Dear darlene,

Thank you for ordering your Year Ahead report, which I hope will help you to understand the harmony between yourself and the universe and enable you to initiate the changes you want in life.

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

You may be in your mid-sixties, but as you enter your 65th year, your mental interests are as alive as they have ever been. However this is a year when there are a number of practical matters that occupy your mind. It is important to take concrete steps to deal with worries that may arise. There are challenges that simply require perseverance, commitment and concentration. Challenges now have a lot to do with a long history of difficulties in relation to others. It seems that much is demanded of you in personal relationships, which require long-term application and commitment. Yet by taking responsibility and respecting the views and values of others, you can build a strong position in society as an unbiased and fair-minded person. These challenges have a lot to do with a latent insecurity that you feel in establishing a warm and welcoming environment. A heavy atmosphere in childhood, and the sense that the lid was kept on family skeletons, makes you feel vulnerable about opening up emotionally, though this is a prerequisite for establishing a happy family life. This is also a year when some kind of reorientation or realignment is necessary. The crucial question when looking at the balance of your life right now is whether focus on a need to prove yourself through creative achievement, children and love, prevents you from realizing the benefits of pooling your skills with a group. Perhaps true inspiration comes through being part of a greater social movement rather than through personal acclaim. Even more specifically it is worth considering whether a tendency towards stagnation because of a fixation on security is preventing you from shedding past conditioning and realizing a vibrant and authentic emotional life, attained through psychological transformation. People or groups who are no longer significant for the development of your soul may recede into the background now, and new people may turn up who have a role to play in your future.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period the major challenges lie in your working life, which probably needs to be made more efficient through streamlining working methods and improving interaction with colleagues. Health-wise too, this is an excellent time for working on self-improvement. This influence started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. You will probably encounter considerable frustration in your dealings with people in the working environment, and this process is designed to enhance your ability to compromise and to fit in for the good of the whole. To be happy at work now you need to work hard and have a plan. You do not have to have a subordinate role, if you are willing to shoulder responsibility. But you do not have to stick at a job which is beneath you either. Establish your credentials, work hard and advance.

In this period of your life there is a transition in your dealings with people, as you move from interacting with people on a practical level in connection with your work and daily life, to actually learning how to deal with partners on a one to one basis. This new influence starts growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. It is the beginning of an outgoing epoch in your life; the big test comes in how you live up to partnership responsibilities. There are major challenges, demands are made on you, and you have to on the one hand resist giving others the blame for your issues, whilst on the other you need to establish limits to what you are prepared to accept in a relationship. You have to work at partnership now and make a commitment, though it is no use expending any more time on hopeless relationships. What you start now can last a long time.

Opportunities for Success

Having developed your education and communication skills, and widened your network of contacts through travel, there is an urge to expand your influence and potential on the home front between September - 2016 and October - 2017. This brings insight and good fortune connected with property and family. At this time you broaden your emotional foundations, partly because you gain understanding of the influence of your upbringing, and partly because you are curious to learn more about how to create a nurturing and stimulating environment for yourself and those near to you.

After having built up comfortable circumstances in your domestic life, what is important for you between October - 2017 and November - 2018 is to appreciate the fruits of having a satisfying base, so that you can express yourself through creative activity and enjoy the art of living. Expansion and satisfaction come from living life to the full - through sport, festivity, love, children and romance. This is the time to fully be yourself without reservations or doubt. Larger than life characters will show you how through encouraging you to celebrate existence.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 65. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- A time that can be very inspiring, as you let go of any blocks on your imaginative powers and are inspired by an artistic, creative and spiritual dream. This is a time of utopian promises, though whether anything is delivered on these promises depends on effort and persistence.
- Your ethics and principles are put to the test as you take advantage of opportunities for expansion, travel and widening your intellectual horizons. You have a strong belief in the future, but you need to weigh risks against realities.
- You experience a steroid boost that gives you the strength and courage to fight for what you want. Putting softer considerations aside you take a risk to expand your territory, traveling afar and meeting exciting people. You give yourself fully to your desires, both intellectually and bodily.
