Dear Heather,

Thank you for ordering your Year Ahead report, which I hope will help you to understand the harmony between yourself and the universe and enable you to initiate the changes you want in life.

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

As you enter your forties and commence a new decade, you feel a sense of urgency about the future, and realize that a number of readjustments will be inevitable now that you are 40. This is a time when you review your mental skills - your education and communication - and take steps to optimize your intellectual capacity. There is extra focus on your comfort level - both economically and in relationships - and you will need to work harder on your weaknesses and capitalize on your strengths in these areas. In relationships, commitment is the key for you. You are prepared to overcome many challenges to be, and stay with, the partner you are destined for. Love and status go hand in hand as you consolidate your position in society. Your relationships come first. The impact you make when entering the scene guarantees a very active love life. More importantly, there are a number of factors that seem beyond your control, that threaten to derail the train. This is why this is a good time to step back from more concrete goals and consider your overall mission in the second half of your life. How can you get out of the rut at work and innovate and change? Opportunities for change and transformation should be welcomed rather than resisted. How can you get more emotional depth and meaning into your intimate relationships? For you and your generation there is a search for grand ideals and higher meaning, though it becomes apparent with time that truth is ultimately only relative. Personally you express ideals in this connection by embracing periods of seclusion that remind you of your connection to the universe, and of the illusions inherent in human striving.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life you continue working on a new framework for your personal development by defining the path ahead. There are a lot of challenges, delays and obstacles to be overcome, but now you know what you want, and you are prepared to work long and hard to set in motion your new plans. In the past, initiatives tended to dissolve before being put into practice, because you were trying to achieve outdated goals. Now initiatives really kick in and gain traction. These new influences started growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. You are setting the scene for a whole new epoch of personal development. The time has come; other people need to accept that your greatest responsibility is now to yourself, because unless your life is on a strong footing, and unless you are following your own mission, you cannot be strong for others.

Opportunities for Success

With professional achievements and an increase in status behind you and many career goals achieved, you are ready to capitalize on recent success by consolidating your assets and expanding your influence socially in the period from October - 2017 to November - 2018. Generous friends and mentors smooth your path and give you access to the highest places, and you harvest wisdom and influence at social gatherings.

After a period of expansion and satisfaction in your social life, your search for meaning and understanding goes within, and in the period from November - 2018 to December - 2019 you discover the spiritual riches that can be attained through seclusion and introspection. This is a time when learn how man and cosmos are interconnected, when you feel empathy and solidarity for fellow human beings.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 40. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- You embark on a process of mental experimentation, gaining familiarity with new communication technologies or mental developments methods. This is a time when you encounter new languages and travel considerable distances to ensure that you are where it is all happening.

- There is structural change, which affects aspects of your professional and personal life that have grown rigid and inimical to growth. The time has come to create more space and freedom, liberating yourself from sterile duties and building an inspiring future.

- Other things being equal this is a time of great good fortune in your personal life. Not only are you likely to have more money and material goods at your disposal, your love life will also receive a boost through travel and good fortune. Enjoy life while you can.
