Dear Kathryn,

Thank you for ordering your Year Ahead report, which I hope will help you to understand the harmony between yourself and the universe and enable you to initiate the changes you want in life.

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

After the struggles and challenges of the previous year, your 23rd year brings welcome expansion and renewed optimism. Everyone needs the dream of a pot of gold at the end of the rainbow to inspire them, and it is now that you begin to harvest some of the rewards for all the hard work you have done. You have a natural capacity to investigate hidden and secret material in your own psyche and in the world. An awareness of life as a process of constant death and rebirth brings psychological wisdom, gained through ruthlessly pursuing authenticity and emotional truth, whilst nurturing an understanding of the demons other people struggle with. This will reflect itself in an influential position socially and a large network of friends. The current year will bring an expansion of your influence, major social events, and a general increase in influence and popularity. In addition, this is a year when you may want to make adjustments in your purpose or inner life mission. Some of the social groups you are involved with may have values that run at counter purpose to your own, yet you can gain valuable experience from relating to people with different values. The crucial question when looking at the balance of your life right now is how much of your mental energy is dissipated through superficial pursuits and communication. Perhaps you need to seek wider, international horizons, and develop a new philosophy of living that brings meaning and purpose to your life. Even more specifically it is worth considering whether a need to prove your worth in your working life is keeping you in a subservient position and preventing spiritual growth that can only be attained through voluntary isolation.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life the major challenge is how you adjust to a phase in your life when material ambitions and professional achievement do not provide all the answers. There is a gnawing dissatisfaction, and a feeling that the many results you have attained in recent years are now getting more difficult to attain, or when attained are not inspiring enough. This is an influence that starts growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. New goals and a new mission in life will come at the end of this phase, but right now if you want happiness, you need to explore and structure your inner life. This means developing your spiritual nature, and enjoying creative processes that arise when you withdraw from the rat race and spend time on your own. It may be a lonely period, but if you build spiritual foundations, the next phase of your life will be rewarding.

In this period of your life there is a major transition which inaugurates a whole new epoch. In many ways this transition is welcome, because over the last few years it has seemed extremely difficult to get new projects off the ground, and in your heart you have realized that this is because the old formulas for success are redundant. Now you begin to get a glimpse of future possibilities. This is an influence that starts growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. At times it seems that the challenges are heavy, but just to be able to envision a new plan or path for the future is extremely empowering, and much to be preferred to the sense of dissolution you experienced in the past. Knowing where to put your energy and commitment, you are willing to discipline your life, organize your time, and accept heavier demands for the sake of building a new path and new life goals.

Opportunities for Success

From September - 2016 to October - 2017 you capitalize on the knowledge and experience you have garnered earlier to make a concrete success of your life. Good fortune smiles on professional endeavors in this period, and you can expand your sphere of influence. Influential people will support you, and if you strive for recognition, you will achieve it. If you go for your hopes and dreams now, then your expectations have a good chance of being fulfilled.

With professional achievements and an increase in status behind you and many career goals achieved, you are ready to capitalize on recent success by consolidating your assets and expanding your influence socially in the period from October - 2017 to November - 2018. Generous friends and mentors smooth your path and give you access to the highest places, and you harvest wisdom and influence at social gatherings.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 23. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- A time that can be very inspiring, as you let go of any blocks on your imaginative powers and are inspired by an artistic, creative and spiritual dream. This is a time of utopian promises, though whether anything is delivered on these promises depends on effort and persistence.
- A wonderful period of growth, spiritual awareness and awakening of compassion, perhaps because you are swept up in an inspiring collective event, or through the influence of a spiritual mentor, music, film or art. You attune to the rewards within your own mind.
- A time that makes you keenly aware of what is missing from your life and work that would satisfy your dreams and imagination. Music and the arts bring renewed pleasure, repetition and routine undermine your spirit. This is the time to express your creative communicative powers.
