Dear Michael,

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

As you enter your 60th year, there are a number of questions that occupy your mind. One is - how best can you use your mental talents and develop your social and intellectual network? Another question is - how can you harness your energy most efficiently to live the life you want? Keeping your mind active and challenged is crucial. Your communication talents lie in your ability to appreciate what has value and what has not. This appreciation of quality brings economic skills and material security. These talents are channeled through your whole personality and are an essential part of the image you project. This can lead to a flowering of interests and hobbies with new friends to share those interests with. You have reached a stage of your life when you are no longer at the mercy of drives and desires, but can channel them constructively. By nature you are a quick thinker and mentally competitive, and achievements come through networking and getting your message across. Protecting your assets is a strong motivating factor, but you are willing to take risks and face dangers to add to your gains. This year energy and skill combine to create exciting possibilities.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life the major challenges lie in breaking down emotional barriers between yourself and those you love. This influence started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. There are hidden complexes both in yourself and in partners, which can prevent intimacy, and these will be especially reflected in sexual frustrations that at their root are to do with anxiety. Working with therapy can loosen these blockages. Dealing with faceless authorities like the tax, police, council, trade unions and powerful financial institutions can also be a challenge at this time, because you are likely to meet a power over which you have no control. Generally this is a very challenging period emotionally, because you have to deal with more extreme circumstances than normal but you develop great resilience and survival power.

In this period of your life old emotional challenges make way for new philosophical growth. On the one hand there are still a great number of issues concerned with emotional relationships, sexuality and sharing that you are working on. There are times when it feels like you are in a state of purgatory, and that a cloud obscures the future. Nevertheless you will soon emerge from this rather heavy emotional state, and see the path ahead. This new influence starts growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. In the process you gain an overview of what the future will bring, and develop the skills and understanding necessary to tackle it. You will develop your full intellectual potential and build up your influence in the world through travel and cultural exchange. A new set of beliefs will take form, bringing a positive view of the future.

Opportunities for Success

After a period of living life to the full through creative projects, children and festivities, new possibilities arise in your working environment from September - 2016 to October - 2017 because of opportunities abroad, or through an expansion of your area of expertise and encounters with intellectually inspiring colleagues. This is a time to expand the influence of your ideas and disseminate information that you really believe in. It is possible that there is more work to do, but it is more interesting work and it brings personal development for you.

Having thoroughly established considerable success in your working environment, you are ready to build up one-to-one relationships through partnership in the period from October - 2017 to November - 2018, expanding your sphere of influence and reaching out socially. Fortunate meetings with cosmopolitan and wise people can bring happiness and a new optimistic view of your potential to make an impact on others.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 60. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- A period that brings intense experiences in relationships on an erotic and psychological level, perhaps because your tastes and values are undergoing a deep transformation. Economic and emotional bonds that have outlived their relevance are dropped and replaced by new.
- A wonderful period of growth, spiritual awareness and awakening of compassion, perhaps because you are swept up in an inspiring collective event, or through the influence of a spiritual mentor, music, film or art. You attune to the rewards within your own mind.
- You experience setbacks and trials of endurance when trying to achieve your goals - particularly in your dealings with male authorities. By steeling your will to overcome these challenges, you develop the necessary muscle to win through with your agenda.
