Report for September 05, 2017 to September 05, 2018

Dear Bridgette,

Thank you for ordering your Year Ahead report, which I hope will help you to understand the harmony between yourself and the universe and enable you to initiate the changes you want in life.

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

As you enter your fifties and commence a new decade, there is the realization that your character is now fully developed - you are who you are - it is now more a question of building on your talents, resources and achievements rather than proving yourself anew. You can be assessed by what you have achieved so far in life, and what there is to come is very much a bonus defined by your attitude and will. The challenge at this time is to find renewed hope and vision, yet it is a time when misjudgments tend to take place, either through lack of confidence or through being overly hopeful about the future. You tend to insist on following your own convictions without being sensitive to the opinions of others. At the same time, there are deeper issues connected with your mortality, and your ability to pass on the body of wisdom you have acquired to those who follow after you. You are poignantly aware of areas in your inner life that need healing, or where there are flaws and weaknesses, for they will surely surface in your 50th year. For you this is profoundly connected with an old spiritual wound that has constantly reminded you of the helplessness of the individual in the greater scheme of things. This is the time when the knowledge of universal suffering brings a wisdom of its own. This is manifested as discomfort in relation to others, perhaps because relationship choices often focus on people who feel they have a handicap. Through others you learn to develop specific and unique skills that can heal others.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life the major challenges are in connection with home, family and your foundations. This influence started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. Many emotional issues come to the fore at this time as your attention is drawn to problems and obstacles at home that you need to work on and improve. Baggage from your early upbringing stands in the way of intimacy, and this is experienced as emotional pressure at home. It seems like the walls are closing in around you, but if you put your mind to it you can make constructive changes in the home environment that will provide you with a stable base for the future. Once you have established strong foundations - and you will - you can proceed to an outgoing and creative phase in your life.

In this period of your life, much has fallen into place in the home and family environment, and there is a sense that you have put down roots and created solid foundations for future growth. A transition now takes place which puts the focus on your creative potential, and you start to ask yourself serious questions about your capabilities, and when you are going to do something concrete about self-expression. These new influences start growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. You sense the challenge in all areas where you are likely to be judged - children, attracting lovers, performing - and you need to overcome a certain lack of confidence and put your self on the line. To enjoy life to the full you need to give yourself to the full, and recognition comes when you do this without holding back.

Opportunities for Success

Having gained tremendous insight into the direction your life in the period, a new period is ushered in from September - 2016 to October - 2017 when the focus moves to your earning capacity. You gain a better understanding as to what it takes to strengthen your economy, and what assets you need to develop. This understanding leads to increased personal resources and a broadening of your economic base, which will provide the foundation for increased growth.

Once you have learned how to capitalize on your unique resources and gain confidence and self-assurance, you need to reach out to others between October - 2017 to November - 2018. This leads to travel and an expansion of your skills educationally. This is a great year to widen your network of contacts. Through increased communication on all levels, you learn how to make sure-footed progress.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 50. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- A time that evokes a deep dissatisfaction or confusion about who you are and where you are going. In your search for answers to existential questions you discover new and inspiring paths that have a social, creative or spiritual content.
- There are many changes in your social life and relationships, as you seek more excitement, space and freedom. Involvement in fringe groups brings consciousness growth. Encounters with people from radically different cultures bring new methods of relating.
- A period that represents a time in your life when buried issues rise to the surface calling for awareness and change. This is the time to recognize situations that are losing energy, and abandon lost causes, embarking on a period of renewal and deep-rooted change.
