MINIREPORT FOR YOUR CURRENT YEAR

Felicia: September 20, 1988

Report for September 20, 2017 to September 20, 2018

Dear Felicia,

Thank you for ordering your Year Ahead report, which I hope will help you to understand the harmony between yourself and the universe and enable you to initiate the changes you want in life.

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

The age of 29 is a time when much of what you have achieved comes up for revision. Life has come full circle, lessons have been learned, experiences harvested. The big question now is: how much of your achievement was geared to satisfying the demands of parents and society, however unconsciously, and how much is an expression of who you are as a unique individual? You have a unique perspective on your life now, and you can gain an insight and understanding that will enable you stake out a future for yourself. The fulfillment that you have worked so hard for in your twenties may still be eluding you, and if this is the case, now is the time to define what you want to achieve in your life, and not what other people want you to achieve. What you decide now is crucial, and will form the framework for your thirties. Life is too short to spend even one more year going on a path that does not satisfy you. Challenges now have a lot to do with your opinions and views about overall issues in life, which tend to get rigid or dogmatic with age. Learning to be open to new ideas from other people is the key to intellectual flexibility, and you would be wise to avoid ideological confrontation, instead training yourself to express powerful ideas in a convincing manner. These challenges have a lot to do with a latent insecurity that you feel in establishing a warm and welcoming environment. A heavy atmosphere in childhood, and the sense that the lid was kept on family skeletons, makes you feel vulnerable about opening up emotionally, though this is a prerequisite for establishing a happy family life. Don't be afraid to radically transform your life, whatever changes now realigns you with your fate, and brings the best conditions for future growth.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period of your life the major challenges are in connection with home, family and your foundations. This influence started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. Many emotional issues come to the fore at this time as your attention is drawn to problems and obstacles at home that you need to work on and improve. Baggage from your early upbringing stands in the way of intimacy, and this is experienced as emotional pressure at home. It seems like the walls are closing in around you, but if you put your mind to it you can make constructive changes in the home environment that will provide you with a stable base for the future. Once you have established strong foundations - and you will - you can proceed to an outgoing and creative phase in your life.

In this period of your life, much has fallen into place in the home and family environment, and there is a sense that you have put down roots and created solid foundations for future growth. A transition now takes place which puts the focus on your creative potential, and you start to ask yourself serious questions about your capabilities, and when you are going to do something concrete about self-expression. These new influences start growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. You sense the challenge in all areas where you are likely to be judged - children, attracting lovers, performing - and you need to overcome a certain lack of confidence and put your self on the line. To enjoy life to the full you need to give yourself to the full, and recognition comes when you do this without holding back.

Opportunities for Success

Having gained tremendous insight into the direction your life in the period, a new period is ushered in from September - 2016 to October - 2017 when the focus moves to your earning capacity. You gain a better understanding as to what it takes to strengthen your economy, and what assets you need to develop. This understanding leads to increased personal resources and a broadening of your economic base, which will provide the foundation for increased growth.

Once you have learned how to capitalize on your unique resources and gain confidence and self-assurance, you need to reach out to others between October - 2017 to November - 2018. This leads to travel and an expansion of your skills educationally. This is a great year to widen your network of contacts. Through increased communication on all levels, you learn how to make sure-footed progress.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 29. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- Your heart is opened and there is a growing desire for both romantic satisfaction and material comfort. Appetites are strong - so strong that they can lead you astray. Ethical principles and moral consideration tend to recede into the background when desires rule.
- You experience setbacks and trials of endurance when trying to achieve your goals - particularly in your dealings with male authorities. By steeling your will to overcome these challenges, you develop the necessary muscle to win through with your agenda.
- There is structural change, which affects aspects of your professional and personal life that have grown rigid and inimical to growth. The time has come to create more space and freedom, liberating yourself from sterile duties and building an inspiring future.
