Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

During your 47th year you experience a surge of personal confidence and a renewed vision of just what you are aiming for in life. Insight and understanding come easily to you, and you are drawn to deeper study and an urge to widen your horizons through travel. Your opinions and convictions become more pronounced, and you are not prepared to allow intellectual and spiritual authorities to browbeat you. Whilst you are willing to receive instruction from the truly wise, you have no time for self-appointed gurus. Enjoying life is a question of attitude, and this year your natural optimism ensures that you attract good fortune and success. Your diplomatic abilities are excellent and you have a natural sense of what is right and fair, which means that you go a long way in the cause of justice. A natural ease with relationships makes rewarding partnership a constant blessing in your life. You love to learn, and this is expressed in aesthetic and cultural interests and talents. This will reflect itself specifically in your daily working life, where a cheerful and positive approach ensures life-confirming experiences with colleagues. A positive expansion will occur this year in the work environment.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life the major challenges lie in breaking down emotional barriers between yourself and those you love. This influence started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. There are hidden complexes both in yourself and in partners, which can prevent intimacy, and these will be especially reflected in sexual frustrations that at their root are to do with anxiety. Working with therapy can loosen these blockages. Dealing with faceless authorities like the tax, police, council, trade unions and powerful financial institutions can also be a challenge at this time, because you are likely to meet a power over which you have no control. Generally this is a very challenging period emotionally, because you have to deal with more extreme circumstances than normal but you develop great resilience and survival power.

In this period of your life old emotional challenges make way for new philosophical growth. On the one hand there are still a great number of issues concerned with emotional relationships, sexuality and sharing that you are working on. There are times when it feels like you are in a state of purgatory, and that a cloud obscures the future. Nevertheless you will soon emerge from this rather heavy emotional state, and see the path ahead. This new influence starts growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. In the process you gain an overview of what the future will bring, and develop the skills and understanding necessary to tackle it. You will develop your full intellectual potential and build up your influence in the world through travel and cultural exchange. A new set of beliefs will take form, bringing a positive view of the future.

Opportunities for Success

After a period of living life to the full through creative projects, children and festivities, new possibilities arise in your working environment from September - 2016 to October - 2017 because of opportunities abroad, or through an expansion of your area of expertise and encounters with intellectually inspiring colleagues. This is a time to expand the influence of your ideas and disseminate information that you really believe in. It is possible that there is more work to do, but it is more interesting work and it brings personal development for you.

Having thoroughly established considerable success in your working environment, you are ready to build up one-to-one relationships through partnership in the period from October - 2017 to November - 2018, expanding your sphere of influence and reaching out socially. Fortunate meetings with cosmopolitan and wise people can bring happiness and a new optimistic view of your potential to make an impact on others.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 47. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- You enter a very busy period with a host of distractions that affect your concentration. You tend to dissipate your energy through pointless travel or unimportant discussions about the merits or rightness of one course of action over another. Focus.
- There are tempting possibilities for personal growth and increased fame and influence, but they must not be at the cost of your principles or better judgment. You are confident that your views are right, or you are attracted to mentors with similar convictions. But you may be wrong.
- A certain dissatisfaction with the direction your life is going in, and there may be a need to shed responsibilities that have little meaning any longer, and to reorientate yourself in connection with your ambitions and goals for the future.
