MY YEAR AHEAD

At the turn of the 21st century, there were 6 billion people on Earth. No two of them were born on the exact date, time and place - everyone has a unique horoscope. This horoscope reflects personal characteristics that the individual has chosen to work with in this life. He or she meets parents, brothers and sisters, friends, teachers and finally partners, who evoke an evolutionary development for the soul.

Each individual has then a unique life that can be mapped astrologically according to the planetary movements after birth. The My Year Ahead Report synthesizes three astrological methods to map the life journey of the individual:

- Progressions, which reflect a personal evolutionary, or karmic pattern present at birth
- Transits, which reflect collective trends that evoke specific behavior in the individual
- Solar Returns, which are horoscopes calculated for each birthday, showing what happens to the individual on the year in question. (For unknown birth times and yearly horoscopes starting on days other than your birthday, another astrological technique - horary - is used.)

This synthesis is complex. With 12 signs, 12 houses and 10 planets (with Sun and Moon) there are 1440 simple combinations. When the connection between planets are taken into consideration (aspects) and then transits and progressions, there are several hundred thousand combinations. The My Year Ahead Report works on several thousand of these, the rest needs to be filled in with your memory and creative visualization. For those interested in the astrological detail, each influence is annotated in the report, and you can see these influences at the end of the report. You can also read more about the basics of astrology at the end of the report. Please bear in mind, that with such complexity, contradictions can arise, and these will generally show either different parts of your character, or contradictory events which happen at the same time.

This reading describes your own evolutionary journey. To understand it fully you need to understand the talents and challenges that the planetary positions at birth represent. The first part of every section of the My Year Ahead Report explains therefore what you can expect in life based on who you are as a person. It is crucial to realize that what happens during the course of the life is constrained by these personal factors. If your love life promises great happiness, then later trends will trigger this potential... and vice versa.

If you wish to know more in detail about your personal character and how to get the most out of your life, then our My Life Path Report & Birth Chart will go into this deeply. The My Year Ahead Report is designed to map out the timing of events and the fulfillment of your destiny.

You may notice contradictions in your report; these reflect your complex personality. For instance, you may be a wallflower in certain situations, but other circumstances might bring out your chatty side. While your chart may provide helpful insights, it cannot predict the future. You are ultimately the master of your own fate.

INTRODUCTION

This is a year when you gain deep insight and expand your understanding of your role in the world. This gives rise to strong views about your life situation, and some concerns about what is right, what is wrong, and whether justice is being done. During this year you propagate your views and express your latent wisdom with confidence and optimism. You have a natural capacity to investigate hidden and secret material in your own psyche and in the world. An awareness of life as a process of constant death and rebirth brings psychological wisdom, gained through ruthlessly pursuing authenticity and emotional truth, whilst nurturing an understanding of the demons other people struggle with. This will reflect itself in your whole appearance and style, which is characterized by a confidence in the rightness of your beliefs, and a pedagogical attitude in general – areas which will expand and bring satisfaction in the current period.

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life strategies for consolidating your earning power and getting paid what you are worth begin to succeed, though it can be hard going. Money is in short supply, but now is the time to put in place an economic framework that will give you security well into the future. These new influences started growing around December - 2014 and will ebb out around January - 2018. At the current time you know what your talents are, but you may be unsure whether you can live from them. You can. But you still need to conserve your resources and economize. Part of the key to prosperity is self-worth, and whilst success is as yet unproven you can facilitate the process by being restrained in your economic demands until you have established a firm foundation.

After a period of expansion and satisfaction in your social life, your search for meaning and understanding goes within, and in the period from October - 2016 to October - 2017 you discover the spiritual riches that can be attained through seclusion and introspection. This is a time when learn how man and cosmos are interconnected, when you feel empathy and solidarity for fellow human beings.

An awareness of the spiritual forces behind your individual evolution has enriched your understanding of your self and the universe, and this now ushers in a period from October - 2017 to November - 2018 when you are ready to emerge from seclusion and apply this inner wisdom more directly in your dealings with others. A new confidence is reflected by a more forceful personal presence in which your ideas and opinions pave the way for personal expansion.

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 35. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- There are daunting challenges ahead which initially undermine your self confidence and belief in your capabilities. Progress is slow or non-existent as obstacles arise at every turn. Through concerted effort and perseverance you prove to yourself that you can do it.
- You receive an enormous consciousness boost, awakening an interest in untraditional subjects and bringing you into contact with exciting and alternative groups. This is a period of freedom, international travel and positive change.
- If you are looking for love, this is the time when you can find your mate or a partner, and have an extremely rewarding romantic, erotic or creative relationship. You learn the art of integrating the masculine with the feminine.

These along with other influences will be examined later in the report.

LIFE PATH

INSIGHTS AND EXPANSION IN YOUR LIFE

There are many spheres of human activity which are active at any one time, but each year there will be a focus on a particular area of your life that will absorb you more than anything else, and be at the center of the events of that year.

A slow transition to a new phase in your life path makes itself felt around November 2017 which can affect the direction of your life and relationships. In the past you have unflinchingly embraced emotional transformation in an intense and uncompromising way. But perhaps there is a sense of exhaustion; now you need something that offers more happiness, hope and expansion, and to let other people know more about the wisdom you have gathered. A new life beckons offering the widening of your horizons through travel and intellectual prowess. In relationships you need an outgoing person who can stimulate you mentally.

The theme at the age of 35 is developing an appreciation of the material benefits you currently enjoy, and working on consolidating and improving your comfort level and worth. Therefore economic issues will be a key element of the year, and it is important for you to ensure that you get what you are worth, or at least work on your inner sense of self-worth. This can also include investing in yourself and your appearance, and indeed anything else which is likely to increase in worth during the course of the year.

This theme channels your feelings and nurturing abilities, and although there are many emotional swings to the year, your love and care for children and family, and all those dear to you, enables you to build a solid foundation.

You will be strongly guided by your personal values and tastes in the year ahead, and your strongest motivation will be to create security and comfort.

Your allegiance to a group will be important for you at this time, especially groups that have an international, future-oriented or humanitarian aspect. You choose a path that is outside the norm and take an experimental approach.

Friendships can play a very important role in leading you to think outside the box.

The focus of this influence is in your career, and the big question is how to define your ambitions and attain them. Dealing with leadership and authority is key, and either you must work with existing authorities in an executive position or establish yourself more independently, so that you can achieve concrete goals. If you play your cards right now you will gain success and increased status.

Certain challenges arise.

There is a certain emotional discomfort in the pursuit of your agenda. Perhaps things do not harmonize so well with family life or your sense of security. You invest a lot of feelings into what you do, but there tend to be a lot of mood swings.

This awakens feelings centered on home and family and methods to build security and establish roots.

There are unique opportunities and challenges affecting you personally right now, which can result in significant lifestyle and relationship changes or modifications. If you would like to see your life going in a different direction, now is the time to take the reins and choose a path which is uniquely suited to you, as described by the influences below.

New expansive life cycle

A twelve year cycle starts around the period from December 2016 to November 2017 – assuming your birth time is reasonably correct – when a new sense of optimism gives you a sense that the world is your oyster. Opportunities arise to expand your horizons, both intellectually through study and meeting influential people, and literally through getting out and seeing the world. An inner conviction grows that you are on the right track after a rather directionless period, and you feel the need to come out with your ideas and make an impact on the way people think. Belief in your self – and in life generally – set the scene for a promising future, limited only by the borders of your imagination. Positive thinking rules, and if you can integrate spirituality and tolerance, you will be well on your way.

This initial section of the report is connected with your lifestyle and direction, and the factors described above modify this direction as you respond to outside influences and your own inner evolutionary process. Of these factors the most significant during the age of 35 are:

- a time when you experience a surge of optimism and a renewed belief in yourself and the direction your life is going.
- a time to consolidate of your economy and increase in self worth by capitalizing on your talents.

Your own ego is subsumed by the group and the atmosphere at work is one of idealism and inspiration. You may also choose to go down a professional path that channels some unique, individual talent.

This theme is very much connected to your desire to express your aesthetic taste or superior judgment. Working with women, with fashion, or in a position which requires seeing both sides of a situation would be satisfying. You need appreciation and love for what you do now.

You are aware of your social responsibilities in your career and seek to integrate your ambitions for the greater good, which you will do in a specific fashion and in a specific area.

Certain challenges arise.

One factor that can undermine success right now is the feeling of being crippled by insecurity about whether you are accepted and can integrate with those that already enjoy the benefits you would like. But perhaps there are quirky talents you can capitalize on that other people do not possess.

This is connected with something that is painful in your social life, or involvement with a friend who is wrestling with an incurable problem.

Some factors help.

One very positive factor that helps you achieve your professional agenda is your willingness to experiment and take risks. It is your innovation ideas that work now, as well as anything connected with personal development or international groups. Make the most of your cyberspace network!

Questionable growth opportunities

There are opportunities for expansion of your professional influence and career opportunities in the period from September 2017 to August 2018 but they may involve compromising your principles in some way. As your judgment can be faulted at this time you will need to tread carefully – advisors in particular can lead you astray through weak ethics or the wrong motivation. On the domestic front there are also opportunities of expansion, moving or home improvements, but there may also be differences of opinion with family members. In all these matters it is better to err on the side of restraint – you could be wrong.

The career section of this report explains influences in the current year that can cause you to adapt or change professional goals, and make use of opportunities that come your way. Overall, in the area of family and career the major developments you can expect are:

- a time when you have the chance of expansion both professionally and domestically, although it is also possible that you may compromise your better judgment.

PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

MATURING THROUGH RESPONSIBILITY

During the course of the year you will have a number of character-building experiences, which help you grow and develop as an individual. It is rare for any difficulty to last longer than a period of about eight months, and if you regard challenges that arise as a test that helps you become stronger, then it will be relatively easy for you to overcome them. Similarly, when events boost your confidence, it is pays to take advantage of the limited time available to capitalize on your good fortune.

With your sun in your birth chart in Sagittarius and in the 2nd House this relates to your need to expand your horizons and learn about life , in connection with your personal values, self-worth and material life.

An important feature around the age of 35 is the urge to delve deep into the passions of relationships to unearth every hidden facet of your nature and create an empowering transformation. This can be an uncomfortable psychological process, perhaps because so much is placed in the hands of others - you relate without a safety net and confront the anxiety of emotional dependency. This is the time when you learn how to share on the deepest level. You experience the power you have over others, and the power they have over you.

You are empowered by the following.

It is during this period that you confront obstacles and challenges that test the mettle of your character. Authorities set the bar very high, whilst your faith in your abilities tends to be low. Discipline and restraint are called for. By setting long term goals and working steadily to achieve them, you lay the foundations for success. Accept responsibility but do not overestimate your position. Keep expectations low, and treat setbacks as a learning process. Time is on your side.

Rather than repressing the challenging emotions that arise in relationships now, embrace joint responsibility and work on alleviating anxiety.

Some factors help.

It is during this period that encounters with alternative types of people and places bring a new self awareness and a desire to integrate and express something unique in your character. You are open to change and inspired by groups who have a fresh look at life. The future seems promising whilst the past is dull. There is an exhilarating need to embrace new times.

It is during this period that you discover just how enterprising you can be. This is not a time when you wish to be timid. On the contrary you recognize the need to push your own agenda and fight for what is important for you as an individual. You fight your own battles and win. You are enterprising and prepared to take risks. You learn assertion skills and get on in life.

This is channeled into your professional life, which is a very combative area for you this year.

Certain key influences will present challenges and opportunities to you now as regards your development as an individual. Below you will find effects described, which you will feel more or less powerfully, evoking actions that enable you to stamp your signature on events.

Building character

During a period that is likely to stretch from December 2016 to September 2018 there are considerable challenges which relate to your belief in yourself and your capabilities. This can be a heavy time when self-confidence is low and when you meet obstacles at every turn. Really this is a test of your mettle. Even though you may feel daunted, there is no escaping the trials of this period. You will not win popularity contests, and it is very unlikely that you will receive praise or recognition. You have to prove yourself, and you can do this by rising to the challenges that come, without allowing negativity and lack of self-belief to undermine you. You have to dig in for the long term, and if you do not succeed, you must try, try and try again. Ingrained attitudes to society and authority figures need to be examined... in all likelihood nobody is being personal, and you will only undermine yourself if you take things personally. The whole idea of this period is to strengthen your character, and if you show perseverance and discipline you will build the foundation for a strong and successful future.

Personal liberation

A positive and dramatic period for personal growth is in process, which awakens a need to free your consciousness and express your identity in your own personal and unique way. This may bring contact with groups who promise renewal and change, or contact with abroad which may also involve intercontinental travel. It is as if barriers which have been closed suddenly respond to your touch and open, and you are not slow to avail yourself of the new opportunities that arise. You embark on a journey of self-discovery and your interest gravitates towards exciting and untraditional paths and projects. Conventional concepts and activities bore you as new short cuts present themselves, enabling you to jump a level. This period of change lasts from April 2016 to March 2019 and will bring you in contact with an entirely new set of people and circumstances.

Insight brings influence and success

It is at this time that your insight and understanding peak to bring a sense of meaningfulness and personal satisfaction in life. Travel and intellectual development stimulate your confidence in your self and your abilities, and this has a snowball effect in creating success. You have the good fortune to meet wise people, or mentors, who can guide you into new areas of knowledge and understanding. This is the time to capitalize on your assets – a calculated expansion now will surely bring good results, especially in the period from November 2016 to November 2017. Your optimism is infectious in this period, and people seek you out to enjoy both your humor and your insights. Spiritual interests are also favored as a deeper understanding of the meaning and direction of your life dawns.

Quite apart from the specific changes that come at the age of 35, you now reach a stage in the process of your personal evolution that enables you to integrate certain character traits that stand you in good stead for the future.

Last year the following influence peaked, but it still has a very important effect at the age of 35. You are still digesting the changes in this area, and beginning to integrate them in your life.

Lifestyle adjustments for more authenticity

Assuming your birth time is accurate, the period around August 2016 is a time when your personal agenda becomes more important than a lot of other things in your life - like relationships or the lifestyle you have been pursuing. It is a question of authenticity and following your star, and if people want you, then they must make allowances for you to realize yourself. Personally you are willing to give up things that have previously been important to you if it helps you on your path. What is important now is creativity and leadership; you need to put your own personal stamp on your life, your work and your home. Charismatic figures that you meet at this time tend to shakeup your comfort zone and relationships in an uncompromising way.

Self-liberation

Breakthroughs and sudden insights in the period around June 2017 lead to deep-seated changes in how you see yourself and your future potential. You feel an amazingly strong urge to express your uniqueness and break free from restrictive circumstances. New insights into who you are and what the human mind can achieve evoke a restless impatience with the status quo. You want to surround yourself with people who dare to be themselves, and travel to exotic destinations that can show you an alternative way of living your life. This is an excellent time for loose affiliation with a larger group with international perspectives. It is also a wonderful period for self-awareness groups and interest in new age subjects. This process can be part of a longer period of personal growth connected with events around April 2019 – a time when you need freedom and space to be yourself.

The changes and insights you experience in this connection relate to your alternative views about material values and taste, and refusal to get bogged down with attachments.

The personal development section of this report shows influences directly affecting your character, bringing both challenges and personal growth. Of these influences the most crucial are:

- a time of daunting challenges which undermine your belief in yourself. Time will show that you rise to the task at hand and emerge a stronger person.
- a time of rapid and exciting personal development bringing international travel and contact with untraditional groups who inspire new interests.
- a time when insight into your identity brings influence and success. Mentors help you expand your understanding and travel widens your horizons.
- a time when you are ready to make changes in lifestyle and relationships to realize your personal agenda.

FEELINGS AND SECURITY

EMOTIONAL RESTRAINT

You are in an ongoing process of emotional development, and the focus is constantly changing. As your unconscious mind absorbs impressions during the different phases of your life, you integrate greater depth and understanding of yourself and your relationships. There are specific areas of your life where this influence has a particular significance.

With your moon in your birth chart in Virgo and in the 11th House this relates to your need find security in rhythms and rituals and to be of service, and there will be a strong attachment to friends and groups, who you will give a lot of support to.

Emotionally the age of 35 can be said to reflect a time when you are in a playful and creative mood, which is good for both children and activities which bring you into the limelight. Your childlike qualities come to the fore, and there is a strong desire for recognition. Romance and celebration are high on the agenda, but you are very sensitive to rejection.

One of the main areas where this influence will be felt is in your domestic life. Home and family are your highest priority now, and the emotional ups and downs experienced by those you love affect you profoundly.

One thing that you are uncomfortably aware of now is that emotional needs connected with family security run counter to your inherent desire to be romantic and invest in the important relationships in your life. It is difficult to balance the demand to nurture and care, with your natural urge to celebrate love.

Certain challenges arise.

During this period there is a dissonance between family needs and romantic needs. Your loyal commitment to those with who you feel a mutual dependence runs counter to an equal need to be loved and appreciated, which can bring some polarization in relationships.

Professional relationships thrive during the course of the year, and love can be found amongst the high fliers. Love and business go hand in hand.

The year ahead brings an important transition in your emotional life and after a period of freedom and optimism, a new age of seriousness dawns. This change happens in July 2017. It is one thing to seek answers to the eternal questions and gain insight into meaning and direction of your life, but this counts for nothing if it is not implemented into a framework that can help you attain concrete goals. It is time to get down to business and work on making an impact professionally, and your attention turns to your goals and the possibility of more tangible career successes. There is not unlimited time, and a window of opportunity now opens if you are prepared to work hard, shoulder responsibility and define what you want. The fun and games are over, and it is time to get back to reality.

Whilst the year starts with the focus very much on financial security, as well as on your personal assets, self worth and appearance, there is a change of emphasis around August 2017. At this time concerns about material security fade and an interest in acquiring new talents becomes paramount. Connecting to others and perfecting communication skills absorb your interest, and there may be quite a bit of travel as you network and visit contacts. The year is very much an education process for you, and it is an excellent period to go on courses and learn something new. You spend a lot of time exploring your local environment and getting to know what is going on around you. Relations with brothers and sisters can also absorb a lot of your emotional energy.

As you grow and mature emotionally, the focus shifts from one area of life to another, and you instinctively absorb the lessons connected with the many different emotional facets of your life.

- Around January 2017 there are developments in your life which seem beyond your control, and the structures you have built to protect your boundaries are eroded, just like waves that dissolve a sandcastle on the beach. This is therefore a time of surrender, and a baptism into deeper emotions connected with an awareness that all things in life are temporary. Feelings can be overwhelming and there may be loneliness and sorrow, but ultimately your mind, body and soul are rejuvenated through this emotional cleansing process.

The initial confusion and subsequent clarity you experience in this connection are related to desire to embrace non-material values and believe in a bountiful universe.

- Around March 2017 you have the feeling of really getting to know who you are as an individual. You become aware of your strengths, and very much aware of your vulnerabilities. There is a deep sense that you are OK and you are willing to express your insecurities authentically, which in turn wins the loyal affection of those who really value you. The spotlight is on you now, and somehow you can express qualities which other people can identify with and applaud.

Establishing a firmly rooted sense of personal worth through your appearance and material life are central for you, and this influence brings developments in this area.

- Around March 2017 deep emotions are stirred bringing a strong awareness of psychological issues that have had a tendency to undermine you at times. Latent anxiety can be successfully dealt with via therapy at this time, or you can get to the root of other problems through your own efforts. Seize this opportunity to clear out the detritus from the past, freeing up space on the outside and the inside to become a more authentic human being.

The overall effect of this influence activates your inherent tendency to experience an indefinable anxiety connected with factors in your spiritual life over which you feel you have no control.

- Around July 2017 a busy and mentally stimulating period begins when you really get out and about and meet people, travel a lot, and create a lot of friendships. It is the kind of time when you can learn or utilize an extra language or a new skill, as you are incredibly sensitive to new input, absorbing information and committing it to memory like a child. There are so many things going on now that you have to be like an octopus, juggling a variety of objects and having to be any number of places at any one time. This is an excellent time for business.

Your ideas and thoughts are centered on ways to enhance self-worth and economic security. The mental evolution process you are now going through will bring new ways to earn money and reflect your values.

- Around August 2017 you are feeling restless and impulsive and are inclined to make decisions based on gut feeling, which take little account of the needs of people who are dependent on you. This can for example lead to family strife and parental conflicts. However, you do not lack courage and are willing to fight for your needs... sometimes patience needs to give way to action. You need to guard against provocative behavior and a tendency to go on the attack when you feel threatened.

As much of your dynamism is channeled into your friendships and social scene, this influence will evoke a lot of social activity, and at the same time tensions arise, which tend to be exacerbated by your own temperament.

- Around August 2017 there are harmonious developments both in how you feel about yourself, and how others feel about you. This is a good time for drawing on the emotional resources of others, as well as expressing your own ability to care and nurture. Use this opportunity to develop relationships and provide a secure foundation for love.

- Around November 2017 there are uplifting events that make you feel it is good to be alive, as many areas in your life are subject to good fortune and expansion. Travels, especially with the family, can expand your horizons; influential people show appreciation for your personal qualities, also financially, and generally there is a boost in confidence which in turn enhances family harmony and happiness. It is a period when confidence in the future brings positive results.

This activates the wisdom and insight that is a natural birthright for you and is always mobilized and expressed through a positive attitude to life.

The influences described below will have an even more profound effect on your emotional life, awakening a powerful and often unconscious response. Ultimately this brings insight into your early conditioning and enables you to modify the way you instinctively react.

Emotional Responsibility

This is not the time to expect everything to go your way as regards your emotional relationships – particularly in the home and family. You are painfully aware of your insecurities, but nobody is offering a helping hand. The answer is to develop self-sufficiency. Rather than making demands on others, shoulder the responsibilities that are expected of you. The more mature and persevering you are, the better you will feel. This challenging period emotionally lasts from January 2016 to November 2017. At home you may have to accept a lack of space or a difficult atmosphere for a while. Make do with less. Elsewhere you may feel rejected or unpopular. Just grit your teeth and keep going, and eventually your discomfort will disappear.

This section maps out the timing and intensity of influences in your life that absorb your interest on a daily level, profoundly affecting everything, from your work to your family life. These influences constitute your emotional growth during the course of the year, and the main themes are:

- a time of challenges and responsibility in relationships, requiring self-sufficiency and restraint.
- a time of transition when a happy-go-lucky view transmutes into a new committed approach to attain goals and professional status.
- a transition from the need to build material security to an urge to communicate and travel.

MENTAL DEVELOPMENT

PROLONGED LEARNING AND STUDY

Gaining skills through education and other forms of training is a major ingredient for success, both professionally and in relationships. Through developing your communication talents you can make contacts and build networks which facilitate progress.

With Mercury in your birth chart in Sagittarius and in the 2nd House this relates to your hunger for knowledge and far-reaching understanding, which is a major resource bringing considerable economic benefit to you.

During the age of 35 your mental focus is on professional advancement, and you will be willing to work long and hard to overcome the mental challenges that stand in your path. Your managerial capacities come to the fore, and you will shoulder more administrative responsibility.

Your mental abilities are channeled into broadening your mind through study and travel. This is a year when you widen your horizons and broadcast your thoughts and ideas. You are drawn to studies and benefit from a mentor. Your interests range over a broad spread of subjects during the year.

Your natural empathy comes to the fore now, and you find it easier to tune in to others and address their concerns. Your skills for public speaking are accentuated, and this is an excellent time for family projects too.

You are empowered by the following.

You find this to be a year of extraordinary mental intensity; to such an extent that you may fret and obsess about recurrent mental themes that you have little power to change. By channeling this intensity into inner investigation and therapeutic growth, you can learn many hidden secrets about yourself and others. You dig deep and find the dirt.

This specifically activates a need to transform your views and convictions, giving the opportunity to eliminate destructive attitudes and beliefs,

Certain challenges arise.

There are many disagreements in principle, and you tend to run into discussions with people who profess to know better. Whilst this means that you learn a lot and gain a better overview, you are very keen to prove your intellectual capabilities. Don't waste too much energy trying to prove that you are right.

There are a number of disruptions in communication, education and travel during the course of the year, partly because you are restless and want excitement and change. You are fascinated by new and unconventional ways of thinking, but you can alienate more conventional souls if you reject their ideas outright.

The influences described below will bring additional opportunities and challenges in the field of communication. By rising to educational challenges and improving communication skills, you can add to your skills and capabilities.

Mental challenges

During a period that is likely to cover from January 2017 to November 2018 there will be considerable mental pressure and challenges to improve your skills in communication and education. Initially you will feel unsure of your abilities and there will be plenty of evidence that you are not performing well enough. The path ahead seems blocked; even travel is more difficult than usual. Schedules are difficult to meet, and there may be crucial tests that you do not pass. People in your local environment, like neighbors or siblings, have issues that weigh on your mind. The words do not come; there is a mental block. What is needed at this time is concentration and application. You must rise to the challenge, overcome lack of confidence, and through perseverance and training you will acquire exactly those skills you need to get on in life. If you find yourself worrying about the enormity of the challenges ahead, break up tasks into small chunks, make a plan, and do one thing at a time. It is amazing what you can achieve.

Expansion of contacts and mental skills

The period from December 2016 to November 2017 is a time of success for you in all your mental endeavors, and this is a major contributing factor to personal happiness and satisfaction. Travel is favored, and brings extraordinary pleasures. Great teachers appear and expand the boundaries of your understanding. You make progress in leaps and bounds. Anything to do with foreign cultures and languages is crowned with success. Your knowledge base and intellectual understanding peak, and people are eager to hear what you have learned. Relationships with people of like mind, and true partnerships, are favored at this time, with agreement easily being reached on a shared agenda.

The influences described in this section challenge you to develop intellectually, socially and in relation to others. Of all these influences, in terms of the enhancement and development of your mental skills the most significant will be:

- a time when confidence in your abilities is undermined by a series of mental challenges, which can be overcome by hard work, training, and perseverance.
- a time when you have the great good fortune to expand your sphere of interest through travel, a mentor, or study.
- development of your ability to administer and plan, coupled with hard work and extra responsibility.

VALUES, LOVE AND RELATIONSHIPS

JUDGING WITH THE HEART

Your need for relationship is very much dependant on your tastes, and early family experiences of bonding. These factors determine whether you feel attraction or not, or whether you are simply indifferent. People of similar tastes are instinctively attracted to you, as you are to them, and this is the basis of personal harmony in your relationships.

With Venus in your birth chart in Aquarius and in the 4th House this relates to your need to have a love-life which gives room for stimulating social involvement, which you will express in your home and family life, and in creating a harmonious domestic environment.

In relationship matters your focus is more on your friends than on partners during the age of 35. You have lofty ideals about love, and this inclines you to get involved in groups that will help your personal development. In your private life this can mean that you are more emotionally remote than usual, though you will maintain a very friendly and reasonable facade. You may associate with people from exotic cultures, travel a lot, or experience an electric romance in an unusual environment.

Business relations can be more important than romantic relationships during the course of the year, though if you are looking for love it could be found in a professional environment. You are likely to meet benefactors who can give you the resources you need to increase your career status. Parental expectations can play a primary role in relationship choices.

Over the last many years your relationships have been characterized by a sense of freedom and cultural expansiveness. Foreign lands and people have absorbed your emotional interests, and you have enjoyed an unparalleled freedom socially and romantically. Your tastes have been for partners who could teach you about life. You are now in a transition stage when a life without focused commitment recedes in importance. You want to do something practical and achieve, even if it means hard work. People with a successful professional life become more attractive to you and over the coming years you will develop a taste for business dealings and relationships. Such a transition can be tough, and rewards can be slow in coming, but you are ready to commit to long-term goals both as regards love and money. The date of significance for the culmination of this transition is April 2018 – prior to this date you feel that something is drawing to a close, after this date you will be adjusting to new trends in relationships.

There are other major changes affecting relationships and values at this time, and the influences described below will bring opportunities to modify your need for others, and ultimately develop better ways of relating authentically.

Strong romantic and material appetites

You are willing to go out on a limb for the sake of relationships, and perhaps also take a large economic risk in the period from September 2017 to August 2018. Whether your judgment is good on this is questionable, and they may also be ethical or moral concerns. Still, there is an intoxication with love, and desires are strong. Some might say life has to be lived here and now, others would say live now pay later. In the interests of economy, you may wish to check out an extra time whether you need the things you desire. As far as love is concerned, take care not to compromise what is truly valuable for short term gain. The emphasis is on travel for love and culturally different partners. What you long for in a relationship now is intellectual stimulation and a widening of your horizons. This can be achieved through involvement in cultural events.

Quite apart from the specific changes that come at the age of 35, you now reach a stage in the process of your evolution in terms of relationship that enables you to integrate new values in your life through encounters with individuals or groups where you form a bond of one sort or another.

Last year the following influence peaked, but it still has a very important effect at the age of 35. You are still digesting the changes in this area, and beginning to integrate them in your life.

Affectionate distraction

A growing priority around August 2016, (if your birthtime is completely accurate), is to ensure that your life is pleasurable and romantically rewarding, and this is the time when you meet people who promise to make it so. Professional and family developments, as well as travel and education, can create new circumstances which awaken your romantic nature and inspire you to adjust your lifestyle and existing relationships. If you meet potential partners at this time, it has a slightly disruptive effect. You may even be led astray in your pursuit of love or pleasure, or in your desire for material benefits. The apple has always been impossible to resist. On the other hand you need to feel that you have sufficient rewards to make life worth living. It's a delicate balance, and the decision is yours.

Boy meets girl and sweet music ensues

The time around December 2016 is a classic period for starting a harmonious relationship with someone of the opposite sex, or, if you are already in a rewarding relationship, to have children or launch a successful creative project. You learn at this time to create harmony between your masculine and feminine sides, and this leads to a passionate and rewarding romantic and erotic relationship. This is a time to find out what you want and to go out and get it. Being true to your tastes and desires helps make you into a more whole and attractive person. This is a favorable time for partnerships of all sorts because there is a mutual fulfillment of needs, where each person has what the other person does not.

The influences described in this section will all have a significant effect on the way you relate to the world. In terms of your material values and matters of love, the most important of all these influences will be:

- a strong stimulation of your romantic nature with a corresponding difficulty in making the right judgment.
- encounters with people and things that represent promise, but also temptation.
- a distanced attitude to intimacy with a greater focus on relationships with friends.

SEX, WORK, WILLPOWER AND ASSERTION

Nothing is achieved in life without the force and determination to go for what you want. There are battles to be won and obstacles to be overcome, and this means being able to assert yourself, and to mobilize your courage to face challenges and overcome resistance.

With Mars in your birth chart in Libra and in the 11th House this relates to put across your own aesthetic view and judgement and take initiatives in relationships, and you invest great energy into social projects, perhaps evoking some enmity in the process.

As regards personal drive the age of 35 is a year when you are inspired to go your own way, even if it runs counter to convention. You are motivated to work with groups, the more exotic the better, or get involved with technological, peer to peer ventures. Expect some trouble in your social life.

Your energy and will is channeled into areas connected with authorities and your career. You work extremely hard to prove yourself, but at the same time you risk antagonizing people above you by ill-considered or provocative behavior.

This is a year when you want to release your hidden powers and channel them into transformative activity. You are relentless in your determination to get to the bottom of secret issues that have affected you negatively.

The influences described in this section will bring changes in the way you strive for achievement. Of the many influences affecting your energy, sexuality and assertiveness this year the main areas to be aware of are:

- a time to go off on a tangent and pursue your unique interests, especially on a social level.
- a time to go off on a tangent and pursue your unique interests, especially on a social level.

COLLECTIVE TRENDS

REVOLUTIONARY MACHINES

The influences mentioned so far in this analysis have an effect on your psychological evolution and fate which is strictly personal. There are other influences on your life based on your relationship to the collective, which can be just as exciting and stimulating for you, even though they may not evoke dramatic personal change.

Force majeure

There are times when it is healthy to be reminded of just how thin the veneer of civilization is. We live our lives in a bubble of security, where unpredictable forces have been tamed and the primitive roots in our nature concealed. This is a period when this veneer is stripped away, as you are confronted by events in the world around you that show just how precarious existence on this planet can be. Any event can trigger this new consciousness – personal, social or political – and this leads to an appreciation of just how valuable the peace and security that you have in your life is. This is a time to confront and challenge your own anxieties, and dramatically raise your psychological awareness. This trend lasts April 2016 to April 2019 and it is an excellent time for an unconventional approach to personal growth, via shamanism for example, or group transformational events.

An ocean wave

This is a period when you have a chance to channel the collective energies expressed in society in new and innovative ways that can reach out to mass consciousness in some way. Approached passively you may simply get caught up in an exhilarating collective experience that awakens you to just how powerful forces in nature and in society are. Approached actively you may personally be able to apply your own creativity to influence large numbers of people. This is also an excellent time for spiritual awareness and change, when you may acquire a greater sensitivity to unusual abilities like clairvoyance, channeling, meditation and more. This trend, which lasts June 2015 to February 2019, can be likened to surfing on huge ocean breakers; it can be difficult to keep your feet, but if you do, it is extremely exhilarating.

The will to transform

The period December 2016 to October 2018 is a time of empowerment. In one way or another you have to deal with power in society. You encounter organizations or institutions with strong rules or ideologies, and you have to learn the ropes. There is every indication that you handle these forces well, and you yourself can begin to integrate an aura of power and authority. This is an inner process too; you confront inner unconscious forces at this time, and learn to structure and channel them to achieve your goals. What is crucial to understand are destructive psychological mechanisms which are activated when there is a threat to those things you are deeply attached to. You have access to amazing concentration powers and extreme self-discipline, which help you get unconscious forces under control.

During the age of 35 you are in a phase of your personal evolution when all that has been built up in previous decades is called into question, because there is a sense that it can no longer fulfill your destiny. You may go through the motions, but the results will reflect the waning energy that you invest. You may cast about for something new to bring vitality and inspiration, but there will be many false starts. Still, the seed of a new future is discovered at this time, though it is early days. The sense of dissolution that characterizes this period moves you to turn within and consider the constant change and transience of human life, and this in turn brings spiritual growth and insights.

Seen from another viewpoint, there is a purposeful evolution in your life, and each of the events that arise can be seen as milestones on the journey of your soul. There are some fields of your experience which you are all too familiar with, and perhaps you need to relinquish your attachment to them. Other areas of experience present new and interesting challenges for you soul, and require total immersion.

The primary evolutionary focus in the year is centered on your understanding of the meaning of life and your place in the big picture. This is a time to travel far and wide both physically and intellectually in the search for answers. Energy is not to be dissipated on idle chat and repetitive commuting. Development comes through seeking out wise people who can expand your spiritual and cultural horizons.

The collective influences described above are very much related to the generation of which you are a part, and opportunities now arise to capitalize on trends that your generation will resonate to. The most important of these are:

- a time when collective events impinge on your own life and awaken anxiety about just how little control you have when fate is at play.
- a time when your ability to tune in to collective forces is awakened. Either you are swept along, or you develop your talents to attune yourself to mass consciousness.
- a time when you strive to adjust to powerful authorities who may wish you well, but who demand some kind of transformation of your life structure.

The influences described in this report are based on planetary cycles, transits of the outer planets and progressions of the inner planets in an integrated description which also takes into account the major factors in your birth horoscope. Thousands of factors are taken into consideration, making this report completely unique to you for the next twelve months. Rather than make specific predictions, we have tried to describe how you can make the most out of the many changes that are taking place. By defining what you really want, and going for it, you can weather the storms and currents described in this report and come safely to the destination that you are aiming for. It is in this context that the major events of this year should be seen.

Some of the themes from this year will continue into the next year, and some completely new themes will arise. Looking at the three most important events at the age of 36 you can expect change in the following areas:

A period when you welcome an emotional process that transforms your relationship with the past and prompts you to give up attachments that have outlived their function. This can lead to profound changes in bonds to home and family and putting down new roots.

You will experience and welcome change in the important relationships in your life. Ultimately this gives you the space and freedom to develop higher consciousness and get involved with groups of people, or individuals, who initiate you into radically new way of relating.

You discover the fighter within you, seek out competitive situations and win. A great period begins for sexual awakening, sport and generally developing your body. You meet people who inspire you by their strength and courage. There can be strong attractions.

These events - both good and bad - can be seen as a treasure chest for the personal journey of your soul. Every event that arises has meaning for you and is a result and consequence of previous actions. If you are able to see the challenges that arise as opportunities for constructive change, then your growth will be rapid, and you will be able to truly appreciate and enjoy the many positive events that also arise during the course of your year.
