Dear Ana Correia,

Thank you for ordering your Year Ahead report, which I hope will help you to understand the harmony between yourself and the universe and enable you to initiate the changes you want in life.

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

Your 43rd year is a time when you are aware that major challenges are looming in the future, particularly in relation to authorities and partnership. Whilst you feel that relationships bring limitations, this is also a time when you are willing to rise to the challenge and accept more responsibility. Challenges now have a lot to do with family circumstances that have been restrictive or repressive, or challenging in other ways. This has led to a certain emotional defensiveness which gives effective protection on the one hand, but stands in the way of harmonious developments later, that could bring a rewarding family life. It pays to soften up. These challenges have a lot to do with a latent insecurity that you feel in relationships, that inclines you to cement bonds to people who you ultimately feel dominate and restrict you. With time you learn to assume more responsibility yourself and stop projecting authoritarianism on others. Commitment to mature partners turns out to be a valid route for personal growth. With confidence rising as the year progresses, you have a vision about how you would like the year ahead to develop, and you can achieve the goals you set yourself through hard work, good luck, and through help from people who support you on your path.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life you continue working on a new framework for your personal development by defining the path ahead. There are a lot of challenges, delays and obstacles to be overcome, but now you know what you want, and you are prepared to work long and hard to set in motion your new plans. In the past, initiatives tended to dissolve before being put into practice, because you were trying to achieve outdated goals. Now initiatives really kick in and gain traction. These new influences started growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. You are setting the scene for a whole new epoch of personal development. The time has come; other people need to accept that your greatest responsibility is now to yourself, because unless your life is on a strong footing, and unless you are following your own mission, you cannot be strong for others.

Opportunities for Success

With professional achievements and an increase in status behind you and many career goals achieved, you are ready to capitalize on recent success by consolidating your assets and expanding your influence socially in the period from October - 2017 to November - 2018. Generous friends and mentors smooth your path and give you access to the highest places, and you harvest wisdom and influence at social gatherings.

After a period of expansion and satisfaction in your social life, your search for meaning and understanding goes within, and in the period from November - 2018 to December - 2019 you discover the spiritual riches that can be attained through seclusion and introspection. This is a time when learn how man and cosmos are interconnected, when you feel empathy and solidarity for fellow human beings.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 43. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- A time that brings tremendous stimulus to your imaginative powers, and awakens dreams of a utopian future. Without the ballast of common sense, top-heavy dreams will collapse. Correctly channeled this is a time of spiritual development and growth.
- A wonderful period of growth, spiritual awareness and awakening of compassion, perhaps because you are swept up in an inspiring collective event, or through the influence of a spiritual mentor, music, film or art. You attune to the rewards within your own mind.

- A certain dissatisfaction with the direction your life is going in, and there may be a need to shed responsibilities that have little meaning any longer, and to reorientate yourself in connection with your ambitions and goals for the future.
