Dear Wendy,

Thank you for ordering your Year Ahead report, which I hope will help you to understand the harmony between yourself and the universe and enable you to initiate the changes you want in life.

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

You may be in your mid-sixties, but as you enter your 65th year, your mental interests are as alive as they have ever been. However this is a year when there are a number of practical matters that occupy your mind. It is important to take concrete steps to deal with worries that may arise. There are challenges that simply require perseverance, commitment and concentration. Challenges now have a lot to do with a long history of difficulties in relation to others. It seems that much is demanded of you in personal relationships, which require long-term application and commitment. Yet by taking responsibility and respecting the views and values of others, you can build a strong position in society as an unbiased and fair-minded person. These challenges have a lot to do with a latent insecurity that you feel about your mental abilities. Problematic communication with siblings and people at school early in your life, undermine confidence and effect educational performance later on. Yet study and intellectual discipline bring stronger and stronger results as you get older. This is also a year when some kind of reorientation or realignment is necessary. The crucial question when looking at the balance of your life right now is whether focus on a need to prove yourself through creative achievement, children and love, prevents you from realizing the benefits of pooling your skills with a group. Perhaps true inspiration comes through being part of a greater social movement rather than through personal acclaim. Even more specifically it is worth considering whether a conviction that you should be true to yourself and your own agenda is preventing you from forming satisfying relationships where the spirit of compromise is uppermost. People or groups who are no longer significant for the development of your soul may recede into the background now, and new people may turn up who have a role to play in your future.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life you are focused on developing your creative skills and displaying the fruit of hard-working efforts to express yourself. This influence started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. Overcoming reticence and concern about whether what you produce is good enough is a major issue. There is considerable sensitivity about everything which is a reflection of who you are - your children, your love life and your ability to shine in social gatherings. In brief your ability to enjoy the art of living. If you cannot achieve spontaneity and be carefree, do not worry. What is needed is committed application to activities that interest you. Repeated failure always paves the way to success if you cultivate the virtue of perseverance.

In this period of your life you are searching for ways to apply your creative skills in practice. You have been working hard to overcome blockages in self-expression and to acquire the confidence to put yourself and your creativity on the line. A transition is now taking place that requires committed cooperation with others to put your skills to good use. This new influence starts growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. It is no longer so much about you, but about how you integrate with others and offer your services for the benefit of the whole. In this process you will encounter challenges at work and with colleagues, which test your humility and willingness to serve. It is good training. This is also a time to focus on your body, which, if it is to serve you well, needs to be nurtured with healthy daily habits.

Opportunities for Success

Once you have learned how to capitalize on your unique resources and gain confidence and self-assurance, you need to reach out to others between September - 2016 to October - 2017. This leads to travel and an expansion of your skills educationally. This is a great year to widen your network of contacts. Through increased communication on all levels, you learn how to make sure-footed progress.

Having developed your education and communication skills, and widened your network of contacts through travel, there is an urge to expand your influence and potential on the home front between October - 2017 and November - 2018. This brings insight and good fortune connected with property and family. At this time you broaden your emotional foundations, partly because you gain understanding of the influence of your upbringing, and partly because you are curious to learn more about how to create a nurturing and stimulating environment for yourself and those near to you.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 65. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- A period when you are driven to investigate the deepest secrets and gain a new wisdom that transforms your understanding and beliefs. A journey can bring spiritual renewal, or contact with a mentor or the ideology of a group can profound change your ideas.
- A time that awakens a longing to use your time on projects that concur with your dreams and spiritual goals. A sense that you can get more out of your work and sexual life inspires you to discover new ways of working and new forms of physical expression.
- You embark on a process of mental experimentation, gaining familiarity with new communication technologies or mental developments methods. This is a time when you encounter new languages and travel considerable distances to ensure that you are where it is all happening.
