Report for January 01, 2017 to January 01, 2018

Dear Theresa,

Thank you for ordering your Year Ahead report, which I hope will help you to understand the harmony between yourself and the universe and enable you to initiate the changes you want in life.

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

As you enter your forties and commence a new decade, you feel a sense of urgency about the future, and realize that a number of readjustments will be inevitable now that you are 40. This is a time when you review your mental skills - your education and communication - and take steps to optimize your intellectual capacity. There is extra focus on your comfort level - both economically and in relationships - and you will need to work harder on your weaknesses and capitalize on your strengths in these areas. Your choices in love and relationships are a statement of independence and your belief in progressive values. Ideals of freedom and equality pervade your choices - choices that prove to be surprising and unconventional. Love finds expression through the things you surround yourself with and through your body and the giving of it. More importantly, there are a number of factors that seem beyond your control, that threaten to derail the train. This is why this is a good time to step back from more concrete goals and consider your overall mission in the second half of your life. How can you get out of the rut at work and innovate and change? Opportunities for change and transformation should be welcomed rather than resisted. How can you get more emotional depth and meaning into your intimate relationships? For you and your generation there is a search for grand ideals and higher meaning, though it becomes apparent with time that truth is ultimately only relative. Personally you express ideals in this connection by embracing periods of seclusion that remind you of your connection to the universe, and of the illusions inherent in human striving.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life the major challenge is how you adjust to a phase in your life when material ambitions and professional achievement do not provide all the answers. There is a gnawing dissatisfaction, and a feeling that the many results you have attained in recent years are now getting more difficult to attain, or when attained are not inspiring enough. This is an influence that starts growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. New goals and a new mission in life will come at the end of this phase, but right now if you want happiness, you need to explore and structure your inner life. This means developing your spiritual nature, and enjoying creative processes that arise when you withdraw from the rat race and spend time on your own. It may be a lonely period, but if you build spiritual foundations, the next phase of your life will be rewarding.

In this period of your life there is a major transition which inaugurates a whole new epoch. In many ways this transition is welcome, because over the last few years it has seemed extremely difficult to get new projects off the ground, and in your heart you have realized that this is because the old formulas for success are redundant. Now you begin to get a glimpse of future possibilities. This is an influence that starts growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. At times it seems that the challenges are heavy, but just to be able to envision a new plan or path for the future is extremely empowering, and much to be preferred to the sense of dissolution you experienced in the past. Knowing where to put your energy and commitment, you are willing to discipline your life, organize your time, and accept heavier demands for the sake of building a new path and new life goals.

Opportunities for Success

From September - 2016 to October - 2017 you capitalize on the knowledge and experience you have garnered earlier to make a concrete success of your life. Good fortune smiles on professional endeavors in this period, and you can expand your sphere of influence. Influential people will support you, and if you strive for recognition, you will achieve it. If you go for your hopes and dreams now, then your expectations have a good chance of being fulfilled.

With professional achievements and an increase in status behind you and many career goals achieved, you are ready to capitalize on recent success by consolidating your assets and expanding your influence socially in the period from October - 2017 to November - 2018. Generous friends and mentors smooth your path and give you access to the highest places, and you harvest wisdom and influence at social gatherings.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 40. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- There are heavy challenges at work and in relation to dominating male authorities that initially undermine confidence in your strength and personal autonomy. There may also be lack of sexual self-confidence. Where there is a will there is a way - this is a time for working on personal power.
- You enter a very busy period with a host of distractions that affect your concentration. You tend to dissipate your energy through pointless travel or unimportant discussions about the merits or rightness of one course of action over another. Focus.
- You are challenged to become more self reliant, both in your love life and in regard to your economy. Romantic illusions founder on the rocks of reality, but this can be a healthy process which ultimately can provide the conditions for stability in relationships.
