Dear candy,

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

As you enter your 66th year, there are quite a number of issues that you have to get your teeth into. Long-term challenges that you have been working on all your life are very much in the forefront. Challenges now have a lot to do with an innate tendency to be critical, both of yourself and others. You are motivated to be helpful and place yourself at the service of others, but at the same time you need to establish limits, so that you also have the time to realize your own agenda. Ultimately you learn how you and all other beings are integrated into a greater whole. These challenges have a lot to do with a latent insecurity that you feel in establishing a warm and welcoming environment. A heavy atmosphere in childhood, and the sense that the lid was kept on family skeletons, makes you feel vulnerable about opening up emotionally, though this is a prerequisite for establishing a happy family life. This is a time when you realize the wisdom of accepting the limitations that arise from circumstances that cannot be changed - but it need not stop you making a big effort to overcome problems that can be changed.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life the major challenges lie in relationships. Living with or relating to another individual and seeing your strength and flaws reflected by this person is a major learning experience. Any weaknesses in the way you have historically related to other people are exposed now, and your future success depends on you resolving them. This influence started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. You encounter tough people who try to impose their authority on you, and you will have to judge how much you are prepared to commit to long-term relationships, and where to set limits. Learning to share your time with another person is part of a maturing process for you now, and the more effort you put in to it, the better the results.

In this period of your life there is a transition in the way you relate to partners and the world. Over the last few years you have made a lot of effort to create harmonious and rewarding relationships, and to a large degree lived up to your responsibility to others, helping those you love if they have been in difficulty. A new period is dawning that challenges you to break down the barriers that prevent true intimacy on an emotional and sexual level. This new influence starts growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. It is not so much what you do or what you say that counts now, but how well you open up emotionally, how vulnerable you dare to be, and how brave you are in confronting your inner demons.

Opportunities for Success

After having built up comfortable circumstances in your domestic life, what is important for you between September - 2016 and October - 2017 is to appreciate the fruits of having a satisfying base, so that you can express yourself through creative activity and enjoy the art of living. Expansion and satisfaction come from living life to the full - through sport, festivity, love, children and romance. This is the time to fully be yourself without reservations or doubt. Larger than life characters will show you how through encouraging you to celebrate existence.

After a period of living life to the full through creative projects, children and festivities, new possibilities arise in your working environment from October - 2017 to November - 2018 because of opportunities abroad, or through an expansion of your area of expertise and encounters with intellectually inspiring colleagues. This is a time to expand the influence of your ideas and disseminate information that you really believe in. It is possible that there is more work to do, but it is more interesting work and it brings personal development for you.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 66. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- Challenges arise which at first powerfully affect your self confidence, as successes are few and far between and recognition and respect lacking. By working on building your character and patiently shouldering responsibility, you establish a position of confidence.
- You receive an enormous consciousness boost, awakening an interest in untraditional subjects and bringing you into contact with exciting and alternative groups. This is a period of freedom, international travel and positive change.
- You are challenged to work with the limitations that the establishment imposes on your own originality and to build a bridge between the old and the new. The test is to be able to present your take on life in a way that is digestible to those limited by traditional thought.
