Dear pan,

Thank you for ordering your Year Ahead report, which I hope will help you to understand the harmony between yourself and the universe and enable you to initiate the changes you want in life.

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

As you enter your 66th year, there are quite a number of issues that you have to get your teeth into. Long-term challenges that you have been working on all your life are very much in the forefront. Challenges now have a lot to do with an innate tendency to be critical, both of yourself and others. You are motivated to be helpful and place yourself at the service of others, but at the same time you need to establish limits, so that you also have the time to realize your own agenda. Ultimately you learn how you and all other beings are integrated into a greater whole. These challenges have a lot to do with a latent insecurity that you feel about your mental abilities. Problematic communication with siblings and people at school early in your life, undermine confidence and effect educational performance later on. Yet study and intellectual discipline bring stronger and stronger results as you get older. This is a time when you realize the wisdom of accepting the limitations that arise from circumstances that cannot be changed - but it need not stop you making a big effort to overcome problems that can be changed.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period the major challenges lie in your working life, which probably needs to be made more efficient through streamlining working methods and improving interaction with colleagues. Health-wise too, this is an excellent time for working on self-improvement. This influence started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. You will probably encounter considerable frustration in your dealings with people in the working environment, and this process is designed to enhance your ability to compromise and to fit in for the good of the whole. To be happy at work now you need to work hard and have a plan. You do not have to have a subordinate role, if you are willing to shoulder responsibility. But you do not have to stick at a job which is beneath you either. Establish your credentials, work hard and advance.

In this period of your life there is a transition in your dealings with people, as you move from interacting with people on a practical level in connection with your work and daily life, to actually learning how to deal with partners on a one to one basis. This new influence starts growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. It is the beginning of an outgoing epoch in your life; the big test comes in how you live up to partnership responsibilities. There are major challenges, demands are made on you, and you have to on the one hand resist giving others the blame for your issues, whilst on the other you need to establish limits to what you are prepared to accept in a relationship. You have to work at partnership now and make a commitment, though it is no use expending any more time on hopeless relationships. What you start now can last a long time.

Opportunities for Success

Having developed your education and communication skills, and widened your network of contacts through travel, there is an urge to expand your influence and potential on the home front between September - 2016 and October - 2017. This brings insight and good fortune connected with property and family. At this time you broaden your emotional foundations, partly because you gain understanding of the influence of your upbringing, and partly because you are curious to learn more about how to create a nurturing and stimulating environment for yourself and those near to you.

After having built up comfortable circumstances in your domestic life, what is important for you between October - 2017 and November - 2018 is to appreciate the fruits of having a satisfying base, so that you can express yourself through creative activity and enjoy the art of living. Expansion and satisfaction come from living life to the full - through sport, festivity, love, children and romance. This is the time to fully be yourself without reservations or doubt. Larger than life characters will show you how through encouraging you to celebrate existence.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 66. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- Challenges arise which at first powerfully affect your self confidence, as successes are few and far between and recognition and respect lacking. By working on building your character and patiently shouldering responsibility, you establish a position of confidence.
- There is a growing desire for excitement and change, and you are willing to take risks to realize this desire. This can bring changes at work, where you require more space and independence. In your private life there may be a need for more sexual experimentation.
- A time that makes you keenly aware of what is missing from your life and work that would satisfy your dreams and imagination. Music and the arts bring renewed pleasure, repetition and routine undermine your spirit. This is the time to express your creative communicative powers.
