Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

As you enter your 60th year, there are a number of questions that occupy your mind. One is - how best can you use your mental talents and develop your social and intellectual network? Another question is - how can you harness your energy most efficiently to live the life you want? Keeping your mind active and challenged is crucial. Your communication talents lie in your ability to promote your creative ideas. You take pride in what you do and have an inborn entertainment talent. These talents are channeled into money-making ideas and other interests that enhance your self-worth. This can lead to a flowering of interests and hobbies with new friends to share those interests with. You have reached a stage of your life when you are no longer at the mercy of drives and desires, but can channel them constructively. By nature you are warm, outgoing and creative, always willing to engage in romance and perform for others. Yours is a proud fight for recognition. Protecting your assets is a strong motivating factor, but you are willing to take risks and face dangers to add to your gains. This year energy and skill combine to create exciting possibilities.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period the major challenges lie in your working life, which probably needs to be made more efficient through streamlining working methods and improving interaction with colleagues. Health-wise too, this is an excellent time for working on self-improvement. This influence started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. You will probably encounter considerable frustration in your dealings with people in the working environment, and this process is designed to enhance your ability to compromise and to fit in for the good of the whole. To be happy at work now you need to work hard and have a plan. You do not have to have a subordinate role, if you are willing to shoulder responsibility. But you do not have to stick at a job which is beneath you either. Establish your credentials, work hard and advance.

In this period of your life there is a transition in your dealings with people, as you move from interacting with people on a practical level in connection with your work and daily life, to actually learning how to deal with partners on a one to one basis. This new influence starts growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. It is the beginning of an outgoing epoch in your life; the big test comes in how you live up to partnership responsibilities. There are major challenges, demands are made on you, and you have to on the one hand resist giving others the blame for your issues, whilst on the other you need to establish limits to what you are prepared to accept in a relationship. You have to work at partnership now and make a commitment, though it is no use expending any more time on hopeless relationships. What you start now can last a long time.

Opportunities for Success

Having developed your education and communication skills, and widened your network of contacts through travel, there is an urge to expand your influence and potential on the home front between September - 2016 and October - 2017. This brings insight and good fortune connected with property and family. At this time you broaden your emotional foundations, partly because you gain understanding of the influence of your upbringing, and partly because you are curious to learn more about how to create a nurturing and stimulating environment for yourself and those near to you.

After having built up comfortable circumstances in your domestic life, what is important for you between October - 2017 and November - 2018 is to appreciate the fruits of having a satisfying base, so that you can express yourself through creative activity and enjoy the art of living. Expansion and satisfaction come from living life to the full - through sport, festivity, love, children and romance. This is the time to fully be yourself without reservations or doubt. Larger than life characters will show you how through encouraging you to celebrate existence.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 60. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- You experience an awakening that shakes you out of the rut and leads you to break out of professional and personal limitations so that you can pursue your own unique path of self-development. Travel and contact with fringe groups bring self-awareness.
- You are challenged to become more self reliant, both in your love life and in regard to your economy. Romantic illusions founder on the rocks of reality, but this can be a healthy process which ultimately can provide the conditions for stability in relationships.
- You enter a very busy period with a host of distractions that affect your concentration. You tend to dissipate your energy through pointless travel or unimportant discussions about the merits or rightness of one course of action over another. Focus.
