Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

The age of 29 is a time when much of what you have achieved comes up for revision. Life has come full circle, lessons have been learned, experiences harvested. The big question now is: how much of your achievement was geared to satisfying the demands of parents and society, however unconsciously, and how much is an expression of who you are as a unique individual? You have a unique perspective on your life now, and you can gain an insight and understanding that will enable you stake out a future for yourself. The fulfillment that you have worked so hard for in your twenties may still be eluding you, and if this is the case, now is the time to define what you want to achieve in your life, and not what other people want you to achieve. What you decide now is crucial, and will form the framework for your thirties. Life is too short to spend even one more year going on a path that does not satisfy you. Challenges now have a lot to do with your motivation to attain a position of authority in society. Many setbacks pave the path to success, and as the years go by more responsibility is placed on your shoulders. From being sensitive or even resentful of authorities, you learn what it means to protect the institutions that make civil society a blessing. These challenges have a lot to do with a latent insecurity that you feel in relation to authority. This has arisen because of a dominating parental figure who believed the stick was better than the carrot. You have strong ambitions but not enough faith in yourself. Yet in time you will acquire authority, although the trick is to be satisfied with your success rather than driving ever onward. Don't be afraid to radically transform your life, whatever changes now realigns you with your fate, and brings the best conditions for future growth.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life the major challenges lie in creating a future you can believe in. There is a sense of change and potential that brings a new optimism about the future, but you can struggle to find the best moral or intellectual framework for the new beliefs about your life that are taking root now. There is a strong urge to expand your intellectual horizons through study or travel and this is an excellent time to commence a long term commitment to growth, which ultimately brings new skills that will advance your career. This influence started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. Issues of conscience can trouble you, and matters of right and wrong can occupy your mind. Basically you are building up a new set of ethical values which will guide your future process.

In this period of your life you are ready to make the transition from learning to doing. Over the last few years you have expanded your horizons both intellectually and through travel, and formed firm new views about your direction in life. You have built up a framework of beliefs and convictions that point you like an arrow to your destiny. The focus now shifts to your career and making a professional impact. This new influence starts growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. Your immediate experience is one of being seriously challenged - by authorities and by the way the system is put together. If you are to attain career success you are going to have to establish your own authority and carve out your own niche. You need to win respect through a determined approach. Plan your long-term goals and achieve them slowly and steadily, step by step.

Opportunities for Success

Having thoroughly established considerable success in your working environment, you are ready to build up one-to-one relationships through partnership in the period from September - 2016 to October - 2017, expanding your sphere of influence and reaching out socially. Fortunate meetings with cosmopolitan and wise people can bring happiness and a new optimistic view of your potential to make an impact on others.

After a period during which relationships prospered and your circle of social influence expanded, you are ready to delve deeper into the psychological dynamics of intimate personal relationships in the period from October - 2017 to November - 2018. A deeper understanding of and empathy for others is developed, enriching your emotional and erotic life. You receive blessings both in the form of emotional generosity and material good luck.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 29. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- There are tempting possibilities for personal growth and increased fame and influence, but they must not be at the cost of your principles or better judgment. You are confident that your views are right, or you are attracted to mentors with similar convictions. But you may be wrong.
- Unpredictable events raise your adrenal levels and bring out the fighting spirit in the coming months, making you more inclined to take considerable risks. Whilst the samurai spirit is awakened, you may provoke others unnecessarily.
- A series of challenges in relation to communication at work and at home, travel or project delays and other frustrations, slows you down and forces you to concentrate on learning basic skills and attending to detail. Think positive rather than succumbing to worry.
