MINIREPORT FOR YOUR CURRENT YEAR

Johanna: July 01, 1944

Report for July 01, 2017 to July 01, 2018

Dear Johanna,

Thank you for ordering your Year Ahead report, which I hope will help you to understand the harmony between yourself and the universe and enable you to initiate the changes you want in life.

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

The age of 73 can see you running into obstacles, both predictable and unpredictable, and you will need to use the life experience you have acquired to overcome them. Relationships in particular can run into choppy waters, perhaps because you are confronted by aspects of your own nature that have always been rather difficult, even though you may have thought you were on top of them. Challenges now have a lot to do with family circumstances that have been restrictive or repressive, or challenging in other ways. This has led to a certain emotional defensiveness which gives effective protection on the one hand, but stands in the way of harmonious developments later, that could bring a rewarding family life. It pays to soften up. These challenges have a lot to do with a latent insecurity which you have felt since childhood, which has made you shy and reticent about your ability to make a favorable impression. Time is a great healer, and the older you get, the more confident you become. You meet the challenges of life head on, and this ultimately brings success. Furthermore your judgment may not be at its best. The convictions you have acquired through the years have served as guidelines for you, but it is never too late to adapt and change what you believe to be true.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period the major challenges lie in your working life, which probably needs to be made more efficient through streamlining working methods and improving interaction with colleagues. Health-wise too, this is an excellent time for working on self-improvement. This influence started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. You will probably encounter considerable frustration in your dealings with people in the working environment, and this process is designed to enhance your ability to compromise and to fit in for the good of the whole. To be happy at work now you need to work hard and have a plan. You do not have to have a subordinate role, if you are willing to shoulder responsibility. But you do not have to stick at a job which is beneath you either. Establish your credentials, work hard and advance.

In this period of your life there is a transition in your dealings with people, as you move from interacting with people on a practical level in connection with your work and daily life, to actually learning how to deal with partners on a one to one basis. This new influence starts growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. It is the beginning of an outgoing epoch in your life; the big test comes in how you live up to partnership responsibilities. There are major challenges, demands are made on you, and you have to on the one hand resist giving others the blame for your issues, whilst on the other you need to establish limits to what you are prepared to accept in a relationship. You have to work at partnership now and make a commitment, though it is no use expending any more time on hopeless relationships. What you start now can last a long time.

Opportunities for Success

Having developed your education and communication skills, and widened your network of contacts through travel, there is an urge to expand your influence and potential on the home front between September - 2016 and October - 2017. This brings insight and good fortune connected with property and family. At this time you broaden your emotional foundations, partly because you gain understanding of the influence of your upbringing, and partly because you are curious to learn more about how to create a nurturing and stimulating environment for yourself and those near to you.

After having built up comfortable circumstances in your domestic life, what is important for you between October - 2017 and November - 2018 is to appreciate the fruits of having a satisfying base, so that you can express yourself through creative activity and enjoy the art of living. Expansion and satisfaction come from living life to the full - through sport, festivity, love, children and romance. This is the time to fully be yourself without reservations or doubt. Larger than life characters will show you how through encouraging you to celebrate existence.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 73. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- You enter an exciting and stimulating period which radically extends your horizons. This can bring long-distance travels and contact with alternative cultures, and it can also bring new intellectual interests of a non-conformist nature.
- An exceedingly optimistic period begins when you gain insight into the meaning and direction of your life, expand your boundaries of knowledge and learning and widen your horizons through travel. This is a time when you develop a humorous attitude to life.
- You have the time and the will to mobilize your energy over the long term to produce creative results. This is a great time for physical work, training and building. Good planning and a willing assistant can bring lasting practical results in your life.
