Dear Karin,

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

The age of 21 sees you poised on the threshold of adult life after a radical process of change during which you have asserted your unique individual qualities and to a certain extent tuned in to the essential aspect of your fate that gives your life purpose. Now is the time to consider how you can use your natural resources and childhood inheritance to define the direction you want your life to take so that it will have meaning for you. You will meet people and get involved with groups who guide you on this path. This is a year when you tend to assert your opinions strongly, sometimes for no other purpose than airing your views. You exercise your intellectual muscle, but you are not always right. Your opinions are considerably constrained by the demands of society. A strong sense of duty guides you, and the insights you gain remind you that some kind of structure is necessary to contain growth. Optimism is therefore tempered by a somber realism. With age, you can become an intellectual authority. This is expressed very much in home and family matters this year—parents, children, property etc. An expansion is sure to take place in this area now, and the greatest insight is harvested through an understanding of family dynamics, and an exploration of improvement possibilities at home.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life you are working hard to develop educational and communication skills that will serve you well into the future. This is a challenging task, and there will be times when confidence in your intellectual abilities is low, or when you simply feel the process is too long or too full of setbacks. This is when you have to apply yourself with more determination than ever. Avoid being defensive about what you do not know or cannot do; just plan to improve step by step. These influences started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. You will reach your goal, and in the process you will build a valuable network of contacts who appreciate your diligence and application.

In this period of your life there is a major transition process that puts the focus on home-building and family life. For several years it has been important for you to develop your educational and communication skills and increase your reach through travel and networking with others. But now it is crucial to put down roots, and you find yourself thinking back to your own heritage and upbringing with a view to create a nurturing environment for those who are dependant on you. These new influences start growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. During this time you will have established a very solid base from which to make forays out into the world. But it is early days yet, and right now you may feel ill-prepared. It starts by taking responsibility for the family and working on the home.

Opportunities for Success

An awareness of the spiritual forces behind your individual evolution has enriched your understanding of your self and the universe, and this now ushers in a period from September - 2016 to October - 2017 when you are ready to emerge from seclusion and apply this inner wisdom more directly in your dealings with others. A new confidence is reflected by a more forceful personal presence in which your ideas and opinions pave the way for personal expansion.

Having gained tremendous insight into the direction your life in the period, a new period is ushered in from October - 2017 to November - 2018 when the focus moves to your earning capacity. You gain a better understanding as to what it takes to strengthen your economy, and what assets you need to develop. This understanding leads to increased personal resources and a broadening of your economic base, which will provide the foundation for increased growth.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 21. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- A period when a deep interest in psychological influences in your character is awakened through therapy or other study. People or studies that may have interested you in the past are dropped in favor of a new fascination with secrets and people who have the answers to them.
- A new cycle of professional growth begins now, but things go slow because you need to build a solid foundation if you really want to realize a long term vision. Allow yourself to be guided by the voice of experience, but maintain a clear vision of what you want to achieve.
- Challenges arise which at first powerfully affect your self confidence, as successes are few and far between and recognition and respect lacking. By working on building your character and patiently shouldering responsibility, you establish a position of confidence.
