Dear jane,

Thank you for ordering your Year Ahead report, which I hope will help you to understand the harmony between yourself and the universe and enable you to initiate the changes you want in life.

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

As you enter your thirties and a new decade, it is important to harness the lessons you have learned from your twenties, whilst letting go of the parental and social conditioning that could, if not re-examined, lead you along a path that is not uniquely yours. During the course of this year, you will lay the foundation stones for a new life structure on which you can build your life, especially professionally, over the next 10 years. Challenges now have a lot to do with your opinions and views about overall issues in life, which tend to get rigid or dogmatic with age. Learning to be open to new ideas from other people is the key to intellectual flexibility, and you would be wise to avoid ideological confrontation, instead training yourself to express powerful ideas in a convincing manner. These challenges have a lot to do with a latent insecurity that you feel about all those unmapped areas of the soul. You are not wholly sure that the world is a friendly place, and a history of loneliness or isolation paradoxically makes you even more reclusive. You have great karmic battles to fight, and the territory is your own soul, which needs spiritual restructuring. It is now you need to apply all your energy and willpower into achieving what you really want for yourself - not what others want for you. By nature you exude a deep passion and determination. You probe the mysteries of power and sexuality and maintain inscrutable control over emotions. You are extremely active with group endeavors and friendships, although you often have to fight for acceptance, or deal with group hostility. By mobilizing your resources for battle, setting your sights, and investing all your energy, you embark on the first steps towards creating your own unique and independent future.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life you continue working on a new framework for your personal development by defining the path ahead. There are a lot of challenges, delays and obstacles to be overcome, but now you know what you want, and you are prepared to work long and hard to set in motion your new plans. In the past, initiatives tended to dissolve before being put into practice, because you were trying to achieve outdated goals. Now initiatives really kick in and gain traction. These new influences started growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. You are setting the scene for a whole new epoch of personal development. The time has come; other people need to accept that your greatest responsibility is now to yourself, because unless your life is on a strong footing, and unless you are following your own mission, you cannot be strong for others.

Opportunities for Success

With professional achievements and an increase in status behind you and many career goals achieved, you are ready to capitalize on recent success by consolidating your assets and expanding your influence socially in the period from October - 2017 to November - 2018. Generous friends and mentors smooth your path and give you access to the highest places, and you harvest wisdom and influence at social gatherings.

After a period of expansion and satisfaction in your social life, your search for meaning and understanding goes within, and in the period from November - 2018 to December - 2019 you discover the spiritual riches that can be attained through seclusion and introspection. This is a time when learn how man and cosmos are interconnected, when you feel empathy and solidarity for fellow human beings.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 30. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- A wonderful period of growth, spiritual awareness and awakening of compassion, perhaps because you are swept up in an inspiring collective event, or through the influence of a spiritual mentor, music, film or art. You attune to the rewards within your own mind.

- A period that brings a crisis of faith as many of your beliefs are taken up, examined and found wanting. Intellectually dominating people try to bend you to their will, but you reject inauthentic beliefs and outworn ideas and replace them with a new vision for the future.

- Your hopes and dreams meet the demands of reality. If you are trying to escape from trying circumstances, you are reminded of your social responsibilities. If you understand how to work with limitations, you may be able to establish the foundations for a creative or social idea.
