Dear Birgitta,

Thank you for ordering your Year Ahead report, which I hope will help you to understand the harmony between yourself and the universe and enable you to initiate the changes you want in life.

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

You may be in your mid-sixties, but as you enter your 65th year, your mental interests are as alive as they have ever been. However this is a year when there are a number of practical matters that occupy your mind. It is important to take concrete steps to deal with worries that may arise. There are challenges that simply require perseverance, commitment and concentration. Challenges now have a lot to do with a long history of difficulties in relation to others. It seems that much is demanded of you in personal relationships, which require long-term application and commitment. Yet by taking responsibility and respecting the views and values of others, you can build a strong position in society as an unbiased and fair-minded person. These challenges have a lot to do with a latent insecurity that you feel when you try to let go of inhibitions and perform. A lack of playful support and appreciation when you were young, means that you feel clumsy in romance, nervous about expressing creativity, and too formal in relation to children. Yet in time you overcome all these blockages by sheer effort. This is also a year when some kind of reorientation or realignment is necessary. The crucial question when looking at the balance of your life right now is whether focus on a need to prove yourself through creative achievement, children and love, prevents you from realizing the benefits of pooling your skills with a group. Perhaps true inspiration comes through being part of a greater social movement rather than through personal acclaim. Even more specifically it is worth considering whether you are circumscribing your mental development through a focus on the superficial, rather than opening up to the world through international travel and philosophical investigation. People or groups who are no longer significant for the development of your soul may recede into the background now, and new people may turn up who have a role to play in your future.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life the major challenges lie in relationships. Living with or relating to another individual and seeing your strength and flaws reflected by this person is a major learning experience. Any weaknesses in the way you have historically related to other people are exposed now, and your future success depends on you resolving them. This influence started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. You encounter tough people who try to impose their authority on you, and you will have to judge how much you are prepared to commit to long-term relationships, and where to set limits. Learning to share your time with another person is part of a maturing process for you now, and the more effort you put in to it, the better the results.

In this period of your life there is a transition in the way you relate to partners and the world. Over the last few years you have made a lot of effort to create harmonious and rewarding relationships, and to a large degree lived up to your responsibility to others, helping those you love if they have been in difficulty. A new period is dawning that challenges you to break down the barriers that prevent true intimacy on an emotional and sexual level. This new influence starts growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. It is not so much what you do or what you say that counts now, but how well you open up emotionally, how vulnerable you dare to be, and how brave you are in confronting your inner demons.

Opportunities for Success

After having built up comfortable circumstances in your domestic life, what is important for you between September - 2016 and October - 2017 is to appreciate the fruits of having a satisfying base, so that you can express yourself through creative activity and enjoy the art of living. Expansion and satisfaction come from living life to the full - through sport, festivity, love, children and romance. This is the time to fully be yourself without reservations or doubt. Larger than life characters will show you how through encouraging you to celebrate existence.

After a period of living life to the full through creative projects, children and festivities, new possibilities arise in your working environment from October - 2017 to November - 2018 because of opportunities abroad, or through an expansion of your area of expertise and encounters with intellectually inspiring colleagues. This is a time to expand the influence of your ideas and disseminate information that you really believe in. It is possible that there is more work to do, but it is more interesting work and it brings personal development for you.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 65. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- A series of challenges in relation to communication at work and at home, travel or project delays and other frustrations, slows you down and forces you to concentrate on learning basic skills and attending to detail. Think positive rather than succumbing to worry.
- Unpredictable events raise your adrenal levels and bring out the fighting spirit in the coming months, making you more inclined to take considerable risks. Whilst the samurai spirit is awakened, you may provoke others unnecessarily.
- A time that evokes dreams of radical change, both in terms of personal growth and in connection with your peer group. You get caught up in a wave of idealism that you feel can change the fabric of the world you are living in.
