Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

The age of 29 is a time when much of what you have achieved comes up for revision. Life has come full circle, lessons have been learned, experiences harvested. The big question now is: how much of your achievement was geared to satisfying the demands of parents and society, however unconsciously, and how much is an expression of who you are as a unique individual? You have a unique perspective on your life now, and you can gain an insight and understanding that will enable you stake out a future for yourself. The fulfillment that you have worked so hard for in your twenties may still be eluding you, and if this is the case, now is the time to define what you want to achieve in your life, and not what other people want you to achieve. What you decide now is crucial, and will form the framework for your thirties. Life is too short to spend even one more year going on a path that does not satisfy you. Challenges now have a lot to do with your motivation to attain a position of authority in society. Many setbacks pave the path to success, and as the years go by more responsibility is placed on your shoulders. From being sensitive or even resentful of authorities, you learn what it means to protect the institutions that make civil society a blessing. These challenges have a lot to do with a latent insecurity that you feel when you are exposed emotionally, which happens in particular in intimate relationships, both in regard to sexual expression and sharing. Learning to loosen up emotionally, perhaps through therapy, is a prerequisite for a deeper and more satisfying sexual life, as well as feeling more secure in general. Don't be afraid to radically transform your life, whatever changes now realigns you with your fate, and brings the best conditions for future growth.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life the major challenges lie in relationships. Living with or relating to another individual and seeing your strength and flaws reflected by this person is a major learning experience. Any weaknesses in the way you have historically related to other people are exposed now, and your future success depends on you resolving them. This influence started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. You encounter tough people who try to impose their authority on you, and you will have to judge how much you are prepared to commit to long-term relationships, and where to set limits. Learning to share your time with another person is part of a maturing process for you now, and the more effort you put in to it, the better the results.

In this period of your life there is a transition in the way you relate to partners and the world. Over the last few years you have made a lot of effort to create harmonious and rewarding relationships, and to a large degree lived up to your responsibility to others, helping those you love if they have been in difficulty. A new period is dawning that challenges you to break down the barriers that prevent true intimacy on an emotional and sexual level. This new influence starts growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. It is not so much what you do or what you say that counts now, but how well you open up emotionally, how vulnerable you dare to be, and how brave you are in confronting your inner demons.

Opportunities for Success

After having built up comfortable circumstances in your domestic life, what is important for you between September - 2016 and October - 2017 is to appreciate the fruits of having a satisfying base, so that you can express yourself through creative activity and enjoy the art of living. Expansion and satisfaction come from living life to the full - through sport, festivity, love, children and romance. This is the time to fully be yourself without reservations or doubt. Larger than life characters will show you how through encouraging you to celebrate existence.

After a period of living life to the full through creative projects, children and festivities, new possibilities arise in your working environment from October - 2017 to November - 2018 because of opportunities abroad, or through an expansion of your area of expertise and encounters with intellectually inspiring colleagues. This is a time to expand the influence of your ideas and disseminate information that you really believe in. It is possible that there is more work to do, but it is more interesting work and it brings personal development for you.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 29. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- A period when you are driven to investigate the deepest secrets and gain a new wisdom that transforms your understanding and beliefs. A journey can bring spiritual renewal, or contact with a mentor or the ideology of a group can profoundly change your ideas.
- There are many changes in your social life and relationships, as you seek more excitement, space and freedom. Involvement in fringe groups brings consciousness growth. Encounters with people from radically different cultures bring new methods of relating.
- Your ethics and principles are put to the test as you take advantage of opportunities for expansion, travel and widening your intellectual horizons. You have a strong belief in the future, but you need to weigh risks against realities.
