Dear Subhadip,

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

The age of 29 is a time when much of what you have achieved comes up for revision. Life has come full circle, lessons have been learned, experiences harvested. The big question now is: how much of your achievement was geared to satisfying the demands of parents and society, however unconsciously, and how much is an expression of who you are as a unique individual? You have a unique perspective on your life now, and you can gain an insight and understanding that will enable you stake out a future for yourself. The fulfillment that you have worked so hard for in your twenties may still be eluding you, and if this is the case, now is the time to define what you want to achieve in your life, and not what other people want you to achieve. What you decide now is crucial, and will form the framework for your thirties. Life is too short to spend even one more year going on a path that does not satisfy you. Challenges now have a lot to do with your opinions and views about overall issues in life, which tend to get rigid or dogmatic with age. Learning to be open to new ideas from other people is the key to intellectual flexibility, and you would be wise to avoid ideological confrontation, instead training yourself to express powerful ideas in a convincing manner. These challenges have a lot to do with a latent insecurity that you feel about all those unmapped areas of the soul. You are not wholly sure that the world is a friendly place, and a history of loneliness or isolation paradoxically makes you even more reclusive. You have great karmic battles to fight, and the territory is your own soul, which needs spiritual restructuring. Don't be afraid to radically transform your life, whatever changes now realigns you with your fate, and brings the best conditions for future growth.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life the major challenge is how you adjust to a phase in your life when material ambitions and professional achievement do not provide all the answers. There is a gnawing dissatisfaction, and a feeling that the many results you have attained in recent years are now getting more difficult to attain, or when attained are not inspiring enough. This is an influence that starts growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. New goals and a new mission in life will come at the end of this phase, but right now if you want happiness, you need to explore and structure your inner life. This means developing your spiritual nature, and enjoying creative processes that arise when you withdraw from the rat race and spend time on your own. It may be a lonely period, but if you build spiritual foundations, the next phase of your life will be rewarding.

In this period of your life there is a major transition which inaugurates a whole new epoch. In many ways this transition is welcome, because over the last few years it has seemed extremely difficult to get new projects off the ground, and in your heart you have realized that this is because the old formulas for success are redundant. Now you begin to get a glimpse of future possibilities. This is an influence that starts growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. At times it seems that the challenges are heavy, but just to be able to envision a new plan or path for the future is extremely empowering, and much to be preferred to the sense of dissolution you experienced in the past. Knowing where to put your energy and commitment, you are willing to discipline your life, organize your time, and accept heavier demands for the sake of building a new path and new life goals.

Opportunities for Success

From September - 2016 to October - 2017 you capitalize on the knowledge and experience you have garnered earlier to make a concrete success of your life. Good fortune smiles on professional endeavors in this period, and you can expand your sphere of influence. Influential people will support you, and if you strive for recognition, you will achieve it. If you go for your hopes and dreams now, then your expectations have a good chance of being fulfilled.

With professional achievements and an increase in status behind you and many career goals achieved, you are ready to capitalize on recent success by consolidating your assets and expanding your influence socially in the period from October - 2017 to November - 2018. Generous friends and mentors smooth your path and give you access to the highest places, and you harvest wisdom and influence at social gatherings.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 29. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- You have reached a milestone when the habits and structures you have build up in the past can no longer function in the future that is dawning. Restructuring is necessary. You have a duty to pursue your own mission in life, rather than living up to the expectations of others.
- You may feel inclined to indulge a need for liberation and change, but reality steps in your path and blocks actions that may be tinged with irresponsibility. Innovation and change can take place, but only with patient planning and a respect for the facts on the ground.
- Your ethics and principles are put to the test as you take advantage of opportunities for expansion, travel and widening your intellectual horizons. You have a strong belief in the future, but you need to weigh risks against realities.
