Report for July 04, 2017 to July 04, 2018

Dear Allen,

Thank you for ordering your Year Ahead report, which I hope will help you to understand the harmony between yourself and the universe and enable you to initiate the changes you want in life.

Our lives are formed from the decisions we make. Knowing when to accept an invitation, or call someone you are attracted to, or accept that new career opportunity that has come your way, can mean the difference between extraordinary success and failure. Read on and prepare yourself for a great journey...

The Significance of your Age

You are in full swing during the course of your 62nd year making changes in your life to accord with your vision of the future. You are not interested in being pigeonholed by the system - on the contrary you feel that you cannot waste this opportunity to pursue interests that are intensely personal and unique to you. For you and your generation there is a willingness to experiment with family structure and belonging, and you are inclined to form untraditional family groups in unusual settings. Your particular way of expressing your uniqueness in this respect is through a pronounced personal projection of individuality and even idiosyncrasy. You inspire others through being different, but often feel like an outsider. There is a sense that you have never had quite as much freedom to decide the future as you have now, and you can make the most of it by breaking out of the structures at work and home that prevent you from spreading your wings. This is not a time for building up and consolidating - it is rather a time to experiment with different lifestyles that you can build on later.

The Challenges Ahead

The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

In this period the major challenges lie in your working life, which probably needs to be made more efficient through streamlining working methods and improving interaction with colleagues. Health-wise too, this is an excellent time for working on self-improvement. This influence started growing around January - 2015 and will ebb out around December - 2017. You will probably encounter considerable frustration in your dealings with people in the working environment, and this process is designed to enhance your ability to compromise and to fit in for the good of the whole. To be happy at work now you need to work hard and have a plan. You do not have to have a subordinate role, if you are willing to shoulder responsibility. But you do not have to stick at a job which is beneath you either. Establish your credentials, work hard and advance.

In this period of your life there is a transition in your dealings with people, as you move from interacting with people on a practical level in connection with your work and daily life, to actually learning how to deal with partners on a one to one basis. This new influence starts growing around December - 2017 and will ebb out around March - 2020. It is the beginning of an outgoing epoch in your life; the big test comes in how you live up to partnership responsibilities. There are major challenges, demands are made on you, and you have to on the one hand resist giving others the blame for your issues, whilst on the other you need to establish limits to what you are prepared to accept in a relationship. You have to work at partnership now and make a commitment, though it is no use expending any more time on hopeless relationships. What you start now can last a long time.

Opportunities for Success

Having developed your education and communication skills, and widened your network of contacts through travel, there is an urge to expand your influence and potential on the home front between September - 2016 and October - 2017. This brings insight and good fortune connected with property and family. At this time you broaden your emotional foundations, partly because you gain understanding of the influence of your upbringing, and partly because you are curious to learn more about how to create a nurturing and stimulating environment for yourself and those near to you.

After having built up comfortable circumstances in your domestic life, what is important for you between October - 2017 and November - 2018 is to appreciate the fruits of having a satisfying base, so that you can express yourself through creative activity and enjoy the art of living. Expansion and satisfaction come from living life to the full - through sport, festivity, love, children and romance. This is the time to fully be yourself without reservations or doubt. Larger than life characters will show you how through encouraging you to celebrate existence.

Crucial Issues This Year

As you mature, acquire new resources and meet and overcome the challenges that present themselves, the stage is set for a series of developments and opportunities during the age of 62. Three very important issues that make this year special are:

- A wonderful period of growth, spiritual awareness and awakening of compassion, perhaps because you are swept up in an inspiring collective event, or through the influence of a spiritual mentor, music, film or art. You attune to the rewards within your own mind.
- A series of challenges in relation to communication at work and at home, travel or project delays and other frustrations, slows you down and forces you to concentrate on learning basic skills and attending to detail. Think positive rather than succumbing to worry.
- Unpredictable events raise your adrenal levels and bring out the fighting spirit in the coming months, making you more inclined to take considerable risks. Whilst the samurai spirit is awakened, you may provoke others unnecessarily.
