Report for September 23, 2017 to September 23, 2018

Dear liezel,

Thank you for ordering your Year Ahead report, which I hope will help you to understand the harmony between yourself and the universe and enable you to initiate the changes you want in life.

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

As you enter your thirties and a new decade, it is important to harness the lessons you have learned from your twenties, whilst letting go of the parental and social conditioning that could, if not re-examined, lead you along a path that is not uniquely yours. During the course of this year, you will lay the foundation stones for a new life structure on which you can build your life, especially professionally, over the next 10 years. Challenges now have a lot to do with your opinions and views about overall issues in life, which tend to get rigid or dogmatic with age. Learning to be open to new ideas from other people is the key to intellectual flexibility, and you would be wise to avoid ideological confrontation, instead training yourself to express powerful ideas in a convincing manner. These challenges have a lot to do with a latent insecurity that you feel in establishing a warm and welcoming environment. A heavy atmosphere in childhood, and the sense that the lid was kept on family skeletons, makes you feel vulnerable about opening up emotionally, though this is a prerequisite for establishing a happy family life. It is now you need to apply all your energy and willpower into achieving what you really want for yourself - not what others want for you. By nature you are a hard worker, and you have a practical approach to getting things done together with others, though you can be abrasive. You make no secret of your desire to win, and are known for a courageous and combative approach. It is your style to be first into the fray. By mobilizing your resources for battle, setting your sights, and investing all your energy, you embark on the first steps towards creating your own unique and independent future.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life the major challenges are in connection with home, family and your foundations. This influence started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. Many emotional issues come to the fore at this time as your attention is drawn to problems and obstacles at home that you need to work on and improve. Baggage from your early upbringing stands in the way of intimacy, and this is experienced as emotional pressure at home. It seems like the walls are closing in around you, but if you put your mind to it you can make constructive changes in the home environment that will provide you with a stable base for the future. Once you have established strong foundations - and you will - you can proceed to an outgoing and creative phase in your life.

In this period of your life, much has fallen into place in the home and family environment, and there is a sense that you have put down roots and created solid foundations for future growth. A transition now takes place which puts the focus on your creative potential, and you start to ask yourself serious questions about your capabilities, and when you are going to do something concrete about self-expression. These new influences start growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. You sense the challenge in all areas where you are likely to be judged - children, attracting lovers, performing - and you need to overcome a certain lack of confidence and put your self on the line. To enjoy life to the full you need to give yourself to the full, and recognition comes when you do this without holding back.

Opportunities for Success

Having gained tremendous insight into the direction your life in the period, a new period is ushered in from September - 2016 to October - 2017 when the focus moves to your earning capacity. You gain a better understanding as to what it takes to strengthen your economy, and what assets you need to develop. This understanding leads to increased personal resources and a broadening of your economic base, which will provide the foundation for increased growth.

Once you have learned how to capitalize on your unique resources and gain confidence and self-assurance, you need to reach out to others between October - 2017 to November - 2018. This leads to travel and an expansion of your skills educationally. This is a great year to widen your network of contacts. Through increased communication on all levels, you learn how to make sure-footed progress.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 30. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- A period when you are put under considerable psychological pressure and there may be power battles too, but this only serves to awaken the samurai spirit within you. This leads to a new recharged sexual life and a positive transformation of your work situation.
- Exciting opportunities for intellectual development and growth as revolutionary new ideas clear the cobwebs from your mind. This clears the way for international travel and encounters with groups who can completely change your way of thinking.
- A time when efforts to attain success and build secure structures are undermined. It is the nature of this time in your life that frameworks are dissolved. This attunes you to a higher purpose and a deeper understanding of the hidden laws that inform our fate.
