Report for May 05, 2017 to May 05, 2018

Dear ruta,

Thank you for ordering your Year Ahead report, which I hope will help you to understand the harmony between yourself and the universe and enable you to initiate the changes you want in life.

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

After the struggles and challenges of the previous year, your 23rd year brings welcome expansion and renewed optimism. Everyone needs the dream of a pot of gold at the end of the rainbow to inspire them, and it is now that you begin to harvest some of the rewards for all the hard work you have done. You have a natural capacity to investigate hidden and secret material in your own psyche and in the world. An awareness of life as a process of constant death and rebirth brings psychological wisdom, gained through ruthlessly pursuing authenticity and emotional truth, whilst nurturing an understanding of the demons other people struggle with. This will reflect itself in fortunately relationships generally, because of an ability to attract people of high status or intellectual capacity, as well as cosmopolitan types. The current year will bring beneficial partnership developments. In addition, this is a year when you may want to make adjustments in your purpose or inner life mission. Some of the social groups you are involved with may have values that run at counter purpose to your own, yet you can gain valuable experience from relating to people with different values. The crucial question when looking at the balance of your life right now is just how much real satisfaction you are getting from your material attachments and the questionable comforts they bring. Perhaps there is more authenticity and intensity to be found in psychological transformation and the pursuit of non-material values. Even more specifically it is worth considering whether a conviction that you should be true to yourself and your own agenda is preventing you from forming satisfying relationships where the spirit of compromise is uppermost.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life the major challenges lie in breaking down emotional barriers between yourself and those you love. This influence started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. There are hidden complexes both in yourself and in partners, which can prevent intimacy, and these will be especially reflected in sexual frustrations that at their root are to do with anxiety. Working with therapy can loosen these blockages. Dealing with faceless authorities like the tax, police, council, trade unions and powerful financial institutions can also be a challenge at this time, because you are likely to meet a power over which you have no control. Generally this is a very challenging period emotionally, because you have to deal with more extreme circumstances than normal but you develop great resilience and survival power.

In this period of your life old emotional challenges make way for new philosophical growth. On the one hand there are still a great number of issues concerned with emotional relationships, sexuality and sharing that you are working on. There are times when it feels like you are in a state of purgatory, and that a cloud obscures the future. Nevertheless you will soon emerge from this rather heavy emotional state, and see the path ahead. This new influence starts growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. In the process you gain an overview of what the future will bring, and develop the skills and understanding necessary to tackle it. You will develop your full intellectual potential and build up your influence in the world through travel and cultural exchange. A new set of beliefs will take form, bringing a positive view of the future.

Opportunities for Success

After a period of living life to the full through creative projects, children and festivities, new possibilities arise in your working environment from September - 2016 to October - 2017 because of opportunities abroad, or through an expansion of your area of expertise and encounters with intellectually inspiring colleagues. This is a time to expand the influence of your ideas and disseminate information that you really believe in. It is possible that there is more work to do, but it is more interesting work and it brings personal development for you.

Having thoroughly established considerable success in your working environment, you are ready to build up one-to-one relationships through partnership in the period from October - 2017 to November - 2018, expanding your sphere of influence and reaching out socially. Fortunate meetings with cosmopolitan and wise people can bring happiness and a new optimistic view of your potential to make an impact on others.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 23. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- A period when a deep interest in psychological influences in your character is awakened through therapy or other study. People or studies that may have interested you in the past are dropped in favor of a new fascination with secrets and people who have the answers to them.
- You enter a very busy period with a host of distractions that affect your concentration. You tend to dissipate your energy through pointless travel or unimportant discussions about the merits or rightness of one course of action over another. Focus.
- A wonderful period of growth, spiritual awareness and awakening of compassion, perhaps because you are swept up in an inspiring collective event, or through the influence of a spiritual mentor, music, film or art. You attune to the rewards within your own mind.
