THE ESSENTIAL YEAR REPORT...

At the turn of the 21st century, there were 6 billion people on Earth. No two of them were born on the exact date, time and place - everyone has a unique horoscope. This horoscope reflects personal characteristics that the individual has chosen to work with in this life. He or she meets parents, brothers and sisters, friends, teachers and finally partners, who evoke an evolutionary development for the soul.

Each individual has then a unique life that can be mapped astrologically according to the planetary movements after birth. World of Wisdom's Essential Year Report synthesizes three astrological methods to map the life journey of the individual:

- Progressions, which reflect a personal evolutionary, or karmic pattern present at birth
- Transits, which reflect collective trends that evoke specific behavior in the individual
- Solar Returns, which are horoscopes calculated for each birthday, showing what happens to the individual on the year in question. (For unknown birth times and yearly horoscopes starting on days other than your birthday, another astrological technique - horary - is used.)

This synthesis is complex. With 12 signs, 12 houses and 10 planets (with Sun and Moon) there are 1440 simple combinations. When the connection between planets are taken into consideration (aspects) and then transits and progressions, there are several hundred thousand combinations. Essential Year Report works on several thousand of these, the rest needs to be filled in with your memory and creative visualization.

This reading describes your own evolutionary journey. To understand it fully you need to understand the talents and challenges that the planetary positions at birth represent. The first part of every section of Essential Year Report explains therefore what you can expect in life based on who you are as a person. It is crucial to realize that what happens during the course of the life is constrained by these personal factors. If your love-life promises great happiness, then later trends will trigger this potential... and vice versa.

If you wish to know more in detail about your personal character and how to get the most out of your life, then our Birth Horoscope Interpreter will go into this deeply. The Essential Year Report is designed to map out the timing of events and the fulfillment of your destiny.

INTRODUCTION

After some changes and unpredictability last year, in your 63rd year you are ready to settle and consolidate. There is a sense of satisfaction with what you have achieved, and this year you can successfully build on what you already have to both expand and enjoy life. You have the resources you need to widen your horizons and travel, or simply do more of everything that you like doing. There is also the sense that you know what life is about and understand your place in it. You may have felt that you have been up against the system in recent years, but this year there is the sense that the system is working in your favor.

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life the major challenges are in connection with home, family and your foundations. This influence started growing around January - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. Many emotional issues come to the fore at this time as your attention is drawn to problems and obstacles at home that you need to work on and improve. Baggage from your early upbringing stands in the way of intimacy, and this is experienced as emotional pressure at home. It seems like the walls are closing in around you, but if you put your mind to it you can make constructive changes in the home environment that will provide you with a stable base for the future. Once you have established strong foundations – and you will – you can proceed to an outgoing and creative phase in your life.

Having gained tremendous insight into the direction your life in the period, a new period is ushered in from December - 2016 to January - 2018 when the focus moves to your earning capacity. You gain a better understanding as to what it takes to strengthen your economy, and what assets you need to develop. This understanding leads to increased personal resources and a broadening of your economic base, which will provide the foundation for increased growth.

Once you have learned how to capitalize on your unique resources and gain confidence and self-assurance, you need to reach out to others between January - 2018 to March - 2019. This leads to travel and an expansion of your skills educationally. This is a great year to widen your network of contacts. Through increased communication on all levels, you learn how to make sure-footed progress.

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 63. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- A period of deep emotional transformation and renewal which involves purging yourself of attachments connected with the past that no longer serve a useful purpose. This can involve deep-seated changes connected with your abode and family bonds. It is all about letting go.
- There are very exciting and unforeseen events that revolutionize the way you think in the months to come. Sudden journeys bring unexpected change. You learn new technologies for communication. Mental stress can lead to abrupt breaks in contacts
- There is an explosion of mental growth as you delve into the depths of your soul and unconscious mind and learn many important lessons. Important new bonds are made to people who facilitate an intuitive and emotional learning process in you.

These along with other influences will be examined later in the report.

Life Path

NEW LIFE GOALS BEGIN

There are many spheres of human activity which are active at any one time, but each year there will be a focus on a particular area of your life that will absorb you more than anything else, and be at the center of the events of that year.

The theme at the age of 63 is expansion of your horizons, and gaining an enhanced awareness and understanding of the meaning and direction of your life. This may be through further education or travel – the important thing is to have a wider experience, so that you can formulate and express your ideas and opinions. The hunger for knowledge is great, and you cast your net wide. Ethics and the law can also be themes that occupy a good deal of your time.

This theme channels those parts of your nature which you consider most attractive and valuable. Romantic experiences evoke the love inside of you and there is an increased appreciation of the good things in life.

You will be guided by your convictions in the year ahead, and your strongest motivation will be gaining insight and making judgments about what is best, what is right and what is wrong.

Intensity and emotional transformation are characteristics of this period, and you dig deep to find the hidden unconscious causes behind events and behavior. You act with determination and tenacity, and are not inclined to compromise. Secrets and taboos fascinate you at this time and your erotic life absorbs a great deal of emotional energy.

You will find that the focus of this influence is greatly apparent in your relationships to groups, friends and associations. Many events will take place in this area, and you will be called upon to play a central role in them. Friends you make in the year ahead and groups that you get involved with will form the backdrop of your activities during the year.

You are empowered by the following.

You pursue these matters with heart and soul – your identity is on the line. You are able to invest considerable charisma and authority in what you do, and this can be very forceful and win admiration, recognition and respect. Key people take you under their wing.

The essential expression of this will be through a central role that you wish to play socially and in groups.

There are unique opportunities and challenges affecting you personally right now, which can result in significant lifestyle and relationship changes or modifications. If you would like to see your life going in a different direction, now is the time to take the reins and choose a path which is uniquely suited to you, as described by the influences below.

Adjusting to the realities

This is a time when it is important to make structural changes in both your personal life and in your relationships to others, as new responsibilities and challenges arise, demanding a more restrained and disciplined approach. To some extent you are required to fit in, and this can be a pressure for you as you adjust habits and cut back on personal preferences to accommodate the realities of your situation. Your normal vitality may be depressed by difficult circumstances, and you may also feel that the people you are committed to may be demanding more than is comfortable. Perhaps you have to take more responsibility for a loved one now. Nevertheless in the period from December 2016 to January 2018 – if your birth time is reasonably accurate – it is important to avoid escapism and rise to the challenges that come your way. To strengthen personal health and the integrity of relationships at this time it is wise to adopt a new program of self-discipline, training and restraint.

Personal and relationship boost

Generally speaking this is a period of expansion and good fortune for both relationships and your personal life. You are infused by optimism, and this is born out by favorable partnership developments. This is especially apparent in the period from December 2017 to December 2018 when things flow smoothly in many areas of your life. Now is the time to go into the world with confidence; you can expect the support of influential people and mentors, and you will find that your own grasp and understanding of events reflects your innate wisdom. Travel is favored and brings you together with people who are good for you. Partners can be encountered abroad or when studying, and they too may be in an expansive phase of their life.

There are times in your life when it is not enough to simply register and adjust to influences that come from the outer world. Sometimes the time comes to change the actual framework of your life. Perhaps this means adopting a new lifestyle or appearance. Perhaps the time has come to redefine who you are through who you choose to live with. The following influence shows a unique opportunity to move your life into another gear.

New allegiances

If your birth time is precise then you gain a better overview of your destiny in the months around June 2018 and are able to discern which allegiances will bring future benefit, compared to those bonds that just maintain a sense of inertia. It is as if you can travel at will between the world of the past and the world of the future, or have a foot in both worlds whilst you make the necessary adjustments in your lifestyle and relationships. The people you encounter now tend to belong to a social group which will have a growing significance for you, and they may enhance your sense of belonging to something great – a greater idea, like ecology or climate consciousness, or a politico-social movement. This can be part of a longer period of modifications in your life also connected with events around . As a result, you gently loosen your hold on people who have been a strong influence in the past, and attach yourself to a new vision of the future.

This activates a major life theme for you, which is the dilemma of letting go of overreaching ambition, and finding a safe haven in home and family.

During the course of the year after this one there is an important influence which you are very likely to feel already during the course of this year. Perhaps nothing happens right now, but you will sense the following theme developing, even if it is early days:

In the spotlight

If your birth time is precise, then a window now opens in the months around March 2019 when you can finally prove yourself in the world and get the recognition you deserve. It is the culmination of years of expectations that you will get the ultimate invitation to attend something great. If life has been a preparation for your entry onto the stage, where you are to perform in the spotlight, then it is now that you appear before the crowd. How you handle this depends on your self-confidence, because this is also a time when you are acutely aware of who you are, warts and all. Conquer stage fright and crank up the charisma – people want you to succeed and they are prepared to be your fan. Dignity and honor is everything. This is one of the times when you can truly be yourself, but it is also a time when you can meet someone that you respect completely.

Establishing a firmly rooted sense of personal worth through your appearance and material life are central for you, and this influence brings developments in this area.

This initial section of the report is connected with your lifestyle and direction, and the factors described above modify this direction as you respond to outside influences and your own inner evolutionary process. Of these factors the most significant during the age of 63 are:

- a time when you may not get what you want, but you do get what you need. Rise to the challenges that arise in your personal life and relationships.
- fortunate developments that widen your horizons and enhance partnership. An excellent time for travel and study.
- a time when you make gentle adjustments to lifestyle and relationships, loosening your hold on people and groups who influenced you in the past.
- a time when you can finally express who you are and get noticed. Events now will bring opportunity for self-realization and personal acclaim.
- a time when you widen your horizons, both intellectually and through travel. Wisdom and learning are there to be harvested.

Career

CAREER FORTUNE, FAMILY BLESSINGS

Every year there is a particular focus on your goals and ambitions, and a need to reformulate your mission in life and what you want to achieve. It is equally important to have a good foundation to build your successes on in terms of home and family.

A major theme as regards career during the age of 63 is channeling your good judgment and ability to get on with others with a spirit of compromise. By creating harmony and arbitrating between opposing sides, you are able to facilitate dynamic new growth. This is an excellent period for dealing with matters that require aesthetics and taste.

This theme is very much connected to your fighting spirit and desire to win, and the indications are that you harness your competitive urge very constructively, achieving the goals you set yourself because of your energy and enthusiasm

You manifest your skills at dealing with people and creating harmony and this you will do in a specific fashion and in a specific area.

A major theme as regards career is in the area of personnel, where you assume a role of mediator. Your use of diplomacy helps forge bonds within the leadership. This is a year when you can trust your judgment, and rely on your personal tastes and awareness of style and presentation.

The main focus is on dealings with fellow professionals and taking on leadership responsibilities. This is a time when success is in your grasp; all you have to do is accept the mantle of power and wield your authority.

Certain challenges arise.

One factor that can undermine success right now is a strong element of unpredictability and restlessness than can bring job change or relocation. You are determined to do things your way and put yourself at odds with the establishment, which may simply end with you being out of play and on your own. You may want independence but avoid provoking the powers that be.

This is connected with unsettling changes in your home, which brings detachment from the family, moves or new people entering the environment.

One of the major challenges is the readjustment necessary in a climate that is strongly affected by restructuring, which can mean that old friends, partners and colleagues disappear and new ones arrive. There is a likelihood that you encounter people with who there is a tense psychological relationship – it's like meeting your shadow side. Worn-out methods must be eliminated.

This specifically activates a need to transform something in your material life, shedding attachments that bring economic loss, and working intensely on financial reform.

Some factors help.

One very positive factor that helps you achieve your professional agenda is the sheer determination and hard work that you invest into your goals. Established figures and weighty organizations stand behind you, enabling you to consolidate and make plans for the long term.

As self-confidence is rather low, and pressure on you considerable, you need to call on your reserves of patience and perseverance.

One very positive factor that helps you achieve your professional agenda is your ability to draw on your local environment and the important alliances you have made with people, who help you on your path to realize your life mission.

In this process you need to tune in to the emotional demands of others, utilizing their resources rather than relying on your own.

The career section of this report explains influences in the current year that can cause you to adapt or change professional goals, and make use of opportunities that come your way. Overall, in the area of family and career the major developments you can expect are:

- a time when the spirit of compromise is called for, combined with your ability to get people to work together in harmony.

Personal development

WISDOM AND EXPANSION

During the course of the year you will have a number of character-building experiences, which help you grow and develop as an individual. It is rare for any difficulty to last longer than a period of about eight months, and if you regard challenges that arise as a test that helps you become stronger, then it will be relatively easy for you to overcome them. Similarly, when events boost your confidence, it is pays to take advantage of the limited time available to capitalize on your good fortune.

With your sun in your birth chart in Scorpio and in the 2nd House this relates to a private need to express yourself emotionally and intensely, in connection with your personal values, self-worth and material life.

An important feature around the age of 63 is an expansion of your influence socially. You attract loyal followers into your orbit, and they are willing to promote you as someone who represents them. This is an excellent time for working with groups and taking a leadership role, and you learn a lot about who you are through the people you associate with now. You feel the need to put your personal stamp on the circles you frequent and become a team leader. You are not afraid to propose radical and original ideas to create change.

You are empowered by the following.

It is during this period that you realize truly amazing opportunities for expansion and insight. Travel to important cultural venues and the chance for great intellectual growth are presented. Confidence is high and there is great potential for happiness. However hubris needs to be guarded against – pride comes before a fall. Self-righteousness and a sense of entitlement are traps you need to avoid. This is simply a time when a positive attitude leads to and understand of your life and future.

This will be expressed in an expansion of your social sphere, where lofty and influential people influence you with their ideas and convictions.

Some factors help.

It is during this period that you feel a deep longing for transcendence, where you can develop your dreams and ideals and lose yourself in something greater. This brings spiritual experiences and creative growth, a greater interest in music and the arts, and a desire to immerse yourself in the ineffable. There has to be a sense of meaning in your life, and you will not be satisfied until you find it.

This activates a need to find new inspiration in learning and communication, through immersion in creative or artistic subjects.

Certain key influences will present challenges and opportunities to you now as regards your development as an individual. Below you will find effects described, which you will feel more or less powerfully, evoking actions that enable you to stamp your signature on events.

Recognition and acclaim

Once every twelve years you will experience a boost in confidence, which permeates down to almost everything you do and the period from October 2017 to September 2018 is this time. This can be because of an intellectual success, a major expansion of your horizons culturally or geographically, or simply because an important mentor figure takes you under his or her wing. Other things being equal, fortune smiles on you now, and the increase in your self-confidence has a cumulative effect, bringing higher expectations, a more persuasive manner and the ability to sell yourself and your capacities. Your wisdom and understanding expand and you feel you know what life is about, and where you fit in the scheme of things. Perhaps too you feel that you can share your insights with others via an educational project. Expect a degree of recognition and fame now. However, high-flyers can fall, so bear in mind that this trend is short lived.

The personal development section of this report shows influences directly affecting your character, bringing both challenges and personal growth. Of these influences the most crucial are:

- a time of optimism and success, with support from influential mentors. You expand your personal horizons considerably through learning and travel.

Feelings and security

PURGING EMOTIONAL ATTACHMENT

You are in an ongoing process of emotional development, and the focus is constantly changing. As your unconscious mind absorbs impressions during the different phases of your life, you integrate greater depth and understanding of yourself and your relationships. There are specific areas of your life where this influence has a particular significance.

With your moon in your birth chart in Capricorn and in the 4th House this relates to your need express your emotions seriously and in a committed way, and your attachment to home and family will be reflected by your need to recharge in a secure haven.

Emotionally the age of 63 can be said to reflect a time when you feel the urge to be dynamic and take the initiative. To this end you are willing to compete for what you want so that you can establish the right conditions for growth and security. Because you want to reach so much, so quickly, you tend to flare up and this creates a tense atmosphere for those dependant on you.

One of the main areas where this influence will be felt is in the field of communication and travel. There is a sense of being on the move, with a great deal of inspiring contact with people you meet on the way. This is a good time for studies and education, because mental stimulation is a must for you this year.

One thing that affords considerable satisfaction for you now is the feeling that your activities and family environment harmonize with your personal values, enabling you to express your love without reservation. Those you feel the strongest bond to, particularly in the family, evoke your natural ability to express happiness and satisfaction.

You are empowered by the following.

You are acutely aware of some pain or wound within the family or in connection with an emotional bond. You are able to draw upon unusual healing abilities, perhaps because of a healer or mentor who can show you have to transform weakness into strengths.

This vulnerability is connected with loaded issues regarding learning and communication where there is a good deal of pain.

Certain challenges arise.

There is an element of stress connected with your need for a stable attachment and an urge to go out into the world and fight for what you want. Impatience and irritation will undermine domestic harmony if you are unable to dampen

This is channeled into your professional life, which is a very combative area for you this year.

At this time your emotional life is stymied by frustrations which take time and great patience to overcome. This in turn depresses your mood and undermines confidence. Only a mature attitude and the acceptance of responsibility will see you through... no one will come to the rescue.

During the year ahead you continue a trend of consolidation and work on building stable rhythms that make you and those who are dependant on you more secure and content. Building up economic strength is an important value now, and any extra money you earn is invested carefully, though it is also a high priority to acquire material items that increase your comfort and enjoyment. The simple pleasures of a good meal or an enjoyable sex life remind you of your blessing. You are discovering the joys of sensuality and all the pleasures the body can bring, and at the same time you are creating fertile soil for later growth.

Whilst you are still in an intensely emotional period of your life, when many deep issues come up in relationships where there is a strong dependence, there is a change of emphasis around March 2018 and it is very welcome. At this time you seem to emerge from a vale of shadows and there are the beginnings of a new optimism and hope for the future. You emerge from an inner environment where you are constantly aware of threats to your survival, and new panoramas open up bringing a sense of potential and exhilaration. The years ahead will bring new learning opportunities and the strong likelihood of widening your horizons through travel. Instead of wallowing in emotions you seek a philosophical perspective and find a higher meaning in your life.

As you grow and mature emotionally, the focus shifts from one area of life to another, and you instinctively absorb the lessons connected with the many different emotional facets of your life.

- Around July 2018 you are more than usually sensitive to the circumstances in life where people are ostracized and wounded, and you are moved to make an effort to assuage their pain. Internally too this is a time when you encounter opportunities to heal the painful areas of your own life. This is a time of catharsis, when you can discover new healing powers and skills.

This opens an old wound in connection with family bonds, and vulnerabilities you experienced creating a firm family foundation.

- Around September 2018 there are harmonious developments both in how you feel about yourself, and how others feel about you. This is a good time for drawing on the emotional resources of others, as well as expressing your own ability to care and nurture. Use this opportunity to develop relationships and provide a secure foundation for love.

- Around October 2018 you are shaken by an event of considerable emotional intensity that undermines your security and awakens your anxiety. Probably someone is making far too intense demands on you, and this may be the time for you to cut unhealthy bonds that are characterized by over-dependence and power battles. The atmosphere is intolerable – you can either look within and resolve some of your own psychological issues, or clean up on the outside. Expect to get your hands dirty.

The overall effect of this influence activates your inherent tendency to become involved with groups who seem to render you powerless, which evokes an intense need to be in control in social situations.

The influences described below will have an even more profound effect on your emotional life, awakening a powerful and often unconscious response. Ultimately this brings insight into your early conditioning and enables you to modify the way you instinctively react.

Emotional transformation

This is a time when emotional issues from the past that you have kept the lid on for years, now rise to the surface. As much of this material is repressed and connected with your earliest childhood, it is difficult for you to deal with and is not responsive to logical analysis. Only emotional catharsis will suffice to purge you of the instinctual behavior that you have had that no longer serves any useful purpose. This transformation process spans the period from January 2016 to December 2019 and when it is over you will be standing on a completely new emotional foundation – one that will serve you well in the future. This can involve a change in family relations, a move or reconstruction in your home (especially connected with foundations) and perhaps extensive therapy. Don't be surprised by the intensity and irrationality of your feelings at this time, it is all part of a healthy process of emotional growth and renewal.

Expansion of comfort zone

A period of expansion in your personal life takes place from November 2017 to November 2018 which brings a general sense of well-being, partly based on a deeper understanding of the unconscious factors that motivate your actions. Your comfort zone expands – you are more comfortable with yourself, and more comfortable with your role in a family that is likely to be extended considerably. If you wish enlarge your home, move, or invest in property, good fortune tends to come your way without too much effort. Parents in particular can be very supportive, as will your environment in general. You have the confidence and faith to give empathy and support to those in need, and can show those people who are attached to you just how to enjoy life and have a good time.

This section maps out the timing and intensity of influences in your life that absorb your interest on a daily level, profoundly affecting everything, from your work to your family life. These influences constitute your emotional growth during the course of the year, and the main themes are:

- a time of deep emotional transformation and catharsis when you let go of instinctive behavior and expectations connected with the past.
- a time when you experience a boost in confidence and happy developments at home and in your family life.
- a time of peace and pleasure, when you work on consolidating your emotional foundations and increasing material security.
- a time when you emerge from emotional darkness and anxiety and find a new and higher spiritual perspective on the direction of your life.

Mental Development

REVOLUTIONARY NEW INTERESTS

Gaining skills through education and other forms of training is a major ingredient for success, both professionally and in relationships. Through developing your communication talents you can make contacts and build networks which facilitate progress.

With Mercury in your birth chart in Scorpio and in the 2nd House this relates to your deep investigative thought process and detective abilities, which is a major resource bringing considerable economic benefit to you.

During the age of 63 your mental focus is on deep emotional issues, especially in intimate relationships. You are willing to confront psychological issues and investigate all things hidden so that you can ultimately transform communication in an honest and open way.

Much inspiration comes when you are alone; you need to commune with your inner thoughts and let ideas slowly surface. It is the subtle issues that fascinate you now, and there is a need to refine your mental processes, perhaps through meditation or just through isolating yourself at times. To work well you need peace and quiet, and you also need to work with ideas that inspire you, rather than on routine issues.

Thoughts center on relationships, particularly of a romantic nature. There is a youthful and playful feeling about love relationships. At the same time you learn a great deal about what attracts you, and about your tastes in general.

Some factors help.

You overcome a handicap and discover unusual teaching or healing abilities in the process. Sometimes a disability of some sort can bring a specific advantage in connection with learning skills.

The influences described below will bring additional opportunities and challenges in the field of communication. By rising to educational challenges and improving communication skills, you can add to your skills and capabilities.

Restlessness and new thinking

The time has come for you to embrace new ideas and methods in many areas: new technology, faster distant travel to greater distances, new concepts and ideas and all kinds of experimentation. You become restless, and this also brings a certain impatience, especially when you have to listen to the same old people with the same old ideas. Don't create a tense atmosphere with provocative remarks; seek rather to find out how you can integrate new methods into your way of working. Routine tasks will drive you crazy now, and you need to be given the freedom to experiment, even if you sometimes go down the wrong track. Make sure your work gives you the challenges you need, or move on. These period, which lasts from June 2017 to December 2020 , is an excellent time for new technology and new communication methods, so splash out on the latest gadgets or take a quick course in the latest technology.

Mental discipline

The period from February 2017 to December 2018 is a time when you rise to the challenge in connection with education, communication and developing your intellect. This is the time to dedicate yourself to learning, and to overcome any reservations about your mental abilities. Planning, practice and determination are all that are needed to get your message across. Recognition and success do not come easy – if it did you would not have to work so hard, and hard work, at least mentally, is what life is about right now. You can work on and overcome any weaknesses in connection with the way you relate to others if you put your mind to it. This is an excellent time to study and write, even if there is an element of repetition or boredom in it. The more you discipline yourself, the better you get.

Your mental evolution is a product of the people you encounter during your life, who evoke certain qualities in you, as well as your contact with institutions of learning and educational media. The lessons you learn give depth and breadth to your personal message to the world. This year new opportunities arise.

Delving in to the unconscious

You make a journey into the world of emotion around December 2017 which will have a profound effect on future mental growth. It is an enormously fruitful, poetic and creative time, though you can feel overwhelmed by the feelings that crowd in on you and flood your rational mind. This is a time for mothering, home and family – for having children or creating powerful and lasting emotional bonds. Your thinking processes are broadened in all directions, bringing a multiplicity of fruitful results. Only by integrating your instincts and intuition can you negotiate the mental challenges of the time. When these are integrated you will carry an emotional charge in what you say and do, which can sway others with its power. You learn so much about your past and your heritage, and this learning reverberates through into every cranny of your life.

As attachment to your roots, home and family are a crucial anchor in your life, this influence puts a strong focus on your emotional base and changes in the family structure that affect your security.

The influences described in this section challenge you to develop intellectually, socially and in relation to others. Of all these influences, in terms of the enhancement and development of your mental skills the most significant will be:

- Radical and inventive mental change leading to an interest in completely new subjects, and a hectic period of learning and travel.
- a time when you rise to a mental challenge and develop your knowledge and communication skills through hard, concentrated work.
- a fruitful time of mental growth when you harness the power of your unconscious mind.
- development of your ability to see beneath the surface and discover the hidden issues.

Values, Love and Relationships

LOVE AND ATTACHMENT

Your need for relationship is very much dependant on your tastes, and early family experiences of bonding. These factors determine whether you feel attraction or not, or whether you are simply indifferent. People of similar tastes are instinctively attracted to you, as you are to them, and this is the basis of personal harmony in your relationships.

With Venus in your birth chart in Scorpio and in the 3rd House this relates to your need to plumb the emotional depths in relationships, which you will express in a charming, talkative manner, and in fields of mental development.

In relationship matters you are prepared to take active steps to create harmony in partnerships during the age of 63. Your mate, or potential mate, is important to you, and you are willing to make considerable compromises to function as a twosome – being alone is not for you. However you will not compromise on quality – your taste and aesthetic judgment must be satisfied in all things. All things being equal this is a good year for partnership.

Business relations can be more important than romantic relationships during the course of the year, though if you are looking for love it could be found in a professional environment. You are likely to meet benefactors who can give you the resources you need to increase your career status. Parental expectations can play a primary role in relationship choices.

There is a poignant awareness that relationships bonds are inevitably dissolved through the inexorable passage of time, and experiences in love during the course of the year reinforce this sense that nothing is permanent. You may be drawn to the love as a romantic ideal, and meet someone of your dreams, but reality has an uncomfortable tendency to get in the way.

Certain challenges arise.

You can feel rather bored in existing relationships, and you tend to get distracted by the promise of excitement. Unpredictable changes can take place that threaten stability, either because of your own need for something new, or because loved ones are unreliable. If there is lack of commitment then emotional distance becomes inevitable. Leave partners in peace and channel this influence into an unusual and stimulating social life.

There are undercurrents in your relationships... perhaps an element of secretiveness or the taboo, with strong erotic passions. You are in a process of intense and passionate transformation which brings out the shadow side of relationships. Your position can be undermined because your affections are not reciprocated, or because of secretive liaisons. This could be the time to definitively eliminate past bonds.

Some factors help.

You are happy to make long-term commitments now, and good sense pervades the important relationships in your life, leading to sound investments and consolidating in all areas. You are attracted to mature people and see beyond the frivolity of romantic love to more practical concerns. This can lead to professional advancement.

You meet kind and loving people who help you with social introductions and welcome you into groups that are interested in art and culture. There is a sense of a higher quality of life because of the social circles you move in. This is a favorable time to meet a soul mate who can have a beneficial effect on your future development.

The influences described in this section will all have a significant effect on the way you relate to the world. In terms of your material values and matters of love, the most important of all these influences will be:

- a desire to dedicate yourself to a partner who shares your taste and judgment.

Sex, work, willpower and assertion

GOING FOR VICTORY

Nothing is achieved in life without the force and determination to go for what you want. There are battles to be won and obstacles to be overcome, and this means being able to assert yourself, and to mobilize your courage to face challenges and overcome resistance.

With Mars in your birth chart in Aquarius and in the 5th House this relates to your need to fight for your ideals, even if this brings social alienation, and you manifest this in an extravert way, romantically, creatively and with children.

As regards personal drive the age of 63 is a year when you are powerfully motivated by relationships, but you have to make many compromises to make them work. You may also compromise yourself in love, if you are too impulsive. This is a good period for diplomatic and aesthetic initiatives.

Your energy and will is channeled into areas connected with authorities and your career. You work extremely hard to prove yourself, but at the same time you risk antagonizing people above you by ill-considered or provocative behavior.

This is a year when normal group relations tend to be shaken up, perhaps because you are restless and uncertain about what direction you want to go in. You may have to deal with a troublemaker, but perhaps such a person might inspire you to action.

There are other powerful influences at this time, which bring both challenges to your autonomy and independence, and opportunities for leadership and self assertion. The influences described below bring out your survival abilities and evoke a fighting spirit that can ultimately empower you.

Bulldozing the opposition

Nothing can stop you getting what you want in the period from September 2017 to September 2018, as you have the confidence to go for it, and you are willing to take risks. This gung-ho attitude can attract considerable disapproval from people who know better, and you can waste energy discussing with or fighting people who have different views than your own. If you can channel your energy constructively, you can expand your sphere of influence and intellectual capacity, but your appetites are so strong that you are inclined to make misjudgments. You may want to develop your body through fitness and sport – it is at least a great channel for your growing energy. Your sexual appetite is also strong at this time, and you can bend the rules to satisfy your desires. There is an attraction to foreigners, adventurers and intellectuals.

The influences described in this section will bring changes in the way you strive for achievement. Of the many influences affecting your energy, sexuality and assertiveness this year the main areas to be aware of are:

- a time when you are unstoppable, but at the same time you tend to be impervious to how other people feel when you go for what you want.
- a time to exercise judgment and diplomacy, and to resist indiscretion in relationships.
- a time to exercise judgment and diplomacy, and to resist indiscretion in relationships.

Collective trends

REVOLUTIONARY MACHINES

The influences mentioned so far in this analysis have an effect on your psychological evolution and fate which is strictly personal. There are other influences on your life based on your relationship to the collective, which can be just as exciting and stimulating for you, even though they may not evoke dramatic personal change.

A welcome transformation

If you are the kind of person who likes to create radical transformation at strategic periods in your life, then this is a time when you may want to make a sudden move to sweep away the cobwebs of the past and welcome a bright new future. If you operate more on an inner level, then there are opportunities for greater psychological clarity, especially if you apply experimental cognitive methods for personal transformation. This can also be a time when you are swept along by forces of change that are beyond your control, in which repressed drives in the generation of which you are a part come to the surface and sweep away the rubble of the past. This trend, which is collective in nature, lasts April 2016 to April 2019 and can bring quite explosive change in areas that have outlived their relevance for you.

Imaginative awakening

This can be an extremely inventive period for you as your imaginative powers are awakened, especially if you have interests centered on arts, music and the media – forces that pervade the collective in one way or another. If creativity is not your forte, you may simply find yourself swept up by a collective dream. The forces at play right now are vast in scope and affect the human psyche, more as a form of propaganda than truth. People are swayed by cultural and political trends all the time, but only time will show if there is any truth in them. On a personal note, unpredictable events can shake you out of a rut and bring a realization of how fine the line is between happiness and sorrow. This period of imaginative awakening lasts April 2016 to April 2019, and if you can somehow touch a collective dream with an inventive product, you can make quite an impact.

The will to transform

The period December 2016 to October 2018 is a time of empowerment. In one way or another you have to deal with power in society. You encounter organizations or institutions with strong rules or ideologies, and you have to learn the ropes. There is every indication that you handle these forces well, and you yourself can begin to integrate an aura of power and authority. This is an inner process too; you confront inner unconscious forces at this time, and learn to structure and channel them to achieve your goals. What is crucial to understand are destructive psychological mechanisms which are activated when there is a threat to those things you are deeply attached to. You have access to amazing concentration powers and extreme self-discipline, which help you get unconscious forces under control.

During the age of 63 you are in a phase of your personal evolution which is to do with establishing foundations, for example through home and family. Relations with parental figures or your own role as a parent are crucial to this process. It is a dynamic and testing period for your character, yet it also brings the first tangible results in an evolutionary process that began for you about seven or eight years ago. You need to be very adaptable now, because your instinctual drives have a different agenda to what you otherwise might want to do with your life. This tension creates considerable drive, and achievements can come on several fronts if you are willing to fight. The effort you put in now brings satisfying creative results which you can enjoy later.

Seen from another viewpoint, there is a purposeful evolution in your life, and each of the events that arise can be seen as milestones on the journey of your soul. There are some fields of your experience which you are all too familiar with, and perhaps you need to relinquish your attachment to them. Other areas of experience present new and interesting challenges for you soul, and require total immersion.

The primary evolutionary focus in the year is on your professional life in contrast to your domestic security, and intense developments in these areas involve working to define new goals and ambitions and striving for recognition and success. By bravely seizing the opportunities that come your way, you can establish a strong position in society, and in the meantime family life may have to be on standby.

The collective influences described above are very much related to the generation of which you are a part, and opportunities now arise to capitalize on trends that your generation will resonate to. The most important of these are:

- a time of radical transformation that can affect you personally, or the generation of which you are a part, sweeping away the old and bringing in the new.
- a time when your imaginative powers are aroused by an unexpected development. At the same time you become aware of how happiness and suffering are at the mercy of collective forces.
- a time when you strive to adjust to powerful authorities who may wish you well, but who demand some kind of transformation of your life structure.

The influences described in this report are based on planetary cycles, transits of the outer planets and progressions of the inner planets in an integrated description which also takes into account the major factors in your birth horoscope. Thousands of factors are taken into consideration, making this report completely unique to you for the next twelve months. Rather than make specific predictions, we have tried to describe how you can make the most out of the many changes that are taking place. By defining what you really want, and going for it, you can weather the storms and currents described in this report and come safely to the destination that you are aiming for. It is in this context that the major events of this year should be seen.

Some of the themes from this year will continue into the next year, and some completely new themes will arise. Looking at the three most important events at the age of 64 you can expect change in the following areas:

A fortunate period begins in your domestic life, signaled by happy events in the family or a move to more spacious accommodation. You now have the surplus emotional energy to provide shelter for those dear to you.

You will be subject to considerable emotional pressure in the period ahead as the habits and rhythms that you have created as a comfort zone around you are undermined by challenging developments that have an air of inevitability about them. The time has come to establish new roots.

These events - both good and bad - can be seen as a treasure chest for the personal journey of your soul.

Every event that arises has meaning for you and is a result and consequence of previous actions. If you are able to see the challenges that arise as opportunities for constructive change, then your growth will be rapid, and you will be able to truly appreciate and enjoy the many positive events that also arise during the course of your year.
