MINIREPORT FOR YOUR CURRENT YEAR

Deborah: October 07, 1952

Report for October 07, 2017 to October 07, 2018

Dear Deborah,

Thank you for ordering your Year Ahead report, which I hope will help you to understand the harmony between yourself and the universe and enable you to initiate the changes you want in life.

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

You may be in your mid-sixties, but as you enter your 65th year, your mental interests are as alive as they have ever been. However this is a year when there are a number of practical matters that occupy your mind. It is important to take concrete steps to deal with worries that may arise. There are challenges that simply require perseverance, commitment and concentration. Challenges now have a lot to do with a long history of difficulties in relation to others. It seems that much is demanded of you in personal relationships, which require long-term application and commitment. Yet by taking responsibility and respecting the views and values of others, you can build a strong position in society as an unbiased and fair-minded person. These challenges have a lot to do with a latent insecurity which you have felt since childhood, which has made you shy and reticent about your ability to make a favorable impression. Time is a great healer, and the older you get, the more confident you become. You meet the challenges of life head on, and this ultimately brings success. This is also a year when some kind of reorientation or realignment is necessary. The crucial question when looking at the balance of your life right now is whether focus on a need to prove yourself through creative achievement, children and love, prevents you from realizing the benefits of pooling your skills with a group. Perhaps true inspiration comes through being part of a greater social movement rather than through personal acclaim. Even more specifically it is worth considering whether too many engagements with groups and superfluous friendships may be preventing you from focusing on your own creative potential. People or groups who are no longer significant for the development of your soul may recede into the background now, and new people may turn up who have a role to play in your future.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life you are working hard to develop educational and communication skills that will serve you well into the future. This is a challenging task, and there will be times when confidence in your intellectual abilities is low, or when you simply feel the process is too long or too full of setbacks. This is when you have to apply yourself with more determination than ever. Avoid being defensive about what you do not know or cannot do; just plan to improve step by step. These influences started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. You will reach your goal, and in the process you will build a valuable network of contacts who appreciate your diligence and application.

In this period of your life there is a major transition process that puts the focus on home-building and family life. For several years it has been important for you to develop your educational and communication skills and increase your reach through travel and networking with others. But now it is crucial to put down roots, and you find yourself thinking back to your own heritage and upbringing with a view to create a nurturing environment for those who are dependant on you. These new influences start growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. During this time you will have established a very solid base from which to make forays out into the world. But it is early days yet, and right now you may feel ill-prepared. It starts by taking responsibility for the family and working on the home.

Opportunities for Success

An awareness of the spiritual forces behind your individual evolution has enriched your understanding of your self and the universe, and this now ushers in a period from September - 2016 to October - 2017 when you are ready to emerge from seclusion and apply this inner wisdom more directly in your dealings with others. A new confidence is reflected by a more forceful personal presence in which your ideas and opinions pave the way for personal expansion.

Having gained tremendous insight into the direction your life in the period, a new period is ushered in from October - 2017 to November - 2018 when the focus moves to your earning capacity. You gain a better understanding as to what it takes to strengthen your economy, and what assets you need to develop. This understanding leads to increased personal resources and a broadening of your economic base, which will provide the foundation for increased growth.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 65. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- A period when you are driven to investigate the deepest secrets and gain a new wisdom that transforms your understanding and beliefs. A journey can bring spiritual renewal, or contact with a mentor or the ideology of a group can profound change your ideas.
- Your ethics and principles are put to the test as you take advantage of opportunities for expansion, travel and widening your intellectual horizons. You have a strong belief in the future, but you need to weigh risks against realities.
- There is a growing desire for excitement and change, and you are willing to take risks to realize this desire. This can bring changes at work, where you require more space and independence. In your private life there may be a need for more sexual experimentation.
