Report for April 20, 2017 to April 20, 2018

Dear ceres,

Thank you for ordering your Year Ahead report, which I hope will help you to understand the harmony between yourself and the universe and enable you to initiate the changes you want in life.

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

Your 43rd year is a time when you are aware that major challenges are looming in the future, particularly in relation to authorities and partnership. Whilst you feel that relationships bring limitations, this is also a time when you are willing to rise to the challenge and accept more responsibility. Challenges now have a lot to do with family circumstances that have been restrictive or repressive, or challenging in other ways. This has led to a certain emotional defensiveness which gives effective protection on the one hand, but stands in the way of harmonious developments later, that could bring a rewarding family life. It pays to soften up. These challenges have a lot to do with a latent insecurity that you feel in establishing a warm and welcoming environment. A heavy atmosphere in childhood, and the sense that the lid was kept on family skeletons, makes you feel vulnerable about opening up emotionally, though this is a prerequisite for establishing a happy family life. With confidence rising as the year progresses, you have a vision about how you would like the year ahead to develop, and you can achieve the goals you set yourself through hard work, good luck, and through help from people who support you on your path.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life the major challenges lie in creating a future you can believe in. There is a sense of change and potential that brings a new optimism about the future, but you can struggle to find the best moral or intellectual framework for the new beliefs about your life that are taking root now. There is a strong urge to expand your intellectual horizons through study or travel and this is an excellent time to commence a long term commitment to growth, which ultimately brings new skills that will advance your career. This influence started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. Issues of conscience can trouble you, and matters of right and wrong can occupy your mind. Basically you are building up a new set of ethical values which will guide your future process.

In this period of your life you are ready to make the transition from learning to doing. Over the last few years you have expanded your horizons both intellectually and through travel, and formed firm new views about your direction in life. You have built up a framework of beliefs and convictions that point you like an arrow to your destiny. The focus now shifts to your career and making a professional impact. This new influence starts growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. Your immediate experience is one of being seriously challenged - by authorities and by the way the system is put together. If you are to attain career success you are going to have to establish your own authority and carve out your own niche. You need to win respect through a determined approach. Plan your long-term goals and achieve them slowly and steadily, step by step.

Opportunities for Success

Having thoroughly established considerable success in your working environment, you are ready to build up one-to-one relationships through partnership in the period from September - 2016 to October - 2017, expanding your sphere of influence and reaching out socially. Fortunate meetings with cosmopolitan and wise people can bring happiness and a new optimistic view of your potential to make an impact on others.

After a period during which relationships prospered and your circle of social influence expanded, you are ready to delve deeper into the psychological dynamics of intimate personal relationships in the period from October - 2017 to November - 2018. A deeper understanding of and empathy for others is developed, enriching your emotional and erotic life. You receive blessings both in the form of emotional generosity and material good luck.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 43. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- A period when you feel a deep longing for romantic fulfillment but efforts to satisfy this longing in personal relationships meet with disappointment. Channeled correctly you can use this energy to discover a richer set of spiritual and creative values.
- In this phase of your life you are prepared to break out of the mold and divert from the path of least resistance to realize your own unique qualities and destiny. You liberate yourself from authorities and limiting structures, and are inspired by fringe groups and individuals.
- You enter a very busy period with a host of distractions that affect your concentration. You tend to dissipate your energy through pointless travel or unimportant discussions about the merits or rightness of one course of action over another. Focus.
