THE ESSENTIAL YEAR REPORT...

At the turn of the 21st century, there were 6 billion people on Earth. No two of them were born on the exact date, time and place - everyone has a unique horoscope. This horoscope reflects personal characteristics that the individual has chosen to work with in this life. He or she meets parents, brothers and sisters, friends, teachers and finally partners, who evoke an evolutionary development for the soul.

Each individual has then a unique life that can be mapped astrologically according to the planetary movements after birth. World of Wisdom's Essential Year Report synthesizes three astrological methods to map the life journey of the individual:

- Progressions, which reflect a personal evolutionary, or karmic pattern present at birth
- Transits, which reflect collective trends that evoke specific behavior in the individual
- Solar Returns, which are horoscopes calculated for each birthday, showing what happens to the individual on the year in question. (For unknown birth times and yearly horoscopes starting on days other than your birthday, another astrological technique - horary - is used.)

This synthesis is complex. With 12 signs, 12 houses and 10 planets (with Sun and Moon) there are 1440 simple combinations. When the connection between planets are taken into consideration (aspects) and then transits and progressions, there are several hundred thousand combinations. Essential Year Report works on several thousand of these, the rest needs to be filled in with your memory and creative visualization.

This reading describes your own evolutionary journey. To understand it fully you need to understand the talents and challenges that the planetary positions at birth represent. The first part of every section of Essential Year Report explains therefore what you can expect in life based on who you are as a person. It is crucial to realize that what happens during the course of the life is constrained by these personal factors. If your love-life promises great happiness, then later trends will trigger this potential... and vice versa.

If you wish to know more in detail about your personal character and how to get the most out of your life, then our Birth Horoscope Interpreter will go into this deeply. The Essential Year Report is designed to map out the timing of events and the fulfillment of your destiny.

INTRODUCTION

Your 52nd year is a time when you breathe new life into communication and educational influences and are very active in networking with others. Your communication talents lie in your ability to get a detailed overview. Your broad knowledge on many levels gives you a persuasive edge. These talents are channeled into money-making ideas and other interests that enhance your self-worth. Your interests go far beyond your material life, relationships and career now – you are interested in finding more meaning in your life, and if necessary making radical changes and a personal transformation to live a life of intensity and authenticity.

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life strategies for consolidating your earning power and getting paid what you are worth begin to succeed, though it can be hard going. Money is in short supply, but now is the time to put in place an economic framework that will give you security well into the future. These new influences started growing around January - 2017 and will ebb out around January - 2021. At the current time you know what your talents are, but you may be unsure whether you can live from them. You can. But you still need to conserve your resources and economize. Part of the key to prosperity is self-worth, and whilst success is as yet unproven you can facilitate the process by being restrained in your economic demands until you have established a firm foundation.

After a period of expansion and satisfaction in your social life, your search for meaning and understanding goes within, and in the period from November - 2017 to February - 2018 you discover the spiritual riches that can be attained through seclusion and introspection. This is a time when learn how man and cosmos are interconnected, when you feel empathy and solidarity for fellow human beings.

An awareness of the spiritual forces behind your individual evolution has enriched your understanding of your self and the universe, and this now ushers in a period from February - 2018 to March - 2019 when you are ready to emerge from seclusion and apply this inner wisdom more directly in your dealings with others. A new confidence is reflected by a more forceful personal presence in which your ideas and opinions pave the way for personal expansion.

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 52. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- A new 12-year cycle of growth starts for you, bringing an expansion of your intellectual and spiritual horizons with the likelihood of success in many areas of your life including important relationships. You have the self-confidence to broadcast your truth.
- A time ahead that brings a major transition in your domestic life as factors beyond your control dissolve a framework that has outlived its usefulness. When you have found a deeper, spiritual meaning within, you can establish foundations that can never be dissolved by the passage of time.
- The year ahead brings a culmination of a period when you integrate a new and confident style based on confidence in personal power. You develop your body through training, and are willing to assert yourself and your needs to win the battles that life presents you with.

These along with other influences will be examined later in the report.

Life Path

INSIGHTS AND EXPANSION IN YOUR LIFE

There are many spheres of human activity which are active at any one time, but each year there will be a focus on a particular area of your life that will absorb you more than anything else, and be at the center of the events of that year.

The theme at the age of 52 is to create a strong sense of identity through self-expression and the projection of your identity onto the world stage. You are willing to take a greater risk to gain recognition and acceptance, and invest more energy and charm in developing and expressing personal charisma. This in turn paves the way for creative breakthroughs or important romantic experiences which bring a celebratory quality to the months ahead.

This theme channels your romantic sides and need to be loved and appreciated. It seems that the path you pursue now does not quite harmonize with relationship needs, as it runs counter to normal patterns of winning the heart of your loved ones.

Expressing the essence of yourself and projecting your personality with warmth and charisma is high on the agenda in the year ahead.

You are determined to reach the goals you set yourself, even though you encounter more obstacles than you might expect. Through sheer determination, hard work and planning, you establish your authority. Though confidence may be low at the outset, results will clearly show that you have done your utmost. Ultimately this leads to an increase in personal status.

This is an influence that you seek to express creatively, and you are willing to put your identity on the line to receive feedback about your capabilities as a human being. It is a playful time.... a time to celebrate life and living. Children can be part of the recipe for joy and self-expression, though love and romance can also be factors that help you increase your self awareness and happiness.

You are empowered by the following.

You are likely to be involved with someone who is charming and loving, and who smoothes your path and brings you many pleasures. You may receive financial support or encouragement from this person, or the more intangible benefits of romance.

Relationships are initiated or celebrated at parties and performances, as your confidence in your own attractiveness is strong during the course of the year.

You pursue your agenda with single-minded intensity, even obsessively. Perhaps you should ask what is really driving you. The secrets within can be the key to a complete transformation of the situation. Desires are strong, particularly erotically, yet the energy can be harnessed.

This specifically activates a need to transform your working life, clearing up issues with colleagues that may have been psychologically oppressive.

Some factors help.

You have the enthusiasm and energy to take the initiative, and your forcefulness brings competitive success. You are able to express your strength and your erotic power too. An excellent lieutenant helps you make rapid progress in achieving your agenda.

This stirs up the domestic environment, provoking you to take action within the family.

There is tremendous optimism and belief in yourself, and you find favor with influential people who help boost your influence. This cannot fail to bring success and expansion, and a general sense of happiness and fun.

This will be expressed in your domestic life, through meaningful events in the home and family, which expand your influence.

There are unique opportunities and challenges affecting you personally right now, which can result in significant lifestyle and relationship changes or modifications. If you would like to see your life going in a different direction, now is the time to take the reins and choose a path which is uniquely suited to you, as described by the influences below.

New expansive life cycle

A twelve year cycle starts around the period from December 2017 to November 2018 – assuming your birth time is reasonably correct – when a new sense of optimism gives you a sense that the world is your oyster. Opportunities arise to expand your horizons, both intellectually through study and meeting influential people, and literally through getting out and seeing the world. An inner conviction grows that you are on the right track after a rather directionless period, and you feel the need to come out with your ideas and make an impact on the way people think. Belief in your self – and in life generally – set the scene for a promising future, limited only by the borders of your imagination. Positive thinking rules, and if you can integrate spirituality and tolerance, you will be well on your way.

This initial section of the report is connected with your lifestyle and direction, and the factors described above modify this direction as you respond to outside influences and your own inner evolutionary process. Of these factors the most significant during the age of 52 are:

- a time when you experience a surge of optimism and a renewed belief in yourself and the direction your life is going.
- a time of creative expression and extrovert behavior, when you project your identity onto the stage and make an impression.

Career

EXPANSION OF INFLUENCE AT WORK AND AT HOME

Every year there is a particular focus on your goals and ambitions, and a need to reformulate your mission in life and what you want to achieve. It is equally important to have a good foundation to build your successes on in terms of home and family.

A major theme as regards career during the age of 52 is concerned with the consolidation of your professional position. You need to nurture your resources, pursuing a grounded policy of careful conservation of what you have. It is an excellent time for money making, especially though finance, food and property.

This theme is very much connected to your communication abilities and your networking skills. This is a time to make the very best use of the knowledge you have gained and your ability to sell your ideas.

You are motivated to create career stability and consolidate your financial situation, and this you will do in a specific fashion and in a specific area.

To attain success you need to define your ambitions, make a plan and go for it. It is all about hard work and responsibility. You can expect difficulties and setbacks, but you will overcome them through persistence and determination.

The main area to concentrate on is the promotion of your own creative persona through projects in which you take center stage. This is a time when you need to have the courage to expose yourself to the attention of others and win their approval.

You are empowered by the following.

Your highest priority is to make an impact amongst your peers, and you devote yourself wholeheartedly to this enterprise. Well-known personalities lend their influence, and guarantee you will be noticed. You carry the attention well and attract a following. Success.

The essential expression of this will be through the creative expression and the desire to highlight yourself.

Career goals undergo an intense transformation process, probably as a consequence of power struggles. People in authority tend to be autocratic and secretive, and you too may find you can best attain success through working behind the scenes. It is a time to throw out the old and make deep-seated reforms. Excellent for psychology and therapy.

Some factors help.

One very positive factor that helps you achieve your professional agenda is the power of your imagination. You embrace the bigger picture, putting material concerns aside in favor of subtle and irrational influences that affect the soul. It is a great time for working with media, especially visually.

This activates a need to negotiate complex emotions connected with sharing, and find a deeper spiritual meaning in your sexual life.

One very positive factor that helps you achieve your professional agenda is a really strong motivation to win over the competition. You can enlist enthusiastic people who fight for your agenda, your timing is good, and you act promptly to get results.

Challenges and opportunities arise at this time which can bring major changes or adjustments in both your career and your domestic life. The influences described below can bring concrete change, enabling you to live and work on a new level.

Boost in career and family

As far as your goals are concerned there are particularly favorable developments in the period from October 2017 to October 2018 . Influential people smooth the path for you and leverage you into an advantageous career environment. Your own understanding and wisdom help you expand your influence. The focus is on a greater overview, on the international rather than the local. Good fortune not only affects career and promotion possibilities, it also gives great opportunities for property, family expansion and happy domestic events. This is an optimistic time for you, your parents, and family members generally – a time to buy property or enjoy a wonderful holiday abroad

The career section of this report explains influences in the current year that can cause you to adapt or change professional goals, and make use of opportunities that come your way. Overall, in the area of family and career the major developments you can expect are:

- favorable developments both domestically and professionally due to an element of luck and a positive attitude to life
- a time when you can slowly but steadily increase your resources through consolidation and investment.

Personal development

THE FREEDOM OF SURRENDER

During the course of the year you will have a number of character-building experiences, which help you grow and develop as an individual. It is rare for any difficulty to last longer than a period of about eight months, and if you regard challenges that arise as a test that helps you become stronger, then it will be relatively easy for you to overcome them. Similarly, when events boost your confidence, it is pays to take advantage of the limited time available to capitalize on your good fortune.

With your sun in your birth chart in Capricorn and in the 2nd House this relates to your need to make progress in the world and achieve goals, in connection with your personal values, self-worth and material life.

An important feature around the age of 52 is your need to define your identity by projecting yourself and taking a stand for who you are. Whether it is through personal creativity, dealing with or having children, or any activity where you express yourself and expect a response, this is the time to believe in yourself and the unique qualities of your personality. By getting involved in the act of creation, you make something that reflects who you are, and can thus set your stamp onto the world. The act of creativity involves taking a risk, yet it is the litmus test of your belief in yourself.

You are empowered by the following.

It is during this period that relationship matters are branded into your awareness. You merge with someone with whom you walk in step, but it can be difficult to have any perspective on this symbiosis. On the one hand you learn to express your values and capacity for love with incendiary passion, but on the other there is little objectivity about relationships, and fingers can be burned. Clarity comes with time... avoid rushing in where angels fear to tread.

It is during this period that you are thrown into a profound personal transformation process that will see you shedding the vestiges of the past and abandoning anything inauthentic in your behavior and relationships. You enter a tunnel whose exit cannot yet be seen, and confront your psychological demons there. Liberation comes when you eliminate attachment to aspects of your life and identity that you – in your heart of hearts - are tired of. Great psychological growth.

Some factors help.

It is during this period that you discover just how enterprising you can be. This is not a time when you wish to be timid. On the contrary you recognize the need to push your own agenda and fight for what is important for you as an individual. You fight your own battles and win. You are enterprising and prepared to take risks. You learn assertion skills and get on in life.

It is during this period that you are able to see things in a positive light and access your reserves of personal confidence and faith in the future. It is an excellent period for joining forces with mentors and intellectual heavyweights, and also for expanding your horizons through travel, cultural expression and intellectual attainment. Efforts are greeted with success now, and if you want something hard enough, you will get it.

Certain key influences will present challenges and opportunities to you now as regards your development as an individual. Below you will find effects described, which you will feel more or less powerfully, evoking actions that enable you to stamp your signature on events.

Spiritual awakening

In this period you are completely open to magical experiences that touch your soul in areas it has never been touched before, awakening a new spiritual awareness and belief in humankind. However, if you feel stuck in some situation that does not accord with your higher values, you will feel a deep dissatisfaction. You are searching for something more than material rewards, comfortable relationships and a traditional life style, and you can find this extra ingredient in the magic of music, art or film, or through the intercession of a spiritual mentor. This openness to the sublime enriches your soul and brings meaning to life, where meaning before was lacking. This period of inner growth and awareness stems from a trend that lasts from March 2017 to December 2020 and it can inspire you to adjust your mission in life to incorporate values of compassion and spirituality.

Insight brings influence and success

It is at this time that your insight and understanding peak to bring a sense of meaningfulness and personal satisfaction in life. Travel and intellectual development stimulate your confidence in your self and your abilities, and this has a snowball effect in creating success. You have the good fortune to meet wise people, or mentors, who can guide you into new areas of knowledge and understanding. This is the time to capitalize on your assets – a calculated expansion now will surely bring good results, especially in the period from November 2017 to October 2018. Your optimism is infectious in this period, and people seek you out to enjoy both your humor and your insights. Spiritual interests are also favored as a deeper understanding of the meaning and direction of your life dawns.

The personal development section of this report shows influences directly affecting your character, bringing both challenges and personal growth. Of these influences the most crucial are:

- a time when a new understanding dawns, leading you away from the lures of the material world and towards the rewards of the spiritual.
- a time when insight into your identity brings influence and success. Mentors help you expand your understanding and travel widens your horizons.

Feelings and security

EMBRACING EMOTIONAL FREEDOM

You are in an ongoing process of emotional development, and the focus is constantly changing. As your unconscious mind absorbs impressions during the different phases of your life, you integrate greater depth and understanding of yourself and your relationships. There are specific areas of your life where this influence has a particular significance.

With your moon in your birth chart in Cancer and in the 8th House this relates to a deep need to relate emotionally in a secure environment, and intense emotional experiences during the course of your life will bring catharsis.

Emotionally the age of 52 can be said to reflect a time when there are an overwhelming number of daily tasks and duties that have to be performed. You are so busy, it can be difficult to find time to relax. Yet you are also very conscientious and go out of your way to be of service to others. You may wish to spend some time building up your health and fitness. By concentrating on planning and efficiency you find time to do all this and more.

One of the main areas where this influence will be felt is in your material life. Financial security has top priority, and your highest motivation is to feel settled and secure, so that you can be giving to those you feel a bond with.

One thing that you are uncomfortably aware of now is that there are concrete factors in the structure of your life that makes it very difficult for you to be able to satisfy both yourself and others in your family. There restrictions may be quite practical and concrete, but they can also be connected with inhibitions that need to be softened and overcome.

Certain challenges arise.

You feel considerable emotional confusion and a sense of losing your anchor, which in turn brings moodiness or sadness. You are oversensitive and tend to indulge in feelings of martyrdom. There are some things over which you have no control... go with the flow.

Some factors help.

A responsible attitude in this period means that you are able to build a secure base for those who are dependant on you, and there is a quiet confidence that you will realize your ambitions and live up to your commitments. You can expect authorities to give considerable support.

With a lack of confidence in projecting yourself creatively and in connection with loved ones, you need to work hard on your image.

The year ahead brings an important transition in your emotional life, when you are no longer content with vegetating in comfortable surroundings and enjoying the fruits of your labors along with your family. Instead there is a longing to get out and about, to reach out to others and interact. This change happens in July 2018 . Your mental development assumes much greater importance for you, and this means that you are likely to attend course, learn languages and generally meet new people who awaken a whole new world of the intellect. This is a cultural flowering process that brings its own dilemmas as you may have to deal with splits and dualities that are difficult to reconcile.

A great deal of your emotional energy – in practical terms at least – is focused on relationships, and it is here that the major swings of mood will come, as your attunement to the mind and soul of others affects your equilibrium. In this period you learn about yourself through how you relate to others and satisfy their emotional needs. Other people become a mirror reflecting how you are and how you relate. In this way you learn to optimize your relationship skills and build a solid partnership based on give and take. This is naturally an excellent time for love and marriage, and for building up a family together with a partner.

As you grow and mature emotionally, the focus shifts from one area of life to another, and you instinctively absorb the lessons connected with the many different emotional facets of your life.

- Around September 2018 you discover a new route to what could be your future... a sense that a new environment or location becomes a possibility. Encounters with groups who may prove to be influential in the future can set in motion a process where you detach yourself from past alliances and put out feelers towards new people who hold promise for your future development. However there is an obsessive element about this process as your thoughts constantly center on and perhaps even exaggerate the possibilities for you.

This activates a major life theme for you, which is the dilemma of learning to down-prioritize your personal agenda so that you can be there for partners.

The influences described below will have an even more profound effect on your emotional life, awakening a powerful and often unconscious response. Ultimately this brings insight into your early conditioning and enables you to modify the way you instinctively react.

Dissolution in the environment

If your birth time is reasonably accurate this is a time when unusual developments in your domestic situation dissolve the foundations on which you have built family life. Your normally sense of security slips through your fingers; the water seeps through the dyke, the sea undermines the cliff. This is the time to learn that you the outer frameworks of domestic life are subject to the depredations of time, as is everything else. There is just one place that can never dissolve, and that is the home deep within your heart. By building up your connection to your inner self, you create the foundation stone for all future growth. This period of domestic dissolution stems from a trend that lasts from January 2017 to January 2020 and leads to a sense of homelessness or rootlessness, not just in connection with your family, but also in your career. You need to work and live in an environment that will be meaningful to you far into the future, so the wise move now is to let go of situations that you are tired of. Unhappy or vulnerable people can come to stay, evoking a deeper compassion within. Property now is subject to insoluble problems, for example connected with damp or swindle.

Emotional liberation

Radical changes in your habits and daily life are on the cards as you are gripped by a need to shake off old routines and experiment with new. This is a time of emotional awakening when you become deeply aware of how you have allowed your life to be limited by dependency. Now is the time to abandon childhood patterns and try living without a safety net. Involvement with untraditional people and groups will be a source of inspiration as you meet with openness and a completely alternative way of living your daily life. Changes in the family can involve unexpected developments with children, moving or relocation, new arrivals in the home or travel to exotic locations. This influence lasts from May 2017 to April 2020 and brings awareness of previously unconscious reaction patterns in a process of personal liberation.

This section maps out the timing and intensity of influences in your life that absorb your interest on a daily level, profoundly affecting everything, from your work to your family life. These influences constitute your emotional growth during the course of the year, and the main themes are:

- a time when circumstances in the home and family are subject to dissolution, leading to a period of rootlessness until spiritual strength is found within.
- a time of liberation from ingrained emotional habits, involving changes in your domestic life and a willingness to give up dependency.
- a time of transition when you let go of material attachments and concerns about security and strive to develop your mental capacity.
- a time with the focus on partnership with many swings of mood as you learn the art of tuning in to the needs of others.

Mental Development

REVOLUTIONARY NEW INTERESTS

Gaining skills through education and other forms of training is a major ingredient for success, both professionally and in relationships. Through developing your communication talents you can make contacts and build networks which facilitate progress.

With Mercury in your birth chart in Sagittarius and in the 2nd House this relates to your hunger for knowledge and far-reaching understanding, which is a major resource bringing considerable economic benefit to you.

During the age of 52 your mental focus is on expanding your knowledge and broadcasting your ideas. This may involve further education or long-distance travel as you widen your cultural horizons. Question of right and wrong will be very much on your mind during the course of the year.

Your mental abilities are channeled into being creative. You need to stand up and express your ideas and theories with courage and humor. Events connected with children or your love life are also central during the course of the year – this is the time to turn up your charm and entertainment talent.

Your natural understanding of what is right and what is wrong occupies your thoughts at this time. This can lead to arguments about matters of principle. Still, you have an urge to expand your boundaries and acquire wisdom and understanding.

You are empowered by the following.

There are extraordinary mental challenges during the course of the year and a very steep learning curve. The mental pressure can make you unsure of your abilities, and there is no doubt that latent insecurity about performance is an issue. However, you rise to the challenge, and slowly but surely gain mastery.

Certain challenges arise.

You follow interests that set you apart from the crowds, though this may make you feel alone or rejected. There are psychological wounds that have to be dealt with, or simply accepted. You may seek refuge in the rational to escape from the physical.

This is connected with something that has always been painful in your life, for example psychologically and erotically.

Some factors help.

This is a very innovative year for you mentally. You can travel to distant climes and have contact with exotic people and languages. You are in a position to discover short cuts and use new technology to reach out to others. You function efficiently at high gear.

This is connected to a radical consciousness change and interest in a more revolutionary set of beliefs, and possibly international travel.

The influences described below will bring additional opportunities and challenges in the field of communication. By rising to educational challenges and improving communication skills, you can add to your skills and capabilities.

Mental renewal

A very exciting period arises now during which you gain new insight into the mind, and into the way you think and communicate. An interest in unconventional subjects brings a fresh view of what is possible, and there may be specific training in the science of the mind. This is a particularly good time for travel and encountering new languages and fringe cultures. Long-distance commuting may also take place... it is worth traveling far to get more excitement in life. There is a strong sense of solidarity with people who circumvent the system and try to do things in a new way. Repetitive or boring projects are not easy to persevere with, and you are prepared to make changes, even if it means going against the status quo. This trend, which lasts from March 2017 to January 2020, brings revolutionary new thinking and greater familiarity with technological advances.

Your mental evolution is a product of the people you encounter during your life, who evoke certain qualities in you, as well as your contact with institutions of learning and educational media. The lessons you learn give depth and breadth to your personal message to the world. This year new opportunities arise.

Last year the following influence peaked, but it still has a very important effect at the age of 52. You are still digesting the changes in this area, and beginning to integrate them in your life.

Thoughts about beliefs and convictions

You enter a period around August 2017 when judgments concerned with what is right and what is wrong occupy your thoughts. Your mind is working overtime now, perhaps because you have a lot of traveling or studying to do. Contact with others highlights areas of disagreement over matters of principle. The people you meet confront you with your inner beliefs and convictions, and challenge you to thoughtful debate. Siblings, fellow students, teachers and friends come with ideas or plans that you find very difficult to agree with. Indeed, there can be events that simply seem unjust to you from a logical point of view. Perhaps justice is not logical; perhaps the factors that govern inner conviction and decision-making are far more irrational or fated than you think. At any rate, this is a time when you gain a huge body of knowledge and learn much about effective communication. This can be part of a mental development process that has its parallel around September 2048.

This activates your inborn curiosity to delve deep into psychological material and gain insight into the unconscious - both in yourself and in intimate relationships.

The influences described in this section challenge you to develop intellectually, socially and in relation to others. Of all these influences, in terms of the enhancement and development of your mental skills the most significant will be:

- a time when you are willing to travel far, meet exotic people, work with new technology and languages, and generally revolutionize the way you think.
- a time of huge mental activity: discussions, travel, learning when the shallowness of beliefs is exposed.
- development of your ability to gain a perspective on life and widen your cultural horizons.

Values, Love and Relationships

JUDGING WITH THE HEART

Your need for relationship is very much dependant on your tastes, and early family experiences of bonding. These factors determine whether you feel attraction or not, or whether you are simply indifferent. People of similar tastes are instinctively attracted to you, as you are to them, and this is the basis of personal harmony in your relationships.

With Venus in your birth chart in Aquarius and in the 3rd House this relates to your need to have a love-life which gives room for stimulating social involvement, which you will express in a charming, talkative manner, and in fields of mental development.

In relationship matters you are willing to make a commitment during the age of 52. Status concerns are important, and romantic choices are focused on those whose position you respect. Love and romance are less important than the long-term potential that a relationship can offer. There may be some disappointments that have to be accepted, and if love does not go your way you are likely to channel your energy into your professional life, which prospers as a result.

Romance figures strongly in your life during the course of the year, and you derive great pleasure from getting out and about, partying, entertaining and being entertained. Music, dance, creativity and sport bring you into contact with potential partners. Life is there to be lived, and you are there to be loved. This has the potential to be a sparkling year, and a great year for children too.

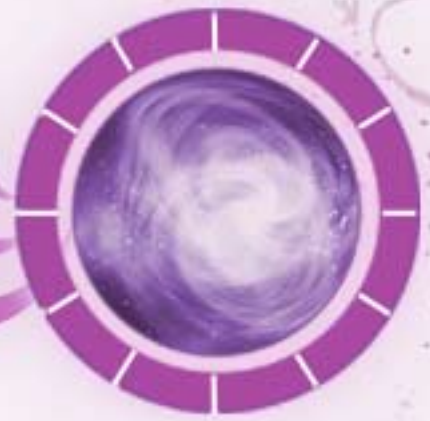

Love opens up your heart and makes you aware that the key to happiness is in relationships. And you are likely to be fortunate in this area now, not least because you express warmth and affection and exude a strong confidence in your own worth. You are willing to spend money on yourself, and open up emotionally too – your inner worth and outer worth in harmony.

You are empowered by the following.

Love is a transformative experience during the course of the year, and an obsessive or passionate relationship puts you in a position of weakness or helplessness. If something smells wrong, if the apple is poisoned, don't go so far that you cannot pull back. You have to be prepared to lose it all. Once you have been through the wringer, you've really learned how to love.

Some factors help.

You are inspired by your visions and dreams of how a perfect relationship could be, rather than how it actually is right now. This can lead to rather unrealistic romantic attractions, or perhaps you put existing partners in a position where they feel they cannot satisfy you. Nevertheless this can be a great year for musical, artistic and not least spiritual growth in the company of inspiring people.

You manage to harmoniously integrate your values and desires, and this brings fruitful and enriching relationships, not least erotically. You are aware of and respect the difference between the sexes, which simply serves to spice up your life. Working well with the opposite sex you can get a lot of creative work done.

There are other major changes affecting relationships and values at this time, and the influences described below will bring opportunities to modify your need for others, and ultimately develop better ways of relating authentically.

Strong romantic and material appetites

You are willing to go out on a limb for the sake of relationships, and perhaps also take a large economic risk in the period from October 2017 to October 2018 . Whether your judgment is good on this is questionable, and they may also be ethical or moral concerns. Still, there is an intoxication with love, and desires are strong. Some might say life has to be lived here and now, others would say live now pay later. In the interests of economy, you may wish to check out an extra time whether you need the things you desire. As far as love is concerned, take care not to compromise what is truly valuable for short term gain. The emphasis is on travel for love and culturally different partners. What you long for in a relationship now is intellectual stimulation and a widening of your horizons. This can be achieved through involvement in cultural events.

The influences described in this section will all have a significant effect on the way you relate to the world. In terms of your material values and matters of love, the most important of all these influences will be:

- a strong stimulation of your romantic nature with a corresponding difficulty in making the right judgment.
- a commitment to a difficult relationship and success in your career.

Sex, work, willpower and assertion

GOING FOR VICTORY

Nothing is achieved in life without the force and determination to go for what you want. There are battles to be won and obstacles to be overcome, and this means being able to assert yourself, and to mobilize your courage to face challenges and overcome resistance.

With Mars in your birth chart in Aquarius and in the 3rd House this relates to your need to fight for your ideals, even if this brings social alienation, and you express your fighting spirit verbally and in intellectual competition.

As regards personal drive the age of 52 is a year when you get passionately involved in issues and relationships that mean everything to you. There is a good deal of psychological turmoil, sexual intensity, jealousy and anxiety, yet at the same time it seems like you are fully in control.

Your energy and will is channeled into your home, making this a good time for building and working at home, though less good for family harmony. There can be domestic strife that requires careful decision-making. Brothers may present particular problems, though it is a good year for dynamic initiatives with male family members.

This year you are able to channel your energy in a very structured way. Your discipline is excellent and you know how to plan a deadline, and reach it. Through sheer effort and willpower you attain concrete long-term results.

You are empowered by the following.

There is ebullience about you, and there are periods when your confidence peaks and you have all the energy you need. This can give you a strong appetite to go and get what you want, whether professionally or erotically.

Certain challenges arise.

Differences in personal and group relationships are exacerbated by your combative attitude. You fight to detach yourself or at least to reorient your goals in relation to others. A warrior can have few friends, but is much needed in times of upheaval.

In this process you need to trust in your own capacity to run the show, rather than deferring to partners.

Some factors help.

You are attracted by the allure of magic and escapism. You roam the imagination and are carried away on the ocean, perhaps literally through sea voyages, perhaps metaphorically on an inner spiritual journey.

aided, or not, by consciousness enhancing substances.

By accessing the deep inner forces that have long remained hidden, you discover an amazing surplus of strength to perform superhuman tasks. This is an excellent year for taking a failed enterprise and transforming it. On a psychological level you purge old demons and emerge re-energized.

There are other powerful influences at this time, which bring both challenges to your autonomy and independence, and opportunities for leadership and self assertion. The influences described below bring out your survival abilities and evoke a fighting spirit that can ultimately empower you.

Believing you can do it

The period from November 2018 to October 2019 is a time when you are full of courage and enthusiasm, and even if there are delays and setbacks, you plunge on undeterred. There is the spirit of the pioneer infusing your being; you see the distant horizon and spur on your horse to reach it as soon as possible. With such an undaunted spirit, success comes easily for you, and nobody has any desire to stand in your way. You are convinced about what is right – for you and probably for others too. Neither are you afraid to use your persuasive powers to get what you want. This leads to an expansion of your influence and greater leadership prowess. The competitive spirit is aroused; physically this can bring an interest in travel and sports, intellectually you want to learn more, debate, and excel at what you do.

Quite apart from the specific changes that come at the age of 52, you now reach a stage in the process of your evolution in terms of your work and drives that enables you to discover new forms of empowerment and to harness your energy in new ways.

Last year the following influence peaked, but it still has a very important effect at the age of 52. You are still digesting the changes in this area, and beginning to integrate them in your life.

Working with dreams

The period around July 2017 is a time when you long to channel your drives into more creative fields. No longer content with work for work's sake, and listless about getting up to yet another day at the office, you search for activities through which you can express something that is meaningful in the long term. Music, advertising, certain sports, humanitarian work – anything through which you can express your ideals – are the kind of areas where you would like to express your energy. [male] Sexually there is a longing for something more... something magical. But you are easily led astray by seductive forces [end]. . Activities that sublimate your desires onto higher levels through spiritual interests and activities are favored. Physically this is a good time for water sports, yoga, and for gentler forms of martial arts. Talents connected with healing and spirituality are awakened and you are likely to meet someone who can guide you on this path. This can be part of some years of development also connected with events around May 2018 .

The initial confusion and subsequent clarity you experience in this connection are related to your desire to immerse yourself in cosmic consciousness and merge with the whole.

Masculine style

This is the culmination of a period during which you learn all about self-assertion and express new-found strength and power in your life. If your birth time is precise, this culminates on August 2018 . [male] Your fighting spirit is awakened, and you learn how to hold your own in the company of other powerful men. And your attractiveness to the opposite sex increases considerably [end]. . A sense of strength and empowerment can bring major changes to your lifestyle, which means you can impose your agenda on the world and take on a series of challenges that serve to build up your muscle both mentally and physically. You learn that the best compromises are made from a position of strength. With greater energy at your disposal, you embark on pioneering activities and win many a battle.

The influences described in this section will bring changes in the way you strive for achievement. Of the many influences affecting your energy, sexuality and assertiveness this year the main areas to be aware of are:

- a time of excitement and adventure when you vigorously expand your horizons and have undaunted confidence in succeeding at what you do.
- a time when you discover new creative dimensions within and adjust work and other activities accordingly.
- a time when you integrate an assertive and confident style into the way you live your life and interrelate with others.
- a time of emotional intensity and passion with a great deal of psychological insight.

Collective trends

CHANGE THROUGH FORCE MAJEURE

The influences mentioned so far in this analysis have an effect on your psychological evolution and fate which is strictly personal. There are other influences on your life based on your relationship to the collective, which can be just as exciting and stimulating for you, even though they may not evoke dramatic personal change.

Transformative change

This period of your life is a rite of passage when you may be inclined to transform your life in quite a drastic fashion. If you are the kind of person who plays safe, this might just be a minor psychic disturbance for you, but if your life is characterized by periodic radical change, this might just be when you use your ejector seat and jump out over a new landscape. You are drawn to living on the wild side, or you encounter groups that shake up concepts and ideas which you have always felt safe with. There are times in a person's life when fate can step in and shuffle the pieces around, and this might just happen for you in the period that spans January 2017 to October 2020. If it does, then you awaken fresh and reborn, even if the structures around you are no longer recognizable.

Dissolution of frameworks

During this period the professional and, to a lesser extent domestic, structures that have formed the framework for your achievements in life have a tendency to dissolve. This could be simply due to the passage of time – the river constantly erodes its banks – or it could be connected with a deep inner dissatisfaction with the goals that hitherto have inspired you. You need to formulate a plan which accords with your inner spiritual values. If a framework is dissolving don't waste time trying to prevent the inevitable; go within to find a deeper spiritual meaning and let go of what no longer has purpose. There are times when changes in life are accompanied by sadness and sorrow because when attachment is dissolved there is insecurity. Yet these changes bring maturity and wisdom, and this is what you attain now by accepting what cannot be prevented and forming new life values. This period of spiritual maturing stems from a trend that lasts January 2017 to February 2019 and it brings a deep understanding of the nature of human life.

Ideological impact

A deep insight into the hidden side of your inner and outer life arises in the period November 2017 to November 2018 and you have the potential to learn just how powerful unconscious forces can be. You may be able to channel this power into your work, in dealings with the elite, in studies through magic and psychology and in travel, through visiting places of mystery. What becomes especially apparent to you is the force of a brand or an icon – how a single powerful idea can exert an enormous collective influence. If you can learn how to use this knowledge your work can have far greater transformative impact.

During the age of 52 you are deeply involved with establishing yourself in the world and you meet constant challenge in your outreach to other people, as you struggle to formulate your views and ideas about how you would like life to be for you. Weaknesses in communication are highlighted, but you soldier on, breaking with the past and establishing your own security foundations and methods for creating prosperity. Your constant efforts mean that you begin to show up on the radar of others, and the way you present yourself will determine whether you are welcomed or rebuffed. To ensure that your light is seen, you busy yourself acquiring new people skills and educational expertise, which prepares you for the establishment of a strong base, on which you can later build

Seen from another viewpoint, there is a purposeful evolution in your life, and each of the events that arise can be seen as milestones on the journey of your soul. There are some fields of your experience which you are all too familiar with, and perhaps you need to relinquish your attachment to them. Other areas of experience present new and interesting challenges for you soul, and require total immersion.

The primary evolutionary focus in the year is centered on your understanding of the meaning of life and your place in the big picture. This is a time to travel far and wide both physically and intellectually in the search for answers. Energy is not to be dissipated on idle chat and repetitive commuting. Development comes through seeking out wise people who can expand your spiritual and cultural horizons.

The collective influences described above are very much related to the generation of which you are a part, and opportunities now arise to capitalize on trends that your generation will resonate to. The most important of these are:

- a time when there may be changes that you are not in control on. You can hang on to the carousel or let it launch you into space.
- a time when long-standing structures in your life tend to dissolve. By accepting the inevitable you gain spiritual wisdom and maturity.
- a time when you are initiated into the inner transformative power of ideas, and can use them to create great impact in both your inner and outer world.

The influences described in this report are based on planetary cycles, transits of the outer planets and progressions of the inner planets in an integrated description which also takes into account the major factors in your birth horoscope. Thousands of factors are taken into consideration, making this report completely unique to you for the next twelve months. Rather than make specific predictions, we have tried to describe how you can make the most out of the many changes that are taking place. By defining what you really want, and going for it, you can weather the storms and currents described in this report and come safely to the destination that you are aiming for. It is in this context that the major events of this year should be seen.

Some of the themes from this year will continue into the next year, and some completely new themes will arise. Looking at the three most important events at the age of 53 you can expect change in the following areas:

There are daunting challenges ahead which initially undermine your self confidence and belief in your capabilities. Progress is slow or non-existent as obstacles arise at every turn. Through concerted effort and perseverance you prove to yourself that you can do it.

You transform your lifestyle by eliminating outdated modes of living, and shaking off bonds to people who belong to your past. In doing so you gain power and control over your life. You reject compromise and express yourself as authentically as possible.

Your ethics and principles are put to the test as you take advantage of opportunities for expansion, travel and widening your intellectual horizons. You have a strong belief in the future, but you need to weigh risks against realities.

These events - both good and bad - can be seen as a treasure chest for the personal journey of your soul. Every event that arises has meaning for you and is a result and consequence of previous actions. If you are able to see the challenges that arise as opportunities for constructive change, then your growth will be rapid, and you will be able to truly appreciate and enjoy the many positive events that also arise during the course of your year.
