THE ESSENTIAL YEAR REPORT...

At the turn of the 21st century, there were 6 billion people on Earth. No two of them were born on the exact date, time and place - everyone has a unique horoscope. This horoscope reflects personal characteristics that the individual has chosen to work with in this life. He or she meets parents, brothers and sisters, friends, teachers and finally partners, who evoke an evolutionary development for the soul.

Each individual has then a unique life that can be mapped astrologically according to the planetary movements after birth. World of Wisdom's Essential Year Report synthesizes three astrological methods to map the life journey of the individual:

- Progressions, which reflect a personal evolutionary, or karmic pattern present at birth
- Transits, which reflect collective trends that evoke specific behavior in the individual
- Solar Returns, which are horoscopes calculated for each birthday, showing what happens to the individual on the year in question. (For unknown birth times and yearly horoscopes starting on days other than your birthday, another astrological technique - horary - is used.)

This synthesis is complex. With 12 signs, 12 houses and 10 planets (with Sun and Moon) there are 1440 simple combinations. When the connection between planets are taken into consideration (aspects) and then transits and progressions, there are several hundred thousand combinations. Essential Year Report works on several thousand of these, the rest needs to be filled in with your memory and creative visualization.

This reading describes your own evolutionary journey. To understand it fully you need to understand the talents and challenges that the planetary positions at birth represent. The first part of every section of Essential Year Report explains therefore what you can expect in life based on who you are as a person. It is crucial to realize that what happens during the course of the life is constrained by these personal factors. If your love-life promises great happiness, then later trends will trigger this potential... and vice versa.

If you wish to know more in detail about your personal character and how to get the most out of your life, then our Birth Horoscope Interpreter will go into this deeply. The Essential Year Report is designed to map out the timing of events and the fulfillment of your destiny.

INTRODUCTION

During your 51st year there are pressing professional issues that have to be addressed. This is a time when challenges pile up, both in connection with your relationship to authorities, and in terms of your goals and ambitions. You need to define exactly where you wish to apply yourself, and exactly what you want to achieve. As you are under pressure now, this is not easy, but with extra effort and determination you can carve out a position for yourself that can stand you in good stead for the next five years at least. Challenges now have a lot to do with dealing with long term issues of dissolution, chaos or suffering in the society in which you live. Wise beyond your years, you are witness to the eternal truth that everything dissolves with time, and this in turn can undermine your will to build things up. The responsibility you feel needs to be channeled into active compassion. These challenges have a lot to do with a latent insecurity that you feel in offering your services to others. You tend to aim low and get stuck in work that is monotonous and without perspective, and perhaps this comes from low expectations or criticism when you were young. With maturity you learn to structure your daily life, develop administrative skills and assume greater responsibility. Fortunately, this is also a time when a further expansion of your influence is possible, if you adopt a positive and visionary attitude. Bearing in mind your achievements so far, you are justified in pursuing a confident and self-assured path.

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life there is a major transition process that puts the focus on home-building and family life. For several years it has been important for you to develop your educational and communication skills and increase your reach through travel and networking with others. But now it is crucial to put down roots, and you find yourself thinking back to your own heritage and upbringing with a view to create a nurturing environment for those who are dependant on you. These new influences start growing around November - 2017 and will ebb out around January - 2021. During this time you will have established a very solid base from which to make forays out into the world. But it is early days yet, and right now you may feel ill-prepared. It starts by taking responsibility for the family and working on the home.

An awareness of the spiritual forces behind your individual evolution has enriched your understanding of your self and the universe, and this now ushers in a period from August - 2016 to August - 2017 when you are ready to emerge from seclusion and apply this inner wisdom more directly in your dealings with others. A new confidence is reflected by a more forceful personal presence in which your ideas and opinions pave the way for personal expansion.

Having gained tremendous insight into the direction your life in the period, a new period is ushered in from August - 2017 to January - 2018 when the focus moves to your earning capacity. You gain a better understanding as to what it takes to strengthen your economy, and what assets you need to develop. This understanding leads to increased personal resources and a broadening of your economic base, which will provide the foundation for increased growth.

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 51. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- After a period when you have worked on improving communication and education, your focus moves to establishing a secure family base. This involves structural changes in the home and a deeper awareness of the emotional dependencies you have inherited from parents and ancestors.
- There are opportunities for change both professionally and domestically, which will bring more space and freedom into your life. You throw off parental or other structural limitations and take a calculated risk to capitalize on your personal and unique talents.

- You feel an urgent need to be true to yourself, even if this means changes in lifestyle and relationships. You insist on being authentic, which you do quite uncompromisingly, expecting other people to adjust to the new you.

These along with other influences will be examined later in the report.

Life Path

NEW LIFE GOALS BEGIN

There are many spheres of human activity which are active at any one time, but each year there will be a focus on a particular area of your life that will absorb you more than anything else, and be at the center of the events of that year.

The theme at the age of 51 is expansion of your horizons, and gaining an enhanced awareness and understanding of the meaning and direction of your life. This may be through further education or travel – the important thing is to have a wider experience, so that you can formulate and express your ideas and opinions. The hunger for knowledge is great, and you cast your net wide. Ethics and the law can also be themes that occupy a good deal of your time.

This theme awakens your need to imprint your ideas and opinions on others. There may be a lack of sensitivity in this, as your desire to convince and persuade can fail to take into account the opinions that others have. Listening is just as important as talking.

You will be guided by your convictions in the year ahead, and your strongest motivation will be gaining insight and making judgments about what is best, what is right and what is wrong.

Forging bonds with other people and facilitating agreement will be your forte, as you easily attune to others and strive to create equanimity and balance. Personal relationships figure strongly and you are motivated for love and partnership. You are attracted to all things beautiful at this time, and will travel for cultural, romantic and aesthetic experiences.

You will find that the focus of this influence is in an intellectual environment in the outer world. Time spent studying, meeting influential people, and traveling is time well spent. It is not just a question of learning, but also of gaining understanding and insight, and a sense of the meaning of your life in one way or another. This is an exhilarating period of belief in the future and personal expansion.

Certain challenges arise.

There is a destructive tinge to what you do, as if you are prepared to lose everything, and what does it matter? This uncompromising attitude needs to be transformed by psychological insight. You may have to cut your losses and start again.

This specifically activates a need to transform something in your personal lifestyle, shedding inauthenticity and embracing personal power.

There are unique opportunities and challenges affecting you personally right now, which can result in significant lifestyle and relationship changes or modifications. If you would like to see your life going in a different direction, now is the time to take the reins and choose a path which is uniquely suited to you, as described by the influences below.

Adjusting to the realities

This is a time when it is important to make structural changes in both your personal life and in your relationships to others, as new responsibilities and challenges arise, demanding a more restrained and disciplined approach. To some extent you are required to fit in, and this can be a pressure for you as you adjust habits and cut back on personal preferences to accommodate the realities of your situation. Your normal vitality may be depressed by difficult circumstances, and you may also feel that the people you are committed to may be demanding more than is comfortable. Perhaps you have to take more responsibility for a loved one now. Nevertheless in the period from December 2016 to November 2018 – if your birth time is reasonably accurate – it is important to avoid escapism and rise to the challenges that come your way. To strengthen personal health and the integrity of relationships at this time it is wise to adopt a new program of self-discipline, training and restraint.

There are times in your life when it is not enough to simply register and adjust to influences that come from the outer world. Sometimes the time comes to change the actual framework of your life. Perhaps this means adopting a new lifestyle or appearance. Perhaps the time has come to redefine who you are through who you choose to live with. The following influence shows a unique opportunity to move your life into another gear.

To your own self be true

If your birth time is precise then a shake up in the way you choose to live your life takes place in the months around January 2018 connected with a need to express your authentic identity in word and deed. You want to express your true self, but how is this to be done when professional and relationship demands run counter to your self-development? You know that when you find the way to true self-expression everything will follow from that; it is up to you how many waves you make in the process. People will simply need to adjust if they want what is best for you. At the same time it is essential to retain your warmth and dignity and to act in a way that reflects your best character. Others may perceive you are egocentric or even arrogant now, but it is worth remembering the saying: "To your own self be true, then it follows that you can be false to no man". Partnership at this time may come through meeting someone who has tremendous charisma. Fatherhood can also play an important role.

An inner need to constantly transform your identity is a major factor in your life, and this influence will draw out powerful psychological forces that change your core.

This initial section of the report is connected with your lifestyle and direction, and the factors described above modify this direction as you respond to outside influences and your own inner evolutionary process. Of these factors the most significant during the age of 51 are:

- a time when you may not get what you want, but you do get what you need. Rise to the challenges that arise in your personal life and relationships.
- a time when there are changes in lifestyle and relationships because of a growing need for authenticity and expressing your true character.
- a time when you widen your horizons, both intellectually and through travel. Wisdom and learning are there to be harvested.

Career

PROFESSIONAL FREEDOM, FAMILY SPACE

Every year there is a particular focus on your goals and ambitions, and a need to reformulate your mission in life and what you want to achieve. It is equally important to have a good foundation to build your successes on in terms of home and family.

A major theme as regards career during the age of 51 is dealing with crisis and transformation through harnessing your psychological talents and ability to unearth factors that can undermine success. This is a time when you nurture a secret agenda, and have to deal with power plays amongst the professional elite. There is a deep determination to turn things around.

This theme is very much connected to your desire for recognition, and you may want to embark on a program of self-promotion to attain this. It is wise to tread lightly, as you may actually attract unwanted attention.

You can handle heavy power issues and are keen to create reform and transformation, which you will do in a specific fashion and in a specific area.

Two things are important: on a mental level you need to gain knowledge and educate yourself by adding new skills, and on a personal level you need to reach out to others and network. Contacts are everything.

The main area to concentrate on is the promotion of your own creative persona through projects in which you take center stage. This is a time when you need to have the courage to expose yourself to the attention of others and win their approval.

Certain challenges arise.

One factor that can undermine success right now is a general feeling that your ambitions do little to make you, or your family, feel secure. You have mixed feelings about career efforts, because it disrupts the status quo and habits that are dear to you. You need to get your emotional life under control if you want to make progress.

This awakens feelings centered on the security represented by material possessions, bodily satisfaction, and financial security.

One factor that can undermine success right now is the sense of being at a crossroads and at a loss at which direction to take. Should you rely on the structures and relationships you have built on in the past, or should you make new allegiances? Striking a balance between these two options, with a view to letting go of the past, is probably the best way forward.

In this process you need to tune in to the emotional demands of others, utilizing their resources rather than relying on your own.

Some factors help.

One very positive factor that helps you achieve your professional agenda is that partners, or other people you have an affectionate relationship with, will give you optimal support at this time. It pays to integrate an aesthetic element into what you do, and to use your people skills.

Relationships strengthen self-worth during the course of the year; you spend more money on yourself and loved ones. Meetings take place whilst shopping.

One very positive factor that helps you achieve your professional agenda is your ability to draw upon healing powers that you have developed through dealing with personal issues. You receive help from people on the fringe who have unique talents themselves when it comes to repairing damage.

This is connected with a feeling of having resources or self-worth undermined by a basic flaw – something that may cost money.

Challenges and opportunities arise at this time which can bring major changes or adjustments in both your career and your domestic life. The influences described below can bring concrete change, enabling you to live and work on a new level.

Career experimentation, domestic change

Though this may be an unsettled time in your career and domestic life, you now feel the need to experiment and embrace new ideas and methods that give you more space and freedom. You can gather new inspiration from connections abroad, from new technological advances and from alternative groups and mentors. You adapt professional goals to incorporate a more independent or free-lance approach and generally liberate yourself from the tyranny of authoritarian people or systems. It is a good time for following your own unique path and capitalizing on your special individual talents, and it pays off not to be too bound to your family home or roots. For example relocation is an option that is worth considering. This trend lasts from May 2016 to April 2019 – if your birth time is reasonably accurate – and leads to a fresh new approach to your professional future.

Boost in career and family

As far as your goals are concerned there are particularly favorable developments in the period from December 2016 to November 2017. Influential people smooth the path for you and leverage you into an advantageous career environment. Your own understanding and wisdom help you expand your influence. The focus is on a greater overview, on the international rather than the local. Good fortune not only affects career and promotion possibilities, it also gives great opportunities for property, family expansion and happy domestic events. This is an optimistic time for you, your parents, and family members generally – a time to buy property or enjoy a wonderful holiday abroad.

The career section of this report explains influences in the current year that can cause you to adapt or change professional goals, and make use of opportunities that come your way. Overall, in the area of family and career the major developments you can expect are:

- a time when there are opportunities for change both domestically and professionally, bring more freedom and space and the implementation of unique talents.
- favorable developments both domestically and professionally due to an element of luck and a positive attitude to life
- a time of intense transformation in your ambitions, where you manage to transform a situation through secret alliances and willpower.

Personal development

WISDOM AND EXPANSION

During the course of the year you will have a number of character-building experiences, which help you grow and develop as an individual. It is rare for any difficulty to last longer than a period of about eight months, and if you regard challenges that arise as a test that helps you become stronger, then it will be relatively easy for you to overcome them. Similarly, when events boost your confidence, it is pays to take advantage of the limited time available to capitalize on your good fortune.

With your sun in your birth chart in Taurus and in the 8th House this relates to your need to seek consolidation and security , in connection with transformation, both psychologically and in the world of power.

An important feature around the age of 51 is your need to expand your radius and outreach through local contacts, travel, schooling and education generally. This is an excellent time for getting your ideas across and for inspiring contact with charismatic teachers. What matters now is self expression and acquiring the mental tools to optimize your communication skills, and this means that you voraciously acquire knowledge and become a key figure in bringing people together in a network. It is a matter of personal pride now to demonstrate your mental skills.

You are empowered by the following.

This is a time when mental focus is important. This means developing your network of contacts, training your skills, educating yourself and generally being on the move. There may be a symbiosis with someone with whom you closely share your ideas and thoughts. Yet clarity is difficult to establish; stress levels are high and you tend to burn your fingers because there are too many irons in the fire. You seem unable to maintain objectivity, and plunge in blindly.

Learning, networking and communication are on your mind during the course of the year, and close contacts (neighbors, siblings) absorb your time.

It is during this period that you feel ready to make longed-for changes in your life. The time of acceptance and restraint is over; now you have to be true to yourself... your duty is to realize and express your unique capacities as an individual. There is an explosive urge to walk on the wild side and expose yourself to exotic cultures or countries. At the same time you can experience amazing insights that boost personal growth and give you a new understanding as to what it means to be alive.

This is connected with a new-found interested in learning about alternative subjects, especially through networking and travel.

Some factors help.

It is during this period that you can gain perspective on your mission in life and draw the most from the people and associations that have formed your past, whilst embracing new alliances with people who hold promise for your future. New environments evoke new perspectives for personal development.

It is during this period that you understand the importance of hard work and planning. Respect for authorities and support for the establishment brings quiet recognition and the chance to shoulder responsibilities. Success comes slowly and through effort; there are obstacles to be overcome. The satisfaction is in achievement when the odds are against you... that is the true test of character.

As self-confidence is rather low, and pressure on you considerable, you need to call on your reserves of patience and perseverance.

Certain key influences will present challenges and opportunities to you now as regards your development as an individual. Below you will find effects described, which you will feel more or less powerfully, evoking actions that enable you to stamp your signature on events.

Overreaching yourself

The period from January 2017 to December 2017 is a time when you encounter intellectual authorities who are in a position to make judgments on your character, and if you over-estimate your strength or capability, this judgment can go against you. On the one hand you expand your influence, either through intellectual achievement or travel, but on the other, there is a tendency to go over the top. The essential thing is to guard against hubris. There is no harm in thinking positive and being intellectually competitive, but without groundwork you will be unable to hold on to the success you are hoping for. You are attracted to mentors, but you may later feel that you misjudged people. Watch out for inflated egos.

Authority through responsibility

During the period from February 2017 to December 2018 you are challenged to develop a mature and responsible attitude, and to willingly shoulder responsibility. There are burdens to lift, but you develop strength of character that stands you in good stead for the future. It is unlikely that things will be easy at this time, but neither will they be impossible. Challenges are overcome relatively easily by working just that little bit harder, and by planning well. By breaking large projects into bite-sized chunks you can make steady and sure progress. This is a good time for business growth and career development, and the likelihood is that you will be in the right place at the right time to get the right job. You win respect and are rewarded by a higher position in society.

The personal development section of this report shows influences directly affecting your character, bringing both challenges and personal growth. Of these influences the most crucial are:

- a tendency to overrate yourself and fly, Icarus-like, too close to the sun.
- a time when challenges bring out your strength of character and enable you to establish the foundations for future personal growth

Feelings and security

EXPANSION OF EMOTIONAL INSIGHT

You are in an ongoing process of emotional development, and the focus is constantly changing. As your unconscious mind absorbs impressions during the different phases of your life, you integrate greater depth and understanding of yourself and your relationships. There are specific areas of your life where this influence has a particular significance.

With your moon in your birth chart in Taurus and in the 9th House this relates to deep emotional calm and stability, and sojourns abroad will give you the sense that the whole world is your oyster.

Emotionally the age of 51 can be said to reflect a time when you are more sensitive and receptive than usual, particularly towards the suffering that you see around you. There is a compassionate motivation to alleviate the problems other people are going through, although there are also chaotic conditions in your own emotional life. Creative and spiritual interests bring growth.

One of the main areas where this influence will be felt is in your material life. Financial security has top priority, and your highest motivation is to feel settled and secure, so that you can be giving to those you feel a bond with.

One thing that affords considerable satisfaction for you now is the feeling that your activities and family environment accord with a deeper purpose in your life enabling you to be more authentic and natural. Those you are close to are more supportive, particularly when it comes to your own personal agenda.

Certain challenges arise.

There is a sense that you have reached an emotional crossroads which means that you reluctantly let go of attachments to people and places that have had great meaning for you in the past, and tentatively seek out new environments that ultimately will put you in a better position in the future.

There is an element of stress connected with your need for a stable attachment and an urge to go out into the world and fight for what you want. Impatience and irritation will undermine domestic harmony if you are unable to dampen

This galvanizes the desire you have this year to promote yourself and assert your creativity and sexuality.

Some factors help.

You are really able to communicate well and congruously at this time, expressing your feelings authentically and somehow capturing the imagination of those you create contact with. A wonderful time for enrolling people in your ideas, and nurturing the minds of the young.

During the year ahead you continue a dynamic and forceful period of your life when emotional chaos and passivity is firmly consigned to the past. You no longer shy away from challenges or confrontation when it comes to fulfilling your needs and the needs of those who are dependant on you. This spirit of dynamism brings results fast, although the level of conflict can increase, not least because you refuse to be pushed around by others. You tend to be more short-tempered and impatient, and you act on impulse, but you are courageous and willing to engage in pioneering activity.

A great deal of your emotional energy – in practical terms at least – is focused on relationships, and it is here that the major swings of mood will come, as your attunement to the mind and soul of others affects your equilibrium. In this period you learn about yourself through how you relate to others and satisfy their emotional needs. Other people become a mirror reflecting how you are and how you relate. In this way you learn to optimize your relationship skills and build a solid partnership based on give and take. This is naturally an excellent time for love and marriage, and for building up a family together with a partner.

The influences described below will have an even more profound effect on your emotional life, awakening a powerful and often unconscious response. Ultimately this brings insight into your early conditioning and enables you to modify the way you instinctively react.

Family consolidation

After a period where the focus has been on learning and communication, you are ready to turn your attention within to look at your roots and the foundations on which you build your family life. There are pressing challenges, but you are definitely prepared to meet them. This can relate to parental relationships, or your role as a parent yourself. It can also be connected to responsibilities you have in your local environment. On an inner level the time has come to reassess family bonds and examine emotional dependency. By stabilizing family life now you create the foundations for advancement in your career, and the security to be more creative in your life. It may also be worth examining your heritage and ancestry too, because you now learn about the building blocks that have created your life circumstances, and your inherited weaknesses and strengths. Domestic challenges will cover the period from December 2016 to October 2018 – if your birth time is reasonably accurate – and lead to a consolidating of home and family life. This is the time to do building work to make the home function more effectively.

Over-emotional times

You can expect an expansion in your home and family life in the period from December 2017 to November 2018 which can arise from home improvements or moving, or from new people in the local or international environment, or simply from a new period of emotional growth that requires considerable adjustment. Things can get a bit much, or you can bite off more than you can chew, and this in turn results in emotional states that tend to affect your judgment. To avoid misjudgment in this period, especially through over expansion, it is important to understand that feelings come and go, and they should not alone form the basis of actions. You can get particularly worked up about injustice, and there may be one issue in particular that you find especially unfair. But perhaps you have just outgrown a situation that would have restricted you anyway. It is time to move on and grow.

This section maps out the timing and intensity of influences in your life that absorb your interest on a daily level, profoundly affecting everything, from your work to your family life. These influences constitute your emotional growth during the course of the year, and the main themes are:

- a time when the focus shifts to family bonds and the challenges of creating a secure home. There is a greater awareness of your ancestral roots.
- a time when your emotional state tends to dominate proceedings as expansion and change bring a need to grow out of restrictive habits and circumstances.
- a time when you are full of energy and enthusiasm and impatient about achieving results, though this can evoke a higher level of conflict.

- a time with the focus on partnership with many swings of mood as you learn the art of tuning in to the needs of others.

Mental Development

PROLONGED LEARNING AND STUDY

Gaining skills through education and other forms of training is a major ingredient for success, both professionally and in relationships. Through developing your communication talents you can make contacts and build networks which facilitate progress.

With Mercury in your birth chart in Aries and in the 7th House this relates to your fiery and impulsive mode of expression, and you evoke similar qualities in your relationships, where communication is your highest priority.

During the age of 51 your mental focus is on taking new initiatives. Your competitive frame of mind is triggered, so you rush in to one challenge after another, achieving results rapidly, if rather impulsively. If you get into argument, it can be because you have not taken the time to think things through.

Your mental abilities are channeled into areas to do with travel, education and working on your network. Communication is all important during the course of the year, and you may have special challenges in connection with people in your immediate neighborhood or with siblings.

Somehow you want to express your essential identity during the course of the year. In all your dealings you want to be true to yourself and go on your own unique path. Your basic integrity and authenticity shines through.

You are empowered by the following.

This is a time to experiment mentally and to pursue unusual areas of study. Impatience with traditional teaching and ideas leads you to into exotic new fields of interest. This is a great year for travel or contact with foreigners. Your attention span is short, and you tend to get bored easily and detach, but it is an excellent year for revolutionary new insights.

Some factors help.

You learn how to discipline yourself mentally structure and plan communication and education interests. This is an excellent time for the prudent management of business and for the organization of schedules.

Your mind is able to span both the future and the past during the course of the year, as you harness abilities that are natural to you and use them to develop new skills to enable you to follow the path ahead. In this way you are able to make connections that unite quite separate realities.

The influences described below will bring additional opportunities and challenges in the field of communication. By rising to educational challenges and improving communication skills, you can add to your skills and capabilities.

Exasperation

There seem to be difficulties and delays in all sorts of ways in this period. Whether it is connected with travel, communication, relations or education, there are knotty problems that take time and can be the source of considerable frustration. This is a testing period mentally, and short cuts are not permitted. If projects seem overwhelming, divide them in to smaller tasks and concentrate on them rather than thinking about the whole project. It is important to plan well now, and to put more effort into the task at hand. You need to learn the basic skills, so be patient – with yourself and with your colleagues. This mentally challenging period lasts from December 2017 to January 2019 and you will emerge from it with a much better grasp of the issues than you had at the beginning. The essential thing is to avoid worry and negative thinking, which will only wear you down physically and mentally, and to rise to each small challenge with determination and a positive attitude.

The influences described in this section challenge you to develop intellectually, socially and in relation to others. Of all these influences, in terms of the enhancement and development of your mental skills the most significant will be:

- a time of frustrations and delays in travel and mental pursuits, requiring patience, discipline and good planning.
- activation of your natural competitive urge to achieve things fast and take on any mental challenge.

Values, Love and Relationships

JUDGING WITH THE HEART

Your need for relationship is very much dependant on your tastes, and early family experiences of bonding. These factors determine whether you feel attraction or not, or whether you are simply indifferent. People of similar tastes are instinctively attracted to you, as you are to them, and this is the basis of personal harmony in your relationships.

With Mars in your birth chart in Pisces and in the 6th House this relates to your need to give heart and soul to an idealized partner, which you will express harmoniously at work, manifesting considerable people skills.

In relationship matters you feel a strong romantic longing during the age of 51 – there is a tendency to idealize partners and love. On a spiritual level you develop compassion for people and want to selflessly help them, though on a personal level you can get led astray through unrealistic attractions. This can be the cause of a measure of unhappiness or sorrow. This is a good year for art, music and creativity, but as regards partnership there can be confusion.

You are very sensitive about what you have to offer in relationships during the course of the year, and how they reflect on your own value and self worth. You focus on your body and sensuality and are willing to spend money to increase your confidence in these areas. Likewise you really want to feel appreciated and are not averse to being bribed with gifts and other signs of affection.

It is said that all is fair in love and war, and this is a time when what is fair and what is not in a relationship absorbs you. Apparent injustice may come as a result of ethical lapses or poor judgment in relationships. There is a tendency to aim high, too high perhaps, and to spend money that you do not have on things that you do not need.

You are empowered by the following.

You may retreat from love into the ivory tower of your intellect during the course of the year, but the pain of rejection lingers. It is not what hurts that is important, but the means to heal what hurts. You meet people now who teach you this art, which you can both practice on yourself and on others.

Certain challenges arise.

Love brings frustrations, and it seems that you neither get the affection you desire, nor the approval you need. Keep expectations low – this is a time when you are being tested. Believe in yourself – this is just a stage you are going through to develop strength of character and self-sufficiency.

Some factors help.

You manage to harmoniously integrate your values and desires, and this brings fruitful and enriching relationships, not least erotically. You are aware of and respect the difference between the sexes, which simply serves to spice up your life. Working well with the opposite sex you can get a lot of creative work done.

There are other major changes affecting relationships and values at this time, and the influences described below will bring opportunities to modify your need for others, and ultimately develop better ways of relating authentically.

Good fortune in love

There is a period of success for you both as regards your economy and your relationships from November 2017 to October 2018, and this brings a blossoming of confidence about your attractiveness and value as a person. If you are looking for romance, you will surely find it – especially if you travel to a romantic place. This is a good time for relationships with people from cultures you admire. You are particularly attracted to wise and cultured people who can teach you something. Generally you can afford to expand, spend more and really appreciate what life has to offer. Now is the time to both harvest and enjoy the fruits of efforts that you have made in the past, and to generously share your good fortune with those you love.

The influences described in this section will all have a significant effect on the way you relate to the world. In terms of your material values and matters of love, the most important of all these influences will be:

- a time when you can enjoy the good life. Experiences with friends and lovers, especially when traveling or experiencing culture, boost your confidence and self-worth
- a time when you idealize or sacrifice yourself for love with the risk of experiencing disappointment, which leads to spiritual insight.

Sex, work, willpower and assertion

OVERCOMING LIMITATIONS

Nothing is achieved in life without the force and determination to go for what you want. There are battles to be won and obstacles to be overcome, and this means being able to assert yourself, and to mobilize your courage to face challenges and overcome resistance.

With Mars in your birth chart in Taurus and in the 8th House this relates to your calm determination, stubborn will and strong desire nature, and this manifests with a certain amount of fear of losing control and as erotic intensity in intimate relationships

As regards personal drive the age of 51 is a year when you are strongly motivated to travel and learn, and quick to take the initiative when it comes to communication. You cover a lot of material educationally, though there tend to be clashes of ideas.

Your energy and will is channeled into being creative. You are willing to take center stage and fight for the projects you hold dear, which can bring creative success. There is also a desire to celebrate life, and social activities, parties and other outgoing activities, which can bring romantic involvement. Children may figure strongly, but they can be troublesome.

This is a year when a male member of your family creates a good deal of trouble. You are challenged to set your own imprint on the family situation, but you can be too brusque and insensitive. A good year for pioneer activity and building.

Certain challenges arise.

Differences in personal and group relationships are exacerbated by your combative attitude. You fight to detach yourself or at least to reorient your goals in relation to others. A warrior can have few friends, but is much needed in times of upheaval.

Some factors help.

Knowing where you have been wounded in the past, you use the skills you have painstakingly acquired to help and heal both yourself and others. This is a time to educate others in the art of self help and defense.

There are other powerful influences at this time, which bring both challenges to your autonomy and independence, and opportunities for leadership and self assertion. The influences described below bring out your survival abilities and evoke a fighting spirit that can ultimately empower you.

Building things up

The period from February 2017 to December 2018 is an excellent time for developing your willpower and applying it in a determined and concentrated way on a particular project. On a practical level you can make home improvements and do building work – it is a good time to get physical, perhaps even going to a training center or committing to some kind of sport. This is also a productive period for working on any insecurities you may have sexually – a time to talk about, and overcome, any inhibitions. Professionally you work well with someone who you either organize or who organizes you – a joint effort over time now can really produce results, although there will be difficulties and delays. A rare combination of events means that you have both the time and the will to work on and succeed at an important project.

Bulldozing the opposition

Nothing can stop you getting what you want in the period from September 2017 to July 2018, as you have the confidence to go for it, and you are willing to take risks. This gung-ho attitude can attract considerable disapproval from people who know better, and you can waste energy discussing with or fighting people who have different views than your own. If you can channel your energy constructively, you can expand your sphere of influence and intellectual capacity, but your appetites are so strong that you are inclined to make misjudgments. You may want to develop your body through fitness and sport – it is at least a great channel for your growing energy. Your sexual appetite is also strong at this time, and you can bend the rules to satisfy your desires. There is an attraction to foreigners, adventurers and intellectuals.

The influences described in this section will bring changes in the way you strive for achievement. Of the many influences affecting your energy, sexuality and assertiveness this year the main areas to be aware of are:

- a time when a fortuitous blend of timing and willpower enables you to work on and realize an important project.
- a time when you are unstoppable, but at the same time you tend to be impervious to how other people feel when you go for what you want.
- a time when you learn a lot, travel a lot and meet a lot of people.

Collective trends

SPREADING THE POWER OF AN IDEOLOGY

The influences mentioned so far in this analysis have an effect on your psychological evolution and fate which is strictly personal. There are other influences on your life based on your relationship to the collective, which can be just as exciting and stimulating for you, even though they may not evoke dramatic personal change.

Ideological impact

A deep insight into the hidden side of your inner and outer life arises in the period November 2017 to October 2018 and you have the potential to learn just how powerful unconscious forces can be. You may be able to channel this power into your work, in dealings with the elite, in studies through magic and psychology and in travel, through visiting places of mystery. What becomes especially apparent to you is the force of a brand or an icon – how a single powerful idea can exert an enormous collective influence. If you can learn how to use this knowledge your work can have far greater transformative impact.

Unlimited vision

Your dreams and imagination are stimulated and expanded in the period December 2017 to November 2018 in what is the start of a new 12-year cycle of visionary activity. Although this can be a wonderfully creative start, there are pitfalls along the way. If you are just inflating a bubble of expectations built on a wish and a prayer, then this bubble will surely burst. There are no guarantees that your dreams will materialize at this time, even if you and other people are persuaded by them. On the other hand if you use this period to gain wisdom, for example through art, music or spiritual practice, then you may be offered inspiring visions that change your whole view of the future.

Radical visions

In this period you are willing to take major, radical steps to open up your intellect to new and original input. Whilst this is an excellent time for further education, your interest is not captured by boring, rote learning or unoriginal information served in unoriginal ways. This is an intercontinental period – horizons are blown wide open and the urge to get unique input from faraway destinations is extremely strong. You seek mentors who have an untraditional or even revolutionary approach, and you can make progress spiritually, intellectually and philosophically at a very rapid pace. New discoveries galvanize your imagination, and the future beckons bright and strong. This trend, which lasts May 2016 to January 2020, puts you in touch with your own unique intellectual qualities through contact with people who think outside the box.

During the age of 51 you are in a phase of your personal evolution which is very much connected with presenting your life work and enjoying the benefits of the success it brings. This is a defining period for showing what you are capable of, and if you are pursuing a path that does not allow you to express your unique capabilities, then a change of course is appropriate. Confrontation with established authorities may be a characteristic of this time, and as a counterweight you will seek strong alliances with people and groups who support your efforts and views. There is a sense of urgency about this period of your life, and little time for compromises, if you are to realize your potential. You assert leadership and take the battles that inevitably come.

Seen from another viewpoint, there is a purposeful evolution in your life, and each of the events that arise can be seen as milestones on the journey of your soul. There are some fields of your experience which you are all too familiar with, and perhaps you need to relinquish your attachment to them. Other areas of experience present new and interesting challenges for your soul, and require total immersion.

The primary evolutionary focus in the year is on your professional life in contrast to your domestic security, and intense developments in these areas involve working to define new goals and ambitions and striving for recognition and success. By bravely seizing the opportunities that come your way, you can establish a strong position in society, and in the meantime family life may have to be on standby.

The collective influences described above are very much related to the generation of which you are a part, and opportunities now arise to capitalize on trends that your generation will resonate to. The most important of these are:

- a time when you are initiated into the inner transformative power of ideas, and can use them to create great impact in both your inner and outer world.
- a time when all aspects of your imagination are vastly stimulated, though what is real and achievable is difficult to discern.
- a time of intellectual stimulation and growth through contact with untraditional individuals and groups, and through long-distance travel.

The influences described in this report are based on planetary cycles, transits of the outer planets and progressions of the inner planets in an integrated description which also takes into account the major factors in your birth horoscope. Thousands of factors are taken into consideration, making this report completely unique to you for the next twelve months. Rather than make specific predictions, we have tried to describe how you can make the most out of the many changes that are taking place. By defining what you really want, and going for it, you can weather the storms and currents described in this report and come safely to the destination that you are aiming for. It is in this context that the major events of this year should be seen.

Some of the themes from this year will continue into the next year, and some completely new themes will arise. Looking at the three most important events at the age of 52 you can expect change in the following areas:

You will be gripped by an electrifying exhilaration, prompting you to make changes in the way you live your life. Self-realization is the key – it is your time, and nobody can stand in the way of this inner revolution. There are international travels and encounters.

A period when you feel a deep longing for romantic fulfillment but efforts to satisfy this longing in personal relationships meet with disappointment. Channeled correctly you can use this energy to discover a richer set of spiritual and creative values.

You experience exciting developments both socially and romantically that open up new horizons. The most unusual people come into your life revolutionizing your values and tastes.

These events - both good and bad - can be seen as a treasure chest for the personal journey of your soul. Every event that arises has meaning for you and is a result and consequence of previous actions. If you are able to see the challenges that arise as opportunities for constructive change, then your growth will be rapid, and you will be able to truly appreciate and enjoy the many positive events that also arise during the course of your year.
