THE ESSENTIAL YEAR REPORT...

At the turn of the 21st century, there were 6 billion people on Earth. No two of them were born on the exact date, time and place - everyone has a unique horoscope. This horoscope reflects personal characteristics that the individual has chosen to work with in this life. He or she meets parents, brothers and sisters, friends, teachers and finally partners, who evoke an evolutionary development for the soul.

Each individual has then a unique life that can be mapped astrologically according to the planetary movements after birth. World of Wisdom's Essential Year Report synthesizes three astrological methods to map the life journey of the individual:

- Progressions, which reflect a personal evolutionary, or karmic pattern present at birth
- Transits, which reflect collective trends that evoke specific behavior in the individual
- Solar Returns, which are horoscopes calculated for each birthday, showing what happens to the individual on the year in question. (For unknown birth times and yearly horoscopes starting on days other than your birthday, another astrological technique - horary - is used.)

This synthesis is complex. With 12 signs, 12 houses and 10 planets (with Sun and Moon) there are 1440 simple combinations. When the connection between planets are taken into consideration (aspects) and then transits and progressions, there are several hundred thousand combinations. Essential Year Report works on several thousand of these, the rest needs to be filled in with your memory and creative visualization.

This reading describes your own evolutionary journey. To understand it fully you need to understand the talents and challenges that the planetary positions at birth represent. The first part of every section of Essential Year Report explains therefore what you can expect in life based on who you are as a person. It is crucial to realize that what happens during the course of the life is constrained by these personal factors. If your love-life promises great happiness, then later trends will trigger this potential... and vice versa.

If you wish to know more in detail about your personal character and how to get the most out of your life, then our Birth Horoscope Interpreter will go into this deeply. The Essential Year Report is designed to map out the timing of events and the fulfillment of your destiny.

INTRODUCTION

During the course of your 36th year you encounter a number of challenges, particularly in your professional life. The progress you have made over the last seven years is up for review, and structural adjustments are called for. Pressing demands on your time force you to improve your organization and planning. There are times when it may seem too much, but hard work and effort put in now will help you attain the goals you set earlier. Challenges now have a lot to do with a long history of difficulties in relation to others. It seems that much is demanded of you in personal relationships, which require long-term application and commitment. Yet by taking responsibility and respecting the views and values of others, you can build a strong position in society as an unbiased and fair-minded person. These challenges have a lot to do with a latent insecurity that you feel about all those unmapped areas of the soul. You are not wholly sure that the world is a friendly place, and a history of loneliness or isolation paradoxically makes you even more reclusive. You have great karmic battles to fight, and the territory is your own soul, which needs spiritual restructuring.

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life you are working hard to develop educational and communication skills that will serve you well into the future. This is a challenging task, and there will be times when confidence in your intellectual abilities is low, or when you simply feel the process is too long or too full of setbacks. This is when you have to apply yourself with more determination than ever. Avoid being defensive about what you do not know or cannot do; just plan to improve step by step. These influences started growing around December - 2015 and will ebb out around February - 2019. You will reach your goal, and in the process you will build a valuable network of contacts who appreciate your diligence and application.

An awareness of the spiritual forces behind your individual evolution has enriched your understanding of your self and the universe, and this now ushers in a period from November - 2016 to November - 2017 when you are ready to emerge from seclusion and apply this inner wisdom more directly in your dealings with others. A new confidence is reflected by a more forceful personal presence in which your ideas and opinions pave the way for personal expansion.

Having gained tremendous insight into the direction your life in the period, a new period is ushered in from November - 2017 to December - 2018 when the focus moves to your earning capacity. You gain a better understanding as to what it takes to strengthen your economy, and what assets you need to develop. This understanding leads to increased personal resources and a broadening of your economic base, which will provide the foundation for increased growth.

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 36. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- A time of a major examination of your emotional roots and heritage, which can lead to considerable restructuring in the home and family. Experiences from the past are dredged up and dealt with – that which was previously unconscious is made conscious.
- There are a number of unpredictable developments that shake you up and make you aware of limiting dependencies. Relocation or much travel can unsettle your domestic life, but you learn to travel light, without carrying the heavy weight of the past on your shoulders.
- Favorable factors combine to bring some expansion and success in your professional life, not least because people with influence give you support. Family members can also be give encouragement and support. Likewise this is a good period for home expansion and.

These along with other influences will be examined later in the report.

Life Path

NURTURING BONDS OF LOYALTY

There are many spheres of human activity which are active at any one time, but each year there will be a focus on a particular area of your life that will absorb you more than anything else, and be at the center of the events of that year.

There is a suggestion that you are in a transition process in your personal life this year, as you wind up interests connected with the past and investigate future potentials.

This transition process could for example be connected with extricating yourself from the complex emotional loyalties of family and discovering yourself, expressing your creative sides and celebrating life as an individual. The general trend is from attachment to self-expression.

The theme at the age of 36 is the development of sensitivity and your protective urges. It is a time when bonding is important, particularly to the family. Building up a home, nurturing children, and taking people under your wing are important motivations, as you seek to find a way of expressing strong emotions and needs, both in yourself and in others. Your moods are likely to swing considerably in the months ahead, as part of a process of emotional development.

This theme powerfully channels your identity, making this a time when you can project yourself and gain influence and honor. A strong sense of self gives increased self-confidence across the board and success through a charismatic approach.

A need to build security and nurture family attachments is high on the agenda in the year ahead, which is dominated by enhanced emotional sensitivity.

Creativity and self expression heighten your self-awareness and you are happy to assume a charismatic personal profile and put your reputation on the line. This enhanced self-confidence increases your powers of attraction, perhaps leading to romantic involvement or some kind of recognition or acclaim.

This is an influence which you embrace personally and project strongly, making this a powerful year for you because of the impact you make. It is possible you may be open to input from others, but it is crucially important for you to take control and impose your style on your surroundings. You are very much at the center in the year ahead, and the more you make your influence felt, the better, so don't be shy.

You are empowered by the following.

You pursue these matters with heart and soul – your identity is on the line. You are able to invest considerable charisma and authority in what you do, and this can be very forceful and win admiration, recognition and respect. Key people take you under their wing.

The essential expression of this will be through the powerful projection of your persona.

You work furiously and competitively to get ahead with your agenda, but tend to run into opposition through being too forceful or impatient. You may employ someone who fights some of the battles for you, and as a team you conquer the territory ahead of you.

This channels your assertiveness and competitiveness, which is very strong this year.

This initial section of the report is connected with your lifestyle and direction, and the factors described above modify this direction as you respond to outside influences and your own inner evolutionary process. Of these factors the most significant during the age of 36 are:

- a time of deep feelings and sensitivity, when you build up your home and family and create strong emotional bonds.

Career

EXPANSION OF INFLUENCE AT WORK AND AT HOME

Every year there is a particular focus on your goals and ambitions, and a need to reformulate your mission in life and what you want to achieve. It is equally important to have a good foundation to build your successes on in terms of home and family.

It seems that you are in a professional or domestic transition process this year, as you finish off work connected with the past and get involved with new potential projects for the future.

The emphasis professionally moves from a rather chaotic pursuit of elusive visions to a new dynamic approach, when you take control and energetically pursue new goals. At home there is a move from practical handyman to aesthetic home lover and friendly host.

A major theme as regards career during the age of 36 is a desire to work with creative inspiration or your capacity to feel empathy for those less fortunate than yourself. This may be a confusing time as regards personal ambition, as it is very difficult to mobilize. There is more meaning in a spiritual or creative professional agenda now.

This theme is very much connected to unique individual qualities you are in possession of, which helps you get a step ahead of the conventional crowd. You gain success now through your innovation skills and exotic ideas.

Your goals have a higher purpose this year, and you are motivated to pursue a dream, which you will do in a specific fashion and in a specific area.

A major theme as regards career is in the area of personnel, where you assume a role of mediator. Your use of diplomacy helps forge bonds within the leadership. This is a year when you can trust your judgment, and rely on your personal tastes and awareness of style and presentation.

The main area to concentrate on is the creation of secure foundations that will support your mission in life. This means that home and family matters have high priority. Establishing security through investment of time and money in property brings results.

Certain challenges arise.

One of the major challenges is the readjustment necessary in a climate that is strongly affected by restructuring, which can mean that old friends, partners and colleagues disappear and new ones arrive. There is a likelihood that you encounter people with who there is a tense psychological relationship – it's like meeting your shadow side. Worn-out methods must be eliminated.

This specifically activates a need to transform your working life, clearing up issues with colleagues that may have been psychologically oppressive.

Some factors help.

One very positive factor that helps you achieve your professional agenda is that partners, or other people you have an affectionate relationship with, will give you optimal support at this time. It pays to integrate an aesthetic element into what you do, and to use your people skills.

Relationships with friends and important during the course of the year, and love can be found in your social circle. Romance is blended with principles of equality.

Challenges and opportunities arise at this time which can bring major changes or adjustments in both your career and your domestic life. The influences described below can bring concrete change, enabling you to live and work on a new level.

Boost in career and family

As far as your goals are concerned there are particularly favorable developments in the period from November 2017 to October 2018. Influential people smooth the path for you and leverage you into an advantageous career environment. Your own understanding and wisdom help you expand your influence. The focus is on a greater overview, on the international rather than the local. Good fortune not only affects career and promotion possibilities, it also gives great opportunities for property, family expansion and happy domestic events. This is an optimistic time for you, your parents, and family members generally – a time to buy property or enjoy a wonderful holiday abroad

Questionable growth opportunities

There are opportunities for expansion of your professional influence and career opportunities in the period from October 2016 to September 2017 but they may involve compromising your principles in some way. As your judgment can be faulted at this time you will need to tread carefully – advisors in particular can lead you astray through weak ethics or the wrong motivation. On the domestic front there are also opportunities of expansion, moving or home improvements, but there may also be differences of opinion with family members. In all these matters it is better to err on the side of restraint – you could be wrong.

Sometimes a time comes when you can actually make a decisive move that defines your unique career potential and the hopes you have for your family. The influences described below show challenges and opportunities that arise now which can bring concrete changes in the framework of your professional life and domestic environment.

Last year the following influence peaked, but it still has a very important effect at the age of 36. You are still digesting the changes in this area, and beginning to integrate them in your life.

Healthy transformation at home and work

If your birth time is accurate, the period around June 2017 brings major readjustments in your domestic life and your career as you abandon failed policies and transform your goals to give them more depth and authenticity. Career wise this is an excellent time for applying your psychological skills in your work, understanding the deeper motivations of yourself and others. This is a time when you become aware of your power and use it to your advantage. At home it is good to get rid of old attachments, and work perhaps on some kind of restoration project. The well needs to be rebuilt to remove old impurities. Your foundation needs to be adjusted. Dependency on parents and authority figures is abolished and a healthier set of goals replaces tired concepts about the future. These developments can be part of a process of transformation in your life that also resonates with events around April 2018 ultimately resulting in greater empowerment in your career and a stronger foundation at home.

The overall effect of this influence activates your inherent tendency to be anxious about the impact you make when entering the scene... you either hide in the shadows or overcompensate by being too intense.

Painful family and career adjustment

Assuming your birth time is precise, the period around April 2018 brings issues up in your career that lead you off the track, perhaps because you do not have the desire or ability to handle your disparate duties. This can also be connected to developments in your domestic life, where illness or discontent bring unexpected complications. Dealing with authorities – both parental and in your career – exacerbates old and painful issues which confront you with an innate sense of alienation or weakness. An old wound is opened, and this time you are ready to make changes in the structure of your life to heal it. You can discover how the smallest things can have a disproportionate effect for good or ill, and you can develop skills in working with these influences. This can be connected with healing or subtle technical breakthroughs, but the driving force is your need to come to terms with your inner pain. These developments can be part of a process of healing that also resonates with events around November 2018 bringing a greater acceptance of the things that set you apart from others.

This opens an old wound in connection with sharing and with your intimate life, for example psychologically or erotically.

Subtle adjustment of higher goals

If your birth time is accurate, the period around April 2018 brings a special longing for fulfillment of new goals that can be very difficult for you to formulate, except that you would like to be spending your time on something more meaningful. Under conditions like this it can be good to take time off to explore your options. As your family circumstances also tend to be rather fluid or even chaotic right now, there may be opportunities to retire to the seaside and mull things over. This is in fact a time when you can realize your creative talents and work on something more deeply attuned with your ideals about life. You may find satisfaction in helping others, working with music, film or art or something else that nourishes your soul... the important thing is to define what you do not want to do, and to give yourself time to find out what you do want to do. These developments can be part of a subtle process of refinement in your life that also resonates with events around November 2017 and ultimately results in a career that accords with your deepest values.

The initial confusion and subsequent clarity you experience in this connection are related to mental interests that lead you towards art, music and creativity.

The career section of this report explains influences in the current year that can cause you to adapt or change professional goals, and make use of opportunities that come your way. Overall, in the area of family and career the major developments you can expect are:

- favorable developments both domestically and professionally due to an element of luck and a positive attitude to life
- a time when you have the chance of expansion both professionally and domestically, although it is also possible that you may compromise your better judgment.
- a time when you transform your goals for your career and family, eliminating the rot and creating fertile soil for new growth.
- a time when an old wound opens in connection with authorities and family, throwing you back onto your own inner healing resources.
- a time when you mobilize your sensitive and empathy, either pursuing a creative agenda, or helping other people who need you.

Personal development

EXPRESSING YOUR UNIQUENESS

During the course of the year you will have a number of character-building experiences, which help you grow and develop as an individual. It is rare for any difficulty to last longer than a period of about eight months, and if you regard challenges that arise as a test that helps you become stronger, then it will be relatively easy for you to overcome them. Similarly, when events boost your confidence, it is pays to take advantage of the limited time available to capitalize on your good fortune.

With your sun in your birth chart in Leo and in the 10th House this relates to your need to express your identity and make a personal impact, in connection with your career goals and ability to handle authority.

An important feature around the age of 36 is your need to fully express your identity in your daily life through asserting yourself and making a strong impression on others. In many ways this year revolves around your own personal needs, because it is only when you strengthen your sense of self that you can realize your full potential. Don't hide your strength, or your weaknesses for that matter; live your life to the full and let people accept you as you are. By living your life authentically now, you gain the respect of others and increase your ability to influence what is going on around you.

You are empowered by the following.

This is a time when you are consumed by energy and enthusiasm and ready to rush in with guns blazing to achieve your aims. You may work closely with an executive troubleshooter and strive to achieve goals in tandem. You have the power to mow down the opposition, but you are burning the candle at both ends, and this can easily lead to meltdown. You are prepared to take great risks and fight great battles. You have the courage to win, but can invite more trouble than you can handle.

It is during this period that you really integrate your caring qualities and your urge to nurture. You discover the sensitivity and softness of your inner life, and the gentle promptings of your instincts. Yet this is also a time when life is in a state of flux. Things start anew, and it is very difficult to see your emotional life objectively... you tend to be blinded by your feelings. The old is definitively gone, even though you feel the drag of the past; the new is seen through a mist, darkly.

This awakens feelings centered on the whole issue of belonging and expressing your caring qualities.

Certain challenges arise.

It is during this period that an inner restlessness drives you to make spontaneous decisions to change your life and get some excitement. You want personal development and feel perhaps that you cannot get it where you currently are. Unpredictable events can throw you out of kilter. Travel can bring consciousness changing experiences. There is no doubt that you need to change, but avoid throwing the baby out with the bathwater.

This is connected with the pursuit of your unique individual ambitions, and exciting changes in your career.

Some factors help.

It is during this period that you gain access to personal healing abilities. You discover that personal pain can be a great teacher, and that your strategies for helping yourself can also be used for helping others. Perhaps it is not the cure that is crucial, what really matters is what you learn in the process of finding it.

This is connected with an authority figure who bears a cross, or professional work involving health and healing.

Certain key influences will present challenges and opportunities to you now as regards your development as an individual. Below you will find effects described, which you will feel more or less powerfully, evoking actions that enable you to stamp your signature on events.

Consciousness change

This is an unsettled period in your life as you seek to make changes that will enable you to express unique sides of your character. You no longer see the need to fit in; instead you embark on a journey of self-discovery, meeting new and unconventional people and perhaps encountering different lands and cultures as part of a process of self-development. Your work and relationships need to give you the space and flexibility for personal growth... this is not something you are prepared to compromise on, and you distance yourself from people who try to impose restrictions on you. Your desire for change brings excitement and exhilaration as you become a force for renewal in society. New discoveries and inventive creations liberate you from everyday boredom. This process of personal development lasts from May 2017 to April 2020 and gives you a completely new take on life.

Overreaching yourself

The period from January 2017 to December 2017 is a time when you encounter intellectual authorities who are in a position to make judgments on your character, and if you over-estimate your strength or capability, this judgment can go against you. On the one hand you expand your influence, either through intellectual achievement or travel, but on the other, there is a tendency to go over the top. The essential thing is to guard against hubris. There is no harm in thinking positive and being intellectually competitive, but without groundwork you will be unable to hold on to the success you are hoping for. You are attracted to mentors, but you may later feel that you misjudged people. Watch out for inflated egos.

The personal development section of this report shows influences directly affecting your character, bringing both challenges and personal growth. Of these influences the most crucial are:

- an exhilarating period of change when you go against the grain and discover what is truly unique about you.
- a tendency to overrate yourself and fly, Icarus-like, too close to the sun.

Feelings and security

EMBRACING EMOTIONAL FREEDOM

You are in an ongoing process of emotional development, and the focus is constantly changing. As your unconscious mind absorbs impressions during the different phases of your life, you integrate greater depth and understanding of yourself and your relationships. There are specific areas of your life where this influence has a particular significance.

With your moon in your birth chart in Taurus and in the 7th House this relates to deep emotional calm and stability, and relationships will be the major playground for your feelings, as you attune strongly to the moods of others.

Emotionally the age of 36 can be said to reflect a time when you are in a playful and creative mood, which is good for both children and activities which bring you into the limelight. Your childlike qualities come to the fore, and there is a strong desire for recognition. Romance and celebration are high on the agenda, but you are very sensitive to rejection.

One of the main areas where this influence will be felt is in the way you project yourself and the signals you send as to where your loyalties lie. Your emotional connections simply have the highest priority now.

One thing that has high priority now is the general theme of your identity and how you project yourself. You are more sensitive than usual, which means you are more emotional and more receptive to feedback, not least because family members make you more aware of your impact.

You are empowered by the following.

There is great dynamism and activity, but you are emotionally on edge and your temper short. There is a fierce protectiveness in connection with the family, and you are willing to take risks to establish a better domestic situation... which can result in fraught nerves. Family rivalry can make you feel vulnerable.

During the year ahead you continue a trend connected with service to others and heightened efficiency, and your priorities are concerned with improving the work flow, and integrating with the system. You understand how people interrelate and interconnect to make a greater organism that can achieve greater things, and this brings a spirit of humility and helpfulness. At the same time you are inclined to structure your everyday habits better, not least working on health and fitness, and the interrelation between body, mind and spirit. You place close attention to detail and generally speaking organize your life more efficiently.

Whilst you are still in a period of social interaction and strong emotional involvement with groups and friends there is a change of emphasis around February 2018. At this time there is a sense that you no longer need the distractions, and your priorities shift to cultivating your inner life and working on your own private agendas. You choose to be more alone, and in this seclusion you have the time to dwell on spiritual and creative issues that nourish the parts of you friends cannot reach. There is a growing sense of attunement with the cosmos and a feeling that you belong to a world family, sharing all the joys and sufferings of being human. This is a good period for restoring your health through spiritual practice.

As you grow and mature emotionally, the focus shifts from one area of life to another, and you instinctively absorb the lessons connected with the many different emotional facets of your life.

- Around August 2017 there is activity and excitement – perhaps even some conflict as you have no qualms about making known what your needs are. You have the energy and enthusiasm to go for what you want, even if it means taking a risk or two. There is so much adrenalin in your system at this time that you are inclined to be rather impulsive. Still, nothing ventured, nothing gained.

As you have a dynamic drive to travel, learn and imprint your views on the world, this influence is liable to awaken a combative urge to debate and fight for your convictions.

- Around May 2018 there are fortuitous contacts that stimulate you tremendously. You meet people of like mind on your travels, and the resultant exchange of ideas boosts the flow of ideas. You just have to communicate what you learn, and this information is valuable for your work, especially as regards education and networking. You are probably on the move at this time.

Your ideas and thoughts often dwell on deep psychological issues, sometimes creatively, sometimes anxiously. The mental evolution process you are now going through will bring a transformation of the way you think and ultimately a great deal more insight into the workings of the mind.

The influences described below will have an even more profound effect on your emotional life, awakening a powerful and often unconscious response. Ultimately this brings insight into your early conditioning and enables you to modify the way you instinctively react.

Uprooting

This is a major period of transformation in your family life and attachment to the home. Many issues from the past get dredged up and examined, and those bonds that do not pass the test of your ruthless investigation will be left behind. You feel a compelling need to build a new foundation for your life, and loyalties that are based on dependence or emotional blackmail can no longer be accepted. This is a time to examine what is going on underneath your feet – the cellar, the drains, people living below – because something is undermining the ground on which you stand. If your birth time is correct this process spans the period from January 2016 to December 2018 and will lead to the creation of new and healthier foundations. You long for authenticity and depth in your family life, and if necessary you are prepared to uproot the family to achieve this purpose and even inaugurate major professional change. A wider restructuring of the extended family can mean that you start a new chapter in your life.

Emotional liberation

A period of radical emotional change is on its way, as you shake off the cobwebs of the past, breaking free of limiting attachments and the conventional life. There is a sense of being on the move, and this can mean actually moving home, or traveling considerably distances backwards and forwards to work. If your professional life demands that you are away from home for periods of time, this is precisely how it should be, and there is much to learn from periods of independence. You carry your home on your back, like a snail. This is an excellent time for gaining insight into your past and the emotional influences that have shaped you. This leads you to reject past habits of dependence, even if this can be rather disconcerting to those who are dependent on you. This rather unsettling period, which can be expected to last from May 2017 to April 2020, brings considerable independence and an open and enlightened attitude to human relations.

Overcoming immaturity

The period from February 2017 to December 2018 is not a time when you feel particularly comfortable or secure, but you are willing to lift responsibility for the sake of others and to be there when you are needed. This is a test of your maturity and ability to be self-sufficient rather than dependant. The family will lean on you now, and you will be a rock. In dealing with your own personal emotions, this is a time to be strong and self-contained rather than expressing your feelings for all to see. Emotions come and go, as do trials in life, and the strong individual weathers ups and downs with equanimity. You can build up strong foundations in your home now; all this requires is hard work and determination. This is a period when you grow up and conquer immaturity.

Over-emotional times

You can expect an expansion in your home and family life in the period from January 2017 to December 2017 which can arise from home improvements or moving, or from new people in the local or international environment, or simply from a new period of emotional growth that requires considerable adjustment. Things can get a bit much, or you can bite off more than you can chew, and this in turn results in emotional states that tend to affect your judgment. To avoid misjudgment in this period, especially through over expansion, it is important to understand that feelings come and go, and they should not alone form the basis of actions. You can get particularly worked up about injustice, and there may be one issue in particular that you find especially unfair. But perhaps you have just outgrown a situation that would have restricted you anyway. It is time to move on and grow.

This section maps out the timing and intensity of influences in your life that absorb your interest on a daily level, profoundly affecting everything, from your work to your family life. These influences constitute your emotional growth during the course of the year, and the main themes are:

- a time of upheaval or restructuring in the home and family. This can be an intense and exhausting process which requires ejecting the cuckoo from the nest.
- a liberation of your feelings, as conscious awareness of past habits leads to the desire for less dependence and more freedom. A move or long-distance commuting is possible.
- a time when you cultivate self-reliance and work hard to build a mature emotional life, which enables you to provide a shoulder for others to lean on.
- a time when you integrate with others and adopt a helpful attitude, and work on purifying your working life and daily habits.
- a time of transition when you withdraw from a hectic social life and seek inner nourishment through creative and spiritual practice.

Mental Development

EXPRESSING CREATIVE TALENTS

Gaining skills through education and other forms of training is a major ingredient for success, both professionally and in relationships. Through developing your communication talents you can make contacts and build networks which facilitate progress.

With Mercury in your birth chart in Cancer and in the 9th House this relates to your deep and intuitive mental sensitivity, which takes you on many intellectual journeys as you seek to widen the scope of your mind.

During the age of 36 your mental focus is on creative self-expression. This is the time to take center stage and enlighten and entertain others with your inventive abilities. Thoughts dwell on children and love – these are areas you celebrate in word and deed.

Thoughts center on relationships, particularly of a romantic nature. There is a youthful and playful feeling about love relationships. At the same time you learn a great deal about what attracts you, and about your tastes in general.

You are empowered by the following.

This is a time when you have a breakthrough in communication and establish contact with someone or something that links your past with your future. Involvement in the collective or with a large group evokes your role as a spokesperson or facilitator. You tunnel through to new environments establishing surprising links between opposing sides.

In this process you need to work out a balance between how much of your own resources need to be used, and how much you can draw on the resources of others.

Some factors help.

This is a very innovative year for you mentally. You can travel to distant climes and have contact with exotic people and languages. You are in a position to discover short cuts and use new technology to reach out to others. You function efficiently at high gear.

You learn how to discipline yourself mentally structure and plan communication and education interests. This is an excellent time for the prudent management of business and for the organization of schedules.

With a lack of confidence in projecting yourself creatively and in connection with loved ones, you need to work hard on your image.

The influences described below will bring additional opportunities and challenges in the field of communication. By rising to educational challenges and improving communication skills, you can add to your skills and capabilities.

Blossoming of imagination

In this period your mind and thinking are sensitized in subtle ways. Music and the arts, creative thinking and imagery, advertising and film can all be areas of interest that bewitch your imagination and enrich your life. If however your daily work is repetitive and routine, you will be afflicted by boredom and a longing for mental and spiritual nourishment. It can be difficult to relate to everyday realities, and you may wish yourself far away. You may prefer to embrace illusions rather than deal with truths, even to the extent of getting enmeshed in fabrications. You can maintain crystal clarity if you learn how to use the power of visualization and meditation, and if there is a writer or poet hidden inside of you, then now is the time to express it. This period, which stems from a trend that lasts from April 2016 to February 2020, makes you aware of what is missing in life that would be really rewarding.

Expansion of contacts and mental skills

The period from October 2017 to October 2018 is a time of success for you in all your mental endeavors, and this is a major contributing factor to personal happiness and satisfaction. Travel is favored, and brings extraordinary pleasures. Great teachers appear and expand the boundaries of your understanding. You make progress in leaps and bounds. Anything to do with foreign cultures and languages is crowned with success. Your knowledge base and intellectual understanding peak, and people are eager to hear what you have learned. Relationships with people of like mind, and true partnerships, are favored at this time, with agreement easily being reached on a shared agenda.

Your mental evolution is a product of the people you encounter during your life, who evoke certain qualities in you, as well as your contact with institutions of learning and educational media. The lessons you learn give depth and breadth to your personal message to the world. This year new opportunities arise.

Last year the following influence peaked, but it still has a very important effect at the age of 36. You are still digesting the changes in this area, and beginning to integrate them in your life.

Propagating healing methods

The period around May 2017 is a time when you are able to channel and communicate some unusual and original ideas to help and heal. By utilizing groundbreaking techniques arrived at through a process of rational analysis, and using the technology at hand, you are able to systematize processes for universal benefit. You may encounter a maverick type at this time who has a unique knowledge but who integrates poorly with society. This is an excellent time for teaching and learning about health and healing, perhaps because of a sibling or friend who has a concrete problem to deal with. This can be part of a mental development process that has its parallel around September 2017.

Last year the following influence peaked, but it still has a very important effect at the age of 36. You are still digesting the changes in this area, and beginning to integrate them in your life.

Irrational thinking

The time around May 2017 is a period when your mind meets circumstances which it cannot fathom. On the one hand this can bring a spiritual initiation and the discovery of creative non-rational talents. But on the other hand you can be led astray by hopes and dreams without any thoughtful appreciation of the consequences. Communication just does not function as you would like – it is like the meeting of man and whale. Use your intuition to tune in to the unspoken message – remember that body language and voice tone actually account for 90% of the spoken message. Take care when making decisions – you may regret them. You encounter people who don't say exactly what they mean, but just hint and suggest. Or even simply lie. Similarly you may also embroider the truth or believe blindly in fantasy. Take heed, or you will be cheated. You gain much knowledge from spiritual teachings, and for interests related to film, music and poetry. This can be part of a mental development process that has its parallel around February 2017 .

The influences described in this section challenge you to develop intellectually, socially and in relation to others. Of all these influences, in terms of the enhancement and development of your mental skills the most significant will be:

- a time of fertile mental growth when a longing for a life beyond routine evokes creative and spiritual mental qualities.
- a time when you have the great good fortune to expand your sphere of interest through travel, a mentor, or study.
- a time when you can learn and apply alternative methods for healing and training.
- you encounter deception and smokescreens, but develop great powers of intuition and fantasy.
- development of your ability to think creatively and entertain and inspire others with your ideas.

Values, Love and Relationships

LOVE AND LIBERATION

Your need for relationship is very much dependant on your tastes, and early family experiences of bonding. These factors determine whether you feel attraction or not, or whether you are simply indifferent. People of similar tastes are instinctively attracted to you, as you are to them, and this is the basis of personal harmony in your relationships.

With Venus in your birth chart in Leo and in the 11th House this relates to your need to respect and be respected in love, and to be warm and romantic, which you will express particularly in group environments and in your friendships.

In relationship matters there may be a dilemma of choice during the age of 36. There are a number of options for you in matters of the heart, and you certainly have the talent and ability to reach out to a varied assortment of people. This is a year to cultivate the art of conversation and communication. Mastery of the spoken and written word, and the ability to express yourself with style, help you make contact between heart and mind.

You will find that the focus of relationships is greatly apparent in your interaction with groups, friends and associations, where your role is to create harmony and balance. Friends you make during the course of the year will be a blessing to your life, as you will to theirs. A friendship may make a slow transition into a romantic bond. Partner's children can bring a blessing into your life.

Romantic dreams are one thing, reality is another. If you allow your dreams to take control, you will encounter disappointment, so don't get led astray by fantasy when the voice of experience tells you different. If there is some sadness in a relationship, it makes you aware of how precious love is in the brief interlude of a human lifetime.

Certain challenges arise.

Love brings frustrations, and it seems that you neither get the affection you desire, nor the approval you need. Keep expectations low – this is a time when you are being tested. Believe in yourself – this is just a stage you are going through to develop strength of character and self-sufficiency.

Some factors help.

Some areas of your life are blessed with extreme good fortune. This can be in connection with romance, when travel and cultural awakening bring you in contact with people who expand your intellectual horizons. Also from an educational and professional view there may be awards and rewards.

This will be expressed in your domestic life, through meaningful events in the home and family, which expand your influence.

There are other major changes affecting relationships and values at this time, and the influences described below will bring opportunities to modify your need for others, and ultimately develop better ways of relating authentically.

Electric attraction

You now enter a period of social change inspired by a need to meet exciting and unconventional people who can liberate you from the limitations of old social pressures, and bonds that are going nowhere. This can bring international travel as well as meetings with people from abroad, fringe groups, and indeed anybody who brings a breath of fresh air into your life. If you are in a stable relationship, you need more space to meet friends and socialize. If you are looking for love, you will find it, but the bond is characterized by travel and separation... extremely exciting when it is on, but so highly charged there are periods when it needs to be turned off. The purpose of love at this time is to liberate your heart and become conscious of the fact that true love gives freedom, not ownership. Lovers will reinforce this point by maintaining independence. You are attracted to people from other cultures, age groups and nations because of the need to immerse yourself in new ways of relating. This trend lasts from April 2017 to March 2020 and brings a new vibrancy into your life.

Self-reliance in relationships

In the period from January 2017 to November 2018 you develop a certain self-sufficiency in relationships, learning that love must be given from a position of strength, not need or dependence. If you feel dissatisfied or rejected at this time, it is part of a development process that requires taking responsibility for your emotional needs. The more you ask from others, the less appreciated you will be. The more you give, the more you will be loved. If relationships cannot stand the test of time now, you have the determination to go it alone, though this is also a good time to meet someone, perhaps an older person, and make a commitment. Financially this may not be a time when money is plentiful, but it is an excellent time for creating the conditions for wealth through economic planning and restraint.

Good fortune in love

There is a period of success for you both as regards your economy and your relationships from December 2016 to November 2017, and this brings a blossoming of confidence about your attractiveness and value as a person. If you are looking for romance, you will surely find it – especially if you travel to a romantic place. This is a good time for relationships with people from cultures you admire. You are particularly attracted to wise and cultured people who can teach you something. Generally you can afford to expand, spend more and really appreciate what life has to offer. Now is the time to both harvest and enjoy the fruits of efforts that you have made in the past, and to generously share your good fortune with those you love.

Quite apart from the specific changes that come at the age of 36, you now reach a stage in the process of your evolution in terms of relationship that enables you to integrate new values in your life through encounters with individuals or groups where you form a bond of one sort or another.

During the course of the year after this one there is an important influence which you are very likely to feel already during the course of this year. Perhaps nothing happens right now, but you will sense the following theme developing, even if it is early days:

Relationship misunderstanding

Around October 2018 it seems that no matter how you express yourself, you cannot share your values with someone who in reality simply does not embrace the same values as you. There can therefore be fundamental differences of view, and these differences can have repercussions both financially and in family relationships – particularly for example with a sister. Care needs to be taken because you can be outsmarted in discussions about material things, intellectual property or social bonds. Advisors may not be able to protect your assets. Your resources should not be squandered. Listen to your heart to find what is really of value to you – don't get sidetracked by clever persuasion. This is also a time when you can easily be led astray romantically and several choices may be open to you.

The influences described in this section will all have a significant effect on the way you relate to the world. In terms of your material values and matters of love, the most important of all these influences will be:

- a time when you seek new social pastures that bring cultural excitement and romantic stimulation i what turns out to be a renewal of values and taste.
- a time when you develop self-reliance in your relationships, and learn to look after yourself rather than be dependant on others for appreciation or financial support.
- a time when you can enjoy the good life. Experiences with friends and lovers, especially when traveling or experiencing culture, boost your confidence and self-worth
- an experience of not being able to persuade another of values that are crucial to you.
- choices in relationship and the development of refined modes of expression.

Sex, work, willpower and assertion

OVERCOMING LIMITATIONS

Nothing is achieved in life without the force and determination to go for what you want. There are battles to be won and obstacles to be overcome, and this means being able to assert yourself, and to mobilize your courage to face challenges and overcome resistance.

With Mars in your birth chart in Cancer and in the 9th House this relates to your fierce protective instincts and aggressive sensitivity, and this manifests as an energetic urge to propagate your views, and explore the world.

As regards personal drive the age of 36 is a year when you are feeling confident and proud, and this in turn prompts you to be more creative and put yourself on the line. With charisma levels high, you are easily involved in romantic episodes.

Your energy and will are made manifest through your whole style and character. When you enter the room you create an aura of decisiveness and power, though you may be a little aggressive or pushy too. In your view it is better to do battle than to retreat, which can make you a bit accident prone. It can also bring you victory.

This is a year when an irrepressible determination and drive inspires you to take up the flag and charge. You assert leadership qualities but come into conflict with authority through impetuosity. Working with a trusty lieutenant is a good idea.

Certain challenges arise.

Impulsive behavior leads to immediate change that can reorientate the way you work. You are restless and unwilling to take any orders. Your unconscious agenda may be to get fired. What would inspire you is to be as free as possible and to work with exciting people in exciting environments.

Some factors help.

Knowing where you have been wounded in the past, you use the skills you have painstakingly acquired to help and heal both yourself and others. This is a time to educate others in the art of self help and defense.

There are other powerful influences at this time, which bring both challenges to your autonomy and independence, and opportunities for leadership and self assertion. The influences described below bring out your survival abilities and evoke a fighting spirit that can ultimately empower you.

Endurance trials

The period from March 2017 to December 2018 is a testing time in connection with work projects that you have been building upon for some time. If you want things to turn the corner now, you have to put in extra hours, and even so there can be delays and obstacles. Male authorities in particular can stand in your way – they are simply not motivated to make life easy for you. By gritting your teeth and overcoming each challenge as it arises, you build up the inner strength to win through in the end. Your biggest enemy may just be your own lack of confidence or unwillingness to compete, and this can affect more personal issues too, like your sex life. This is just a passing phase which ultimately serves to strengthen your willpower and determination, so don't lose courage. This is also a time when you can learn to rein in your own desires and control any tendency you may have to be dominating or inconsiderate. When you have your own drives under control, you will be able to focus them successfully to achieve results.

Believing you can do it

The period from September 2017 to August 2018 is a time when you are full of courage and enthusiasm, and even if there are delays and setbacks, you plunge on undeterred. There is the spirit of the pioneer infusing your being; you see the distant horizon and spur on your horse to reach it as soon as possible. With such an undaunted spirit, success comes easily for you, and nobody has any desire to stand in your way. You are convinced about what is right – for you and probably for others too. Neither are you afraid to use your persuasive powers to get what you want. This leads to an expansion of your influence and greater leadership prowess. The competitive spirit is aroused; physically this can bring an interest in travel and sports, intellectually you want to learn more, debate, and excel at what you do.

The influences described in this section will bring changes in the way you strive for achievement. Of the many influences affecting your energy, sexuality and assertiveness this year the main areas to be aware of are:

- a time when there are many trials of endurance which will test your will and ultimately make you stronger and more focused.
- a time of excitement and adventure when you vigorously expand your horizons and have undaunted confidence in succeeding at what you do.
- a time when you are confident enough to go out and conquer the world and win recognition.

Collective trends

PRACTICAL METHODS FOR DEALING WITH ANXIETY

The influences mentioned so far in this analysis have an effect on your psychological evolution and fate which is strictly personal. There are other influences on your life based on your relationship to the collective, which can be just as exciting and stimulating for you, even though they may not evoke dramatic personal change.

The will to transform

The period February 2016 to December 2017 is a time of empowerment. In one way or another you have to deal with power in society. You encounter organizations or institutions with strong rules or ideologies, and you have to learn the ropes. There is every indication that you handle these forces well, and you yourself can begin to integrate an aura of power and authority. This is an inner process too; you confront inner unconscious forces at this time, and learn to structure and channel them to achieve your goals. What is crucial to understand are destructive psychological mechanisms which are activated when there is a threat to those things you are deeply attached to. You have access to amazing concentration powers and extreme self-discipline, which help you get unconscious forces under control.

Dreams and limitations

During a period that will last February 2016 to December 2017 you will grow to realize that limitations that are placed on unrealistic dreams can actually be useful, in that they save you from folly. There may be circumstances in your life that are not perfect, and you may long for something more ideal, but it can be constructive for you to count your blessings. What works well at this time is to structure your inner life through spiritual practice, and to help those less fortunate than yourself through social service. It is better to confront reality rather than to flee from it. Those things that cannot be changed can be transformed if you nurture an accepting attitude and the wisdom of realizing that in comparison to many beings, your situation is in fact relatively fortunate. If you do have a creative vision for the future, this might be the time to work on establishing the right foundations.

Intense belief

You gain deep insight into psychological issues in the period November 2016 to October 2017. The most primitive urges and unconscious drives surface, and in this way you learn a lot about the collective forces that are a part of you and your generation. At the same time you can get carried away by an idea, and you must take care that this does not become an obsession. Fanatical beliefs and convictions will not stand the test of time. Avoid getting taken over by any one belief, and don't be afraid of dropping opinions that are no longer relevant for you. Although there is promise of greatness at this time, pitfalls loom large if you become over-intense and lose perspective.

During the age of 36 you are in a phase of your personal evolution when all that has been built up in previous decades is called into question, because there is a sense that it can no longer fulfill your destiny. You may go through the motions, but the results will reflect the waning energy that you invest. You may cast about for something new to bring vitality and inspiration, but there will be many false starts. Still, the seed of a new future is discovered at this time, though it is early days. The sense of dissolution that characterizes this period moves you to turn within and consider the constant change and transience of human life, and this in turn brings spiritual growth and insights.

Seen from another viewpoint, there is a purposeful evolution in your life, and each of the events that arise can be seen as milestones on the journey of your soul. There are some fields of your experience which you are all too familiar with, and perhaps you need to relinquish your attachment to them. Other areas of experience present new and interesting challenges for you soul, and require total immersion.

The primary evolutionary focus in the year is on changes in the social scene that may mean getting involved with new people in new environments. Crises with friends can lead to a social realignment and new inspiration through contact with people who have an inspiring vision for the future. It pays off to put your own creative agenda on hold, and to ask yourself how you can be useful on a larger scale by promoting shared visions.

The collective influences described above are very much related to the generation of which you are a part, and opportunities now arise to capitalize on trends that your generation will resonate to. The most important of these are:

- a time when you strive to adjust to powerful authorities who may wish you well, but who demand some kind of transformation of your life structure.
- a time when there are disappointments that teach you to accept realities, avoid escapism and work on a socially responsible projects.
- a time when you gain a deep insight into the hidden psychological factors that unconsciously motivate you. Beware of obsessions.

The influences described in this report are based on planetary cycles, transits of the outer planets and progressions of the inner planets in an integrated description which also takes into account the major factors in your birth horoscope. Thousands of factors are taken into consideration, making this report completely unique to you for the next twelve months. Rather than make specific predictions, we have tried to describe how you can make the most out of the many changes that are taking place. By defining what you really want, and going for it, you can weather the storms and currents described in this report and come safely to the destination that you are aiming for. It is in this context that the major events of this year should be seen.

Some of the themes from this year will continue into the next year, and some completely new themes will arise. Looking at the three most important events at the age of 37 you can expect change in the following areas:

There are a number of unpredictable developments that shake you up and make you aware of limiting dependencies. Relocation or much travel can unsettle your domestic life, but you learn to travel light, without carrying the heavy weight of the past on your shoulders.

After a period when you have worked on improving communication and education, your focus moves to establishing a secure family base. This involves structural changes in the home and a deeper awareness of the emotional dependencies you have inherited from parents and ancestors.

There are meetings with people on a personal or professional level, whose ideas about what is of value differ completely from yours. You resist being led astray by persuasive arguments that do not accord with your values.

These events - both good and bad - can be seen as a treasure chest for the personal journey of your soul. Every event that arises has meaning for you and is a result and consequence of previous actions. If you are able to see the challenges that arise as opportunities for constructive change, then your growth will be rapid, and you will be able to truly appreciate and enjoy the many positive events that also arise during the course of your year.
