Dear Elizabeth,

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

During your 47th year you experience a surge of personal confidence and a renewed vision of just what you are aiming for in life. Insight and understanding come easily to you, and you are drawn to deeper study and an urge to widen your horizons through travel. Your opinions and convictions become more pronounced, and you are not prepared to allow intellectual and spiritual authorities to browbeat you. Whilst you are willing to receive instruction from the truly wise, you have no time for self-appointed gurus. Enjoying life is a question of attitude, and this year your natural optimism ensures that you attract good fortune and success. You have a natural capacity to investigate hidden and secret material in your own psyche and in the world. An awareness of life as a process of constant death and rebirth brings psychological wisdom, gained through ruthlessly pursuing authenticity and emotional truth, whilst nurturing an understanding of the demons other people struggle with. This will reflect itself in your marvelous communication abilities and insatiable appetite to expand into your local environment and learn more. In the current year you can expect success and satisfaction in these areas, and a general expansion of your network.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life the major challenges are in connection with home, family and your foundations. This influence started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. Many emotional issues come to the fore at this time as your attention is drawn to problems and obstacles at home that you need to work on and improve. Baggage from your early upbringing stands in the way of intimacy, and this is experienced as emotional pressure at home. It seems like the walls are closing in around you, but if you put your mind to it you can make constructive changes in the home environment that will provide you with a stable base for the future. Once you have established strong foundations - and you will - you can proceed to an outgoing and creative phase in your life.

In this period of your life, much has fallen into place in the home and family environment, and there is a sense that you have put down roots and created solid foundations for future growth. A transition now takes place which puts the focus on your creative potential, and you start to ask yourself serious questions about your capabilities, and when you are going to do something concrete about self-expression. These new influences start growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. You sense the challenge in all areas where you are likely to be judged - children, attracting lovers, performing - and you need to overcome a certain lack of confidence and put your self on the line. To enjoy life to the full you need to give yourself to the full, and recognition comes when you do this without holding back.

Opportunities for Success

Having gained tremendous insight into the direction your life in the period, a new period is ushered in from September - 2016 to October - 2017 when the focus moves to your earning capacity. You gain a better understanding as to what it takes to strengthen your economy, and what assets you need to develop. This understanding leads to increased personal resources and a broadening of your economic base, which will provide the foundation for increased growth.

Once you have learned how to capitalize on your unique resources and gain confidence and self-assurance, you need to reach out to others between October - 2017 to November - 2018. This leads to travel and an expansion of your skills educationally. This is a great year to widen your network of contacts. Through increased communication on all levels, you learn how to make sure-footed progress.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 47. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- A time that evokes a deep dissatisfaction or confusion about who you are and where you are going. In your search for answers to existential questions you discover new and inspiring paths that have a social, creative or spiritual content.
- There is a growing desire for excitement and change, and you are willing to take risks to realize this desire. This can bring changes at work, where you require more space and independence. In your private life there may be a need for more sexual experimentation.
- Current relationships are shaken up as you search for more freedom and excitement. Values change and you make unconventional choices, travel long distances for love, and enjoy relationships with fringe groups and people who walk on the wild side.
