Dear Barbara,

Thank you for ordering your Year Ahead report, which I hope will help you to understand the harmony between yourself and the universe and enable you to initiate the changes you want in life.

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

Other things being equal, the age of 72 is a time when you can allow yourself to feel satisfaction regarding your life up to now, and appreciation of both yourself and the others who bless your existence. Relationships are important this year. What you value most is independence and dynamism in relationships and freedom in your economic affairs. You don't mind a fight to get what you want in matters of the heart. Your relationships come first. The impact you make when entering the scene guarantees a very active love life. You can experience so much pleasure in the things that you have accumulated and values during the course of your life, and through the beauty around you. Material objects have a limited lifespan, what counts is the pleasure and satisfaction they bring. This is a year to enjoy the things you have and the people you love.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life the major challenges lie in creating a future you can believe in. There is a sense of change and potential that brings a new optimism about the future, but you can struggle to find the best moral or intellectual framework for the new beliefs about your life that are taking root now. There is a strong urge to expand your intellectual horizons through study or travel and this is an excellent time to commence a long term commitment to growth, which ultimately brings new skills that will advance your career. This influence started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. Issues of conscience can trouble you, and matters of right and wrong can occupy your mind. Basically you are building up a new set of ethical values which will guide your future process.

In this period of your life you are ready to make the transition from learning to doing. Over the last few years you have expanded your horizons both intellectually and through travel, and formed firm new views about your direction in life. You have built up a framework of beliefs and convictions that point you like an arrow to your destiny. The focus now shifts to your career and making a professional impact. This new influence starts growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. Your immediate experience is one of being seriously challenged - by authorities and by the way the system is put together. If you are to attain career success you are going to have to establish your own authority and carve out your own niche. You need to win respect through a determined approach. Plan your long-term goals and achieve them slowly and steadily, step by step.

Opportunities for Success

Having thoroughly established considerable success in your working environment, you are ready to build up one-to-one relationships through partnership in the period from September - 2016 to October - 2017, expanding your sphere of influence and reaching out socially. Fortunate meetings with cosmopolitan and wise people can bring happiness and a new optimistic view of your potential to make an impact on others.

After a period during which relationships prospered and your circle of social influence expanded, you are ready to delve deeper into the psychological dynamics of intimate personal relationships in the period from October - 2017 to November - 2018. A deeper understanding of and empathy for others is developed, enriching your emotional and erotic life. You receive blessings both in the form of emotional generosity and material good luck.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 72. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- Exhilarating new relationship possibilities arise, particularly in connection with unconventional or international groups with an agenda for change. If single there is an electric attraction to an outsider type; if in a committed relationship there is a need for freedom and space.
- A period when you are driven to investigate the deepest secrets and gain a new wisdom that transforms your understanding and beliefs. A journey can bring spiritual renewal, or contact with a mentor or the ideology of a group can profound change your ideas.
- A time that heralds a period of dissatisfaction in your work that inspires you to seek new creative avenues, which make your professional life more meaningful. This is a time when you also long for, and can find, more fulfillment in your sexual life, though you can easily be led astray by desire.
