Report for July 29, 2017 to July 29, 2018

Dear Willa,

Thank you for ordering your Year Ahead report, which I hope will help you to understand the harmony between yourself and the universe and enable you to initiate the changes you want in life.

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

As you enter your 68th year there is a sense of being comfortable about how your life is unfolding. The people you know and groups that you feel a part of are supportive, and even if there is some coming and going, the people who come into your life right now tend to be beneficial for your development. At the same time you are consolidating your position on a material level, with not too much to do, whilst the tasks that you do need to do are accomplished rather easily, partly because of your experience and knowledge about how to be efficient with your energy. Things go well, but there can be a rather brash confidence which might lead you to overstretch yourself, so moderation is important.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life you are focused on developing your creative skills and displaying the fruit of hard-working efforts to express yourself. This influence started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. Overcoming reticence and concern about whether what you produce is good enough is a major issue. There is considerable sensitivity about everything which is a reflection of who you are - your children, your love life and your ability to shine in social gatherings. In brief your ability to enjoy the art of living. If you cannot achieve spontaneity and be carefree, do not worry. What is needed is committed application to activities that interest you. Repeated failure always paves the way to success if you cultivate the virtue of perseverance.

In this period of your life you are searching for ways to apply your creative skills in practice. You have been working hard to overcome blockages in self-expression and to acquire the confidence to put yourself and your creativity on the line. A transition is now taking place that requires committed cooperation with others to put your skills to good use. This new influence starts growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. It is no longer so much about you, but about how you integrate with others and offer your services for the benefit of the whole. In this process you will encounter challenges at work and with colleagues, which test your humility and willingness to serve. It is good training. This is also a time to focus on your body, which, if it is to serve you well, needs to be nurtured with healthy daily habits.

Opportunities for Success

Once you have learned how to capitalize on your unique resources and gain confidence and self-assurance, you need to reach out to others between September - 2016 to October - 2017. This leads to travel and an expansion of your skills educationally. This is a great year to widen your network of contacts. Through increased communication on all levels, you learn how to make sure-footed progress.

Having developed your education and communication skills, and widened your network of contacts through travel, there is an urge to expand your influence and potential on the home front between October - 2017 and November - 2018. This brings insight and good fortune connected with property and family. At this time you broaden your emotional foundations, partly because you gain understanding of the influence of your upbringing, and partly because you are curious to learn more about how to create a nurturing and stimulating environment for yourself and those near to you.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 68. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- You experience setbacks and trials of endurance when trying to achieve your goals

- particularly in your dealings with male authorities. By steeling your will to overcome these challenges, you develop the necessary muscle to win through with your agenda.
- You are challenged to become more self reliant, both in your love life and in regard to your economy. Romantic illusions founder on the rocks of reality, but this can be a healthy process which ultimately can provide the conditions for stability in relationships.
- You feel an exhilarating urge to throw out ideas and beliefs that have been imposed on you by so-called intellectual authorities and experiment with a whole new set of convictions, especially as regards the future. Intercontinental travel and unconventional groups expand your mind.
