Report for July 19, 2017 to July 19, 2018

Dear Liz,

Thank you for ordering your Year Ahead report, which I hope will help you to understand the harmony between yourself and the universe and enable you to initiate the changes you want in life.

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

As you enter your 59th year you appreciate the significance of your age—on the threshold to the sixties, with the realization that your greatest achievements may well lie behind you, whilst the future both professionally, economically and in terms of relationships is dependant on the structures you have already created. Yet this very realization has a settling affect; you are too wise to struggle against the inevitable, and fully aware that any decisions you make now will have effects that can last the rest of your life. It is at this age that you really can plan how you would like your future to be, using your knowledge and experience of the society of which you are a part, to maximize the benefits that the future can bring, and minimize the limitations. Your diplomatic abilities are excellent and you have a natural sense of what is right and fair, which means that you go a long way in the cause of justice. A natural ease with relationships makes rewarding partnership a constant blessing in your life. You love to learn, and this is expressed in aesthetic and cultural interests and talents. This is expressed very much in home and family matters this year—parents, children, property etc. An expansion is sure to take place in this area now, and the greatest insight is harvested through an understanding of family dynamics, and an exploration of improvement possibilities at home. Radical experimentation can be left to those who follow in your footsteps, but if your economy is strong, and your professional foundations firm, you can easily build further on what you have achieved.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period the major challenges lie in your working life, which probably needs to be made more efficient through streamlining working methods and improving interaction with colleagues. Health-wise too, this is an excellent time for working on self-improvement. This influence started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. You will probably encounter considerable frustration in your dealings with people in the working environment, and this process is designed to enhance your ability to compromise and to fit in for the good of the whole. To be happy at work now you need to work hard and have a plan. You do not have to have a subordinate role, if you are willing to shoulder responsibility. But you do not have to stick at a job which is beneath you either. Establish your credentials, work hard and advance.

In this period of your life there is a transition in your dealings with people, as you move from interacting with people on a practical level in connection with your work and daily life, to actually learning how to deal with partners on a one to one basis. This new influence starts growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. It is the beginning of an outgoing epoch in your life; the big test comes in how you live up to partnership responsibilities. There are major challenges, demands are made on you, and you have to on the one hand resist giving others the blame for your issues, whilst on the other you need to establish limits to what you are prepared to accept in a relationship. You have to work at partnership now and make a commitment, though it is no use expending any more time on hopeless relationships. What you start now can last a long time.

Opportunities for Success

Having developed your education and communication skills, and widened your network of contacts through travel, there is an urge to expand your influence and potential on the home front between September - 2016 and October - 2017. This brings insight and good fortune connected with property and family. At this time you broaden your emotional foundations, partly because you gain understanding of the influence of your upbringing, and partly because you are curious to learn more about how to create a nurturing and stimulating environment for yourself and those near to you.

After having built up comfortable circumstances in your domestic life, what is important for you between October - 2017 and November - 2018 is to appreciate the fruits of having a satisfying base, so that you can express yourself through creative activity and enjoy the art of living. Expansion and satisfaction come from living life to the full - through sport, festivity, love, children and romance. This is the time to fully be yourself without reservations or doubt. Larger than life characters will show you how through encouraging you to celebrate existence.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 59. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- You feel a surge of restless energy accompanied by the urge for experimentation and change. You reject limits on your freedom and seek work that expands your boundaries and gives you full autonomy. You court risks and feel more alive.
- You experience an awakening that shakes you out of the rut and leads you to break out of professional and personal limitations so that you can pursue your own unique path of self-development. Travel and contact with fringe groups bring self-awareness.
- There are many changes in your social life and relationships, as you seek more excitement, space and freedom. Involvement in fringe groups brings consciousness growth. Encounters with people from radically different cultures bring new methods of relating.
