyond the dependencies you have created in the past, take the challenge to build something new, and rise to the new responsibilities that inevitable come in your home and family life. You may feel isolated now, or unpopular, as your usual pillars of support are removed. Don't take this personally – there are opportunities ahead that will enable you to build new emotional foundations that will allow the kind of growth you are really looking for.

Expansion of comfort zone

A period of expansion in your personal life takes place from November 2016 to October 2017 which brings a general sense of well-being, partly based on a deeper understanding of the unconscious factors that motivate your actions. Your comfort zone expands – you are more comfortable with yourself, and more comfortable with your role in a family that is likely to be extended considerably. If you wish enlarge your home, move, or invest in property, good fortune tends to come your way without too much effort. Parents in particular can be very supportive, as will your environment in general. You have the confidence and faith to give empathy and support to those in need, and can show those people who are attached to you just how to enjoy life and have a good time.

This section maps out the timing and intensity of influences in your life that absorb your interest on a daily level, profoundly affecting everything, from your work to your family life. These influences constitute your emotional growth during the course of the year, and the main themes are:

- a time of emotional pressure that is a consequence of developments that undermine your security. Now is the time to let go of old habits and dependency.
- a time when you experience a boost in confidence and happy developments at home and in your family life.
- a time when you widen your horizons through travel and education and absorb a new and more tolerant world view.

Mental Development

PROLONGED LEARNING AND STUDY

Gaining skills through education and other forms of training is a major ingredient for success, both professionally and in relationships. Through developing your communication talents you can make contacts and build networks which facilitate progress.

With Mercury in your birth chart in Cancer and in the 9th House this relates to your deep and intuitive mental sensitivity, which takes you on many intellectual journeys as you seek to widen the scope of your mind.

During the age of 42 your mental focus is on managing resources. You are concerned with what has solid value... what can be weighed and measured. You adopt a practical and realistic approach and limit yourself to facts and concrete issues. Administering finances is important now, as well as giving value for money.

Family matters absorb much of your daily thoughts. You can improve your skills in communication with children and loved ones. You may also be absorbed in property matters and neighborhood meetings.

Certain challenges arise.

You are confronted with paths going in different directions during the course of the year, and you may have to maintain connections with two quite disparate groups or sets of interests. You can listen to your heart, or listen to your head, but ultimately you need to release interests connected with the past, and follow the signpost to the future.

Some factors help.

You overcome a handicap and discover unusual teaching or healing abilities in the process. Sometimes a disability of some sort can bring a specific advantage in connection with learning skills.

The influences described below will bring additional opportunities and challenges in the field of communication. By rising to educational challenges and improving communication skills, you can add to your skills and capabilities.

Exasperation

There seem to be difficulties and delays in all sorts of ways in this period. Whether it is connected with travel, communication, relations or education, there are knotty problems that take time and can be the source of considerable frustration. This is a testing period mentally, and short cuts are not permitted. If projects seem overwhelming, divide them into smaller tasks and concentrate on them rather than thinking about the whole project. It is important to plan well now, and to put more effort into the task at hand. You need to learn the basic skills, so be patient – with yourself and with your colleagues. This mentally challenging period lasts from December 2017 to October 2019 and you will emerge from it with a much better grasp of the issues than you had at the beginning. The essential thing is to avoid worry and negative thinking, which will only wear you down physically and mentally, and to rise to each small challenge with determination and a positive attitude.

Expansion of contacts and mental skills

The period from October 2017 to September 2018 is a time of success for you in all your mental endeavors, and this is a major contributing factor to personal happiness and satisfaction. Travel is favored, and brings extraordinary pleasures. Great teachers appear and expand the boundaries of your understanding. You make progress in leaps and bounds. Anything to do with foreign cultures and languages is crowned with success. Your knowledge base and intellectual understanding peak, and people are eager to hear what you have learned. Relationships with people of like mind, and true partnerships, are favored at this time, with agreement easily being reached on a shared agenda.

Your mental evolution is a product of the people you encounter during your life, who evoke certain qualities in you, as well as your contact with institutions of learning and educational media. The lessons you learn give depth and breadth to your personal message to the world. This year new opportunities arise.

Last year the following influence peaked, but it still has a very important effect at the age of 42. You are still digesting the changes in this area, and beginning to integrate them in your life.

Cultural awareness

Development of skills tends to be an interaction between learning and communication, coupled with an inner personal sense of what you like and are attracted to. In this way you build up your own personal value system and set of skills. The period around February 2017 is a time of good fortune and excellence in this respect. You meet gifted people who have a beneficial affect on your taste and judgment. You learn to express yourself diplomatically and with charm. A sister can have an extremely beneficial affect now, and for several years into the future. You can also join forces with a particular person to whom you feel a romantic but perhaps asexual attraction, with whom you share the same ideas and values. This is an excellent time for friendships, siblings and children. You get engaged in a learning environment with people whose company you really enjoy. Your love of music, poetry and the arts increases and cultural interaction enriches your daily life.

Love and romance awakens the urge for a serious partnership, and if you are single, for marriage. A partnership has to fulfill your romantic dreams now. You are ready to give your heart to another.

The influences described in this section challenge you to develop intellectually, socially and in relation to others. Of all these influences, in terms of the enhancement and development of your mental skills the most significant will be:

- a time of frustrations and delays in travel and mental pursuits, requiring patience, discipline and good planning.
- a time when you have the great good fortune to expand your sphere of interest through travel, a mentor, or study.
- a happy time socially and romantically bringing educational and cultural enrichment.
- development of your ability to manage financial resources and create the conditions for economic security

Values, Love and Relationships

OVERCOMING RELATIONSHIP CHALLENGES

Your need for relationship is very much dependant on your tastes, and early family experiences of bonding. These factors determine whether you feel attraction or not, or whether you are simply indifferent. People of similar tastes are instinctively attracted to you, as you are to them, and this is the basis of personal harmony in your relationships.

With Venus in your birth chart in Taurus and in the 7th House this relates to your need to for solid values in relationships , which you will express in all personal relationships, evoking much affection in others.

In relationship matters you are willing to act spontaneously and impulsively during the age of 42. When you get potential partners in your sights you are willing to fight for them – indeed a bit of competition actually stimulates your appetite. Such single-mindedness can lead you into dangerous territory, but during the course of the year winning is everything, so you are not receptive to those advising caution. Fools rush in where wise men fear to tread.

Relationships are a number one priority for you during the course of the year, and you will have a magnetic effect on others through the power of your attraction. You are not averse to spending more money on yourself and your appearance to enhance your seductive powers, indeed it is important for you to recognize your value and exercise your charms. This will undoubtedly increase the romantic potential for you now.

Your attraction to the opposite sex awakens animal drives now, so there can be indiscretions. You are easily provoked and aroused, and this means that existing relationships can be afflicted by troubles, whilst you may make some risky judgments in choice of mate. This can be an interesting and exciting time sexually, but you fight like cat and dog.

You are empowered by the following.

Unpredictable and electrifying experiences tend to happen in relationships during the course of the year, either through involvement in an exciting group, or because you encounter someone who is so different from you culturally, that every day is a new learning experience. Commitment is not what you have in mind – but excitement... that's guaranteed.

Some factors help.

You are happy to make long-term commitments now, and good sense pervades the important relationships in your life, leading to sound investments and consolidating in all areas. You are attracted to mature people and see beyond the frivolity of romantic love to more practical concerns. This can lead to professional advancement.

You meet kind and loving people who help you with social introductions and welcome you into groups that are interested in art and culture. There is a sense of a higher quality of life because of the social circles you move in. This is a favorable time to meet a soul mate who can have a beneficial effect on your future development.

You manage to harmoniously integrate your values and desires, and this brings fruitful and enriching relationships, not least erotically. You are aware of and respect the difference between the sexes, which simply serves to spice up your life. Working well with the opposite sex you can get a lot of creative work done.

There are other major changes affecting relationships and values at this time, and the influences described below will bring opportunities to modify your need for others, and ultimately develop better ways of relating authentically.

Freedom in relationships

A new epoch is starting in your life – if your birth time is accurate – regarding the way you relate to the world and important people who are close to you. Change comes now because of a growing need to see the world and experience new people – people who inspire you to think in radical new ways. This brings consciousness growth in connection with groups and perhaps also new connections abroad and travel. Existing relationships must adapt and provide far more space now, so that both you and your partner can evolve and grow. Neither you nor your loved ones can tolerate restriction, dominance or manipulative behavior – love is also about setting people free. If you are in a relationship that you have longed to get out of, this could be the time. If you are not in a relationship you may well meet an unusual person, a foreigner perhaps, who takes you on a wild ride. If you have enemies at this time, don't underestimate them, as you are vulnerable to a surprise attack. You take the freedom now to learn new and rather unconventional skills for dealing with people, and this can change how you work professionally. This exciting period can be expected to last from April 2017 to March 2020, and it will lead to a new life full of freedom and possibility.

Self-reliance in relationships

In the period from December 2017 to January 2019 you develop a certain self-sufficiency in relationships, learning that love must be given from a position of strength, not need or dependence. If you feel dissatisfied or rejected at this time, it is part of a development process that requires taking responsibility for your emotional needs. The more you ask from others, the less appreciated you will be. The more you give, the more you will be loved. If relationships cannot stand the test of time now, you have the determination to go it alone, though this is also a good time to meet someone, perhaps an older person, and make a commitment. Financially this may not be a time when money is plentiful, but it is an excellent time for creating the conditions for wealth through economic planning and restraint.

Strong romantic and material appetites

You are willing to go out on a limb for the sake of relationships, and perhaps also take a large economic risk in the period from September 2017 to August 2018. Whether your judgment is good on this is questionable, and they may also be ethical or moral concerns. Still, there is an intoxication with love, and desires are strong. Some might say life has to be lived here and now, others would say live now pay later. In the interests of economy, you may wish to check out an extra time whether you need the things you desire. As far as love is concerned, take care not to compromise what is truly valuable for short term gain. The emphasis is on travel for love and culturally different partners. What you long for in a relationship now is intellectual stimulation and a widening of your horizons. This can be achieved through involvement in cultural events.

The influences described in this section will all have a significant effect on the way you relate to the world. In terms of your material values and matters of love, the most important of all these influences will be:

- new winds that blow in relationships, bring travel or contact with abroad, or involvement with unconventional groups that bring personal growth.
- a time when you develop self-reliance in your relationships, and learn to look after yourself rather than be dependant on others for appreciation or financial support.
- a strong stimulation of your romantic nature with a corresponding difficulty in making the right judgment.
- competitiveness in love and the tendency to follow your romantic impulses.

Sex, work, willpower and assertion

PURSUING TOTAL FREEDOM

Nothing is achieved in life without the force and determination to go for what you want. There are battles to be won and obstacles to be overcome, and this means being able to assert yourself, and to mobilize your courage to face challenges and overcome resistance.

With Mars in your birth chart in Cancer and in the 9th House this relates to your fierce protective instincts and aggressive sensitivity, and this manifests as an energetic urge to propagate your views, and explore the world.

As regards personal drive the age of 42 is a year when you are stirred by powerful emotions within connected with home and family. You are fiercely protective, but emotions tend to boil over and create domestic upsets. You fight for what is dear on a very instinctual level.

Your energy and will is channeled into developing your mind and personal network. This brings increased activity reading, writing, traveling and communicating. You tend to be a bit pushy getting your message across, and this can lead to sharp exchanges with people in your local environment, siblings or neighbors.

This is a year when you mobilize all your determination and willpower to overcome obstacles that have been there for a long time. There are frustrations, both sexually and with authorities. You run into obstacles; but where there is a will, there is a way.

Certain challenges arise.

There are frustrations whichever way you turn, but ultimately they serve to build up your willpower. Authoritative or dominating men can be a pain, but you should avoid kicking against the pricks. Build up muscle power through determined training.

An old wound is opened and painful memories awakened. You are willing to take up a struggle but flirting with danger could create more pain. Sometimes surrender and acceptance is the way to go, but if you choose to do battle, perfect your weaponry.

Some factors help.

People and groups you are involved with look to you to take energetic initiatives to create change and progress. You discover a new zest for life and throw your energy into being with the people who mean the most for your future.

There are other powerful influences at this time, which bring both challenges to your autonomy and independence, and opportunities for leadership and self assertion. The influences described below bring out your survival abilities and evoke a fighting spirit that can ultimately empower you.

Reckless behavior

There is a willingness to take some extreme risks this year, and this influence is most acute from May 2016 to February 2020. This is a time when unpredictable events evoke the fighting spirit in you, even though you might have expected peace and quiet. You can be both provoked and provocative, but the idea is to shake you out of your complacency so that exciting new dimensions can arise in your life. There is an awakening of your physical nature now, and this can ultimately lead to a more stimulating sex life and generally enhanced body awareness. You are attracted to unpredictable people and there may be a lot of enervating travel in this connection. A strong – and perhaps unreasonable – need for freedom brings trouble at work and with the authorities. Really you would be happier in a free-lance position at this time. Whilst freedom is important, if you are completely insensitive to the needs of others, you could find yourself out in the cold.

Bulldozing the opposition

Nothing can stop you getting what you want in the period from December 2016 to November 2017, as you have the confidence to go for it, and you are willing to take risks. This gung-ho attitude can attract considerable disapproval from people who know better, and you can waste energy discussing with or fighting people who have different views than your own. If you can channel your energy constructively, you can expand your sphere of influence and intellectual capacity, but your appetites are so strong that you are inclined to make misjudgments. You may want to develop your body through fitness and sport – it is at least a great channel for your growing energy. Your sexual appetite is also strong at this time, and you can bend the rules to satisfy your desires. There is an attraction to foreigners, adventurers and intellectuals.

The influences described in this section will bring changes in the way you strive for achievement. Of the many influences affecting your energy, sexuality and assertiveness this year the main areas to be aware of are:

- Risk-taking in pursuit of excitement and change, leading to changes in the work scene and a good deal more travel.
- a time when you are unstoppable, but at the same time you tend to be impervious to how other people feel when you go for what you want.
- a time of fierce protectiveness towards the family and considerable oversensitivity.

Collective trends

PRACTICAL METHODS FOR DEALING WITH ANXIETY

The influences mentioned so far in this analysis have an effect on your psychological evolution and fate which is strictly personal. There are other influences on your life based on your relationship to the collective, which can be just as exciting and stimulating for you, even though they may not evoke dramatic personal change.

Discovering the cracks

In the period March 2017 to December 2018 you are immersed in a power play with forces much greater than you – whether it be something in the environment, involvement with powerful authorities, or with people and institutions that control a great deal of money. There may be a secretive element to your dealings, and it is difficult to know what is really going on. On an inner level too, deep emotions may want to break through to the surface, though it may seem crucial to keep them contained. Under these seismic pressures, cracks appear in the surface of your life. Perhaps you have to ask yourself whether the foundations you are building your professional or family life on are rooted on stable ground? You have a responsibility to investigate the psychological issues that are formative for your character – only in this way can you eliminate unsafe structures and replace them with something that lasts.

Transcendence

During this period you are inspired by a vision for the future and a sense of possibility. There are no limits to your imaginative powers right now, and if channeled correctly this can lead to truly amazing spiritual insight or creative breakthroughs. However your imagination can also lead you astray if historically you have a tendency to be unrealistically optimistic. A hot air balloon reveals a wonderful panorama, but without sufficient fuel or sufficient ballast, it can be quite dangerous. Likewise you need to beware of get-rich-quick schemes, seductive gurus and people who capitalize on other people's credulity. You can let your head reach the clouds as long as your feet are planted firmly on the earth. This period of enhanced imaginative powers stems from a trend that lasts April 2017 to December 2020 and can bring a completely new vista and the discovery and use of transcendent powers.

Bridging old and new

The period November 2016 to December 2017 is a time when you consolidate the new thinking which characterizes your generation, and see it integrate into the existing structures of society. You can build a bridge between the old and the new now, maintaining respect for tradition, whilst facilitating change and new possibilities. You can make friends amongst those older than yourself, and build relationships which are mutually beneficial. By keeping the balance between the old and the new, you maintain your professional edge. To make your mark in society you need to express your own unique individual qualities; this is the time to do so whilst working within the established system to make sure your contribution is implemented.

During the age of 42 you are in a phase of your personal evolution when all that has been built up in previous decades is called into question, because there is a sense that it can no longer fulfill your destiny. You may go through the motions, but the results will reflect the waning energy that you invest. You may cast about for something new to bring vitality and inspiration, but there will be many false starts. Still, the seed of a new future is discovered at this time, though it is early days. The sense of dissolution that characterizes this period moves you to turn within and consider the constant change and transience of human life, and this in turn brings spiritual growth and insights.

Seen from another viewpoint, there is a purposeful evolution in your life, and each of the events that arise can be seen as milestones on the journey of your soul. There are some fields of your experience which you are all too familiar with, and perhaps you need to relinquish your attachment to them. Other areas of experience present new and interesting challenges for your soul, and require total immersion.

The primary evolutionary focus in the year is centered on your understanding of the meaning of life and your place in the big picture. This is a time to travel far and wide both physically and intellectually in the search for answers. Energy is not to be dissipated on idle chat and repetitive commuting. Development comes through seeking out wise people who can expand your spiritual and cultural horizons.

The collective influences described above are very much related to the generation of which you are a part, and opportunities now arise to capitalize on trends that your generation will resonate to. The most important of these are:

- a time when there are dealings with implacable people and institutions, exposing your anxieties about survival in society.
- a time when many possibilities for the future entrance you. Unrealistic schemes may not work, but this is an excellent period for spiritual growth and understanding.
- a time when you are encouraged by the establishment to manifest those qualities which make you unique.

The influences described in this report are based on planetary cycles, transits of the outer planets and progressions of the inner planets in an integrated description which also takes into account the major factors in your birth horoscope. Thousands of factors are taken into consideration, making this report completely unique to you for the next twelve months. Rather than make specific predictions, we have tried to describe how you can make the most out of the many changes that are taking place. By defining what you really want, and going for it, you can weather the storms and currents described in this report and come safely to the destination that you are aiming for. It is in this context that the major events of this year should be seen.

Some of the themes from this year will continue into the next year, and some completely new themes will arise. Looking at the three most important events at the age of 43 you can expect change in the following areas:

You will experience and welcome change in the important relationships in your life. Ultimately this gives you the space and freedom to develop higher consciousness and get involved with groups of people, or individuals, who initiate you into radically new way of relating.

A time that brings tremendous stimulus to your imaginative powers, and awakens dreams of a utopian future. Without the ballast of common sense, top-heavy dreams will collapse. Correctly channeled this is a time of spiritual development and growth.

Structural changes in your professional or family life lead to a period of insecurity as you let go of attachment to the past and relate to new habits and environments. By mobilizing your ability to protect and nurture, you can cement family bonds and develop career potential.

These events - both good and bad - can be seen as a treasure chest for the personal journey of your soul. Every event that arises has meaning for you and is a result and consequence of previous actions. If you are able to see the challenges that arise as opportunities for constructive change, then your growth will be rapid, and you will be able to truly appreciate and enjoy the many positive events that also arise during the course of your year.

HOW TO READ YOUR ASTRO CALENDAR REPORT

The AstroCalendar report from World of Wisdom enables you to plan your moves for a period of three months and to perfect your timing in your love life, your relationships and your career. This report is based on the movement of the planets in this period in relation to your birth horoscope (which is shown as a full color wheel at the beginning of the report). Transits of all the planets - Sun, Moon, Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune and Pluto - are mapped, and the precise influence of these contact to your birth chart is described in a short and concise text.

However, it is not enough to read about an influence. What is important is to know how to act. There are times when it is crucial to take action, and times when it is wise to keep a low profile or remain passive. In relationships, sometimes you need to powerfully defend your position, at other times it helps to know when you may be on the wrong track. The AstroCalendar report helps you by imagining what kind of questions you might ask yourself as a result of the astrological influence. And providing answers.

What would happen for example, if the planet of love, Venus, came to conjoin Mars in your horoscope? The AstroCalendar report describes this influence in this way:

Love and Excitement: You are turned on today. Dance, romance and make love. Be assertive and forget the finer sensibilities for a while. Enjoy your desires.

It then goes on to suggest that you may ask the question: Is it OK to flirt? and the answer is clearly: If you don't flirt today, you'll never flirt. The suggestion of sex definitely spices up life, and today you should be thinking about how to be more alive..

By using a question and answer technique in the reports (there are three questions and three answers for each influence) you, the reader, have to really think about what you are feeling, and if you are in doubt, then the answers will enable you to follow what you unconsciously know is the right path. In this way you can use the report to plan ahead, avoiding days when negative trends decrease your chances of success, and making the most of days that are astrologically favorable for you.

Whilst this report shows trends that last from just one day to several months, it is important to also understand your personal birth chart in depth. If you have not already had one made, it is really worth ordering World of Wisdom's Birth Horoscope report. This describes your character in detail, both in relationships and in your career, and it also contains a more detailed description of long-term trends that are affecting your life in the years ahead. If you would like to learn more about your horoscope, a concise description of the planets, signs, aspects and houses is included at the end of this report.

Some things to remember when you read your report: Some things to remember when you read your report:

Your birthday: The program registers when the Sun returns to the exact place it was when you were born. In some cases this can happen on the day before or after your official birthday!

If you find there are days when there are no influences, this is because no planets activate your birth horoscope that day (although the Moon will).

The influence of the Sun, Mercury, Venus and Mars is very transient, whilst that of Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune and Pluto can last many months. All the interpretations take this time element into consideration.

Retrograde movement: Occasionally the planets appear to stop and move backwards (owing to their relative movement in relation to that of the Earth). This can mean that the same influence will be shown more than once in the report.
