THE ESSENTIAL YEAR REPORT...

At the turn of the 21st century, there were 6 billion people on Earth. No two of them were born on the exact date, time and place - everyone has a unique horoscope. This horoscope reflects personal characteristics that the individual has chosen to work with in this life. He or she meets parents, brothers and sisters, friends, teachers and finally partners, who evoke an evolutionary development for the soul.

Each individual has then a unique life that can be mapped astrologically according to the planetary movements after birth. World of Wisdom's Essential Year Report synthesizes three astrological methods to map the life journey of the individual:

- Progressions, which reflect a personal evolutionary, or karmic pattern present at birth
- Transits, which reflect collective trends that evoke specific behavior in the individual
- Solar Returns, which are horoscopes calculated for each birthday, showing what happens to the individual on the year in question. (For unknown birth times and yearly horoscopes starting on days other than your birthday, another astrological technique - horary - is used.)

This synthesis is complex. With 12 signs, 12 houses and 10 planets (with Sun and Moon) there are 1440 simple combinations. When the connection between planets are taken into consideration (aspects) and then transits and progressions, there are several hundred thousand combinations. Essential Year Report works on several thousand of these, the rest needs to be filled in with your memory and creative visualization.

This reading describes your own evolutionary journey. To understand it fully you need to understand the talents and challenges that the planetary positions at birth represent. The first part of every section of Essential Year Report explains therefore what you can expect in life based on who you are as a person. It is crucial to realize that what happens during the course of the life is constrained by these personal factors. If your love-life promises great happiness, then later trends will trigger this potential... and vice versa.

If you wish to know more in detail about your personal character and how to get the most out of your life, then our Birth Horoscope Interpreter will go into this deeply. The Essential Year Report is designed to map out the timing of events and the fulfillment of your destiny.

INTRODUCTION

After some changes and unpredictability last year, in your 63rd year you are ready to settle and consolidate. There is a sense of satisfaction with what you have achieved, and this year you can successfully build on what you already have to both expand and enjoy life. You have the resources you need to widen your horizons and travel, or simply do more of everything that you like doing. There is also the sense that you know what life is about and understand your place in it. You may have felt that you have been up against the system in recent years, but this year there is the sense that the system is working in your favor.

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life you are searching for ways to apply your creative skills in practice. You have been working hard to overcome blockages in self-expression and to acquire the confidence to put yourself and your creativity on the line. A transition is now taking place that requires committed cooperation with others to put your skills to good use. This new influence starts growing around November - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. It is no longer so much about you, but about how you integrate with others and offer your services for the benefit of the whole. In this process you will encounter challenges at work and with colleagues, which test your humility and willingness to serve. It is good training. This is also a time to focus on your body, which, if it is to serve you well, needs to be nurtured with healthy daily habits.

Having developed your education and communication skills, and widened your network of contacts through travel, there is an urge to expand your influence and potential on the home front between October - 2016 and December - 2017. This brings insight and good fortune connected with property and family. At this time you broaden your emotional foundations, partly because you gain understanding of the influence of your upbringing, and partly because you are curious to learn more about how to create a nurturing and stimulating environment for yourself and those near to you.

After having built up comfortable circumstances in your domestic life, what is important for you between December - 2017 and November - 2019 is to appreciate the fruits of having a satisfying base, so that you can express yourself through creative activity and enjoy the art of living. Expansion and satisfaction come from living life to the full – through sport, festivity, love, children and romance. This is the time to fully be yourself without reservations or doubt. Larger than life characters will show you how through encouraging you to celebrate existence.

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 63. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- A period that brings intense experiences in relationships on an erotic and psychological level, perhaps because your tastes and values are undergoing a deep transformation. Economic and emotional bonds that have outlived their relevance are dropped and replaced by new.
- A period that brings encounters with extremism in a variety of forms, either through an experience of people or groups with fanatical beliefs or through witnessing outrageous events. You gain an appreciation of just how destructive the cosmos can be, and how frail human fate is.
- You enter a phase when there are challenges in establishing your position in your professional and personal life. The existing structures, or memories of negative experience, can limit your faith in your capabilities. Be realistic, but allow your natural optimism to win through.

These along with other influences will be examined later in the report.

Life Path

INSIGHTS AND EXPANSION IN YOUR LIFE

There are many spheres of human activity which are active at any one time, but each year there will be a focus on a particular area of your life that will absorb you more than anything else, and be at the center of the events of that year.

The theme at the age of 63 is relationships, and your ability to develop sensitivity to others. It is the art of compromise that is crucial in the year ahead, as you attune yourself to the needs of others, or to an important partner. If you do not have someone to share your life with, it is likely that a person will come into your life now. You have the need to create balance in all things, and a greater awareness of aesthetics and harmony helps you do this. Put partnership first.

This theme channels your fighting spirit, awakening a number of issues that historically have irritated you and put you on edge. Compromises made in terms of relationships and your chosen path in the year ahead tend to bring temperamental outbursts.

The swings and roundabouts of relationships are high on the agenda in the year ahead, and you are motivated for partnership and aesthetic or cultural pursuits.

You are not impressed with material goals or ambitions at this time, but seek rather to explore the spiritual roots of your life, or involve yourself in projects that enhance your creative sensitivity. There will be times when it all seems hopeless, and there will be situations which overwhelm you emotionally, but you are touched in the areas of heart and soul which awaken your compassionate nature.

You express this influence primarily in the organization of your working life and daily rhythms. The keyword is efficiency. Attending to your health through exercise, diet and training is favored. Many of the challenges and successes you experience at this time are connected with colleagues and cooperative ventures, and questions about how you want to work, where, and with what, are paramount.

You are empowered by the following.

There may be a particular disability or problem that can be a painful or irritating factor, which makes it essential to develop skills that enable you to repair what is broken or heal what is unwell. Contact with a shaman or healer can bring insight.

This can be connected with a painful health issue that you have to learn to live with, or to some other burden in your daily working life.

Certain challenges arise.

You meet resistance to your agenda at all stages, either from authorities without, or lack of confidence within. Even in the face of failure you need to make a supreme effort. This is a test of your nerve and determination, and it builds up your strength.

With communication challenges ever present right now, you need to choose your words with care, and apply yourself diligently.

Some factors help.

You have the enthusiasm and energy to take the initiative, and your forcefulness brings competitive success. You are able to express your strength and your erotic power too. An excellent lieutenant helps you make rapid progress in achieving your agenda.

This stimulates a need you feel to conquer new horizons this year, to do battle intellectually, or to travel.

There are unique opportunities and challenges affecting you personally right now, which can result in significant lifestyle and relationship changes or modifications. If you would like to see your life going in a different direction, now is the time to take the reins and choose a path which is uniquely suited to you, as described by the influences below.

Opportunities with a price

Matters come up in your personal life right now, which challenge you to take a stance connected with what you consider to be right and acceptable, and what you consider to be wrong and unacceptable. This is particularly strong in the period from December 2016 to November 2017. This can be an exciting and exhilarating time, and you will certainly learn a lot and gain wisdom, but there are moral issues that affect you and your relationships, and your judgment may not always be right. Your appetite for life is strong, and you convince yourself that life must be lived to the full. You are likely to travel more or meet cosmopolitan people who have considerable influence on your thinking.

This initial section of the report is connected with your lifestyle and direction, and the factors described above modify this direction as you respond to outside influences and your own inner evolutionary process. Of these factors the most significant during the age of 63 are:

- This is an exhilarating time when opportunities for personal growth and meetings with influential people bring a tendency to be over-optimistic or to overreach yourself.
- a time when relationships have priority. You learn the spirit of diplomacy and compromise through creating a bond of love to another.

Career

SHOULDERING PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY

Every year there is a particular focus on your goals and ambitions, and a need to reformulate your mission in life and what you want to achieve. It is equally important to have a good foundation to build your successes on in terms of home and family.

A major theme as regards career during the age of 63 is taking the initiative to create a secure environment through which you can channel your life goals. To create security you build a family spirit into what you do, and this means that caring and nurturing play an important role. You could involve your family in your work more, or may simply regard your colleagues as family, or make work a home from home.

This theme is very much connected to your inner need to compete and win. As a result you tend to imagine challenges when they or not there, which can create considerable tension with people who are in a position to decide matters.

You are subject to changeable conditions in career matters, yet security matters are important for you. You will work to satisfy security needs in a specific fashion and in a specific area.

You may prefer to work off the beaten track, using an innovative approach and working with a disparate group of people united who have a progressive vision. Social vision is more important than personal ambition.

The main area to concentrate on is the promotion of your own creative persona through projects in which you take center stage. This is a time when you need to have the courage to expose yourself to the attention of others and win their approval.

Some factors help.

One very positive factor that helps you achieve your professional agenda is an extremely positive attitude. You have faith in what the future will bring; this in turn creates the conditions for expansion and attracts into your sphere rich or influential people, both locally and abroad.

This will be expressed very visibly in your personal life as hope, joy and confidence, with a corresponding expansion of your influence.

Challenges and opportunities arise at this time which can bring major changes or adjustments in both your career and your domestic life. The influences described below can bring concrete change, enabling you to live and work on a new level.

Responsibilities at home and work

This is a time when it is important to make structural changes in both your domestic and your professional life, as times are changing and new challenges arise. At home there may be circumstances that restrict your growth and limit your space, and family developments and relationships may require you to use more effort untangling the knots. This is the time to build efficient structures for the space you have available. Professionally it is likely that progress is slower than usual, and authority figures may place obstacles in your path. If the going gets tough, it pays to put more time in and take more responsibility. In the period from March 2017 to January 2019 – if your birth time is reasonably accurate – you will be challenged to find a balance between how much work you put into your work compared to how much work you put into your home. Don't expect speedy results – people are not satisfied easily at this time – but with perseverance and commitment, you will be able to establish lasting structures for future growth.

The career section of this report explains influences in the current year that can cause you to adapt or change professional goals, and make use of opportunities that come your way. Overall, in the area of family and career the major developments you can expect are:

- a hard-working time when you are torn between domestic and professional responsibilities, as challenges pile up on both fronts.
- a time when you work on creating professional security by taking more initiatives, and on creating a culture of loyalty at work.

Personal development

WISDOM AND EXPANSION

During the course of the year you will have a number of character-building experiences, which help you grow and develop as an individual. It is rare for any difficulty to last longer than a period of about eight months, and if you regard challenges that arise as a test that helps you become stronger, then it will be relatively easy for you to overcome them. Similarly, when events boost your confidence, it is pays to take advantage of the limited time available to capitalize on your good fortune.

With your sun in your birth chart in Taurus and in the 10th House this relates to your need to seek consolidation and security, in connection with your career goals and ability to handle authority.

An important feature around the age of 63 is the urge to delve deep into the passions of relationships to unearth every hidden facet of your nature and create an empowering transformation. This can be an uncomfortable psychological process, perhaps because so much is placed in the hands of others - you relate without a safety net and confront the anxiety of emotional dependency. This is the time when you learn how to share on the deepest level. You experience the power you have over others, and the power they have over you.

You are empowered by the following.

This is a time when mental focus is important. This means developing your network of contacts, training your skills, educating yourself and generally being on the move. There may be a symbiosis with someone with whom you closely share your ideas and thoughts. Yet clarity is difficult to establish; stress levels are high and you tend to burn your fingers because there are too many irons in the fire. You seem unable to maintain objectivity, and plunge in blindly.

Thoughts dwell on deep psychological issues during the course of the year, as you confront anxiety and insecurity by investigating your unconscious.

It is during this period that you feel ready to make longed-for changes in your life. The time of acceptance and restraint is over; now you have to be true to yourself... your duty is to realize and express your unique capacities as an individual. There is an explosive urge to walk on the wild side and expose yourself to exotic cultures or countries. At the same time you can experience amazing insights that boost personal growth and give you a new understanding as to what it means to be alive.

This is connected with changes in relationships brought about by the urge for more space and freedom, travel and involvement with exotic groups.

Some factors help.

It is during this period that you can gain perspective on your mission in life and draw the most from the people and associations that have formed your past, whilst embracing new alliances with people who hold promise for your future. New environments evoke new perspectives for personal development.

In this process you need to draw on your network rather than trying to push through your own creative agenda.

It is during this period that you understand the importance of hard work and planning. Respect for authorities and support for the establishment brings quiet recognition and the chance to shoulder responsibilities. Success comes slowly and through effort; there are obstacles to be overcome. The satisfaction is in achievement when the odds are against you... that is the true test of character.

Certain key influences will present challenges and opportunities to you now as regards your development as an individual. Below you will find effects described, which you will feel more or less powerfully, evoking actions that enable you to stamp your signature on events.

Overreaching yourself

The period from December 2016 to November 2017 is a time when you encounter intellectual authorities who are in a position to make judgments on your character, and if you over-estimate your strength or capability, this judgment can go against you. On the one hand you expand your influence, either through intellectual achievement or travel, but on the other, there is a tendency to go over the top. The essential thing is to guard against hubris. There is no harm in thinking positive and being intellectually competitive, but without groundwork you will be unable to hold on to the success you are hoping for. You are attracted to mentors, but you may later feel that you misjudged people. Watch out for inflated egos.

Authority through responsibility

During the period from January 2017 to December 2018 you are challenged to develop a mature and responsible attitude, and to willingly shoulder responsibility. There are burdens to lift, but you develop strength of character that stands you in good stead for the future. It is unlikely that things will be easy at this time, but neither will they be impossible. Challenges are overcome relatively easily by working just that little bit harder, and by planning well. By breaking large projects into bite-sized chunks you can make steady and sure progress. This is a good time for business growth and career development, and the likelihood is that you will be in the right place at the right time to get the right job. You win respect and are rewarded by a higher position in society.

The personal development section of this report shows influences directly affecting your character, bringing both challenges and personal growth. Of these influences the most crucial are:

- a tendency to overrate yourself and fly, Icarus-like, too close to the sun.
- a time when challenges bring out your strength of character and enable you to establish the foundations for future personal growth

Feelings and security

COMMUNICATING FEELINGS

You are in an ongoing process of emotional development, and the focus is constantly changing. As your unconscious mind absorbs impressions during the different phases of your life, you integrate greater depth and understanding of yourself and your relationships. There are specific areas of your life where this influence has a particular significance.

With your moon in your birth chart in Sagittarius and in the 5th House this relates to your need to expand your world through experiencing new environments, and your emotional nature will express itself playfully especially with children and in leisure periods.

Emotionally the age of 63 can be said to reflect a time when you want to meet people and involve yourself in untraditional groups who bring a breath of fresh air into your life. You are drawn to foreign and exotic environments, and to people who live on the fringe in some way. You no longer want your life to be so predictable, and you may even go out of your way to be provocative.

One of the main areas where this influence will be felt is in the field of creativity. Anything connected with children is favored, especially as your parental instincts come to the fore now. Fun and games also have high priority, and there may be a strong romantic involvement.

One thing that affords considerable satisfaction for you now is the feeling that your activities and family environment harmonize with and enhance your need for communication and mental development. Your skills and talents as a communicator are easily expressed because of the support of those people you are most attached to.

Some factors help.

A spirit of optimism at this time brings you the confidence and faith to expand your emotional base and capture the loyalty of those who are dependent on you. This is good for expanding family horizons, for children and for travel. You have a gut feeling that everything will work out fine.

The year ahead brings an important transition in your emotional life as you no longer wish to be swept away by sorrows and escapism. You feel a growing and dynamic need to break out of passivity and victimhood and take new initiatives that signal unconditionally that you are in control of your life. This change happens in July 2017. The last couple of years have evoked the whole emotional spectrum in you, and as a result you have become a well-rounded and compassionate individual. But now you want action and you want results, and there is a new impatience and restlessness that can make you quite short-tempered and combative at times, though it is all part of a process of increased autonomy.

A great deal of your emotional energy – in practical terms at least – is focused on creating professional security and making headway in your career. A new scene is developing in connection with your goals and ambitions, and there is a strong motivation to nurture this potential growth. Dealing with bosses and authorities is a sensitive area where you tread carefully, and you are very sensitive to the demands of professionals. This is a time when you are receptive to the needs of other people and attuned to new methods of satisfying these needs as part of your career. You are very aware of your responsibilities on the family front too, and take the role of parenthood seriously; people rely on you and you are motivated to deliver.

As you grow and mature emotionally, the focus shifts from one area of life to another, and you instinctively absorb the lessons connected with the many different emotional facets of your life.

- Around June 2017 you are more than usually sensitive to the circumstances in life where people are ostracized and wounded, and you are moved to make an effort to assuage their pain. Internally too this is a time when you encounter opportunities to heal the painful areas of your own life. This is a time of catharsis, when you can discover new healing powers and skills.

This opens an old wound in connection with collegial relationships and your working environment, or with specific medical issues.

- Around August 2017 there are harmonious developments both in how you feel about yourself, and how others feel about you. This is a good time for drawing on the emotional resources of others, as well as expressing your own ability to care and nurture. Use this opportunity to develop relationships and provide a secure foundation for love.

- Around October 2017 you are feeling restless and impulsive and are inclined to make decisions based on gut feeling, which take little account of the needs of people who are dependent on you. This can for example lead to family strife and parental conflicts. However, you do not lack courage and are willing to fight for your needs... sometimes patience needs to give way to action. You need to guard against provocative behavior and a tendency to go on the attack when you feel threatened.

As your working life is an area in which you channel much of your energy and aggression, this influence will evoke challenges connected with tasks and colleagues, possibly disrupting some daily patterns.

- Around November 2017 a period of investigating of the world and gaining knowledge, and insight through travel and education, draws to a close and there is an urge to put your life experience into practice. You now place a strong focus on your career, reaching out to people of power and influence and giving expression to ambitions that you hope you can realize over the next couple of years.

This section maps out the timing and intensity of influences in your life that absorb your interest on a daily level, profoundly affecting everything, from your work to your family life. These influences constitute your emotional growth during the course of the year, and the main themes are:

- a time when you shake off apathy and victimhood and take radical new initiatives to assert yourself and stake out your direction.

- a time of absorption in your career and professional ambitions, bringing opportunities based on fulfilling the needs of others.

Mental Development

MOVEMENT AND MENTAL COMBAT

Gaining skills through education and other forms of training is a major ingredient for success, both professionally and in relationships. Through developing your communication talents you can make contacts and build networks which facilitate progress.

With Mercury in your birth chart in Aries and in the 10th House this relates to your fiery and impulsive mode of expression, which you channel into career interests where contacts, ideas and communication are paramount.

During the age of 63 your mental focus is on managing resources. You are concerned with what has solid value... what can be weighed and measured. You adopt a practical and realistic approach and limit yourself to facts and concrete issues. Administering finances is important now, as well as giving value for money.

Your mental abilities are channeled into an inner examination of the thoughts and feelings are evoked in your intimate relationships. An interest in psychology and therapy may be awakened because of the intensity of your interpersonal relationships. There are dealings with financial institutions.

Over the last couple of years there has been a sense that progress has been difficult. Somehow you have lost momentum; perhaps you have overstretched yourself, perhaps you have started things that you don't have the energy or support to finish. You try to deliver your message but nothing gets across. This is because you have arrived at a turning point in your mental development. This technically takes place on December 04, 2016 though it is in a process spanning several years. The fact is that you have recently connected with important people and over the years you have gained some amazing skills. There is no need to go further. You do not need to add to your network. There is no one you have to meet, that you have not already met. You are in fact entering a historic period that will last a little over 20 years during which you go back over everything you have learned, and re-examine it. You have just scratched the surface, now you need to revisit it all and investigate in depth. Your thoughts have been centered on those you hold dear and family instincts rule. But there is a special mission in your life to nurture and support your extended family. Your own upbringing holds secrets that you need to delve deeper into over the coming years.

Somehow you want to express your essential identity during the course of the year. In all your dealings you want to be true to yourself and go on your own unique path. Your basic integrity and authenticity shines through.

You are empowered by the following.

This is a time to experiment mentally and to pursue unusual areas of study. Impatience with traditional teaching and ideas leads you to into exotic new fields of interest. This is a great year for travel or contact with foreigners. Your attention span is short, and you tend to get bored easily and detach, but it is an excellent year for revolutionary new insights.

Some factors help.

Your mind is able to span both the future and the past during the course of the year, as you harness abilities that are natural to you and use them to develop new skills to enable you to follow the path ahead. In this way you are able to make connections that unite quite separate realities.

You learn how to discipline yourself mentally structure and plan communication and education interests. This is an excellent time for the prudent management of business and for the organization of schedules.

The influences described in this section challenge you to develop intellectually, socially and in relation to others. Of all these influences, in terms of the enhancement and development of your mental skills the most significant will be:

- development of your ability to manage financial resources and create the conditions for economic security

Values, Love and Relationships

TRANSFORMATION OF LOVE

Your need for relationship is very much dependant on your tastes, and early family experiences of bonding. These factors determine whether you feel attraction or not, or whether you are simply indifferent. People of similar tastes are instinctively attracted to you, as you are to them, and this is the basis of personal harmony in your relationships.

With Venus in your birth chart in Taurus and in the 11th House this relates to your need to for solid values in relationships , which you will express particularly in group environments and in your friendships.

In relationship matters you feel a strong romantic longing during the age of 63 – there is a tendency to idealize partners and love. On a spiritual level you develop compassion for people and want to selflessly help them, though on a personal level you can get led astray through unrealistic attractions. This can be the cause of a measure of unhappiness or sorrow. This is a good year for art, music and creativity, but as regards partnership there can be confusion.

You will find that the focus of relationships is very much centered on your working life. There need not be a romantic element, but if there is, it can be with a colleague. At any rate the lightness of your touch helps all working relationships function smoothly. Also your aesthetic tastes can bring harmony to the workplace at this time.

It is said that all is fair in love and war, and this is a time when what is fair and what is not in a relationship absorbs you. Apparent injustice may come as a result of ethical lapses or poor judgment in relationships. There is a tendency to aim high, too high perhaps, and to spend money that you do not have on things that you do not need.

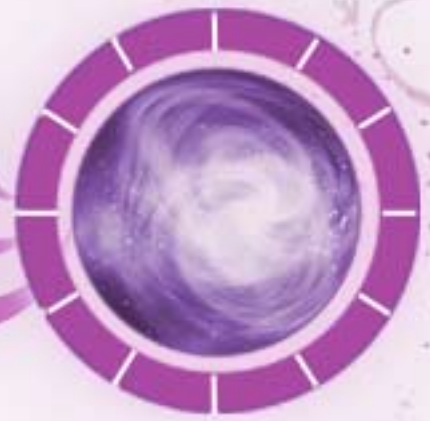

You are empowered by the following.

You may retreat from love into the ivory tower of your intellect during the course of the year, but the pain of rejection lingers. It is not what hurts that is important, but the means to heal what hurts. You meet people now who teach you this art, which you can both practice on yourself and on others.

Certain challenges arise.

Love brings frustrations, and it seems that you neither get the affection you desire, nor the approval you need. Keep expectations low – this is a time when you are being tested. Believe in yourself – this is just a stage you are going through to develop strength of character and self-sufficiency.

Some factors help.

You manage to harmoniously integrate your values and desires, and this brings fruitful and enriching relationships, not least erotically. You are aware of and respect the difference between the sexes, which simply serves to spice up your life. Working well with the opposite sex you can get a lot of creative work done.

There are other major changes affecting relationships and values at this time, and the influences described below will bring opportunities to modify your need for others, and ultimately develop better ways of relating authentically.

Transformation of taste

During this period in your life, the bonds of the heart are loosened and tied again as important relationships are reviewed and reformed. This is an intense process of erotic and psychological awakening, leading to a transformation of your values – what you like and what you need. This transformation can also affect the things you buy and even your economic life, as old possessions are thrown out and new ones acquired because of changing tastes. New business models replace old as you make a powerful effort to turn your economic situation around. This deep-seated reorientation of values spans the period from January 2017 to December 2020 and leads to a deeper and more authentic expression of love. Emotional bonds that have outlived their time can be replaced by powerful new bonds that reflect the change in taste and style that you are undergoing.

Strong romantic and material appetites

You are willing to go out on a limb for the sake of relationships, and perhaps also take a large economic risk in the period from November 2017 to November 2018. Whether your judgment is good on this is questionable, and they may also be ethical or moral concerns. Still, there is an intoxication with love, and desires are strong. Some might say life has to be lived here and now, others would say live now pay later. In the interests of economy, you may wish to check out an extra time whether you need the things you desire. As far as love is concerned, take care not to compromise what is truly valuable for short term gain. The emphasis is on travel for love and culturally different partners. What you long for in a relationship now is intellectual stimulation and a widening of your horizons. This can be achieved through involvement in cultural events.

Quite apart from the specific changes that come at the age of 63, you now reach a stage in the process of your evolution in terms of relationship that enables you to integrate new values in your life through encounters with individuals or groups where you form a bond of one sort or another.

Last year the following influence peaked, but it still has a very important effect at the age of 63. You are still digesting the changes in this area, and beginning to integrate them in your life.

Hard challenges in relationships

Around January 2017 you run in to what may at first seem like an insurmountable obstacle in relationships. Someone can come in to your life at this time who challenges you to live up to your responsibility to give love and affection, or you may find an existing partner making similar demands. If you are the kind of person who runs away from relationship challenges, this will be an unwelcome surprise, because there is no getting away from these. You must love without expecting anything in return – your rewards will come after you have made the effort. Still, you need to discern if the investment in love is worth it, or if the price is too high. Similarly in your economical life this is no time to be wasteful. Economize, save and think in the long term. These are the lean years; build up a healthy structure for the future. This can be part of a longer process connected with events around .

The challenges and responsibilities in this respect key in to the heavy challenges that have characterized your relations to the family in the past, evoking a need to create a better framework for a rewarding domestic life.

The influences described in this section will all have a significant effect on the way you relate to the world. In terms of your material values and matters of love, the most important of all these influences will be:

- a time when your emotional bonds to others are reviewed and transformed, reflecting a deep-seated transformation of taste and style.
- a strong stimulation of your romantic nature with a corresponding difficulty in making the right judgment.
- a period of relationship challenge that demands great effort and responsibility on your part.
- a time when you idealize or sacrifice yourself for love with the risk of experiencing disappointment, which leads to spiritual insight.

Sex, work, willpower and assertion

OVERCOMING LIMITATIONS

Nothing is achieved in life without the force and determination to go for what you want. There are battles to be won and obstacles to be overcome, and this means being able to assert yourself, and to mobilize your courage to face challenges and overcome resistance.

With Mars in your birth chart in Capricorn and in the 6th House this relates to your determination to advance your position, overcoming every challenge, and you manifest this energetically - though rather fractiously – in your working relationships.

As regards personal drive the age of 63 is a year when you are motivated to create stability and enjoy life. There is a strong body consciousness which also brings a desire for physical pleasures. Desire can lead you astray. Pleasures can make you lazy.

Your energy and will is channeled into your higher education and intellectual training, and into a desire to see the world. You want to conquer new territory. You get your opinion across and win battles of opinion, but you should avoid unnecessary polemic.

This is a year when a male member of your family creates a good deal of trouble. You are challenged to set your own imprint on the family situation, but you can be brusque and insensitive. A good year for pioneer activity and building.

Certain challenges arise.

Differences in personal and group relationships are exacerbated by your combative attitude. You fight to detach yourself or at least to reorient your goals in relation to others. A warrior can have few friends, but is much needed in times of upheaval.

Some factors help.

Knowing where you have been wounded in the past, you use the skills you have painstakingly acquired to help and heal both yourself and others. This is a time to educate others in the art of self help and defense.

There are other powerful influences at this time, which bring both challenges to your autonomy and independence, and opportunities for leadership and self assertion. The influences described below bring out your survival abilities and evoke a fighting spirit that can ultimately empower you.

Developing willpower

During a period that is likely to last from February 2017 to December 2018 there will be many difficulties and challenges that undermine your willpower and confidence in your ability to win through. Encounters with dominating men and male authorities who flaunt their power because of insecurity can put you in the pressure cooker. The workload in your career can be daunting. Sexual problems can suddenly come on the personal agenda. It is at this time – when the going gets tough – that the tough get going. A good place to start is on the body, and fitness training of one sort or another can help build up personal confidence. On the work front, perhaps it is better to be more self-disciplined and to put in longer hours, knowing that this can be a long-term investment for the future. Sexually this is the time to get back to basics, to discuss insecurities, to consult the manual, and in this way untangle the complex emotional issues that affect performance. The structure and training you put in place now will create the foundations for a new future where you can manifest your full strength and power.

Believing you can do it

The period from January 2017 to December 2017 is a time when you are full of courage and enthusiasm, and even if there are delays and setbacks, you plunge on undeterred. There is the spirit of the pioneer infusing your being; you see the distant horizon and spur on your horse to reach it as soon as possible. With such an undaunted spirit, success comes easily for you, and nobody has any desire to stand in your way. You are convinced about what is right – for you and probably for others too. Neither are you afraid to use your persuasive powers to get what you want. This leads to an expansion of your influence and greater leadership prowess. The competitive spirit is aroused; physically this can bring an interest in travel and sports, intellectually you want to learn more, debate, and excel at what you do.

The influences described in this section will bring changes in the way you strive for achievement. Of the many influences affecting your energy, sexuality and assertiveness this year the main areas to be aware of are:

- a time when you come under tremendous pressure that initially undermines your strength. You subsequently develop the determination and willpower to overcome obstacles.
- a time of excitement and adventure when you vigorously expand your horizons and have undaunted confidence in succeeding at what you do.
- a time when you are absorbed by desire for material goods and sensuous pleasures.

Collective trends

CHANGE THROUGH FORCE MAJEURE

The influences mentioned so far in this analysis have an effect on your psychological evolution and fate which is strictly personal. There are other influences on your life based on your relationship to the collective, which can be just as exciting and stimulating for you, even though they may not evoke dramatic personal change.

Extreme measures

The areas of your life where you have asserted your individuality and outsider status are up for review now, as you encounter forces over which you have little control. There can be an experience of some outrageous circumstances that evoke a sense of desperation and a desire to act, initially at least, in an extreme way. Perhaps you encounter a situation, a group or a life circumstance which is very difficult to handle conceptually, like for example terrorism or some other extremes in society. This is a rite of passage which everyone will go through at some time, and although you may flirt with extremism, you end up rejecting its destructive qualities. This elimination of extreme views spans the period February 2016 to December 2019 and can lead to a major transformation in your social circle and the people you choose to associate with.

The will to transform

The period February 2016 to December 2017 is a time of empowerment. In one way or another you have to deal with power in society. You encounter organizations or institutions with strong rules or ideologies, and you have to learn the ropes. There is every indication that you handle these forces well, and you yourself can begin to integrate an aura of power and authority. This is an inner process too; you confront inner unconscious forces at this time, and learn to structure and channel them to achieve your goals. What is crucial to understand are destructive psychological mechanisms which are activated when there is a threat to those things you are deeply attached to. You have access to amazing concentration powers and extreme self-discipline, which help you get unconscious forces under control.

Controlling the imagination

The period November 2016 to January 2018 is a time to channel your imagination into constructive achievement in society. Daydreaming or fantasies need to be examined to see if they can be realized or not. Curb unrealistic dreams, and concentrate your energy on doing something concrete with the things that inspire you. If you have a tendency to be escapist or sorrowful, then a strong determination to get yourself together yields excellent results. You now become aware of just how difficult life can be for others, so what better way to channel this influence than through selfless work for people less privileged than yourself? If you are interested in spiritual practice, this is an excellent time for a new disciplined approach. You can learn about the anatomy of suffering and transform its root cause.

During the age of 63 you are in a phase of your personal evolution where you are laboriously negotiating the complexities of the interpersonal relationships that are the key to success and happiness in life. Relationships demand intimacy and authenticity as you explore the shadowy realms of emotional give and take, sexual union, and the anxieties of dependence. Materially you struggle to find the key to security and survival. But above all this is the time to share what you know and seek out people who can enhance your knowledge so that you can enlighten others about the way you see the world. To some extent you emerge from the chrysalis, which has been nurtured by intimacy, and take wing to disseminate your own personal wisdom to the world.

Seen from another viewpoint, there is a purposeful evolution in your life, and each of the events that arise can be seen as milestones on the journey of your soul. There are some fields of your experience which you are all too familiar with, and perhaps you need to relinquish your attachment to them. Other areas of experience present new and interesting challenges for you soul, and require total immersion.

The primary evolutionary focus in the year is connected with your emotional and material resources and how these are shared and administrated in the world around you, particularly in intimate partnerships. This is a time to release your emotional and material hold on people and transform possessiveness that is based on anxiety to a quiet confidence in your ability to consolidate your economy, and provide in a spirit of generosity.

The collective influences described above are very much related to the generation of which you are a part, and opportunities now arise to capitalize on trends that your generation will resonate to. The most important of these are:

- a time when encounters with extremism lead to the elimination of fanatical views along with an appreciation of the destructive forces that can rage in society.
- a time when you strive to adjust to powerful authorities who may wish you well, but who demand some kind of transformation of your life structure.
- a time when you are profoundly aware of the human condition, which motivates you to work on alleviating suffering.

The influences described in this report are based on planetary cycles, transits of the outer planets and progressions of the inner planets in an integrated description which also takes into account the major factors in your birth horoscope. Thousands of factors are taken into consideration, making this report completely unique to you for the next twelve months. Rather than make specific predictions, we have tried to describe how you can make the most out of the many changes that are taking place. By defining what you really want, and going for it, you can weather the storms and currents described in this report and come safely to the destination that you are aiming for. It is in this context that the major events of this year should be seen.

Some of the themes from this year will continue into the next year, and some completely new themes will arise. Looking at the three most important events at the age of 64 you can expect change in the following areas:

You will be gripped by an electrifying exhilaration, prompting you to make changes in the way you live your life. Self-realization is the key – it is your time, and nobody can stand in the way of this inner revolution. There are international travels and encounters.

You feel a growing restlessness and are less willing to make compromises for the sake of harmony. You are prepared to take more risks if it will give you more space and freedom. Meetings with fringe group can have an important impact on your lifestyle.

You encounter people and situations which force you to stand up and fight for your autonomy and survival. This is a time to encounter primeval forces, both sexually and in competitive situations, and to mobilize your warrior soul.

These events - both good and bad - can be seen as a treasure chest for the personal journey of your soul. Every event that arises has meaning for you and is a result and consequence of previous actions. If you are able to see the challenges that arise as opportunities for constructive change, then your growth will be rapid, and you will be able to truly appreciate and enjoy the many positive events that also arise during the course of your year.
