Dear Mike,

Thank you for ordering your Year Ahead report, which I hope will help you to understand the harmony between yourself and the universe and enable you to initiate the changes you want in life.

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

During your 46th year there is a growing sense that professional ambition and family security is not necessarily the answer to all your needs. There is also the matter of your personal destiny, and questions arise now as to whether the path you are treading conforms to your inner evolutionary needs. The time has long gone when you could afford to chop and change as regards work and partnership, you need to focus on what has meaning for you as an evolving soul. Generally speaking, this mean being honest about who you want to spend time with and be influenced by, and this year you may wish to move away from some people, and towards others who are more in tune with your spiritual needs. The crucial question when looking at the balance of your life right now is whether focus on a need to prove yourself through creative achievement, children and love, prevents you from realizing the benefits of pooling your skills with a group. Perhaps true inspiration comes through being part of a greater social movement rather than through personal acclaim Even more specifically it is worth considering whether too many engagements with groups and superfluous friendships may be preventing you from focusing on your own creative potential.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life you are working hard to develop educational and communication skills that will serve you well into the future. This is a challenging task, and there will be times when confidence in your intellectual abilities is low, or when you simply feel the process is too long or too full of setbacks. This is when you have to apply yourself with more determination than ever. Avoid being defensive about what you do not know or cannot do; just plan to improve step by step. These influences started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. You will reach your goal, and in the process you will build a valuable network of contacts who appreciate your diligence and application.

In this period of your life there is a major transition process that puts the focus on home-building and family life. For several years it has been important for you to develop your educational and communication skills and increase your reach through travel and networking with others. But now it is crucial to put down roots, and you find yourself thinking back to your own heritage and upbringing with a view to create a nurturing environment for those who are dependant on you. These new influences start growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. During this time you will have established a very solid base from which to make forays out into the world. But it is early days yet, and right now you may feel ill-prepared. It starts by taking responsibility for the family and working on the home.

Opportunities for Success

An awareness of the spiritual forces behind your individual evolution has enriched your understanding of your self and the universe, and this now ushers in a period from September - 2016 to October - 2017 when you are ready to emerge from seclusion and apply this inner wisdom more directly in your dealings with others. A new confidence is reflected by a more forceful personal presence in which your ideas and opinions pave the way for personal expansion.

Having gained tremendous insight into the direction your life in the period, a new period is ushered in from October - 2017 to November - 2018 when the focus moves to your earning capacity. You gain a better understanding as to what it takes to strengthen your economy, and what assets you need to develop. This understanding leads to increased personal resources and a broadening of your economic base, which will provide the foundation for increased growth.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 46. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- A period when a deep interest in psychological influences in your character is awakened through therapy or other study. People or studies that may have interested you in the past are dropped in favor of a new fascination with secrets and people who have the answers to them.
- You encounter obstacles romantically and economically that require that you take responsibility and lower expectations. You learn not to rely on others to confirm that you are lovable and attractive, but to build up your own self worth and esteem.
- You expand your skills and mental horizons, and have success in educational and communication ventures. This may bring travel and a growth in your personal network. You associate with people who think as you do, and together you can pursue a shared agenda.
