Dear Anna,

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

During the course of your 36th year you encounter a number of challenges, particularly in your professional life. The progress you have made over the last seven years is up for review, and structural adjustments are called for. Pressing demands on your time force you to improve your organization and planning. There are times when it may seem too much, but hard work and effort put in now will help you attain the goals you set earlier. Challenges now have a lot to do with a long history of difficulties in relation to others. It seems that much is demanded of you in personal relationships, which require long-term application and commitment. Yet by taking responsibility and respecting the views and values of others, you can build a strong position in society as an unbiased and fair-minded person. These challenges have a lot to do with a latent insecurity which you have felt since childhood, which has made you shy and reticent about your ability to make a favorable impression. Time is a great healer, and the older you get, the more confident you become. You meet the challenges of life head on, and this ultimately brings success.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life you are working hard to develop educational and communication skills that will serve you well into the future. This is a challenging task, and there will be times when confidence in your intellectual abilities is low, or when you simply feel the process is too long or too full of setbacks. This is when you have to apply yourself with more determination than ever. Avoid being defensive about what you do not know or cannot do; just plan to improve step by step. These influences started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. You will reach your goal, and in the process you will build a valuable network of contacts who appreciate your diligence and application.

In this period of your life there is a major transition process that puts the focus on home-building and family life. For several years it has been important for you to develop your educational and communication skills and increase your reach through travel and networking with others. But now it is crucial to put down roots, and you find yourself thinking back to your own heritage and upbringing with a view to create a nurturing environment for those who are dependant on you. These new influences start growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. During this time you will have established a very solid base from which to make forays out into the world. But it is early days yet, and right now you may feel ill-prepared. It starts by taking responsibility for the family and working on the home.

Opportunities for Success

An awareness of the spiritual forces behind your individual evolution has enriched your understanding of your self and the universe, and this now ushers in a period from September - 2016 to October - 2017 when you are ready to emerge from seclusion and apply this inner wisdom more directly in your dealings with others. A new confidence is reflected by a more forceful personal presence in which your ideas and opinions pave the way for personal expansion.

Having gained tremendous insight into the direction your life in the period, a new period is ushered in from October - 2017 to November - 2018 when the focus moves to your earning capacity. You gain a better understanding as to what it takes to strengthen your economy, and what assets you need to develop. This understanding leads to increased personal resources and a broadening of your economic base, which will provide the foundation for increased growth.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 36. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- You spiral deeper and deeper into a personal crisis because circumstances that have existed for some time, but which you are completely tired of, become more intense and acute. Ultimately you eliminate the past and leap into an unknown, yet empowering, future.
- A period that brings a crisis of faith as many of your beliefs are taken up, examined and found wanting. Intellectually dominating people try to bend you to their will, but you reject inauthentic beliefs and outworn ideas and replace them with a new vision for the future.
- There are mental challenges ahead, which - though you may at first doubt your abilities - you meet head on and overcome. Through the application of your powers of concentration, you build up proficiency in particular areas which stand you in good stead for the future.
