Dear melanie,

Thank you for ordering your Year Ahead report, which I hope will help you to understand the harmony between yourself and the universe and enable you to initiate the changes you want in life.

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

A restless urge for freedom and new horizons drives you in your 61st year. Whatever you have been doing up to now, you would like to do something new, and you are in no mood for restrictions or advice from people who do not understand what motivates you. You have the opportunity to express something unique about yourself and your life. For you and your generation there is a willingness to experiment with family structure and belonging, and you are inclined to form untraditional family groups in unusual settings. Your particular way of expressing your uniqueness in this respect is through an interest in alternative thinking, which is manifested in unusual educational interests and surprising methods of communication. For you travel is a constant refresher. This drive to express your unique qualities can lead you to travel to exotic destinations or embark on consciousness-raising interests with younger, inspiring people. Others may urge you to be cautious and restrained, but you feel that you know what is best for you, and you go your own way.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life the major challenges lie in breaking down emotional barriers between yourself and those you love. This influence started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. There are hidden complexes both in yourself and in partners, which can prevent intimacy, and these will be especially reflected in sexual frustrations that at their root are to do with anxiety. Working with therapy can loosen these blockages. Dealing with faceless authorities like the tax, police, council, trade unions and powerful financial institutions can also be a challenge at this time, because you are likely to meet a power over which you have no control. Generally this is a very challenging period emotionally, because you have to deal with more extreme circumstances than normal but you develop great resilience and survival power.

In this period of your life old emotional challenges make way for new philosophical growth. On the one hand there are still a great number of issues concerned with emotional relationships, sexuality and sharing that you are working on. There are times when it feels like you are in a state of purgatory, and that a cloud obscures the future. Nevertheless you will soon emerge from this rather heavy emotional state, and see the path ahead. This new influence starts growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. In the process you gain an overview of what the future will bring, and develop the skills and understanding necessary to tackle it. You will develop your full intellectual potential and build up your influence in the world through travel and cultural exchange. A new set of beliefs will take form, bringing a positive view of the future.

Opportunities for Success

After a period of living life to the full through creative projects, children and festivities, new possibilities arise in your working environment from September - 2016 to October - 2017 because of opportunities abroad, or through an expansion of your area of expertise and encounters with intellectually inspiring colleagues. This is a time to expand the influence of your ideas and disseminate information that you really believe in. It is possible that there is more work to do, but it is more interesting work and it brings personal development for you.

Having thoroughly established considerable success in your working environment, you are ready to build up one-to-one relationships through partnership in the period from October - 2017 to November - 2018, expanding your sphere of influence and reaching out socially. Fortunate meetings with cosmopolitan and wise people can bring happiness and a new optimistic view of your potential to make an impact on others.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 61. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- Your imaginative center is awakened by an unexpected event or by a development in society, making you profoundly aware of how the psyche is shaped by huge forces - the media, government propaganda etc. - that are beyond your control.
- There are excellent conditions for growth, both in your personal status in society and professionally in your career. Established organizations look kindly on you and give timely support. A suitable framework is supplied for you to build your visions on.
- You encounter obstacles romantically and economically that require that you take responsibility and lower expectations. You learn not to rely on others to confirm that you are lovable and attractive, but to build up your own self worth and esteem.
